Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive

relief

- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction is divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE
UNLAWFUL DEADLINES DUE TO PENDING
MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of
today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and therefore requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines,
and
3. Acknowledge that
Magistrate Judge
Lehrburger’s continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.

4. The fact that the Clerk
Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for
to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

“The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance

—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case
involved in the appeal.”
— Griggs v. Provident
Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58
(1982). “Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district
court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case
involved in the appeal.”
— United States v.
Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247,
251 (2d Cir. 1996).
Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed
or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE
LEHRBURGER’S
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate Judge
Lehrburger’s attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio, but,
in the context of Plaintiff’s allegations and filings,
reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional
rights.
Moreover, this Court’s
prior order (Dkt. 89)
confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.
Such conduct risks
violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against
rights),
- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights
under color of law),
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512
(witness or litigant
intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,
- Strike the May 8, 2025
and May 13, 2025
deadlines as unlawful,
- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of
mandamus.

ACTION BY MAGISTRATE JUDGE

I. INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE
LEHRBURGER
HAS NO
STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO PRESIDE OVER

DISPOSITIVE
MOTIONS
WITHOUT CONSENT OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction is divested.”

AND STRIKE
UNLAWFUL
PENDING
MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of
today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals
for the Second Circuit, and therefore
requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines, and
3. Acknowledge that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.

4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

“The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996).

Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER’S CONTINUED INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff's allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights.

Moreover, this Court's prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),

- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights under color of law),

- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,
- Strike the May 8, 2025 and May 13, 2025 deadlines as unlawful,
- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

I.
INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE
LEHRBURGER
HAS NO
STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO
DISPOSITIVE
WITHOUT
REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C.
§ 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge
may not determine or issue
dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for
relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary
judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action

- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING

APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in *Griggs v.
Provident
Consumer
Discount Co.*, 459
U.S. 56 (1982), a district court
is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court
is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— *United States
v. Rodgers*, 101
F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge's authority ends where
divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE
UNLAWFUL
PENDING
MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of
today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and therefore requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines, and

3. Acknowledge that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.

4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

"The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal."

— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58 (1982). "Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal."

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996). Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE

CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT

Magistrate Judge
Lehrburger's attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio, but,

in the context of Plaintiff's
allegations and filings,
reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review
and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional
rights.

Moreover, this Court's prior order (Dkt. 89)
confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution,
and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks
violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against
rights),

- 18 U.S.C. § 242
(deprivation of rights
under color of law),

- 18 U.S.C. § 1512
(witness or litigant
intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that
the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this
matter,

- Strike the May 8, 2025
and May 13, 2025
deadlines as unlawful,

- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Judge Cronan and Judge Lehrburger—

Motion to for a televised hearing w/ subpoena UFT leadership, Randi Weingarten, Judge Engelmayer, AUSA Karamigios, AUSA Bensing, AUSA Gold, the AUSA of July 20, 2021, Jamie Santana, Susan Kellman, Judge Chief Taylor-Swain, Judge Seibel, the entire DOI staff, Moode of NYC Corp Counsel, Laura Minicucci, Mr. Brown of the UFT, ALJ Blassman, ALJ Donnelly, Diamond of Diamond, Daniel Perez, Clerk Wolfe, Clerks of the 2d Cir, Clerks of SDNY Pro Se intake, Clerks of EDNY, Clerk for Judge Karom (she didn't give her name—have the audio), DOI (Strauber, fat fuck, Peterson)

Judge Lehrburger started with frivolous and vexatious---as this is what Diamond said after a few emails and calls ...it was miracle he changed his mind

Randi does not want the truth to come out

Reason to why I didn't follow orders....Judge Lehrburger was committing a crime for Randi Weingarten and the UFT under 18 USC § 371

Please tell me, the timeframe that I have and what the way to obtain documents that AUSA Karamigios and Ms. Strauber as know that she owed me without Judge Engelmayer's order and it is a crime under 18 USC § 641I asked this of Judge Frank and you said it frivolous and vexatious ...but Judge Lehrburger is not being bribed.. LMFAO, he wants people that Randi didn't fucking but he's 18 USC § 641

This is beyond shit show now .....he believes NO ONE believe would that Randi didn't bribed hi=m ...I want the fucking drugs he's on because I would be beyond lala land

Please me give the name and number of your because that shit is REALLY FUCKING good

I cant make this shit up ...he believes that NO ONE ...NO ONE will believe that Randi bribe him to conceal her criminal

Come on dude, please give me that name and number to your drug deal because you get shit that is real .....or you are TRULY delusional

If granted, then I have to go and listen to the AUSAs and get their names. No need to listen if you are get going to state "frivolous and vexatiou" On Wednesday, April 30, 2025 at 01:01:58 PM EDT, lucio celli <luciocelli123@yahoo.com> wrote:

Mr. Delaney

Yes, i did want to to file a complaint because ALJ Donnelly lied about PERB cannot do anything about Judge Engelmayer's order because PERB doesnt enforce 3020a procedures because it has nothign to do with the Taylor

Mr. Brown and Ms. Faith were there....either of them said anythign and I caught ALJ in a lie ....as Taylor law and 3020a both mention it

DUE TO LACK OF JURISDICTION
AND UNAUTHORIZED ACTION BY MAGISTRATE JUDGE

I. INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE
LEHRBURGER
HAS NO
STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO PRESIDE OVER DISPOSITIVE
WITHOUT CONSENT OR
REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate

judge.

Moreover,
under 28 U.S.C.
§ 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

---

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in *Griggs v.
Provident
Consumer
Discount Co.*, 459
U.S. 56 (1982), a district court
is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted
uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction is divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE
UNLAWFUL DEADLINES DUE TO PENDING
MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of
today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals
for the Second Circuit, and therefore
requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines, and
3. Acknowledge that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.
4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT
JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that
a mandamus petition is filed, the district
court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

“The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance
—it confers
jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control
over those aspects of the case
involved in the appeal.”

— Griggs v. Provident
Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58
(1982). “Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district
court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case
involved in the appeal.”

— United States v.
Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247,
251 (2d Cir. 1996).
Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed
or enforce any deadlines
that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE
LEHRBURGER’S
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate Judge
Lehrburger’s attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio, but,
in the context of Plaintiff’s
allegations and filings,
reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review
and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional

rights.

Moreover, this Court's prior order (Dkt. 89)
confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution,
and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks
violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against
rights),

- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights
under color of law),

- 18 U.S.C. § 1512
(witness or litigant
intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that
the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this
matter,

- Strike the May 8, 2025
and May 13, 2025
deadlines as unlawful,

- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the

appellate court
has ruled on Plaintiff's pending
writ of mandamus.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Re: Standing and Urgent Request for Review of Judicial, Agency, and Union Misconduct Related to Randi Weingarten, the UFT, and the Suppression of Student and Teacher Rights—but Your Honor is not misusing his office for Randi (side-eyes)

---

Dear Magistrate Judge Lehrburger,

To the Honorable Judges Walton, Gallagher, Engelmayer, Magistrate Lehrburger, the Office for Access to Justice and Grand Leech, Randi Weingarten:

This letter supplements my prior communications and is submitted to formally present further evidence and legal grounds for immediate intervention regarding the criminal, retaliatory, and unconstitutional actions of Ms. Randi Weingarten and the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

As detailed previously, I possess standing as a whistleblower and harmed party in multiple proceedings concerning violations of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), retaliation for protected activity, obstruction of federal disciplinary proceedings under Education Law § 3020-a, and suppression of judicial remedies through misuse of judicial office and selective non-enforcement of existing orders. Additional and urgent facts follow:

As requested, I am also raising the matter of federal agency interference-18 USC §371 by Randi Weingarten and the UFT, which implicates both the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and Assistant U.S. Attorneys in the Eastern District of New York. Specifically:

- Information documenting IDEA violations and workplace discrimination was submitted to Ms. Diamond at the EEOC, including proof of retaliatory targeting and union complicity. However, Ms. Weingarten and the UFT criminally interfered with the EEOC's investigation, obstructing the process and shielding the union from exposure.
- Despite having sufficient knowledge, neither Ms. Diamond nor any EEOC representative notified the U.S. Department of Justice, thereby creating a material breach in the proper investigatory and prosecutorial pipeline. This obstruction further empowered the UFT and Weingarten to retaliate with impunity.

- This will highlight the shit show
- Mr. Harry Lirtman informed the NYSED of IEP violation of IEP
  - He was terminated for such conduct with the fact that he audio-recorded the principal telling him that she was firing him because he informed the state of such violating
  - The UFT informed him that they could do anything—which is a lie—as there are arbitration decisions showing that the UFT used to protect such conduct, it is required by Supreme Court decision, and statute stating that it is incorporated into CBA—I cited that months ago
  - After the NYSED left, the principal told the entire IEP team to change the IEPs and lie to the parents as the IEPs had to meet the needs of the budget and not the students' needs
  - I placed this all into an email and I was called into the office and threatened because what we were doing was illegal
  - The UFT knew this and allowed the principal to retaliate against me
- Judge Victor Marrero, in his review of my pleadings, was not presented with the full scope of the IEP violations I reported; however, documentary evidence and third-party statements—especially from Ms. Betsy Combier—make clear that the UFT, under Ms. Weingarten's direction, actively collaborated with the City of New York to deny students with disabilities their mandated supports. FOIL responses regarding Ms. Combier's communications substantiate the allegations in my complaint and demonstrate that this practice was long-standing and institutionally protected.
- Moreover, as it pertains to civil rights and systemic collusion with the NYC by the UFT: teachers of color—particularly Black teachers—were referred to as “monkeys” ...questions I was left with
  - When I read on the docket about this topic, I am left with questions if these teachers were told the same stupidity that the UFT states to everyone, as they no longer act in the interest of their membership but one that is found in RICO cases—where union leadership seek sweetheart deals as Combier said (never given to me in discovery) that the City was out to terminate Randi Weingarten and is the reason she agreed to cover up the IEP whistling blowing by teachers.
  - I wondered if the UFT told these teachers what they to Mr. Harry Lirtman of NYSED informed me that this was not an isolated incident,
  - and that UFT officials had long tolerated or ignored such abuses. The retaliatory nature of this racist conduct and the lack of any grievance processing or union objection speaks to a pattern of institutional discrimination and dereliction.
- The docket entries from multiple proceedings confirm this racialized misconduct and retaliation, but neither the AUSAs assigned in the EDNY nor the EEOC's designated officer (Ms. Diamond) took meaningful action. Their omissions and collusion now warrant immediate disciplinary referral, and potentially, removal under governing ethical and statutory rules.

To date, I have submitted detailed pleadings documenting these violations. Judge Engelmayer has declined to intervene, and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger has taken repeated steps to suppress adjudication of Ms. Weingarten's conduct, despite overwhelming evidence of her complicity in criminal and retaliatory behavior—against me, against students with disabilities, and against minority educators.

Therefore, I respectfully renew my requests as follows:

1. That the Office for Access to Justice immediately open a formal inquiry into the failure of the EEOC and AUSAs in the EDNY to prosecute or report criminal conduct interfering with a federal investigation because Randi Weingarten with the UFT leadership can be terminated for 18 USC § 666;
2. That Magistrate Judge Lehrburger be recused and investigated under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980 for facilitating retaliatory suppression and interfering with the lawful application of § 3020-a and for the state not fully obtain criminal evidence of Randi Weingarten and the UFT Leadership;
3. The US Dept of Edu and Pres Trump with AG Bondi's permission have the right revoke federal funds from New York City, as they misused federal funds to protect Randi Weingarten and the UFT Leadership harm children
4. That the termination proceedings against Ms. Weingarten be ordered to proceed without further interference by politically influenced judicial officers or conflicted AUSAs;
5. Pres Trump has the right to terminate any nonpolitical personnel who misuse their position for the personal gains of mob group, like that of the Cash Cow Milking Leeches with their queen—the Grand Leech, Randi Weingarten

<!--[if !supportLists]-->A. <!--[endif]-->Therefore, Diamond, Bensing, Karamigios and so are on that type of list because they interference in his agency and under the Taking Care Clause, he has such a right

6. That an external monitor or independent prosecutor be assigned to review and enforce my civil rights and the rights of affected students and teachers, given the now-documented breakdown of neutral adjudication in SDNY and EDNY.

Please be advised that I am willing to testify under oath, and to submit audio and documentary evidence, including FOIL responses and internal communications, substantiating every claim in this letter.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

MOTION TO AMEND COMPLAINT TO ADD SUPPLEMENTAL MONELL CLAIMS BASED ON CORPORATION COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department ("Corporation Counsel") both before and after service of the original complaint.

I. GROUNDS FOR AMENDMENT

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff's wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.
4. As officers of the court, attorneys at Corporation Counsel are bound by ethical and constitutional obligations to act with candor and to uphold the integrity of judicial proceedings. See, e.g., Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 43 (1991) ("[A]n attorney, whether retained or court-appointed, is an officer of the court."); United States v. Shaffer Equip. Co., 11 F.3d 450, 457 (4th Cir. 1993) (recognizing the duty of candor and truthfulness as central to the attorney's role as officer of the court).
5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department's institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

II. NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants' control or possession.
8. Courts routinely grant leave to amend where, as here, the proposed additions are grounded in publicly known facts, supported by constitutional and statutory obligations, and necessary to conform pleadings to the evidence.

III. The Court Can Confirm NYC' Misconduct, in part, before Your Honor's court, as proof of UFT's misconduct/criminal could be seen on emails where probation is cc'ed (mostly) and certain judges—besides Hon. Gleason

Probation was cc'ed with attachments of UFT's, DoE's, and Art. Taylor's obstruction of justice under NYS law

Then, the issue of Law Dept, in state court, helped conceal Randi Weingarten's criminal conduct in state court because it deals with her numerous and extensive crimes in federal court under 18 USC § 241, 18 USC § 371, obstruction of justice statutes and others, like 18 USC § 641. However, judge like Livingston and Donnelly can only confirm me sending them a paid receipt from NYS Court of 10/27/23 and not 11/21/23

Then, there is the issue of the emails sent to Your Honor to highlight the issue

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant leave to file the attached amended complaint and incorporate the additional Monell-based allegations against the Corporation Counsel for their unlawful inaction and ethical misconduct in violation of their legal duties under the NYC Charter and as officers of the court.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

PLAINTIFF'S Motion to Opposition TO DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS, number 1

Plaintiff Lucio Celli ("Plaintiff"), respectfully submits this Memorandum of Law in opposition to the Defendants' Motion to Dismiss. Plaintiff alleges violations of 42 U.S.C. § 1983, Title VII, Title IX, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, the Affordable Care Act (ACA), and the First and Fourteenth Amendments. Defendants' conduct, including collusion with the DOE and NYSED, resulted in wage theft, denial of pension and medical rights, and unconstitutional retaliation.

I. INTRODUCTION

The plaintiff alleges that the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), in conspiracy with the DOE and NYSED, manipulated Education Law § 3020-a procedures to deprive him of due process, benefits, and protected rights. The misconduct included willful misrepresentation of negotiations, fraudulent suppression of evidence, and targeted retaliation. The collusion also involved Judge Cogan's former aide and implicated improper relationships between public officials and the union. The plaintiff's medical, financial, and constitutional harms were the result of this orchestrated deprivation.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) operated as a state actor by jointly participating with the New York City Department of Education (DOE) and the New York State Education Department (NYSED) in executing and enforcing disciplinary and benefit-related policies under color of state law. UFT officials, including high-ranking representatives such as Mark Collins and Randi Weingarten, were given de facto and de jure authority to shape and control procedural due process under Education Law § 3020-a. The union's participation in altering hearing procedures, suppressing documents, directing retaliatory acts, and managing health and pension benefits was not merely advisory or representational—it constituted direct execution of state functions through formal and informal delegation by DOE and NYSED.

1. UFT Director Mark Collins admitted there was no proper negotiation over the 3020-a procedures.
2. DOE and UFT jointly altered disciplinary rights and withheld access to pension, retroactive pay, and wage records. ...

3. UFT Director Mark Collins admitted there was no proper negotiation over the 3020-a procedures.
4. DOE and UFT jointly altered disciplinary rights and withheld access to pension, retroactive pay, and wage records.
5. The plaintiff was denied HIV medication and subjected to ridicule over his NYPD-related trauma, implicating ADA and mental health discrimination.
6. Audio from over 200 judges corroborates systemic UFT misrepresentations.
7. The plaintiff alleges that Judge Cogan's former aide assisted the UFT in shielding misconduct and suppressing records related to pension eligibility.
8. The plaintiff experienced three illegal detentions following DOE's prior knowledge and retaliatory conduct against his protected complaints. These detentions occurred in or around DOE facilities and/or after union or DOE officials made defamatory reports, implicating high-level collaboration among the DOE, UFT, Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cogan, and Randi Weingarten.
9. The plaintiff was denied documents that could prove the UFT/DOE/Cogan conspiracy, including emails admitting involvement by Silverman and others. DOE and UFT officials actively suppressed or misfiled records and correspondence related to the Plaintiff's complaints and benefits eligibility.

10. The plaintiff's First Amendment rights were violated when the DOE aided Randi Weingarten in retaliating against protected speech regarding union corruption and NYPD misconduct.
11. The plaintiff submitted or attempted to submit an application for an accidental disability pension under New York State law but was obstructed by UFT and DOE officials. Documentation supporting this claim, including medical evaluations and procedural eligibility, was withheld or altered by those with institutional or political connections to the defendants. Judge Cogan's former aide is specifically alleged to have facilitated the concealment or mishandling of Plaintiff's pension documents.
12. DOE and UFT officials engaged in retaliatory acts—including workplace isolation, denial of accommodations, and procedural sabotage—shortly after Plaintiff reported violations concerning health access, due process violations, and union misconduct. These acts directly followed Plaintiff's whistleblower disclosures and formed the basis of retaliatory motive under NY Labor Law § 740.

13. UFT Director Mark Collins admitted there was no proper negotiation over the 3020-a procedures.
14. DOE and UFT jointly altered disciplinary rights and withheld access to pension, retroactive pay, and wage records.
15. The plaintiff was denied HIV medication and subjected to ridicule over his NYPD-related trauma, implicating ADA and mental health discrimination.
16. Audio from over 200 judges corroborates systemic UFT misrepresentations.
17. The plaintiff alleges that Judge Cogan's former aide assisted the UFT in shielding misconduct and suppressing records related to pension eligibility.
18. The plaintiff experienced three illegal detentions following DOE's prior knowledge and retaliatory conduct against his protected complaints.
19. The plaintiff was denied documents that could prove the UFT/DOE/Cogan conspiracy, including emails admitting involvement by Silverman and others.
20. The plaintiff's First Amendment rights were violated when the DOE aided Randi Weingarten in retaliating against protected speech regarding union corruption and NYPD misconduct.

III. ARGUMENT

M. Causes of Action and Related Claims

1. Duty of Fair Representation (DFR)

Plaintiff asserts that the United Federation of Teachers breached its statutory duty of fair representation under federal labor law. The UFT acted in bad faith and with a discriminatory motive by failing to challenge DOE's violations of the collectively bargained procedures under § 3020-a, actively misrepresenting negotiations, and colluding with the DOE and NYSED to Plaintiff's detriment. See Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171 (1967); Spellacy v. Airline Pilots Ass'n, 156 F.3d 120 (2d Cir. 1998).

2. Breach of Contract and Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing

The UFT and DOE materially breached the collective bargaining agreement and implied terms by falsifying the nature of negotiated procedures, failing to preserve the bargained-for rights, and knowingly misleading Plaintiff as to his procedural and employment protections. See Gaul v. Interboro Teachers Ass'n, 759 F. Supp. 2d 153 (E.D.N.Y. 2010).

3. Tortious Interference with Contract and Prospective Economic Advantage

Individual actors, including the pension administrator and judicial aide with known personal ties to UFT leadership, intentionally interfered with Plaintiff's access to retirement benefits and post-disciplinary employment. Their interference was motivated by improper personal or political loyalties, separate from their official roles. See NBT Bancorp Inc. v. Fleet/Norstar Fin. Grp., Inc., 87 N.Y.2d 614 (1996).

4. § 1986 Neglect to Prevent Civil Rights Conspiracy

Plaintiff further asserts that various state and federal actors who were aware of the § 1985 conspiracy—including supervisors and judicial officers—failed to intervene or prevent the known constitutional violations, in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1986.

5. False Imprisonment and Abuse of Process (State and Federal Law)

The plaintiff was unlawfully detained on three occasions after DOE and UFT retaliation escalated. These detentions lacked legal foundation and were executed in collusion with Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cogan, and Randi Weingarten, who acted to punish Plaintiff for his protected speech and litigation activity. These detentions support both a state-law false imprisonment claim and a federal First Amendment retaliation claim under Zalaski v. City of Bridgeport Police Dep't, 613 F.3d 336 (2d Cir. 2010).

6. Whistleblower Retaliation under NY Labor Law § 740

The plaintiff raised concerns about illegal conduct, including deprivation of medical access, systemic retaliation, and procedural sabotage. These disclosures are protected under New York's whistleblower protection statute, and the adverse actions taken in response support an independent claim.

7. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)

The ridicule directed at Plaintiff regarding his HIV status and NYPD trauma, paired with the intentional denial of treatment and financial hardship, constitutes extreme and outrageous conduct. These acts were intended to cause—and did cause—severe emotional distress.

See Howell v. New York Post Co., 81 N.Y.2d 115 (1993).

8. Due Process Violation in Pension Disability Application

The plaintiff also states a due process violation arising from interference in his right to apply for and be fairly considered for an accidental disability pension under New York State law. This right once applied for and processed through a statutory framework, creates a protected property interest. Denial of this process through collusive suppression by UFT and DOE—combined with Judge Cogan's aide's concealment of relevant documents—constitutes a Fourteenth Amendment violation. See Kapps v. Wing, 404 F.3d 105 (2d Cir. 2005); Cortese v. Town of Southampton, 954 F. Supp. 2d 207 (E.D.N.Y. 2013).

These additional claims are supported by the same factual matrix and reinforce the Plaintiff's entitlement to both equitable and monetary relief.

1. Duty of Fair Representation (DFR)

Plaintiff asserts that the United Federation of Teachers breached its statutory duty of fair representation under federal labor law. The UFT acted in bad faith and with a discriminatory motive by failing to challenge DOE's violations of the collectively bargained procedures under § 3020-a, actively misrepresenting negotiations, and colluding with the DOE and NYSED to Plaintiff's detriment. See Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171 (1967); Spellacy v. Airline Pilots Ass'n, 156 F.3d 120 (2d Cir. 1998).

2. Breach of Contract and Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing

The UFT and DOE materially breached the collective bargaining agreement and implied terms by falsifying the nature of negotiated procedures, failing to preserve the bargained-for rights, and knowingly misleading Plaintiff as to his procedural and employment protections.

3. Tortious Interference with Contract and Prospective Economic Advantage

Individual actors, including the pension administrator and judicial aide with known personal ties to UFT leadership, intentionally interfered with Plaintiff's access to retirement benefits and post-disciplinary employment. Their interference was motivated by improper personal or political loyalties, separate from their official roles. See NBT Bancorp Inc. v. Fleet/Norstar Fin. Grp., Inc., 87 N.Y.2d 614 (1996).

4. § 1986 Neglect to Prevent Civil Rights Conspiracy

Plaintiff further asserts that various state and federal actors who were aware of the § 1985 conspiracy—including supervisors and judicial officers—failed to intervene or prevent the known constitutional violations, in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1986. The deprivation of liberty without due process

5. False Imprisonment and Abuse of Process (State Law)

The plaintiff was unlawfully detained on three occasions after DOE and UFT retaliation escalated. These detentions lacked proper legal foundation and were part of a broader scheme to intimidate Plaintiff and obstruct his legal claims. See Broughton v. State of New York, 37 N.Y.2d 451 (1975).[1]

6. Whistleblower Retaliation under NY Labor Law § 740

The plaintiff raised concerns about illegal conduct, including deprivation of medical access, systemic retaliation, and procedural sabotage. These disclosures are protected under New York’s whistleblower protection statute, and the adverse actions taken in response support an independent claim.

7. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)

The ridicule directed at Plaintiff regarding his HIV status and NYPD trauma, paired with the intentional denial of treatment and financial hardship, constitutes extreme and outrageous conduct. These acts were intended to cause—and did cause—severe emotional distress. See Howell v. New York Post Co., 81 N.Y.2d 115 (1993).

These additional claims are supported by the same factual matrix and reinforce the Plaintiff’s entitlement to both equitable and monetary relief.

A. Standard of Review

Dismissal is inappropriate where the complaint states a plausible claim. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662 (2009); Twombly, 550 U.S. 544 (2007).

B. Plaintiff States a Claim for Theft of Wages

Standard of Review: To survive a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6), a complaint must plead “enough facts to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). The court must accept all factual allegations in the complaint as true and draw all reasonable inferences in favor of the plaintiff. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009); LeSane v. Hall’s Sec. Analyst, Inc., 239 F.3d 206, 209 (2d Cir. 2001).

Application to Facts: Plaintiff has presented detailed factual allegations showing that the UFT, in coordination with DOE and NYSED, falsely asserted there had been no negotiation over the 3020-a process. This misrepresentation directly affected Plaintiff’s access to retroactive pay, pension benefits, and salary, as disciplinary procedures were altered to Plaintiff’s detriment without lawful basis. UFT Director Mark Collins’s recorded admissions confirm that the union intentionally failed to negotiate, undermining Plaintiff’s rights.

Additionally, judicial audio evidence—documenting over 200 judges commenting on the same pattern of union misrepresentations—supports the assertion that this misconduct was systemic and deliberate. These facts demonstrate more than a speculative injury: they establish that Plaintiff suffered economic harm through the theft of wages, orchestrated by parties cloaked in state authority. As such, the complaint pleads a facially plausible claim under Twombly and Iqbal.

The plaintiff alleges that misrepresentations regarding the 3020-a process led to the deprivation of retroactive pay and pension benefits. These allegations implicate violations of his property interest protected under the Fourteenth Amendment. See Cleveland Bd. of Educ. v. Loudermill, 470 U.S. 532 (1985); Board of Regents v. Roth, 408 U.S. 564 (1972).

Direct admissions from UFT officials and corroborative judicial audio confirm that Plaintiff was denied his rightful benefits through deceptive practices, supporting a plausible claim.

C. Plaintiff States a Claim for Denial of Due Process

Legal Standard: To state a due process claim under the Fourteenth Amendment, a plaintiff must allege (1) a constitutionally protected liberty or property interest; (2) that he was deprived of that interest; and (3) the deprivation occurred without adequate process. See Zinerman v. Burch, 494 U.S. 113, 125 (1990); Loudermill, 470 U.S. at 538–39.

Application to Facts:

(1) Protected Interest: Plaintiff had a property interest in continued employment, wages, and pension benefits—interests clearly protected by due process.

(2) Deprivation: Plaintiff was deprived of these interests through a manipulated 3020-a process that restricted his ability to present evidence, call witnesses, or access negotiated protections. The denial of HIV medication, stemming from the disciplinary process, compounded this harm.

(3) Lack of Process: The procedures were materially altered without notice or negotiation. The misrepresentation by UFT officials, documented by both Mark Collins and corroborated judicial commentary, deprived Plaintiff of fair notice and opportunity to be heard.

These facts satisfy the prongs required for a due process claim under § 1983 and support the Plaintiff's assertion that the deprivation was systemic, deliberate, and unconstitutional.

The plaintiff was denied a meaningful opportunity to be heard in the 3020-a process. This includes the inability to present evidence related to his medical condition and employment status. The manipulation of procedural rules in coordination with state actors violated Plaintiff's constitutional rights. See Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976). The denial of pre-deprivation due process alone is sufficient to sustain the § 1983 claim.

D. Pension & Property Interest Violation

Plaintiff was denied pension access based on a misrepresented 3020-a process. Such denial implicates due process protections. See Loudermill, Roth. Denial of pension eligibility through concealed misconduct and false representation by UFT officials—facilitated by Judge Cogan's former aide—undermines both statutory and constitutional rights.

E. Title VII and Title IX Violations

Legal Standard: To state a claim under Title VII or Title IX, a plaintiff must show (1)

membership in a protected class or association with such; (2) that he was subject to an adverse employment action; and (3) that the action occurred under circumstances giving rise to an inference of discrimination or retaliation. See McDonnell Douglas Corp. v. Green, 411 U.S. 792 (1973); Vega v. Hempstead Union Free Sch. Dist., 801 F.3d 72, 83 (2d Cir. 2015).

Application to Facts:

(1) Protected Class and Associative Bias: Plaintiff alleges discriminatory and retaliatory treatment connected to his complaints about NYPD conduct and his health condition. He also identifies the pension administrator as a close personal associate of Randi Weingarten, creating the inference of bias through association and retaliation for protected activities.

(3) Inferred Discrimination and Retaliation: The timing of the benefit denials, relationship ties among UFT leadership, and internal coordination support a plausible inference that Plaintiff was targeted for raising complaints and not participating in protected union relationships. These facts meet the pleading standard for both retaliation and discrimination claims under Title VII and Title IX.

The pension administrator, described as closely aligned with Randi Weingarten, acted with a clear bias against Plaintiff. Title VII and Title IX prohibit discrimination and retaliation based on sex, association, and protected complaints. The plaintiff alleges that decisions about benefits and wages were affected by relationships and prejudices tied to union leadership.

F. ADA and § 504 Violations

Legal Standard: A plaintiff asserting claims under the ADA or § 504 must allege (1) he is a qualified individual with a disability; (2) was denied the benefits of a public entity's services, programs, or activities; and (3) such denial was because of his disability. See Henrietta D. v. Bloomberg, 331 F.3d 261, 272 (2d Cir. 2003).

Application to Facts:

(1) Qualified Individual: Plaintiff's HIV diagnosis and related mental health conditions qualify as disabilities under federal law.

(2) Denial of Benefits: The plaintiff was denied access to essential medication, mental health accommodations, and medical coverage following his removal from employment.

(3) Disability-Related Motive: UFT and DOE officials denied accommodations while simultaneously subjecting Plaintiff to ridicule regarding his HIV status and NYPD trauma. These actions occurred during a tainted disciplinary process and constitute actionable discrimination under both the ADA and § 504.

Denial of HIV medication and mockery of Plaintiff's NYPD-related trauma amount to disability discrimination. See Henrietta D. v. Bloomberg, 331 F.3d 261 (2d Cir. 2003). Defendants refused to accommodate Plaintiff's mental and physical health needs during and after the altered disciplinary proceedings.

G. ACA Violations

Legal Standard: Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act prohibits discrimination based on race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability in any health program or activity receiving federal financial assistance. To state a claim, a plaintiff must show (1) he was denied access to healthcare services; (2) the healthcare entity receives federal financial assistance; and (3) the denial was motivated by a prohibited discriminatory basis. See Rumble v. Fairview Health Servs., 2015 WL 1197415 (D. Minn. 2015).

Application to Facts:

- (1) Denial of Services: Plaintiff was denied HIV medication, despite being eligible for such coverage under the public employer plan jointly administered by DOE and UFT.
- (2) Federal Assistance: Both DOE and UFT programs receive federal funding as part of their health and employment-related services.
- (3) Discriminatory Basis: The denial was not neutral—it followed retaliatory disciplinary actions and was accompanied by ridicule related to Plaintiff's HIV status and mental condition. This supports a claim under the ACA based on disability discrimination and unequal access to medically necessary treatment.

The plaintiff's right to nondiscriminatory access to healthcare was obstructed. Coordination between UFT and DOE to block coverage violated Section 1557 of the ACA. See Rumble v. Fairview Health Servs., 2015 WL 1197415 (D. Minn. 2015). This violation includes both pretextual denial and deliberate indifference to essential HIV-related treatment.

H. Wage and Retroactive Pay Conspiracy

Judge Cogan's former aide allegedly helped conceal evidence that the UFT had diverted wages from Plaintiff to benefit its affiliates. This financial harm, grounded in official misconduct, supports claims under § 1983, Title VII, and the First Amendment. The cover-up of wage theft involving judicial actors highlights the systemic breadth of the conspiracy.

I. Collusion with State Actors – § 1983

Under Lugar v. Edmondson Oil Co., 457 U.S. 922 (1982); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980); and Brentwood Acad. v. Tenn. Secondary Sch. Athletic Ass'n, 531 U.S. 288 (2001), private parties who act jointly with the state or exercise significant state control may be deemed state actors under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The Second Circuit has reaffirmed this principle in Ciambriello v. County of Nassau, 292 F.3d 307 (2d Cir. 2002), and Sybsalski v. Indep. Grp. Home Living Program, Inc., 546 F.3d 255 (2d Cir. 2008).

Application to Facts:

Here, the UFT is alleged to have acted jointly with the DOE and NYSED in altering disciplinary procedures, denying pension and medical benefits, suppressing evidence, and engaging in retaliatory conduct. Plaintiff alleges that UFT officials, including Randi Weingarten and Mark Collins, were not merely advocates but exercised decision-making authority traditionally reserved to public employers. The DOE and NYSED delegated, acquiesced in, or ratified these actions—thus cloaking the union's misconduct with the authority of the state. These allegations satisfy the joint action and close nexus tests under Second Circuit precedent and render the UFT a state actor for purposes of liability under § 1983.

Under Lugar v. Edmondson Oil Co., 457 U.S. 922 (1982); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980); and Brentwood Acad. v. Tenn. Secondary Sch. Athletic Ass'n, 531 U.S. 288 (2001), private parties who act jointly with the state are liable under § 1983. The Second Circuit has affirmed this in Ciambriello v. County of Nassau, 292 F.3d 307 (2d Cir. 2002), and Sybaliski v. Indep. Grp. Home Living Program, Inc., 546 F.3d 255 (2d Cir. 2008). The plaintiff has alleged facts showing concerted action among UFT, DOE, and NYSED to deprive him of constitutional rights.

Further

Full and Fair Credit Claim: New York law provides tenured teachers with substantial procedural protections against termination. Education Law § 3020-a(1) states that “[n]o person enjoying the benefits of tenure shall be disciplined or removed except for just cause and only after a hearing upon stated charges.” The Court of Appeals has repeatedly affirmed that these protections are mandatory.

In Matter of Pell v. Board of Education, 34 N.Y.2d 222 (1974), the Court of Appeals underscored that due process in teacher disciplinary matters requires adherence to § 3020-a procedures. Similarly, in Ricca v. Board of Educ., 47 N.Y.2d 385 (1979), the court ruled that tenure confers a property interest, and termination without compliance with § 3020-a violates due process.

Moreover, Matter of Holt v. Board of Educ., 52 N.Y.2d 625 (1981) held that deviations from § 3020-a, including denial of a hearing or an arbitrator’s failure to follow due process, render a termination void. These cases establish that the due process rights of a tenured teacher are non-waivable and cannot be circumvented by an employer or a union’s inaction.

Here, Petitioner was denied her due process rights when the UFT failed to process her grievance, preventing her from invoking the protections of § 3020-a. This failure effectively deprived her of a full hearing, violating both her constitutional and statutory rights.

Property interests are not created by the Constitution; rather, “they are created and their dimensions are defined by existing rules or understandings that stem from an independent source such as state law-rules or understandings that secure certain benefits and that support claims of entitlement to those benefits.” Bd. of Regents of State Colls. v. Roth, 408 U.S. 564, 577, 92 S.Ct. 2701, 33 L.Ed.2d 548 (1972). In order to have had a property interest in the PMM-II position, Ciambriello must have had "a legitimate claim of entitlement to it." Id. A public employee has a property interest in continued employment if the employee is guaranteed continued employment absent "just cause" for discharge. Moffitt v. Town of Brookfield, 950 F.2d 880, 885 (2d Cir. 1991). While state law determines whether a public employee has a property interest in continued employment, "federal constitutional law determines whether that interest rises to the level of a legitimate claim of entitlement protected by the Due Process Clause." Ezekwo v. NYC Health Hosps. Corp., 940 F.2d 775, 782 (2d Cir. 1991) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted) (noting that "not every contractual benefit rises to the level of a constitutionally protected property interest").

We have recognized that "§ 75 gives covered employees a property interest in their employment, so that they may not be terminated without notice and hearing." O'Neill v. City of Auburn, 23 F.3d 685, 688 (2d Cir. 1994). Section 75 rights, however, may be modified or replaced by a collective bargaining agreement. N.Y. Civ. Serv. Law § 76\(4\) (McKinney 1999). Here, § 10-1 of the CBA replaced whatever rights Ciambriello would otherwise have derived from § 75, providing:

Except where an accrediting agency regulating a County department requires otherwise, the provisions of this section shall be exclusive for all persons in the negotiating unit and shall be in lieu of any and all other statutory or regulatory disciplinary protections.

See Moffitt, 950 F.2d at 885 (finding that plaintiff had a property interest in his employment as a result of collective bargaining agreement provision stating that he could not be fired without just cause); Dobosz v. Walsh, 892 F.2d 1135, 1141 (2d Cir. 1989) (same).

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1738, "judicial proceedings [of any court of any State] . . . shall have the same full faith and credit in every court within the United States . . . as they have by law or usage in the courts of such State. . . ." The question, then, is whether the New York courts would afford preclusive effect to the state court confirmation proceeding in a subsequent § 1983 action. See Fayer v. Town of Middlebury, 258 F.3d 117, 125-26 (2d Cir. 2001) (holding that Connecticut courts would not afford preclusive effect to state court judgment confirming arbitration award in subsequent § 1983 action).

In order to apply collateral estoppel under New York law, "it must be shown that the party against whom collateral estoppel is sought to be invoked had been afforded a full and fair opportunity to contest the decision said to be dispositive of the present controversy." Gramatan Home Investors Corp. v. Lopez, 46 N.Y.2d 481, 414 N.Y.S.2d 308, 386 N.E.2d 1328, 1331 (1979); accord Continental Cas. Co. v. Rapid-Am. Corp., 80 N.Y.2d 640, 593 N.Y.S.2d 966, 609 N.E.2d 506, 510 (1993). Because it is undisputed that Ciambriello never received notice of or an opportunity to participate in either the arbitration or the state court confirmation proceeding, he was not afforded a full and fair opportunity to contest the prior decision. As a result, the New York courts would not give preclusive effect to the judgment confirming the arbitrator's award. See, e.g., Lyons v. Med. Malpractice Ins. Ass'n, 275 A.D.2d 396, 713 N.Y.S.2d 61, 62 (N.Y.App.Div. 2000) (holding that appellants were not bound by verdict in previous action because they were not parties to that action). Thus, under 28 U.S.C. § 1738, we also must decline to give the state court judgment preclusive effect.

J. First Amendment Retaliation

Legal Standard: To plead a First Amendment retaliation claim, a plaintiff must allege (1) he engaged in constitutionally protected speech; (2) he suffered an adverse action; and (3) there was a causal connection between the speech and the adverse action. See Heffernan v. City of Paterson, 578 U.S. 266 (2016); Zelnik v. Fashion Inst. of Tech., 464 F.3d 217, 225 (2d Cir. 2006).

Application to Facts:

- (1) Protected Speech: The plaintiff spoke out against union corruption, NYPD abuse, and procedural fraud concerning the 3020-a process—matters of public concern.
- (2) Adverse Action: In response, Plaintiff was denied wages, pension, and medical care, and experienced retaliatory detentions. He was also denied documentation needed to prove collusion.
- (3) Causation: The DOE's and UFT's adverse responses occurred after Plaintiff's protected disclosures and were carried out in concert with other retaliatory acts, suggesting a coordinated effort to chill his speech. These facts satisfy the First Amendment pleading standard.

DOE and UFT punished Plaintiff for speech protected under the First Amendment, including disclosures about union corruption and NYPD misconduct. Pickering v. Bd. of Educ., 391 U.S. 563 (1968); Heffernan v. City of Paterson, 578 U.S. 266 (2016). The retaliatory detentions and withholding of documents further demonstrate the infringement of Plaintiff's expressive rights.

K. § 1985 Conspiracy Claim

Legal Standard: To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), a plaintiff must allege (1) a conspiracy; (2) for the purpose of depriving him of equal protection of the laws; (3) an overt act in furtherance of the conspiracy; and (4) injury to person or property, or deprivation of a legal right. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Cine SK8 v. Town of Henrietta, 507 F.3d 778, 791 (2d Cir. 2007).

Application to Facts:

(1) Conspiracy: Plaintiff alleges a detailed scheme involving the UFT, DOE, NYSED, and judicial officials to misrepresent negotiated procedures and retaliate against whistleblowing.

(2) Discriminatory Purpose: The conspiracy targeted Plaintiff for his disabilities, political speech, and exposure of union misconduct, implicating discriminatory animus and suppression of protected rights.

(3) Overt Acts: These included manipulated disciplinary proceedings, suppression of wage and pension rights, obstruction of access to medical care, and illegal detentions.

(4) Resulting Harm: Plaintiff suffered wage theft, denial of due process, and physical and psychological harm, all traceable to coordinated official action. The allegations meet the legal threshold under § 1985(3).

The plaintiff alleges an actionable conspiracy involving the UFT, DOE, NYSED, and judicial actors. Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Cine SK8 v. Town of Henrietta, 507 F.3d 778 (2d Cir. 2007). The coordinated suppression of evidence and institutional complicity satisfies the pleading standard.

L. Monell Liability, Injunctive Relief, and Punitive Damages

Legal Standard (Monell): To establish municipal or institutional liability under Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), a plaintiff must show (1) the existence of an official policy, custom, or practice; (2) that such policy caused the constitutional violation; and (3) that the entity had final policymaking authority or ratified the illegal conduct.

Application to Facts: The plaintiff has alleged that the DOE and UFT had an established custom of manipulating disciplinary proceedings under § 3020-a, which included coordinated denial of negotiated rights, concealment of documents, and retaliation against protected complaints. These acts were not isolated, but part of a systemic practice aided by official personnel, including judicial aides and high-level union officials. Because the DOE and NYSED deferred to the UFT's interpretation and execution of disciplinary policy without oversight, they effectively ratified and institutionalized these practices.

Injunctive Relief: Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief requiring the DOE and UFT to disclose all relevant records, cease retaliatory practices, restore pension eligibility and healthcare access, and halt the misrepresentation of 3020-a procedures.

Punitive Damages: Given the malicious and intentional nature of Defendants' conduct—including the denial of lifesaving HIV medication, suppression of whistleblower evidence, and infliction of psychological trauma—Plaintiff seeks punitive damages to deter similar misconduct. Courts have authorized punitive damages in § 1983 and related civil rights actions where there is evidence of willful and egregious constitutional violations. See Smith v. Wade, 461 U.S. 30 (1983).

IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny Defendants' Motion to Dismiss in its entirety;
2. Declare that the actions of the Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights under the U.S. Constitution, Title VII, Title IX, the ADA, § 504, the ACA, and 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985;
3. Issue an injunction compelling Defendants to:
  - Restore Plaintiff's due process rights for accidental pension disability and retroactive pay/wages stolen by the Weingarten/UFT/Judge Cogan and recalculate pension payments;
  - Reinstate medical coverage, including HIV treatment access--appears to be already done;
  - Cease all retaliation and unlawful manipulation of 3020-a procedures;
  - Disclose and produce all withheld documents, including evidence related to internal collusion and misconduct;
4. Award compensatory damages for economic loss, emotional distress, and physical harm--HIV drug resistance;

5. Award punitive damages for Defendants' willful and malicious conduct;
6. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court deny Defendants' Motion to Dismiss and allow this matter to proceed to discovery.

Respectfully submitted,
Lucio Celli
Pro Se Plaintiff

Case No.: 2024-cv-09743

Dear Magistrate Judge Lehrburger,

I am not asking for an extension of time, but this is to inform the Court that further documents to explain or to show where the Court has evidence of why Mr. Brown and Law Dept need to be disbarred or at least sanctioned under FRCP 11 for bad faith and knowledge that contradicts public knowledge.

I know Your Honor wants a smaller brief, so I am requesting to allow me to surpass the limit, or I will create a brief for each action, which I believe is a better choice because I do not know how to best organize this to make clear that my requests are not frivolous or vexatious

If no answer, I will proceed with option no. 2.

Sincerely,
Lucio Celli

---

I.
INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE
LEHRBURGER
HAS NO
STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO
DISPOSITIVE
WITHOUT
REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C.
§ 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge
may not determine or issue
dispositive
orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These
are explicitly excluded from a magistrate

judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459

U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction is divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE
UNLAWFUL
PENDING
MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of
today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals
for the Second Circuit, and therefore
requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May

8 and May 13 deadlines,
and

3. Acknowledge that
Magistrate Judge
Lehrburger's continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.

4. The fact that the Clerk
Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for
to proceed and it only strengthens my claim
of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that
a mandamus petition is filed, the district
court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

"The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance
—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control
over those aspects of the case
involved in the appeal."

— Griggs v. Provident
Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58
(1982). "Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district
court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case
involved in the appeal."

— United States v.
Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247,
251 (2d Cir. 1996).

Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed
or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE
LEHRBURGER'S
CONTINUED

INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT

Magistrate Judge
Lehrburger's attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio, but,

in the context of Plaintiff's
allegations and filings,
reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review
and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional
rights.

Moreover, this Court's prior order (Dkt. 89)
confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution,
and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks
violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against
rights),

- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights
under color of law),

- 18 U.S.C. § 1512
(witness or litigant
intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that
the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this
matter,

- Strike the May 8, 2025
and May 13, 2025
deadlines as unlawful,

- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court

has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Motion for the decision on subpoenas, as I know it is the policy of the court not to have anything televised but it is up to the individual court—no problem here. I need the witnesses to prove Mr. Brown's, Randi's and UFT's criminal conduct and bad faith with the appearance of Your Honor's collusion or bribery — maybe it appears that you are attempting to hide their criminal conduct---as 300 crimes are acceptable to you and helping them to obstruct is also acceptable ...i

Judge Lehrburger started with frivolous and vexatious---as this is what Diamond said after a few emails and calls ...it was miracle he changed his mind

Randi does not want the truth to come out

Reason to why I didn't follow orders....Judge Lehrburger was committing a crime for Randi Weingarten and the UFT under 18 USC § 371

Please tell me, the timeframe that I have and what the way to obtain documents that AUSA Karamigos and Ms. Strauber as know that she owed me without Judge Engelmayer's order and it is a crime under 18 USC § 641I asked this of Judge Frank and you said it frivolous and vexatious ...but Judge Lehrburger is

This is beyond shit show now .....he believes NO ONE believe would that Randi didn't

bribed hi=m ...I want the fucking drugs he's on because I would be beyond lala land

Please me give the name and number of your because that shit is REALLY FUCKING good

I cant make this shit up ...he believes that NO ONE ...NO ONE will believe that Randi bribe him to conceal her criminal

Come on dude, please give me that name and number to your drug deal because you get shit that is real .....or you are TRULY delusional

If granted, then I have to go and listen to the AUSAs and get their names. No need to listen if you are get going to state "frivolous and vexatiou" On Wednesday, April 30, 2025 at 01:01:58 PM EDT, lucio celli <luciocelli123@yahoo.com> wrote:

I.
INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13,
2025 deadlines,
and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge

Robert
Lehrburger.
These acts violate both statutory limitations
under 28 U.S.C.
§ 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus
petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE
LEHRBURGER
HAS NO
STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO
DISPOSITIVE
WITHOUT
REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C.
§ 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge
may not determine or issue
dispositive
orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive

relief

- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where
divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE
UNLAWFUL
PENDING
MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of
today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently
pending before the United States Court of Appeals
for the Second Circuit, and therefore
requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines,
and
3. Acknowledge that
Magistrate Judge
Lehrburger’s continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.

4. The fact that the Clerk
Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for
to proceed and it only strengthens my claim
of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT
JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or
a mandamus petition is filed, the district
court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

“The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance

—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control
over those aspects of the case
involved in the appeal.”
— Griggs v. Provident
Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58
(1982). “Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district
court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case
involved in the appeal.”
— United States v.
Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247,
251 (2d Cir. 1996).
Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed
or enforce any deadlines
that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE
LEHRBURGER’S
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate Judge
Lehrburger’s attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio, but,
in the context of Plaintiff’s
allegations and filings,
reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review
and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional
rights.
Moreover, this Court’s
prior order (Dkt. 89)
confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution,
and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.
Such conduct risks
violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against
rights),
- 18 U.S.C. § 242
(deprivation of rights
under color of law),
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512
(witness or litigant
intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that
the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this
matter,
- Strike the May 8, 2025
and May 13, 2025
deadlines as unlawful,
- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court
has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of
mandamus.

Subject: 24-cv-9743-- answer to your order --no honey v. the 3m company mentioned in the motion
Date: Monday, May 5, 2025 4:03:10 PM
Attachments: Letter 2.pdf

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Re: Opposition to Your Honor's obvious misconduct because you can READ...the motion does not even mention Hoey v. The 3M---who reads my papers?

Dear Magistrate Judge Lehrburger,

MEMO ENDORSEMENT denying 104 Letter Motion to Stay. ENDORSEMENT: Denied as vexatious and frivolous. Case No. 25-CV-2030 is a product-liability case captioned Hoey v. The 3M Company and has no relation to the instant case. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger on 5/5/2025) (tg) (Entered: 05/05/2025)

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: the following were the cases mentioned ....what are you reading?

The Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), reaffirmed that it is unlawful for public officials to abuse government mechanisms for political retribution or personal advantage. Here, Appellant alleges that Randi Weingarten—a politically connected figure—leveraged her influence to orchestrate adverse rulings and suppress employment rights, health care access, and wages

See United States v. Gallop, 838 F.2d 105, 108 (4th Cir. 1988) (reversal warranted where transcript manipulation and obstruction impaired right to appeal).
 See Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264, 269 (1959) (government's knowing presentation or concealment of false evidence violates due process).
 See also Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (even the appearance of bias or influence undermines judicial integrity and mandates recusal or corrective action).

Sincerely,

Judge Frank committed the crime of 18 USC § 1509 help Randi evade termination

He helped Randi get away with preplanning everything that she did and didn't order how the DOE knew ...then all the other crimes that she committed

Wolfe helped, Engelmauer helped her, Rearden helped her and Lehrburger is going to help her and conceal 300 crimes that she committed against me ..as did Swaiw and Sebiel and other schumer's people

I feel Schumer was involved and Trump is right

I will be writing ...

Did you pull a Wolfe ....there's nothing wrong that Franks did for his older buddies

I was told that I cannot get the information ....as, I believe Schumer helped McAvoy get a NICE deal that very few pedos get ...at the moment there is nothing wrong but maybe Trump and Bondi would find out

you have ignored this for years too

Your Honors,

As I tell Randi, "you cannot have it both ways." I came into this knowing and hoping for the misuse of any judge's office in the 2d Cir for Randi

I said in Dec, I was waiting for Gillibrand to enter the picture

So, I cannot apologize because my behavior is that of a lowlife. I can say that I informed Weir and so on that I have allowed Randi, as a willing participant, to become a person that I do not even like but I will not be bullied and she owes my mother money (for sure) and me money

I cant say that I wont do it again--it depends on something that I haven't figured out

But I have to remember that I cannot hope and pray for the misuse of an office for Randi and then curse and say words that are ----.....Your Honors or anyone is not what I truly think of when I write, but the evil mob boss and it is one of the reason that I say "we"

Now, Judge Lehuburger---bring it home to momma wiht a dismissal with what Rearden wrote as it works ...if you could write "Mary had a little lamb," I would be a pig in shit

BECAUSE momma needs to brings this to Randi's true support and her public

Hon; Lehuburger, momma is praying to get this show on the road and I am rooting for you and chop, chop ....Rep Green needs this for "filling Randi's need for being a media whore and I am an information w/ yenta issues

Let me know if you want me to audio record a chat "Lehuburger, Lehuburer"

Use Rearden as your template as its good with all other hard facts as they are good evidence against Randi ....I connected some of the issue between Rep Green and Weingarten ---it works and it you need me to more ideas of how you could help Randi with what applies to Green/Randi --it would make me feel like a pig in shit

When Betsy told me---I didn't record her--and I called her, which I dont remember when, but she said that she never told me that and i have that and other audios of her but not what would matter to you

I heard what I heard --

Schumer's people and Gillibrand's people protected Randi's criminal conduct and stole money from my parents and me with FULL knowledge of Engelmayer's crimes, as Chief Livingston (Schumer) has no excuse to allow Engelmayer get away with a crime under 18 USC § 241 for the 2d time with Clerk Wolge blocking me from the court and in her own words, Perez committed a crime because i approached her with what Hon. Gleason wrote in a law review that it is misconduct to lie about facts to law ...my opinion has the worth of pure shit but the experts, like Wolfe, are worth pure, pure FUCKING GOLD! to me anyway

I believe the IG is here too or the general email for the group

ANY Information or guide on next steps or whatever your view is based on fact that can be proven based on hard evidence ...I would greatly appreciated

Subject: SDNY-24-cv-9743 and 25-cv-2031 for cronan and Furman based on error

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

PLAINTIFF'S OBJECTION TO MAGISTRATE JUDGE'S ORDER AND REQUEST FOR CLARIFICATION AND CORRECTIVE RELIEF PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 72(a)

TO THE HONORABLE DISTRICT COURT JUDGES FURMAN AND CRONAN:

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A) objecting to the May 5, 2025 Memorandum Endorsement (Dkt. 104) issued by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger, which summarily denied Plaintiff's motion to stay and characterized it as "vexatious and frivolous."

I. CLERICAL ERROR IN CASE REFERENCE

Plaintiff acknowledges and respectfully seeks the Court's forgiveness for a clerical error in the motion at Dkt. 104, wherein the docket citation referenced Case No. 25-CV-2030 (Hoey v. The 3M Company) instead of the correct case number, 25-CV-2031, which pertains to the instant matter. This was an inadvertent misstatement, not an attempt to mislead or confuse the Court. The substance of the motion and accompanying docket materials clearly pertain to the present case, and the record reflects that Plaintiff included the correct emergency docket entry from this case.

II. PLAINTIFF'S CITED AUTHORITIES WERE NOT ADDRESSED

In the May 5 Order, the Court dismissed Plaintiff's motion as frivolous and vexatious and stated that it referred to an unrelated product liability case. Respectfully, that conclusion resulted from the clerical error identified above. More importantly, Plaintiff's motion was rooted in constitutional and legal authorities, including:

- Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020) – addressing abuse of public office for political purposes;
- Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) – holding that even the appearance of bias can warrant judicial recusal;

- Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959) – holding that government deception or concealment of falsehoods violates due process;
- United States v. Gallop, 838 F.2d 105 (4th Cir. 1988) – addressing manipulation of court proceedings undermining appeal rights.

These cases directly relate to Plaintiff’s concerns and were properly presented for judicial consideration. The Court’s summary dismissal without addressing these authorities may constitute a misapplication of the standard under Rule 72(a), which allows reversal of a magistrate judge’s ruling where it is “clearly erroneous or contrary to law.”

III. DIFFERENTIAL TREATMENT OF IDENTICAL FILINGS

Plaintiff also notes that the same motion or substantially similar filings were submitted to Hon. Judge Jesse M. Furman without being dismissed as frivolous—to date, nor was document docketed in 25-cv-2030 in the unrelated case. This differential treatment raises the concern that the Court may have prematurely rejected the filing due to a minor clerical mistake, without considering the substance and citations therein. I believe that I am being treated differently because deprivation of HIV meds with its effects are frivolous and vexatious.

IV. The need for stay prior to any order or conclusions of facts to law are issued by Judge Lehrburger

I believe the pattern of be biased against gay men and the obvious help to Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct is beyond obvious.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the District Court:

1. Acknowledge and forgive the clerical reference to 25-CV-2030 as an inadvertent error;
2. Set aside or strike the “vexatious and frivolous” characterization in the May 5 Order (Dkt. 104);
3. Review and rule on the merits of the emergency stay motion in light of the correct case docket and citations;
4. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.

Dated: May 5, 2025

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Subject: SDNY-24-cv-9743, reconsideration as I made a clerical error as my case is 25-cv-2031

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF MEMORANDUM ENDORSEMENT (DKT. 104) PURSUANT TO LOCAL CIVIL RULE 6.3 AND FED. R. CIV. P. 60(b)

TO THE HONORABLE MAGISTRATE JUDGE ROBERT W. LEHRBURGER:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court for reconsideration of its Memorandum Endorsement dated May 5, 2025 (Dkt. 104), pursuant to Local Civil Rule 6.3 and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b), and states as follows:

I. GROUNDS FOR RECONSIDERATION

On May 5, 2025, this Court denied Plaintiff's emergency motion to stay proceedings, describing it as "vexatious and frivolous," and noted that the motion referenced Case No. 25-CV-2030, Hoey v. The 3M Company, which was deemed unrelated to the matter at hand.

Respectfully, Plaintiff made a clerical error in the citation, and the correct case number is 25-CV-2031, which is the instant case. Plaintiff sincerely apologizes to the Court for this inadvertent typographical mistake and requests that this be recognized as a good faith error — not a basis for labeling the motion as frivolous.

II. SUBSTANTIVE BASIS OF THE MOTION MERITS CONSIDERATION

Plaintiff's original motion was grounded in well-established constitutional and procedural law, including:

- Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020) (abuse of public office for personal or political gain is impermissible);
- Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (appearance of bias warrants recusal or corrective action);

Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959) (knowingly false or misleading government conduct violates due process);

- United States v. Gallop, 838 F.2d 105 (4th Cir. 1988) (reversal warranted where judicial irregularities impede appeal rights).

These legal authorities were not addressed in the Court’s summary denial. Plaintiff respectfully asserts that the dismissal failed to engage with the substance of the motion, and reconsideration is appropriate to correct a manifest error of fact and to prevent clear injustice.

III. DIFFERENTIAL TREATMENT OF IDENTICAL FILINGS

Plaintiff also notes that substantially identical motions were submitted to Hon. Judges Jesse M. Furman and John P. Cronan in related matters and were not dismissed as frivolous nor were extraneous case citations introduced. This discrepancy further supports the need for careful review and a consistent, fact-based approach.

IV. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Local Civil Rule 6.3, a motion for reconsideration may be granted where the court has overlooked controlling decisions or material facts. Similarly, Rule 60(b)(1) permits relief from a ruling for “mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect,” and Rule 60(b)(6) allows relief for “any other reason that justifies relief.”

Here, both the mis-citation of the docket number and the omission of substantive discussion of the cited constitutional case law meet the threshold for reconsideration.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

For the reasons above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Grant reconsideration of the May 5, 2025 Memorandum Endorsement (Dkt. 104);
2. Strike or modify the “vexatious and frivolous” designation as applied to Plaintiff’s motion;
3. Review and consider on the merits the emergency stay request as filed under the correct case number;
4. Grant any further relief the Court deems just and appropriate.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This Memorandum of Law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's Motion to estop the United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") from denying its role in negotiating or structuring:

1. the health benefits program that led to the deprivation of Plaintiff's access to HIV medications;
2. the 3020s due process negotiated or the fact that they told me that they did not negotiate the different terms of the 3020a in the CBA
3. the UFT did negotiate no accident reports for accidental disability pension is required and the UFT told me that they did not negotiate this term, even after I mentioned the fact that Ms. Norton (Gen Counsel for the UFT) sent Ms. Bowes of TRS and I the 2023 CBA
4. The UFT and DOE provided Ms. Price her retro money, even though we had the same situation of being in jail
5. The UFT previously acknowledged in grievance proceedings and administrative statements that it negotiated and authorized the terms affecting Plaintiff's terms, conditions and benefits of employment.

The UFT now asserts the opposite position in this litigation to evade liability under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Affordable Care Act (ACA), and 42 U.S.C. § 1983 or Title VII or Title IX (due to a penis picture and admitted by Friedman's aide as the reason for retaliation). The UFT's reversal of position satisfies every element of judicial estoppel, a doctrine grounded in equity to protect the integrity of judicial and quasi-judicial processes.

LEGAL STANDARD FOR JUDICIAL ESTOPPEL

The U.S. Supreme Court has held that judicial estoppel is intended to “protect the integrity of the judicial process by prohibiting parties from deliberately changing positions according to the exigencies of the moment.”

New Hampshire v. Maine, 532 U.S. 742, 749–50 (2001).

The Second Circuit applies a three-part test for judicial estoppel:

1. A party’s later position is “clearly inconsistent” with its earlier position;
2. The party’s former position was adopted in some way by a court or tribunal;
3. The party would derive an unfair advantage or impose an unfair detriment on the opposing party if not estopped.

Bates v. Long Island R.R. Co., 997 F.2d 1028, 1037 (2d Cir. 1993).

Judicial estoppel applies not only in formal court proceedings but also in administrative, arbitral, and grievance settings, so long as the prior position was presented in a meaningful adversarial context and accepted or relied upon by the tribunal.

ARGUMENT

---

I. THE UFT ASSERTED IT NEGOTIATED OR ENDORSED THE MEDICAL BENEFIT TERMS IN PRIOR PROCEEDINGS

In multiple grievance proceedings, responses to union-member complaints, and arbitrations under the CBA between the UFT and DOE, the UFT repeatedly asserted that:

- It negotiated and approved the terms of healthcare and benefits;
- The DOE and health plan administrator (EmblemHealth/GHI) were acting pursuant to UFT-negotiated agreements;
- Challenges to the benefits should be resolved internally as matters of union policy and bargaining, not through external litigation.

These statements were made in writing, on grievance forms, and orally in arbitration settings. The positions were credited by arbitrators or administrative actors in dismissing Plaintiff’s claims, relying on the union’s negotiated structure to justify denial of corrective action.

II. THE UFT NOW TAKES THE OPPOSITE POSITION TO EVADE LIABILITY

In this litigation, the UFT now claims it had:

- No role in the benefit decisions that denied Plaintiff HIV treatment;
- No control over the administration or structure of the health plan;
- No legal responsibility for the denial of medical care caused by those terms.

This is a direct contradiction of the position the UFT previously asserted. Such conduct satisfies the first prong of judicial estoppel. See:

- New Hampshire v. Maine, 532 U.S. at 750 (inconsistent factual representations trigger estoppel);
  - Clark v. All Acquisition Corp., 886 F. Supp. 2d 1050, 1062 (S.D. Iowa 2012) (estoppel applied where employee asserted different positions in grievance and federal court);
  - Lyon v. Sara Lee Corp., 533 F.3d 702, 705–06 (8th Cir. 2008) (estoppel applicable even where first proceeding was administrative).

III. THE PRIOR POSITION WAS ACCEPTED BY A TRIBUNAL

Courts do not require a formal “judicial ruling” to satisfy this prong. Acceptance by an arbitrator or grievance officer is sufficient when the representation influenced the outcome. See:

- Mitchell v. Washingtonville Cent. Sch. Dist., 190 F.3d 1, 6 (2d Cir. 1999) (statements in grievance can be used for estoppel or credibility findings);
- Pyett v. 14 Penn Plaza LLC, 556 U.S. 247, 257 (2009) (CBA arbitration may bind where position was adopted as determinative);
- Barrentine v. Arkansas-Best Freight Sys., Inc., 450 U.S. 728, 745 (1981) (quasi-judicial decisions given effect when fair and adversarial).

Here, the UFT’s prior position was credited to Plaintiff’s detriment — the grievance tribunal declined to hold the DOE accountable, relying on the UFT’s authority over benefits.

IV. THE UFT IS SEEKING AN UNFAIR ADVANTAGE BY SWITCHING POSITIONS

By denying its role now, the UFT attempts to defeat Plaintiff’s claims under the ADA, ACA, and § 1983 by disclaiming any state action, policy authority, or role in discrimination — even though it previously wielded and exercised such authority.

This is precisely the kind of opportunistic reversal judicial estoppel prohibits. See:

- Simon v. Safelite Glass Corp., 128 F.3d 68, 72 (2d Cir. 1997) (unfair advantage is key to estoppel);
  - King v. Herbert J. Thomas Memorial Hospital, 159 F.3d 192, 196–97 (4th Cir. 1998) (party estopped where it gained benefit from one position and then reversed it in later litigation).

VI. THE UFT'S INCONSISTENT POSITION SEEKS TO CONCEAL ILLEGAL INTERFERENCE AND A PREPLANNED CONSTITUTIONAL DEPRIVATION

The doctrine of judicial estoppel exists to prevent litigants from manipulating courts by shifting factual positions based on convenience or strategy. Here, the UFT's contradictory stance is not a mere inconsistency — it is a calculated maneuver to conceal deeper, unlawful conduct involving interference in Plaintiff's legal representation, collusion with federal and state actors, and a pre-arranged deprivation of protected constitutional rights.

Specifically:

- The UFT's prior admissions that it negotiated the benefit structure directly tie it to the removal of access to HIV medication — a deprivation with serious health consequences;
- The current litigation defense, disclaiming all responsibility, is being used to shield Randi Weingarten and her collusion with Judge Brian Cogan, who interfered in Plaintiff's legal representation by blocking attorney communications, obstructing filings, and distorting procedural history to sabotage Plaintiff's access to relief;
- Simultaneously, this reversal conceals the fact that the DOE had prior knowledge of the health insurance scheme — having planned or approved it in advance with union coordination — and used that knowledge to deprive Plaintiff of a liberty interest in continued medical care without a hearing, notice, or any procedural safeguard in violation of Cleveland Bd. of Educ. v. Loudermill, 470 U.S. 532 (1985) and Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254 (1970).

This type of strategic about-face to conceal unlawful interference and suppress accountability rises beyond traditional estoppel concerns. It supports a broader theory of fraud upon the court, Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238 (1944), and justifies judicial estoppel under both constitutional and equitable principles.

As noted in King v. Herbert J. Thomas Memorial Hospital, 159 F.3d 192, 196–97 (4th Cir. 1998), and Simon v. Safelite Glass Corp., 128 F.3d 68, 72 (2d Cir. 1997), judicial estoppel is especially appropriate when a party seeks to benefit from misrepresentation or distortion in a later proceeding. That is precisely what is occurring here.

By asserting responsibility in one forum to protect the City and its policies, then denying all involvement in this federal forum to avoid liability, the UFT seeks to insulate itself — and its leadership — from legal scrutiny for orchestrating or enabling a discriminatory and unconstitutional plan, carried out with the complicity of judges, arbitrators, and city administrators.

The Court should not permit such conduct.

JURISDICTION AND UNAUTHORIZED ACTION BY MAGISTRATE JUDGE

I. INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER HAS NO

STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO
DISPOSITIVE
WITHOUT
REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction is divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE
UNLAWFUL
PENDING
MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of
today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and therefore requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines, and
3. Acknowledge that Magistrate Judge

Lehrburger's continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.

4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

"The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal."

— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58 (1982). "Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal."

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996).

Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER'S CONTINUED INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL

INFRINGEMENT

Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff's allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights.

Moreover, this Court's prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis. Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),
- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights under color of law),
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,
- Strike the May 8, 2025 and May 13, 2025 deadlines as unlawful,
- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

---

Dear Magistrate Judge Lehrburger,

I know it is frivolous and vexatious because it proves the criminal conduct of the UFT, DOE, Randi Weingarten and Mr. Brown.

What do I win by predicting Your Honor’s order?

I have even more evidence to support my motion—but the goal is to conceal the criminal conduct and deprive me of all of my rights

Sincerely,

Lucio Celli

PLAINTIFF’S Motion to Opposition TO DEFENDANTS’ MOTION TO DISMISS, number 1

Plaintiff Lucio Celli (“Plaintiff”), respectfully submits this Memorandum of Law in opposition to the Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss. Plaintiff alleges violations of 42 U.S.C. § 1983, Title VII, Title IX, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, the Affordable Care Act (ACA), and the First and Fourteenth Amendments. Defendants’ conduct, including collusion with the DOE and NYSED, resulted in wage theft, denial of pension and medical rights, and unconstitutional retaliation.

I. INTRODUCTION

The plaintiff alleges that the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), in conspiracy with the DOE and NYSED, manipulated Education Law § 3020-a procedures to deprive him of due process, benefits, and protected rights. The misconduct included willful misrepresentation of negotiations, fraudulent suppression of evidence, and targeted retaliation. The collision also involved Judge Cogan's former aide and implicated improper relationships between public officials and the union. The plaintiff's medical, financial, and constitutional harms were the result of this orchestrated deprivation.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) operated as a state actor by jointly participating with the New York City Department of Education (DOE) and the New York State Education Department (NYSED) in executing and enforcing disciplinary and benefit-related policies under color of state law. UFT officials, including high-ranking representatives such as Mark Collins and Randi Weingarten, were given de facto and de jure authority to shape and control procedural due process under Education Law § 3020-a. The union's participation in altering hearing procedures, suppressing documents, directing retaliatory acts, and managing health and pension benefits was not merely advisory or representational—it constituted direct execution of state functions through formal and informal delegation by DOE and NYSED.

1. UFT Director Mark Collins admitted there was no proper negotiation over the 3020-a procedures.
2. DOE and UFT jointly altered disciplinary rights and withheld access to pension, retroactive pay, and wage records. ...
3. UFT Director Mark Collins admitted there was no proper negotiation over the 3020-a procedures.
4. DOE and UFT jointly altered disciplinary rights and withheld access to pension, retroactive pay, and wage records.
5. The plaintiff was denied HIV medication and subjected to ridicule over his NYPD-related trauma, implicating ADA and mental health discrimination.
6. Audio from over 200 judges corroborates systemic UFT misrepresentations.

7. The plaintiff alleges that Judge Cogan's former aide assisted the UFT in shielding misconduct and suppressing records related to pension eligibility.
8. The plaintiff experienced three illegal detentions following DOE's prior knowledge and retaliatory conduct against his protected complaints. These detentions occurred in or around DOE facilities and/or after union or DOE officials made defamatory reports, implicating high-level collaboration among the DOE, UFT, Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cogan, and Randi Weingarten.
9. The plaintiff was denied documents that could prove the UFT/DOE/Cogan conspiracy, including emails admitting involvement by Silverman and others. DOE and UFT officials actively suppressed or misfiled records and correspondence related to the Plaintiff's complaints and benefits eligibility.
10. The plaintiff's First Amendment rights were violated when the DOE aided Randi Weingarten in retaliating against protected speech regarding union corruption and NYPD misconduct.
11. The plaintiff submitted or attempted to submit an application for an accidental disability pension under New York State law but was obstructed by UFT and DOE officials. Documentation supporting this claim, including medical evaluations and procedural eligibility, was withheld or altered by those with institutional or political connections to the defendants. Judge Cogan's former aide is specifically alleged to have facilitated the concealment or mishandling of Plaintiff's pension documents.

12. DOE and UFT officials engaged in retaliatory acts—including workplace isolation, denial of accommodations, and procedural sabotage—shortly after Plaintiff reported violations concerning health access, due process violations, and union misconduct. These acts directly followed Plaintiff's whistleblower disclosures and formed the basis of retaliatory motive under NY Labor Law § 740.
13. UFT Director Mark Collins admitted there was no proper negotiation over the 3020-a procedures.
14. DOE and UFT jointly altered disciplinary rights and withheld access to pension, retroactive pay, and wage records.
15. The plaintiff was denied HIV medication and subjected to ridicule over his NYPD-related trauma, implicating ADA and mental health discrimination.

16. Audio from over 200 judges corroborates systemic UFT misrepresentations.
17. The plaintiff alleges that Judge Cogan's former aide assisted the UFT in shielding misconduct and suppressing records related to pension eligibility.
18. The plaintiff experienced three illegal detentions following DOE's prior knowledge and retaliatory conduct against his protected complaints.
19. The plaintiff was denied documents that could prove the UFT/DOE/Cogan conspiracy, including emails admitting involvement by Silverman and others.
20. The plaintiff's First Amendment rights were violated when the DOE aided Randi Weingarten in retaliating against protected speech regarding union corruption and NYPD misconduct.

III. ARGUMENT

M. Causes of Action and Related Claims

1. Duty of Fair Representation (DFR)

Plaintiff asserts that the United Federation of Teachers breached its statutory duty of fair representation under federal labor law. The UFT acted in bad faith and with a discriminatory motive by failing to challenge DOE's violations of the collectively bargained procedures under § 3020-a, actively misrepresenting negotiations, and colluding with the DOE and NYSED to Plaintiff's detriment. See Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171 (1967); Spellacy v. Airline Pilots Ass'n, 156 F.3d 120 (2d Cir. 1998).

2. Breach of Contract and Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing

The UFT and DOE materially breached the collective bargaining agreement and implied terms by falsifying the nature of negotiated procedures, failing to preserve the bargained-for rights, and knowingly misleading Plaintiff as to his procedural and employment protections. See Gaul v. Interboro Teachers Ass'n, 759 F. Supp. 2d 153 (E.D.N.Y. 2010).

3. Tortious Interference with Contract and Prospective Economic Advantage

Individual actors, including the pension administrator and judicial aide with known personal ties to UFT leadership, intentionally interfered with Plaintiff's access to retirement benefits and post-disciplinary employment. Their interference was motivated by improper personal or political loyalties, separate from their official roles. See NBT Bancorp Inc. v. Fleet/Norstar Fin. Grp., Inc., 87 N.Y.2d 614 (1996).

4. § 1986 Neglect to Prevent Civil Rights Conspiracy

Plaintiff further asserts that various state and federal actors who were aware of the § 1985 conspiracy—including supervisors and judicial officers—failed to intervene or prevent the known constitutional violations, in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1986.

5. False Imprisonment and Abuse of Process (State and Federal Law)

The plaintiff was unlawfully detained on three occasions after DOE and UFT retaliation escalated. These detentions lacked legal foundation and were executed in collusion with Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cogan, and Randi Weingarten, who acted to punish Plaintiff for his protected speech and litigation activity. These detentions support both a state-law false imprisonment claim and a federal First Amendment retaliation claim under Zalaski v. City of Bridgeport Police Dep't, 613 F.3d 336 (2d Cir. 2010).

6. Whistleblower Retaliation under NY Labor Law § 740

The plaintiff raised concerns about illegal conduct, including deprivation of medical access, systemic retaliation, and procedural sabotage. These disclosures are protected under New York's whistleblower protection statute, and the adverse actions taken in response support an independent claim.

7. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)

The ridicule directed at Plaintiff regarding his HIV status and NYPD trauma, paired with the intentional denial of treatment and financial hardship, constitutes extreme and outrageous conduct. These acts were intended to cause—and did cause—severe emotional distress. See Howell v. New York Post Co., 81 N.Y.2d 115 (1993).

8. Due Process Violation in Pension Disability Application

The plaintiff also states a due process violation arising from interference in his right to apply for and be fairly considered for an accidental disability pension under New York State law. This right once applied for and processed through a statutory framework, creates a protected property interest. Denial of this process through collusive suppression by UFT and DOE—combined with Judge Cogan's aide's concealment of relevant documents—constitutes a Fourteenth Amendment violation. See Kapps v. Wing, 404 F.3d 105 (2d Cir. 2005); Cortese v. Town of Southampton, 954 F. Supp. 2d 207 (E.D.N.Y. 2013).

These additional claims are supported by the same factual matrix and reinforce the Plaintiff's entitlement to both equitable and monetary relief.

1. Duty of Fair Representation (DFR)

Plaintiff asserts that the United Federation of Teachers breached its statutory duty of fair representation under federal labor law. The UFT acted in bad faith and with a discriminatory motive by failing to challenge DOE's violations of the collectively bargained procedures under § 3020-a, actively misrepresenting negotiations, and colluding with the DOE and NYSED to Plaintiff's detriment. See Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171 (1967); Spellacy v. Airline Pilots Ass'n, 156 F.3d 120 (2d Cir. 1998).

2. Breach of Contract and Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing

The UFT and DOE materially breached the collective bargaining agreement and implied terms by falsifying the nature of negotiated procedures, failing to preserve the bargained-for rights, and knowingly misleading Plaintiff as to his procedural and employment protections. See Gaul v. Interboro Teachers Ass'n, 759 F. Supp. 2d 153 (E.D.N.Y. 2010).

3. Tortious Interference with Contract and Prospective Economic Advantage

Individual actors, including the pension administrator and judicial aide with known personal ties to UFT leadership, intentionally interfered with Plaintiff's access to retirement benefits and post-disciplinary employment. Their interference was motivated by improper personal or political loyalties, separate from their official roles. See NBT Bancorp Inc. v. Fleet/Norstar Fin. Grp., Inc., 87 N.Y.2d 614 (1996).

4. § 1986 Neglect to Prevent Civil Rights Conspiracy

Plaintiff further asserts that various state and federal actors who were aware of the § 1985 conspiracy—including supervisors and judicial officers—failed to intervene or prevent the known constitutional violations, in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1986. The deprivation of liberty without due process

5. False Imprisonment and Abuse of Process (State Law)

The plaintiff was unlawfully detained on three occasions after DOE and UFT retaliation escalated. These detentions lacked proper legal foundation and were part of a broader scheme to intimidate Plaintiff and obstruct his legal claims. See Broughton v. State of New York, 37 N.Y.2d 451 (1975).[1]

6. Whistleblower Retaliation under NY Labor Law § 740

The plaintiff raised concerns about illegal conduct, including deprivation of medical access, systemic retaliation, and procedural sabotage. These disclosures are protected under New York's whistleblower protection statute, and the adverse actions taken in response support an independent claim.

7. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)

The ridicule directed at Plaintiff regarding his HIV status and NYPD trauma, paired with the intentional denial of treatment and financial hardship, constitutes extreme and outrageous conduct. These acts were intended to cause—and did cause—severe emotional distress.

See Howell v. New York Post Co., 81 N.Y.2d 115 (1993).

These additional claims are supported by the same factual matrix and reinforce the Plaintiff's entitlement to both equitable and monetary relief.

A. Standard of Review

Dismissal is inappropriate where the complaint states a plausible claim. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662 (2009); Twombly, 550 U.S. 544 (2007).

B. Plaintiff States a Claim for Theft of Wages

Standard of Review: To survive a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6), a complaint must plead “enough facts to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). The court must accept all factual allegations in the complaint as true and draw all reasonable inferences in favor of the plaintiff. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009); LeSane v. Hall's Sec. Analyst, Inc., 239 F.3d 206, 209 (2d Cir. 2001).

Application to Facts: Plaintiff has presented detailed factual allegations showing that the UFT, in coordination with DOE and NYSED, falsely asserted there had been no negotiation over the 3020-a process. This misrepresentation directly affected Plaintiff's access to retroactive pay, pension benefits, and salary, as disciplinary procedures were altered to Plaintiff's detriment without lawful basis. UFT Director Mark Collins's recorded admissions confirm that the union intentionally failed to negotiate, undermining Plaintiff's rights.

Additionally, judicial audio evidence—documenting over 200 judges commenting on the same pattern of union misrepresentations—supports the assertion that this misconduct was systemic and deliberate. These facts demonstrate more than a speculative injury: they establish that Plaintiff suffered economic harm through the theft of wages, orchestrated by parties cloaked in state authority. As such, the complaint pleads a facially plausible claim under Twombly and Iqbal.

The plaintiff alleges that misrepresentations regarding the 3020-a process led to the deprivation of retroactive pay and pension benefits. These allegations implicate violations of his property interest protected under the Fourteenth Amendment. See Cleveland Bd. of Educ. v. Loudermill, 470 U.S. 532 (1985); Board of Regents v. Roth, 408 U.S. 564 (1972).

Direct admissions from UFT officials and corroborative judicial audio confirm that Plaintiff was denied his rightful benefits through deceptive practices, supporting a plausible claim.

C. Plaintiff States a Claim for Denial of Due Process

Legal Standard: To state a due process claim under the Fourteenth Amendment, a plaintiff must allege (1) a constitutionally protected liberty or property interest; (2) that he was deprived of that interest; and (3) the deprivation occurred without adequate process. See Zinerman v. Burch, 494 U.S. 113, 125 (1990); Loudermill, 470 U.S. at 538–39.

Application to Facts:

(1) Protected Interest: Plaintiff had a property interest in continued employment, wages, and pension benefits—interests clearly protected by due process.

(2) Deprivation: Plaintiff was deprived of these interests through a manipulated 3020-a process that restricted his ability to present evidence, call witnesses, or access negotiated protections. The denial of HIV medication, stemming from the disciplinary process, compounded this harm.

(3) Lack of Process: The procedures were materially altered without notice or negotiation. The misrepresentation by UFT officials, documented by both Mark Collins and corroborated judicial commentary, deprived Plaintiff of fair notice and opportunity to be heard.

These facts satisfy the prongs required for a due process claim under § 1983 and support the Plaintiff's assertion that the deprivation was systemic, deliberate, and unconstitutional.

The plaintiff was denied a meaningful opportunity to be heard in the 3020-a process. This includes the inability to present evidence related to his medical condition and employment status. The manipulation of procedural rules in coordination with state actors violated Plaintiff's constitutional rights. See Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976). The denial of pre-deprivation due process alone is sufficient to sustain the § 1983 claim.

D. Pension & Property Interest Violation

Plaintiff was denied pension access based on a misrepresented 3020-a process. Such denial implicates due process protections. See Loudermill, Roth. Denial of pension eligibility through concealed misconduct and false representation by UFT officials—facilitated by Judge Cogan's former aide—undermines both statutory and constitutional rights.

E. Title VII and Title IX Violations

Legal Standard: To state a claim under Title VII or Title IX, a plaintiff must show (1) membership in a protected class or association with such; (2) that he was subject to an adverse employment action; and (3) that the action occurred under circumstances giving rise to an inference of discrimination or retaliation. See McDonnell Douglas Corp. v. Green, 411 U.S. 792 (1973); Vega v. Hempstead Union Free Sch. Dist., 801 F.3d 72, 83 (2d Cir. 2015).

Application to Facts:

(1) Protected Class and Associative Bias: Plaintiff alleges discriminatory and retaliatory treatment connected to his complaints about NYPD conduct and his health condition. He also identifies the pension administrator as a close personal associate of Randi Weingarten, creating the inference of bias through association and retaliation for protected activities.

(2) Adverse Action: Plaintiff suffered the loss of pension benefits, and denial of retroactive pay, and was excluded from procedural protections during 3020-a proceedings—each constituting adverse employment actions.

(3) Inferred Discrimination and Retaliation: The timing of the benefit denials, relationship ties among UFT leadership, and internal coordination support a plausible inference that Plaintiff was targeted for raising complaints and not participating in protected union relationships. These facts meet the pleading standard for both retaliation and discrimination claims under Title VII and Title IX.

The pension administrator, described as closely aligned with Randi Weingarten, acted with a clear bias against Plaintiff. Title VII and Title IX prohibit discrimination and retaliation based on sex, association, and protected complaints. The plaintiff alleges that decisions about benefits and wages were affected by relationships and prejudices tied to union leadership.

F. ADA and § 504 Violations

Legal Standard: A plaintiff asserting claims under the ADA or § 504 must allege (1) he is a qualified individual with a disability; (2) was denied the benefits of a public entity's services, programs, or activities; and (3) such denial was because of his disability. See Henrietta D. v. Bloomberg, 331 F.3d 261, 272 (2d Cir. 2003).

Application to Facts:

- (1) Qualified Individual: Plaintiff's HIV diagnosis and related mental health conditions qualify as disabilities under federal law.
- (2) Denial of Benefits: The plaintiff was denied access to essential medication, mental health accommodations, and medical coverage following his removal from employment.
- (3) Disability-Related Motive: UFT and DOE officials denied accommodations while simultaneously subjecting Plaintiff to ridicule regarding his HIV status and NYPD trauma. These actions occurred during a tainted disciplinary process and constitute actionable discrimination under both the ADA and § 504.

Denial of HIV medication and mockery of Plaintiff's NYPD-related trauma amount to disability discrimination. See Henrietta D. v. Bloomberg, 331 F.3d 261 (2d Cir. 2003). Defendants refused to accommodate Plaintiff's mental and physical health needs during and after the altered disciplinary proceedings.

G. ACA Violations

Legal Standard: Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act prohibits discrimination based on race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability in any health program or activity receiving federal financial assistance. To state a claim, a plaintiff must show (1) he was denied access to healthcare services; (2) the healthcare entity receives federal financial assistance; and (3) the denial was motivated by a prohibited discriminatory basis. See Rumble v. Fairview Health Servs., 2015 WL 1197415 (D. Minn. 2015).

Application to Facts:

- (1) Denial of Services: Plaintiff was denied HIV medication, despite being eligible for such coverage under the public employer plan jointly administered by DOE and UFT.
- (2) Federal Assistance: Both DOE and UFT programs receive federal funding as part of their health and employment-related services.
- (3) Discriminatory Basis: The denial was not neutral—it followed retaliatory disciplinary actions and was accompanied by ridicule related to Plaintiff's HIV status and mental condition. This supports a claim under the ACA based on disability discrimination and unequal access to medically necessary treatment.

The plaintiff's right to nondiscriminatory access to healthcare was obstructed. Coordination between UFT and DOE to block coverage violated Section 1557 of the ACA. See Rumble v. Fairview Health Servs., 2015 WL 1197415 (D. Minn. 2015). This violation includes both pretextual denial and deliberate indifference to essential HIV-related treatment.

H. Wage and Retroactive Pay Conspiracy

Judge Cogan's former aide allegedly helped conceal evidence that the UFT had diverted wages from Plaintiff to benefit its affiliates. This financial harm, grounded in official misconduct, supports claims under § 1983, Title VII, and the First Amendment. The cover-up of wage theft involving judicial actors highlights the systemic breadth of the conspiracy.

I. Collusion with State Actors – § 1983

Under Lugar v. Edmondson Oil Co., 457 U.S. 922 (1982); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980); and Brentwood Acad. v. Tenn. Secondary Sch. Athletic Ass'n, 531 U.S. 288 (2001), private parties who act jointly with the state or exercise significant state control may be deemed state actors under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The Second Circuit has reaffirmed this principle in Ciambriello v. County of Nassau, 292 F.3d 307 (2d Cir. 2002), and Sybski v. Indep. Grp. Home Living Program, Inc., 546 F.3d 255 (2d Cir. 2008).

Application to Facts:

Here, the UFT is alleged to have acted jointly with the DOE and NYSED in altering disciplinary procedures, denying pension and medical benefits, suppressing evidence, and engaging in retaliatory conduct. Plaintiff alleges that UFT officials, including Randi Weingarten and Mark Collins, were not merely advocates but exercised decision-making authority traditionally reserved to public employers. The DOE and NYSED delegated, acquiesced in, or ratified these actions—thus cloaking the union's misconduct with the authority of the state. These allegations satisfy the joint action and close nexus tests under Second Circuit precedent and render the UFT a state actor for purposes of liability under § 1983.

Under Lugar v. Edmondson Oil Co., 457 U.S. 922 (1982); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980); and Brentwood Acad. v. Tenn. Secondary Sch. Athletic Ass'n, 531 U.S. 288 (2001), private parties who act jointly with the state are liable under § 1983. The Second Circuit has affirmed this in Ciambriello v. County of Nassau, 292 F.3d 307 (2d Cir. 2002), and Sybski v. Indep. Grp. Home Living Program, Inc., 546 F.3d 255 (2d Cir. 2008). The plaintiff has alleged facts showing concerted action among UFT, DOE, and NYSED to deprive him of constitutional rights.

Further

Full and Fair Credit Claim: New York law provides tenured teachers with substantial procedural protections against termination. Education Law § 3020-a(1) states that “[n]o person enjoying the benefits of tenure shall be disciplined or removed except for just cause and only after a hearing upon stated charges.” The Court of Appeals has repeatedly affirmed that these protections are mandatory.

In Matter of Pell v. Board of Education, 34 N.Y.2d 222 (1974), the Court of Appeals underscored that due process in teacher disciplinary matters requires adherence to § 3020-a procedures. Similarly, in Ricca v. Board of Educ., 47 N.Y.2d 385 (1979), the court ruled that tenure confers a property interest, and termination without compliance with § 3020-a violates due process.

Moreover, Matter of Holt v. Board of Educ., 52 N.Y.2d 625 (1981) held that deviations from § 3020-a, including denial of a hearing or an arbitrator's failure to follow due process, render a termination void. These cases establish that the due process rights of a tenured teacher are non-waivable and cannot be circumvented by an employer or a union's inaction.

Here, Petitioner was denied her due process rights when the UFT failed to process her grievance, preventing her from invoking the protections of § 3020-a. This failure effectively deprived her of a full hearing, violating both her constitutional and statutory rights.

Property interests are not created by the Constitution; rather, "they are created and their dimensions are defined by existing rules or understandings that stem from an independent source such as state law-rules or understandings that secure certain benefits and that support claims of entitlement to those benefits." Bd. of Regents of State Colls. v. Roth, 408 U.S. 564, 577, 92 S.Ct. 2701, 33 L.Ed.2d 548 (1972). In order to have had a property interest in the PMM-II position, Ciambriello must have had "a legitimate claim of entitlement to it." Id. A public employee has a property interest in continued employment if the employee is guaranteed continued employment absent "just cause" for discharge. Moffitt v. Town of Brookfield, 950 F.2d 880, 885 (2d Cir. 1991). While state law determines whether a public employee has a property interest in continued employment, "federal constitutional law determines whether that interest rises to the level of a legitimate claim of entitlement protected by the Due Process Clause." Ezekwo v. NYC Health Hosps. Corp., 940 F.2d 775, 782 (2d Cir. 1991) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted) (noting that "not every contractual benefit rises to the level of a constitutionally protected property interest").

We have recognized that "§ 75 gives covered employees a property interest in their employment, so that they may not be terminated without notice and hearing." O'Neill v. City of Auburn, 23 F.3d 685, 688 (2d Cir. 1994). Section 75 rights, however, may be modified or replaced by a collective bargaining agreement. N.Y. Civ. Serv. Law § 76\(4\) (McKinney 1999). Here, § 10-1 of the CBA replaced whatever rights Ciambriello would otherwise have derived from § 75, providing:

Except where an accrediting agency regulating a County department requires otherwise, the provisions of this section shall be exclusive for all persons in the negotiating unit and shall be in lieu of any and all other statutory or regulatory disciplinary protections.

See Moffitt, 950 F.2d at 885 (finding that plaintiff had a property interest in his employment as a result of collective bargaining agreement provision stating that he could not be fired without just cause); Dobosz v. Walsh, 892 F.2d 1135, 1141 (2d Cir. 1989) (same).

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1738, "judicial proceedings [of any court of any State] . . . shall have the same full faith and credit in every court within the United States . . . as they have by law or usage in the courts of such State. . . ." The question, then, is whether the New York courts would afford preclusive effect to the state court confirmation proceeding in a subsequent § 1983 action. See Fayer v. Town of Middlebury, 258 F.3d 117, 125-26 (2d Cir. 2001) (holding that Connecticut courts would not afford preclusive effect to state court judgment confirming arbitration award in subsequent § 1983 action).

In order to apply collateral estoppel under New York law, "it must be shown that the party against whom collateral estoppel is sought to be invoked had been afforded a full and fair opportunity to contest the decision said to be dispositive of the present controversy." Gramatan Home Investors Corp. v. Lopez, 46 N.Y.2d 481, 414 N.Y.S.2d 308, 386 N.E.2d 1328, 1331 (1979); accord Continental Cas. Co. v. Rapid-Am. Corp., 80 N.Y.2d 640, 593 N.Y.S.2d 966, 609 N.E.2d 506, 510 (1993). Because it is undisputed that Ciambriello never received notice of or an opportunity to participate in either the arbitration or the state court confirmation proceeding, he was not afforded a full and fair opportunity to contest the prior decision. As a result, the New York courts would not give preclusive effect to the judgment confirming the arbitrator's award. See, e.g., Lyons v. Med. Malpractice Ins. Ass'n, 275 A.D.2d 396, 713 N.Y.S.2d 61, 62 (N.Y.App.Div. 2000) (holding that appellants were not bound by verdict in previous action because they were not parties to that action). Thus, under 28 U.S.C. § 1738, we also must decline to give the state court judgment preclusive effect.

J. First Amendment Retaliation

Legal Standard: To plead a First Amendment retaliation claim, a plaintiff must allege (1) he engaged in constitutionally protected speech; (2) he suffered an adverse action; and (3) there was a causal connection between the speech and the adverse action. See Heffernan v. City of Paterson, 578 U.S. 266 (2016); Zelnik v. Fashion Inst. of Tech., 464 F.3d 217, 225 (2d Cir. 2006).

Application to Facts:

- (1) Protected Speech: The plaintiff spoke out against union corruption, NYPD abuse, and procedural fraud concerning the 3020-a process—matters of public concern.
- (2) Adverse Action: In response, Plaintiff was denied wages, pension, and medical care, and experienced retaliatory detentions. He was also denied documentation needed to prove collusion.
- (3) Causation: The DOE's and UFT's adverse responses occurred after Plaintiff's protected disclosures and were carried out in concert with other retaliatory acts, suggesting a coordinated effort to chill his speech. These facts satisfy the First Amendment pleading standard.

DOE and UFT punished Plaintiff for speech protected under the First Amendment, including disclosures about union corruption and NYPD misconduct. Pickering v. Bd. of Educ., 391 U.S. 563 (1968); Heffernan v. City of Paterson, 578 U.S. 266 (2016). The retaliatory detentions and withholding of documents further demonstrate the infringement of Plaintiff's expressive rights.

K. § 1985 Conspiracy Claim

Legal Standard: To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), a plaintiff must allege (1) a conspiracy; (2) for the purpose of depriving him of equal protection of the laws; (3) an overt act in furtherance of the conspiracy; and (4) injury to person or property, or deprivation of a legal right. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Cine SK8 v. Town of Henrietta, 507 F.3d 778, 791 (2d Cir. 2007).

Application to Facts:

- (1) Conspiracy: Plaintiff alleges a detailed scheme involving the UFT, DOE, NYSED, and judicial officials to misrepresent negotiated procedures and retaliate against whistleblowing.
- (2) Discriminatory Purpose: The conspiracy targeted Plaintiff for his disabilities, political speech, and exposure of union misconduct, implicating discriminatory animus and suppression of protected rights.
- (3) Overt Acts: These included manipulated disciplinary proceedings, suppression of wage and pension rights, obstruction of access to medical care, and illegal detentions.
- (4) Resulting Harm: Plaintiff suffered wage theft, denial of due process, and physical and psychological harm, all traceable to coordinated official action. The allegations meet the legal threshold under § 1985(3).

The plaintiff alleges an actionable conspiracy involving the UFT, DOE, NYSED, and judicial actors. Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Cine SK8 v. Town of Henrietta, 507 F.3d 778 (2d Cir. 2007). The coordinated suppression of evidence and institutional complicity satisfies the pleading standard.

L. Monell Liability, Injunctive Relief, and Punitive Damages

Legal Standard (Monell): To establish municipal or institutional liability under Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), a plaintiff must show (1) the existence of an official policy, custom, or practice; (2) that such policy caused the constitutional violation; and (3) that the entity had final policymaking authority or ratified the illegal conduct.

Application to Facts: The plaintiff has alleged that the DOE and UFT had an established custom of manipulating disciplinary proceedings under § 3020-a, which included coordinated denial of negotiated rights, concealment of documents, and retaliation against protected complaints. These acts were not isolated, but part of a systemic practice aided by official personnel, including judicial aides and high-level union officials. Because the DOE and NYSED deferred to the UFT's interpretation and execution of disciplinary policy without oversight, they effectively ratified and institutionalized these practices.

Injunctive Relief: Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief requiring the DOE and UFT to disclose all relevant records, cease retaliatory practices, restore pension eligibility and healthcare access, and halt the misrepresentation of 3020-a procedures.

Punitive Damages: Given the malicious and intentional nature of Defendants' conduct—including the denial of lifesaving HIV medication, suppression of whistleblower evidence, and infliction of psychological trauma—Plaintiff seeks punitive damages to deter similar misconduct. Courts have authorized punitive damages in § 1983 and related civil rights actions where there is evidence of willful and egregious constitutional violations. See Smith v. Wade, 461 U.S. 30 (1983).

IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny Defendants' Motion to Dismiss in its entirety;
2. Declare that the actions of the Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights under the U.S. Constitution, Title VII, Title IX, the ADA, § 504, the ACA, and 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985;
3. Issue an injunction compelling Defendants to:

- Restore Plaintiff's due process rights for accidental pension disability and retroactive pay/wages stolen by the Weingarten/UFT/Judge Cogan and recalculate pension payments;
  - Reinstate medical coverage, including HIV treatment access--appears to be already done;
  - Cease all retaliation and unlawful manipulation of 3020-a procedures;
  - Disclose and produce all withheld documents, including evidence related to internal collusion and misconduct;
4. Award compensatory damages for economic loss, emotional distress, and physical harm--HIV drug resistance;
  5. Award punitive damages for Defendants' willful and malicious conduct;
  6. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court deny Defendants' Motion to Dismiss and allow this matter to proceed to discovery.

Respectfully submitted,
Lucio Celli

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

MOTION TO DEFER DISMISSAL Until ALL Defendants have Answered And/OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR EXTENSION OF TIME to Service the Added Defendants (Relates to my request for 3rd Amendment Complaint and forthcoming motion under FRCP 11)

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court defer ruling on any motion to dismiss or dispositive motion filed by any single defendant until such time as all named defendants have been served and afforded the opportunity to answer or otherwise respond. Alternatively, Plaintiff requests an extension of 30 days to complete service on the remaining defendants and ensure proper joinder of all necessary parties.

I believe my request is governed by FRCP 15 and FRCP 54

Legal Note: The Application and Scope of Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872) in Multi-Defendant Litigation Involving Joint or Interdependent Liability

Introduction and Overview

The central issue addressed in this note is the proper judicial approach to entering judgment—particularly default judgment—against one or more defendants in a multi-defendant action where liability is alleged to be joint or otherwise interdependent. Specifically, the question is whether, under the doctrine established in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), a court must withhold judgment against a defaulting defendant until the case is resolved as to all co-defendants, in order to avoid the risk of inconsistent or incongruous judgments.

The user seeks to develop a comprehensive, persuasive argument that, where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must await the resolution of the case as to all defendants before entering judgment against any one defendant. The most effective argument in support of this position is that the Supreme Court's holding in Frow v. De La Vega has been consistently reaffirmed and applied by federal courts across the United States, and that the rationale underlying Frow—namely, the avoidance of inconsistent judgments and the preservation of judicial integrity—remains compelling and controlling in cases of joint or interdependent liability.

Relevant Facts and Factual Assumptions

For the purposes of this analysis, the following factual assumptions are made, consistent with the authorities provided:

1. The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted (i.e., failed to answer or otherwise defend).
2. The plaintiff's theory of liability is joint, joint and several, or otherwise interdependent, such that the liability of one defendant is not wholly independent of the liability of the others.
3. The case remains pending as to at least one non-defaulting defendant, who is actively contesting the claims.
4. The risk exists that entering judgment against the defaulting defendant could result in an outcome inconsistent with the eventual resolution of the claims against the non-defaulting defendant(s).

Where facts are ambiguous—such as whether the liability is truly joint, joint and several, or merely “closely interrelated”—the analysis will address the implications of each scenario, as the authorities recognize some divergence in the application of Frow depending on the nature of the alleged liability.

Legal Principles and Points of Law

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->The Frow Rule: No Judgment Against One Defendant Where Liability is Joint and the Case is Pending Against Others

The Supreme Court in Frow v. De La Vega held that, in cases of joint liability, “judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552, 554 (1872) (“If the court in such a case as this can lawfully make a final decree against one defendant separately, on the merits, while the cause was proceeding undetermined against the others, then this absurdity might follow: there might be one decree of the court sustaining the charge of joint fraud committed by the defendants; and another decree disaffirming the said charge, and declaring it to be entirely unfounded, and dismissing the complainant’s bill. That incongruity would of itself show the impropriety of such a proceeding in cases of joint liability.”).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Rationale: Avoidance of Inconsistent Judgments

The core rationale for the Frow rule is the avoidance of inconsistent or logically incongruous judgments. As explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy,

Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021), “The purpose of postponing decision on the default judgment is to avoid the risk of inconsistent results: the defaulting party being held liable on default while the non-defaulting party ultimately being found not liable at the conclusion of the case. ... The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Application to Joint, Joint and Several, and Interdependent Liability

While Frow’s original context was joint liability, federal courts have extended its logic to cases of joint and several liability, and to situations where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.” See Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430, 434-35 (E.D. Va. 2006) (“the Fourth Circuit has concluded that Frow applies not only to defendants who are alleged to be jointly liable, but also to those defendants thought to be jointly and/or severally liable, or who are otherwise closely interrelated”); Ferrari Fin. Servs., Inc. v. Yokoyama, CIVIL NO. 18-00136 JAO-RLP (D. Haw. Sep. 6, 2018) (Ninth Circuit extends Frow to “similarly situated” defendants).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) and the Frow Doctrine

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow’s caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) (“A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: ‘the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.’”).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->5. <!--[endif]-->Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.” In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow’s logic.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->6. <!--[endif]-->Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The “better practice” is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants. See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) (“the ‘better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved’”).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->7. <!--[endif]-->If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) (“if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants”).

<!--[if !supportLists]--> I. <!--[endif]-->Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow is directly on point: “If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: “in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): “The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also

The Ninth Circuit’s approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022), is that “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to “closely interrelated” defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 (E.D. Va. 2006).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is “just reason for delay” in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 (N.D. Cal. 2001) (“Frow’s applicability turns not on labels such as ‘joint liability’ or ‘joint and several liability,’ but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.”).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->5. <!--[endif]-->Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 (E.D. Va. 2022).[1]

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.

- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.
- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.
- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.
- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff’s claim against the nondefaulters is resolved”).

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

“Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment.”

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Riple v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government's strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions such as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

<!--[if !supportLists]--> IV. <!--[endif]-->CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 – Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City’s residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->5. <!--[endif]-->Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->6. <!--[endif]-->The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->○ <!--[endif]-->The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->○ <!--[endif]-->The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->◦ <!--[endif]-->UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City's possession.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->7. <!--[endif]-->One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->◦ <!--[endif]-->The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->◦ <!--[endif]-->The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->◦ <!--[endif]-->Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->◦ <!--[endif]-->Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->8. <!--[endif]-->These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City's litigation position was legally and factually false.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->9. <!--[endif]-->Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->10. <!--[endif]-->It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Perjury (by City and union officials);

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Obstruction of justice;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Retaliation against a whistleblower;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Misappropriation of wages and benefits;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Interference with federal and state

proceedings.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->11. <!--[endif]-->Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->12. <!--[endif]-->Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc'd on key email communications that documented Plaintiff's assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->13. <!--[endif]-->These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->14. <!--[endif]-->The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);

<!--[if !supportLists]-->15. <!--[endif]-->These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department ("Corporation Counsel") both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff's wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.
5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department's institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants' control or possession.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> VI. <!--[endif]--> Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court's decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

RE: Complaint for Termination of Federal Funding to NYC DOE, NYS DOE, NYC DOI, NYC City Council, and Affiliates for Systemic Violations of Federal Grant Conditions and Constitutional Rights

Dear President Trump, Attorney General Bondi, Members of Congress, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation:

I am writing to formally request a federal investigation and immediate termination of federal funds to the following entities based on substantial evidence of corruption, fraud, and civil rights violations:

- New York City Department of Education (NYC DOE)
- New York State Department of Education (NYS DOE)
- New York City Department of Investigation (DOI)
- New York City Council
- New York City Law Department
- United Federation of Teachers (UFT)

These actors are knowingly engaged in conduct that violates 2 C.F.R. Part 200, Appendix XII, governing integrity and performance conditions for federal grant recipients, including Byrne JAG funds, Title I and IDEA education grants, and federally administered health programs. These violations materially affect the integrity of publicly funded programs and have harmed both employees and students.

I. Basis for Complaint

Under Appendix XII to 2 C.F.R. Part 200, recipients of federal funds must:

- Refrain from fraudulent, retaliatory, or obstructive conduct;
- Comply with civil rights laws, due process, and transparency mandates;
- Be subject to suspension or termination of funds for material failure to comply.

These obligations were categorically breached by the above entities, which have:

- Used federal education and law enforcement funds to implement false disciplinary charges outside of statutory protections under Education Law § 3020-a;
- Denied federally funded HIV medications and mental health access to retaliate against protected speech in violation of the ADA, ACA, and Title VII;
- Falsified internal records and misrepresented their compliance with federal law;
- Colluded with union officials and arbitrators to conceal deprivation of constitutional and statutory rights, including First Amendment retaliation;
- Misrepresented facts in federal litigation and failed to disclose the role of UFT in controlling policy execution while receiving public funds.

II. Statutory and Constitutional Violations

- 18 U.S.C. § 666: Misappropriation and conversion of federal funds;
- 18 U.S.C. § 641: Theft or misuse of public funds;
- 18 U.S.C. § 371: Criminal conspiracy to defraud the U.S. government;
- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – including by DOI official Strauber;
- False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. § 3729 et seq.: For knowingly submitting false representations of compliance;
- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978): Municipal liability for deprivations under color of law;
- 2 C.F.R. §§ 200.339–200.341: Grounds for termination of awards;
- Appendix XII to Part 200: Mandating administrative consequences for grant recipients who conceal, misreport, or abuse federally funded programs.

III. Named Officials and Failures to Act

Notices and complaints were submitted to the following officials, each of whom failed to act despite clear obligations under federal and municipal law:

- Mr. Strauber, NYC Department of Investigation – failed to investigate or report known fraud;
- Law Department Attorneys, including [Insert Names if Available] – knowingly defended and concealed retaliatory conduct;

- NYC City Council Members, who received material notices of wrongdoing but took no remedial action.

These failures violate the New York City Charter:

- Charter § 1116: Willful violations of law mandate removal from office;
- Charter § 2604: Prohibits conflicts of interest and demands good faith in city operations;
- Charter § 803 et seq.: Requires oversight bodies to act on misconduct involving public money.

IV. Relief Requested

In accordance with federal law and your oversight responsibilities, I respectfully request:

1. Immediate termination and suspension of all federal funds to the above entities pending full investigation;
2. Referral of the matter to the DOJ Office of Inspector General, FBI Public Corruption Division, and Grants Oversight Agencies;
3. A Congressional hearing into the systemic abuse of federal education and law enforcement funds by NYC municipal bodies and affiliated unions;
4. Prosecution or civil enforcement under the False Claims Act, Civil Rights Act, and relevant criminal statutes.

I am prepared to provide extensive documentation, including:

- Court filings;
- Email records;
- Audio recordings of union and DOE officials admitting to misconduct;
- FOIL records and internal memos confirming procedural fraud.

Thank you for your attention to this urgent matter affecting the rights of public employees, the integrity of federal grant programs, and the lawful administration of justice.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION PURSUANT TO THE ALL WRITS ACT AND FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 59(e)

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to reconsider its prior ruling [insert ECF No. or date] pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) and the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651, in light of the controlling principles articulated by the United States Supreme Court in United States v. New York Telephone Co., 434 U.S. 159 (1977). I understand that Your Honor believes that my filing is frivolous based on the case cited, but frivolous has no basis in law and even if this case is controlling, Your Honor could decide to simply deny it for Your Honor could fix it later, which I have read this as well.

I. INTRODUCTION

In New York Telephone, the Supreme Court upheld a district court's authority under the All Writs Act to compel a regulated utility to assist federal investigators in executing a valid surveillance order, even though the utility was not a party and had not engaged in wrongdoing. The Court reasoned that where a third party is “in a position to frustrate the implementation of a court order,” a district court may lawfully compel minimal assistance to effectuate its jurisdiction. 434 U.S. at 174.

Here, Plaintiff respectfully asserts that similar judicial authority exists to prevent third parties—including government actors and regulated institutions—from frustrating this Court’s prior orders or from impeding the proper administration of justice.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Reconsideration is warranted where “the Court has overlooked controlling decisions or factual matters that were put before it on the underlying motion.” Shrader v. CSX Transp., Inc., 70 F.3d 255, 257 (2d Cir. 1995). Under the All Writs Act, courts may “issue all writs necessary or appropriate in aid of their respective jurisdictions and agreeable to the usages and principles of law.” 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a).

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Court Has Authority Under the All Writs Act to Compel Assistance from Third Parties

As in New York Telephone, where a non-party utility company’s refusal to cooperate would have frustrated the government’s lawful use of pen registers, Plaintiff alleges that [insert actor, e.g., “the New York City Department of Education”] has obstructed this Court’s jurisdiction by [insert conduct—e.g., withholding documents, denying health insurance, etc.]. In such circumstances, the All Writs Act empowers the Court to compel limited cooperation. See New York Tel., 434 U.S. at 172–74.

B. The Assistance Sought is Minimal and Essential to the Exercise of Jurisdiction

In New York Telephone, the utility was ordered to provide “leased lines” for covert surveillance—a technical task well within its public obligations. The Supreme Court emphasized that “the assistance requested requires no extraordinary expenditure of time or effort” and was reimbursable. Id. at 175. Likewise, here, Plaintiff seeks [insert specific relief, e.g., clarification of insurance administrator, production of CBA, enforcement of court notice]—actions that are routine, factual, and not unduly burdensome.

C. Denial of Relief Would Permit Frustration of Judicial Orders and Due Process

Failure to compel this limited assistance risks undermining the integrity of these proceedings and the enforcement of the Court’s jurisdiction. The Supreme Court warned against permitting third parties to “thwart a judicial determination that [action] is required to apprehend and prosecute successfully” misconduct. Id. at 178.

D. Rebuttal Argument for Reconsideration:

Respectfully, while this Court cites the rule that one district court cannot stay proceedings in another district as a matter of routine case management (see Sedaker Group, supra), the All Writs Act (28 U.S.C. § 1651(a)) provides an exception to that general rule. As the Supreme Court held in United States v. New York Telephone Co., 434 U.S. 159 (1977), courts may issue orders binding upon nonparties—and in effect beyond their immediate jurisdiction—where necessary to protect their lawful orders or prevent frustration of justice.

Moreover, multiple circuit courts recognize that when a parallel proceeding threatens to undermine a court’s jurisdiction or constitutional rights at issue, limited intervention or coordination may be warranted under exceptional circumstances. See, e.g., FTC v. Dean Foods Co., 384 U.S. 597, 608–09 (1966) (All Writs Act used to preserve the integrity of appellate review); Klay v. United Healthgroup, Inc., 376 F.3d 1092 (11th Cir. 2004).

Therefore, Plaintiff does not seek to improperly usurp the jurisdiction of another court, but rather invokes this Court’s ancillary and protective authority to prevent irreparable harm and preserve the integrity of judicial proceedings across districts where issues, evidence, and constitutional violations are intertwined.

The following were all denied, which all deal with Judge Engelmayer’s order, constitutional rights, and so –Judge Lehrburger is prevent frustrate of justice

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court reconsider its prior ruling and exercise its discretion under the All Writs Act and Rule 59(e) to ensure enforcement of its jurisdiction and prevent obstruction by third parties.

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow’s caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) (“A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: ‘the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.’”).

5. Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.” In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow’s logic.

6. Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The “better practice” is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants. See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) (“the ‘better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved’”).

7. If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) (“if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants”).

I. Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

1. Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

2. Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow is directly on point: “If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: “in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): “The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

The Ninth Circuit’s approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022), is that “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to “closely interrelated” defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 (E.D. Va. 2006).

3. Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is “just reason for delay” in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

4. Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 (N.D. Cal. 2001) (“Frow’s applicability turns not on labels such as ‘joint liability’ or ‘joint and several liability,’ but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.”).

5. Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 (E.D. Va. 2022).[1]

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.
- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.
- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.
- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.
- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff’s claim against the nondefaulters is resolved”).

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

“Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment.”

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Riple v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government's strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

2. THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions such as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

3. DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 – Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.
2. Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.
3. Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.
4. Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City’s residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.
5. Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.
6. The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:
  - The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;
  - The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;
  - UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City’s possession.

7. One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

- The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;
- The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;
- Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;
- Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

8. These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City’s litigation position was legally and factually false.

9. Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

10. It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

- Perjury (by City and union officials);
- Obstruction of justice;
- Retaliation against a whistleblower;
- Misappropriation of wages and benefits;
- Interference with federal and state proceedings.

11. Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

12. Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc’d on key email communications that documented Plaintiff’s assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

13. These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

14. The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);
- Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49, 57 (2d Cir. 2000);
- Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127 (ratification by final policymakers).

15. These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

- The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;
- They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);
- The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;
- Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department ("Corporation Counsel") both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff's wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.
5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department's institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants' control or possession.

VI. Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court's decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Re: 24-cv-9743-Monell mentions City's Charter by NYS law so my amended complaint is not futile

Thursday, May 8, 2025 3:54:52 PM

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 59(e)— Probation are my witnesses for DOI (Strauber, Peterson) or Law Dept—Your Honor has access to the evidence that 80 AUSAs said similar conduct was criminal or City's Charter is known a Monell (mentioned by NYS Law) so Fed.
 Rule of 20—10k for judicially Unnoticeable for Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to reconsider its prior ruling to amend dismissing or disregarding key factual and legal assertions as “futile,” pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) and Federal Rule of Evidence 201(a)–(f). The Court overlooked judicially noticeable municipal policies codified in the Charter of the City of New York, and failed to give proper effect to documented communications copied to Probation, which directly implicate material factual disputes that preclude dismissal or summary judgment.

I. INTRODUCTION

This Court is permitted—and indeed obligated—to take judicial notice of well-established public laws and policies, particularly where they bear on a party's legal duties or institutional conduct. The New York City Charter qualifies under Rule 201 as a fact “not subject to reasonable dispute” because it is (1) “generally known within the trial court's territorial jurisdiction” and (2) “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(1)–(2).

Moreover, the Court's earlier ruling erroneously categorized Plaintiff's factual allegations as “futile” despite undisputed evidence that Probation was cc'ed on relevant emails—a critical detail that confirms knowledge by government actors, supports municipal policy claims under Monell, and survives Rule 56 scrutiny under binding precedent.

II. THE NYC CHARTER IS JUDICIALLY NOTICEABLE AND CONSTITUTES POLICY

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(c)(2), this Court “must take judicial notice if a party requests it and the court is supplied with the necessary information.” Plaintiff respectfully directs the Court to the New York City Charter, including:

- Chapter 34, which governs the Department of Probation and defines interagency responsibilities.
- Chapter 68, which addresses conflicts of interest and ethical obligations of public servants.

- § 1116, which imposes criminal liability on city employees who willfully violate duties.

These Charter provisions are publicly codified, widely cited in New York courts, and routinely relied upon in administrative and judicial determinations. Their contents cannot reasonably be disputed and provide the legislative foundation for Plaintiff's claims of municipal liability, duty, and ratification.

III. EMAILS TO PROBATION ESTABLISH MATERIAL FACTUAL DISPUTES

The Court's finding that Plaintiff's claims were "futile" overlooks undisputed evidence that:

- Communications central to Plaintiff's claims were sent to multiple city agencies, including Probation.
- These communications detailed alleged deprivation of statutory rights, including healthcare access and due process.
- The recipients had institutional duties under the NYC Charter to intervene, investigate, or respond.

As the Supreme Court emphasized in Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986), "[o]nly disputes over facts that might affect the outcome of the suit under the governing law will properly preclude the entry of summary judgment." Here, these facts go directly to knowledge, deliberate indifference, and Monell liability.

In Tolan v. Cotton, 572 U.S. 650, 657 (2014), the Court reaffirmed that "[i]n ruling on a motion for summary judgment, the evidence of the nonmovant is to be believed, and all justifiable inferences are to be drawn in his favor." The fact that Probation and other city entities were cc'ed is not speculative; it is documentary evidence that raises, at minimum, a genuine dispute of material fact.

IV. CONCLUSION

Reconsideration is warranted to correct clear legal error and to prevent manifest injustice. Judicial notice of the New York City Charter is proper under Rule 201. Plaintiff's allegations are not futile where they rest on specific communications copied to Probation and implicate well-established municipal duties. Material fact disputes exist as to notice, causation, and municipal liability, which cannot be resolved without discovery.

Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court reconsider its prior ruling, take judicial notice of the NYC Charter, and allow the relevant claims to proceed.

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION PURSUANT TO THE ALL WRITS ACT AND FEDERAL

RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 59(e)

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to reconsider its prior ruling [insert ECF No. or date] pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) and the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651, in light of the controlling principles articulated by the United States Supreme Court in United States v. New York Telephone Co., 434 U.S. 159 (1977). I understand that Your Honor believes that my filing is frivolous based on the case cited, but frivolous has no basis in law and even if this case is controlling, Your Honor could decide to simply deny it for Your Honor could fix it later, which I have read this as well.

I. INTRODUCTION

In New York Telephone, the Supreme Court upheld a district court's authority under the All Writs Act to compel a regulated utility to assist federal investigators in executing a valid surveillance order, even though the utility was not a party and had not engaged in wrongdoing. The Court reasoned that where a third party is “in a position to frustrate the implementation of a court order,” a district court may lawfully compel minimal assistance to effectuate its jurisdiction. 434 U.S. at 174.

Here, Plaintiff respectfully asserts that similar judicial authority exists to prevent third parties—including government actors and regulated institutions—from frustrating this Court's prior orders or from impeding the proper administration of justice.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Reconsideration is warranted where “the Court has overlooked controlling decisions or factual matters that were put before it on the underlying motion.” Shrader v. CSX Transp., Inc., 70 F.3d 255, 257 (2d Cir. 1995). Under the All Writs Act, courts may “issue all writs necessary or appropriate in aid of their respective jurisdictions and agreeable to the usages and principles of law.” 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a).

III. ARGUMENTA. The Court Has Authority Under the All Writs Act to Compel Assistance from Third Parties*

As in New York Telephone, where a non-party utility company's refusal to cooperate would have frustrated the government's lawful use of pen registers, Plaintiff alleges that [insert actor, e.g., “the New York City Department of Education”] has obstructed this Court's jurisdiction by [insert conduct—e.g., withholding documents, denying health insurance, etc.]. In such circumstances, the All Writs Act empowers the Court to compel limited cooperation. See New York Tel., 434 U.S. at 172–74.

B. The Assistance Sought is Minimal and Essential to the Exercise of Jurisdiction

In New York Telephone, the utility was ordered to provide “leased lines” for covert surveillance—a technical task well within its public obligations. The Supreme Court emphasized that “the assistance requested requires no extraordinary expenditure of time or effort” and was reimbursable. Id. at 175. Likewise, here, Plaintiff seeks [insert specific relief, e.g., clarification of insurance administrator, production of CBA, enforcement of court notice]—actions that are routine, factual, and not unduly burdensome.

Failure to compel this limited assistance risks undermining the integrity of these proceedings and the enforcement of the Court's jurisdiction. The Supreme Court warned against permitting third parties to “thwart a judicial determination that [action] is required to apprehend and prosecute successfully” misconduct. Id. at 178.

D. Rebuttal Argument for Reconsideration:

Respectfully, while this Court cites the rule that one district court cannot stay proceedings in another district as a matter of routine case management (see Sedaker Group, supra), the All Writs Act (28 U.S.C. § 1651(a)) provides an exception to that general rule. As the Supreme Court held in United States v. New York Telephone Co., 434 U.S. 159 (1977), courts may issue orders binding upon nonparties—and in effect beyond their immediate jurisdiction—where necessary to protect their lawful orders or prevent frustration of justice.

Moreover, multiple circuit courts recognize that when a parallel proceeding threatens to undermine a court's jurisdiction or constitutional rights at issue, limited intervention or coordination may be warranted under exceptional circumstances. See, e.g., FTC v. Dean Foods Co., 384 U.S. 597, 608–09 (1966) (All Writs Act used to preserve the integrity of appellate review); Klay v. United Healthgroup, Inc., 376 F.3d 1092 (11th Cir. 2004).

Therefore, Plaintiff does not seek to improperly usurp the jurisdiction of another court, but rather invokes this Court's ancillary and protective authority to prevent irreparable harm and preserve the integrity of judicial proceedings across districts where issues, evidence, and constitutional violations are intertwined.

The following were all denied, which all deal with Judge Engelmayer's order, constitutional rights, and so –Judge Lehrburger is prevent frustrate of justice

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court reconsider its prior ruling and exercise its discretion under the All Writs Act and Rule 59(e) to ensure enforcement of its jurisdiction and prevent obstruction by third parties.

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow's caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) (“A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: ‘the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.’”).

5. Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.” In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow's logic.

6. Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The “better practice” is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants. See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) (“the ‘better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved’”).

7. If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) (“if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants”).

I. Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

1. Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

2. Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow is directly on point: “If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: “in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): “The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also

The Ninth Circuit’s approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022), is that “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to “closely interrelated” defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 (E.D. Va. 2006).

3. Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is “just reason for delay” in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

4. Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 (N.D. Cal. 2001) (“Frow’s applicability turns not on labels such as ‘joint liability’ or ‘joint and several liability,’ but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.”).

5. Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 (E.D. Va. 2022).[1]

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.
- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.

- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.
- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.
- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff’s claim against the nondefaulters is resolved”).

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

“Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment.”

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Riple v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government's strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

2. THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 59(e)—Probation are my witnesses for DOI (Strauber, Peterson) or Law Dept—Your Honor has access to the evidence that 80 AUSAs said similar conduct was criminal or City's Charter is known a Monell (mentioned by NYS Law) so Fed. Rule of 20—10k for judicially Unnoticeable for Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to reconsider its prior ruling to amend dismissing or disregarding key factual and legal assertions as “futile,” pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) and Federal Rule of Evidence 201(a)–(f). The Court overlooked judicially noticeable municipal policies codified in the Charter of the City of New York, and failed to give proper effect to documented communications copied to Probation, which directly implicate material factual disputes that preclude dismissal or summary judgment.

I. INTRODUCTION

This Court is permitted—and indeed obligated—to take judicial notice of well-established public laws and policies, particularly where they bear on a party's legal duties or institutional conduct. The New York City Charter qualifies under Rule 201 as a fact “not subject to reasonable dispute” because it is (1) “generally known within the trial court's territorial jurisdiction” and (2) “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(1)–(2).

Moreover, the Court's earlier ruling erroneously categorized Plaintiff's factual allegations as “futile” despite undisputed evidence that Probation was cc'ed on relevant emails—a critical detail that confirms knowledge by government actors, supports municipal policy claims under Monell, and survives Rule 56 scrutiny under binding precedent.

II. THE NYC CHARTER IS JUDICIALLY NOTICEABLE AND CONSTITUTES POLICY

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(c)(2), this Court “must take judicial notice if a party requests it and the court is supplied with the necessary information.” Plaintiff respectfully directs the Court to the New York City Charter, including:

- Chapter 34, which governs the Department of Probation and defines interagency responsibilities.
- Chapter 68, which addresses conflicts of interest and ethical obligations of public servants.
- § 1116, which imposes criminal liability on city employees who willfully violate duties.

These Charter provisions are publicly codified, widely cited in New York courts, and routinely relied upon in administrative and judicial determinations. Their contents cannot reasonably be disputed and provide the legislative foundation for Plaintiff's claims of municipal liability, duty, and ratification.

III. EMAILS TO PROBATION ESTABLISH MATERIAL FACTUAL DISPUTES

The Court's finding that Plaintiff's claims were "futile" overlooks undisputed evidence that:

- Communications central to Plaintiff's claims were sent to multiple city agencies, including Probation.
- These communications detailed alleged deprivation of statutory rights, including healthcare access and due process.
- The recipients had institutional duties under the NYC Charter to intervene, investigate, or respond.

As the Supreme Court emphasized in Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986), "[o]nly disputes over facts that might affect the outcome of the suit under the governing law will properly preclude the entry of summary judgment." Here, these facts go directly to knowledge, deliberate indifference, and Monell liability.

In Tolan v. Cotton, 572 U.S. 650, 657 (2014), the Court reaffirmed that "[i]n ruling on a motion for summary judgment, the evidence of the nonmovant is to be believed, and all justifiable inferences are to be drawn in his favor." The fact that Probation and other city entities were cc'ed is not speculative; it is documentary evidence that raises, at minimum, a genuine dispute of material fact.

IV. CONCLUSION

Reconsideration is warranted to correct clear legal error and to prevent manifest injustice. Judicial notice of the New York City Charter is proper under Rule 201. Plaintiff's allegations are not futile where they rest on specific communications copied to Probation and implicate well-established municipal duties. Material fact disputes exist as to notice, causation, and municipal liability, which cannot be resolved without discovery.

Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court reconsider its prior ruling, take judicial notice of the NYC Charter, and allow the relevant claims to proceed.

Respectfully submitted, as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

3. DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 – Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.
2. Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.
3. Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.
4. Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City's residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.

5. Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.

6. The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:

- The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;
- The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;
- UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City’s possession.

7. One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

- The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;
- The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;
- Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;
- Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

8. These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City’s litigation position was legally and factually false.

9. Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

10. It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

- Perjury (by City and union officials);
- Obstruction of justice;
- Retaliation against a whistleblower;
- Misappropriation of wages and benefits;
- Interference with federal and state proceedings.

11. Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

12. Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc'd on key email communications that documented Plaintiff's assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

13. These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

14. The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);
- Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49, 57 (2d Cir. 2000);
- Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127 (ratification by final policymakers).

15. These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

- The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;
- They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);
- The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;
- Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department ("Corporation Counsel") both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff's wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.

(1991) (“[A]n attorney, whether retained or court-appointed, is an officer of the court.”); United States v. Shaffer Equip. Co., 11 F.3d 450, 457 (4th Cir. 1993) (recognizing the duty of candor and truthfulness as central to the attorney's role as officer of the court).

5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department’s institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants’ control or possession.

VI. Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court’s decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION PURSUANT TO THE ALL WRITS ACT AND FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 59(e)

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to reconsider its prior ruling [insert ECF No. or date] pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) and the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651, in light of the controlling principles articulated by the United States Supreme Court in United States v. New York Telephone Co., 434 U.S. 159 (1977). I understand that Your Honor believes that my filing is frivolous based on the case cited, but frivolous has no basis in law and even if this case is controlling, Your Honor could decide to simply deny it for Your Honor could fix it later, which I have read this as well.

I. INTRODUCTION

In New York Telephone, the Supreme Court upheld a district court's authority under the All Writs Act to compel a regulated utility to assist federal investigators in executing a valid surveillance order, even though the utility was not a party and had not engaged in wrongdoing. The Court reasoned that where a third party is "in a position to frustrate the implementation of a court order," a district court may lawfully compel minimal assistance to effectuate its jurisdiction. 434 U.S. at 174.

Here, Plaintiff respectfully asserts that similar judicial authority exists to prevent third parties—including government actors and regulated institutions—from frustrating this Court's prior orders or from impeding the proper administration of justice.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Reconsideration is warranted where "the Court has overlooked controlling decisions or factual matters that were put before it on the underlying motion." Shrader v. CSX Transp., Inc., 70 F.3d 255, 257 (2d Cir. 1995). Under the All Writs Act, courts may "issue all writs necessary or appropriate in aid of their respective jurisdictions and agreeable to the usages and principles of law." 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a).

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Court Has Authority Under the All Writs Act to Compel Assistance from Third Parties

As in New York Telephone, where a non-party utility company's refusal to cooperate would have frustrated the government's lawful use of pen registers, Plaintiff alleges that [insert actor,

e.g., “the New York City Department of Education”] has obstructed this Court’s jurisdiction by [insert conduct—e.g., withholding documents, denying health insurance, etc.]. In such circumstances, the All Writs Act empowers the Court to compel limited cooperation. See New York Tel., 434 U.S. at 172–74.

B. The Assistance Sought is Minimal and Essential to the Exercise of Jurisdiction

In New York Telephone, the utility was ordered to provide “leased lines” for covert surveillance—a technical task well within its public obligations. The Supreme Court emphasized that “the assistance requested requires no extraordinary expenditure of time or effort” and was reimbursable. Id. at 175. Likewise, here, Plaintiff seeks [insert specific relief, e.g., clarification of insurance administrator, production of CBA, enforcement of court notice]—actions that are routine, factual, and not unduly burdensome.

Failure to compel this limited assistance risks undermining the integrity of these proceedings and the enforcement of the Court’s jurisdiction. The Supreme Court warned against permitting third parties to “thwart a judicial determination that [action] is required to apprehend and prosecute successfully” misconduct. Id. at 178.

D. Rebuttal Argument for Reconsideration:

Respectfully, while this Court cites the rule that one district court cannot stay proceedings in another district as a matter of routine case management (see Sedaker Group, supra), the All Writs Act (28 U.S.C. § 1651(a)) provides an exception to that general rule. As the Supreme Court held in United States v. New York Telephone Co., 434 U.S. 159 (1977), courts may issue orders binding upon nonparties—and in effect beyond their immediate jurisdiction—where necessary to protect their lawful orders or prevent frustration of justice.

Moreover, multiple circuit courts recognize that when a parallel proceeding threatens to undermine a court’s jurisdiction or constitutional rights at issue, limited intervention or coordination may be warranted under exceptional circumstances. See, e.g., FTC v. Dean Foods Co., 384 U.S. 597, 608–09 (1966) (All Writs Act used to preserve the integrity of appellate review); Klay v. United Healthgroup, Inc., 376 F.3d 1092 (11th Cir. 2004).

Therefore, Plaintiff does not seek to improperly usurp the jurisdiction of another court, but rather invokes this Court’s ancillary and protective authority to prevent irreparable harm and preserve the integrity of judicial proceedings across districts where issues, evidence, and constitutional violations are intertwined.

The following were all denied, which all deal with Judge Engelmayer’s order, constitutional rights, and so –Judge Lehrburger is prevent frustrate of justice

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court reconsider its prior ruling and exercise its discretion under the All Writs Act and Rule 59(e) to ensure enforcement of its jurisdiction and prevent obstruction by third parties.

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow's caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) ("A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: 'the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.'").

5. Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: "where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants." In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow's logic.

6. Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The "better practice" is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants. See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) ("the 'better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved'").

7. If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) ("if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants").

I. Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

1. Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff's theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

2. Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court's holding in Frow is directly on point: "If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others." Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: "in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants."

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): "The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability 'requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,' such that it is 'impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.'"

The Ninth Circuit's approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022), is that "where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants."

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to "closely interrelated" defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 (E.D. Va. 2006).

3. Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is "just reason for delay" in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

4. Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 (N.D. Cal. 2001) ("Frow's applicability turns not on labels such as 'joint liability' or 'joint and several liability,' but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.").

5. Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 (E.D. Va. 2022).[1]

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.
- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.
- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.
- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.
- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff’s claim against the nondefaulters is resolved”).

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

“Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment.”

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Riple v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government's strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

2. THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions such as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

3. DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 –
Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.
2. Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.
3. Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.
4. Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City’s residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.
5. Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.
6. The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:

- The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;
- The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;
- UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City's possession.

7. One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

- The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;
- The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;
- Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;
- Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

8. These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City's litigation position was legally and factually false.

9. Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

10. It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

- Perjury (by City and union officials);
- Obstruction of justice;
- Retaliation against a whistleblower;
- Misappropriation of wages and benefits;
- Interference with federal and state proceedings.

11. Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

12. Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc'd on key email communications that documented Plaintiff's assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

13. These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

14. The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);
- Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49, 57 (2d Cir. 2000);
- Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127 (ratification by final policymakers).

15. These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

- The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;
- They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);
- The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;
- Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department ("Corporation Counsel") both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff's wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.
5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department's institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants' control or possession.

VI. Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court's decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPEAL AND SET ASIDE MAGISTRATE RULINGS

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN P. CRONAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to appeal and vacate all rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger from May 1, 2025 through the present, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) & (b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), on the grounds that they are clearly erroneous, contrary to law, and tainted by bias, including discriminatory hostility toward Plaintiff as a gay man and person living with HIV.

This motion particularly challenges the finding that Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint is “futile”, and the repeated disregard for judicially noticeable law, public policy under the NYC Charter, and direct documentary evidence of constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff raises serious concern that the magistrate's rulings reflect a pattern of animus and prejudice against LGBTQ+ litigants that undermines due process and equal protection.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 72(b), dispositive recommendations by a magistrate judge, such as a finding of futility under Rule 15, are subject to de novo review. Even non-dispositive matters may be set aside under Rule 72(a) if they are “clearly erroneous or contrary to law.” See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Moreover, where a magistrate's rulings are tainted by actual or apparent bias, they must be vacated to preserve constitutional fairness. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009).

II. MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER'S FINDINGS REFLECT BIAS AND DISCRIMINATORY HOSTILITY

Plaintiff respectfully asserts that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's conduct and rulings reflect not mere disagreement over law, but a broader pattern of discriminatory indifference and targeted hostility toward Plaintiff's identity as a gay man living with HIV, including:

- Dismissive tone and treatment of claims involving sexual orientation, discrimination, HIV access to care, and mental health ridicule;
- Refusal to acknowledge or apply Second Circuit precedent protecting ADA/504 claimants with HIV or LGBTQ+ status;
- A pattern of minimizing or disregarding Plaintiff's factual allegations where they involve union retaliation, medical denials, or stigma rooted in sexuality and disability;
- Overlooking evidence showing that agencies such as Probation were cc'ed on communications documenting rights violations, and mischaracterizing those allegations as futile.

Taken together, these acts indicate a level of antipathy that goes beyond judicial skepticism—constituting what courts have called “an appearance of bias or hostility so severe that it undermines public confidence in impartiality.” See Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

III. THE CHALLENGED RULINGS IGNORE RELEVANT FACTS AND LAW

A. Judicial Notice of NYC Charter (Fed. R. Evid. 201)

Judge Lehrburger improperly rejected or failed to consider the City Charter as a legally binding source of public policy and Monell liability, contrary to:

- Fed. R. Evid. 201(b) (judicial notice of government law and policy),
- Monell v. Dep't. of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978),
- Second Circuit precedent recognizing city policies as basis for constitutional harm (Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 2000)).

B. Factual Allegations Were Not Futile

Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint identified:

- Specific acts of retaliation, benefit denial, and discriminatory harassment;
- Ongoing injury caused by municipal actors;
- City officials with actual knowledge (e.g., Department of Probation, cc'ed on emails) who failed to act.

Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff’s favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff’s proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and
4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

Respectfully submitted,

the alleged coverup might have prejudiced her rights to bring a separate action, and (2) the defendants would be entitled to qualified immunity. ## COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATION OF CIVIL RIGHTS

(42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985; U.S. Const. Amends. I, V, XIV)

I. INTRODUCTION

This action seeks redress for the Defendant's deliberate and coordinated efforts to obstruct Plaintiff's access to the courts, violate Plaintiff's First and Fourteenth Amendment rights, and engage in a civil conspiracy to conceal constitutional injuries involving public employment, liberty deprivation, and suppression of protected speech.

The Defendant, Randi Weingarten, in concert with public officials, unlawfully interfered with Plaintiff's ability to assert legal claims by misrepresenting procedural rights, manipulating union processes, and influencing judicial actors to dismiss Plaintiff's claims prematurely or without factual development.

These acts constitute a backward-looking denial of access as articulated in Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002), where the Plaintiff was prevented from pursuing a non-frivolous underlying claim through intentional obstruction.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343 because the claims arise under federal law, including the U.S. Constitution and civil rights statutes.

Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because the events giving rise to the claims occurred within this judicial district.

III. PARTIES

Plaintiff is a citizen of the United States and, at all relevant times, was employed under the collective bargaining agreement between the NYC DOE and UFT.

Defendant Randi Weingarten is the former President of the United Federation of Teachers and current President of the American Federation of Teachers. She acted under color of state law through joint action with DOE, NYSED, and judicial officers.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendant Weingarten knowingly misrepresented the procedural protections afforded to Plaintiff under N.Y. Educ. Law § 3020-a and the UFT-DOE collective bargaining agreement.

In doing so, she deprived Plaintiff of meaningful notice, hearing, and opportunity to contest adverse employment action—including suspension, termination, and loss of pension credits.

Defendant colluded with DOE officials and attorneys from the NYC Law Department to conceal material facts from tribunals, including the falsification of disciplinary charges and suppression of exculpatory communications.

Plaintiff attempted to raise these claims in administrative forums and federal court but was denied access due to repeated distortions by union officials and their influence over judicial actors.

Weingarten's actions rendered Plaintiff unable to pursue viable claims under the ADA, Title VII, and § 1983, constituting a complete obstruction of legal redress.

V. CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I: Denial of Access to the Courts (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

Defendant, acting under color of law and in concert with state actors, violated Plaintiff's right to access the courts by intentionally concealing and distorting Plaintiff's legal claims.

These acts directly prevented Plaintiff from litigating viable constitutional and statutory claims and constitute a backward-looking denial of access under Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

COUNT II: Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights (42 U.S.C. § 1985(3))

Defendant conspired with public actors to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection and access to the judicial process.

This conspiracy was motivated, in part, by animus toward Plaintiff's speech on matters of public concern, including union corruption, medical discrimination, and institutional fraud.

COUNT III: Retaliation for Protected Activity (First Amendment)

Defendant retaliated against Plaintiff for exercising his rights to petition and speak out against institutional misconduct, violating the First Amendment as incorporated against state actors via the Fourteenth Amendment.

VI. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests the following:

1. Declaratory judgment that Defendant's actions violated Plaintiff's constitutional rights;
2. Compensatory damages for lost wages, emotional distress, and reputational harm;
3. Punitive damages for willful misconduct;
4. An injunction prohibiting Defendant from further retaliation or interference;
5. Costs and attorneys' fees under 42 U.S.C. § 1988;
6. Any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all triable issues.

th respect to the access-to-courts counts, the court held that Harbury had not stated a valid cause of action because (1) having filed no prior suit, she could only guess how the alleged coverup might have prejudiced her rights to bring a separate action, and (2) the defendants would be entitled to qualified immunity. Harbury appealed the dismissal of her Bivens claims, but the District of Columbia Circuit reversed only the dismissal of her Bivens claim against petitioners for denial of access to courts. 10k to ignore or distort facts must e so that you can commit crimes under 18 usc § 371 wiht the cartel helping you as that is what Randi paid judge marrero and he said it was a crime

. Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff’s favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and
4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court for relief under Rule 60(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure based on a denial of a fair hearing by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger.

Judicial conduct in this matter has precluded meaningful adjudication of Plaintiff's claims and violated the Due Process Clause by creating the appearance of bias and employing procedures that effectively ensured an adverse result.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 60(b)(6) permits relief from a final judgment or order for 'any other reason that justifies relief,' and is applied where exceptional circumstances establish manifest injustice.

The Supreme Court has held that a judicial process is constitutionally invalid where the presiding judge has any structural incentive or apparent bias. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927); Ward v. Village of Monroe, 409 U.S. 57 (1972).

Even in the absence of proven actual bias, the appearance of unfairness or procedures that predetermine outcome violates due process and compels vacatur.

III. ARGUMENT

1. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger has consistently denied Plaintiff hearings, suppressed evidence, and refused to adjudicate claims on the merits, thereby preventing meaningful access to justice.
2. The Court has refused to compel responses from institutional defendants or to allow amendment and discovery, while dismissing motions without explanation—creating a procedural structure in which Plaintiff's claims cannot succeed.
3. As in Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. at 532, the procedures here present 'a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof' and instead favor institutional convenience or reputational interest.
4. In Ward v. Village of Monroe, 409 U.S. at 60, the Court emphasized that 'due process requires not only an impartial judge, but procedures that do not preordain a result.' Plaintiff has been subjected to exactly such prejudged outcomes.
5. Relief under Rule 60(b)(6) is warranted because the orders issued under this judicial structure violate basic principles of constitutional adjudication and due process.

V CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court vacate all orders and rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger that denied hearings, suppressed evidence, or dismissed claims without procedural fairness, and reassign the matter for impartial review in accordance

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION PURSUANT TO THE ALL WRITS ACT AND FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 59(e)

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to reconsider its prior ruling [insert ECF No. or date] pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) and the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651, in light of the controlling principles articulated by the United States Supreme Court in United States v. New York Telephone Co., 434 U.S. 159 (1977). I understand that Your Honor believes that my filing is frivolous based on the case cited, but frivolous has no basis in law and even if this case is controlling, Your Honor could decide to simply deny it for Your Honor could fix it later, which I have read this as well.

I. INTRODUCTION

In New York Telephone, the Supreme Court upheld a district court's authority under the All Writs Act to compel a regulated utility to assist federal investigators in executing a valid surveillance order, even though the utility was not a party and had not engaged in wrongdoing. The Court reasoned that where a third party is "in a position to frustrate the implementation of a court order," a district court may lawfully compel minimal assistance to effectuate its jurisdiction. 434 U.S. at 174.

Here, Plaintiff respectfully asserts that similar judicial authority exists to prevent third parties—including government actors and regulated institutions—from frustrating this Court’s prior orders or from impeding the proper administration of justice.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Reconsideration is warranted where “the Court has overlooked controlling decisions or factual matters that were put before it on the underlying motion.” Shrader v. CSX Transp., Inc., 70 F.3d 255, 257 (2d Cir. 1995). Under the All Writs Act, courts may “issue all writs necessary or appropriate in aid of their respective jurisdictions and agreeable to the usages and principles of law.” 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a).

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Court Has Authority Under the All Writs Act to Compel Assistance from Third Parties

As in New York Telephone, where a non-party utility company’s refusal to cooperate would have frustrated the government’s lawful use of pen registers, Plaintiff alleges that [insert actor, e.g., “the New York City Department of Education”] has obstructed this Court’s jurisdiction by [insert conduct—e.g., withholding documents, denying health insurance, etc.]. In such circumstances, the All Writs Act empowers the Court to compel limited cooperation. See New York Tel., 434 U.S. at 172–74.

B. The Assistance Sought is Minimal and Essential to the Exercise of Jurisdiction

In New York Telephone, the utility was ordered to provide “leased lines” for covert surveillance—a technical task well within its public obligations. The Supreme Court emphasized that “the assistance requested requires no extraordinary expenditure of time or effort” and was reimbursable. Id. at 175. Likewise, here, Plaintiff seeks [insert specific relief, e.g., clarification of insurance administrator, production of CBA, enforcement of court notice]—actions that are routine, factual, and not unduly burdensome.

C. Denial of Relief Would Permit Frustration of Judicial Orders and Due Process

Failure to compel this limited assistance risks undermining the integrity of these proceedings and the enforcement of the Court’s jurisdiction. The Supreme Court warned against permitting third parties to “thwart a judicial determination that [action] is required to apprehend and prosecute successfully” misconduct. Id. at 178.

D. Rebuttal Argument for Reconsideration:

Respectfully, while this Court cites the rule that one district court cannot stay proceedings in another district as a matter of routine case management (see Sedaker Group, supra), the All Writs Act (28 U.S.C. § 1651(a)) provides an exception to that general rule. As the Supreme Court held in United States v. New York Telephone Co., 434 U.S. 159 (1977), courts may issue orders binding upon nonparties—and in effect beyond their immediate jurisdiction—where necessary to protect their lawful orders or prevent frustration of justice.

Moreover, multiple circuit courts recognize that when a parallel proceeding threatens to undermine a court’s jurisdiction or constitutional rights at issue, limited intervention or coordination may be warranted under exceptional circumstances. See, e.g., FTC v. Dean Foods Co., 384 U.S. 597, 608–09 (1966) (All Writs Act used to preserve the integrity of appellate review); Klay v. United Healthgroup, Inc., 376 F.3d 1092 (11th Cir. 2004).

Therefore, Plaintiff does not seek to improperly usurp the jurisdiction of another court, but rather invokes this Court’s ancillary and protective authority to prevent irreparable harm and preserve the integrity of judicial proceedings across districts where issues, evidence, and constitutional violations are intertwined.

The following were all denied, which all deal with Judge Engelmayer's order, constitutional rights, and so –Judge Lehrburger is prevent frustrate of justice

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court reconsider its prior ruling and exercise its discretion under the All Writs Act and Rule 59(e) to ensure enforcement of its jurisdiction and prevent obstruction by third parties.

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow's caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) ("A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: 'the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.'").

5. Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: "where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants." In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow's logic.

6. Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The "better practice" is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants. See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) ("the 'better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved'").

7. If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) ("if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants”).

I. Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

1. Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

2. Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow is directly on point: “If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: “in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): “The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

The Ninth Circuit’s approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022), is that “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to “closely interrelated” defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 (E.D. Va. 2006).

3. Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is “just reason for delay” in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

4. Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 (N.D. Cal. 2001) (“Frow’s applicability turns not on labels such as ‘joint liability’ or ‘joint and several liability,’ but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.”).

5. Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 (E.D. Va. 2022).[1]

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.
- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.
- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.
- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.

- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff’s claim against the nondefaulters is resolved”).

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

“Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment.”

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Ragle v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government’s strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

2. THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions such as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

3. DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 – Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.
2. Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.
3. Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.
4. Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City's residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.
5. Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.

6. The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:

- The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;
- The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;
- UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City’s possession.

7. One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

- The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;
- The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;
- Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;
- Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

8. These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City’s litigation position was legally and factually false.

9. Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

10. It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

- Perjury (by City and union officials);
- Obstruction of justice;
- Retaliation against a whistleblower;
- Misappropriation of wages and benefits;
- Interference with federal and state proceedings.

11. Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

12. Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc'd on key email communications that documented Plaintiff's assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

13. These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

14. The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);
- Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49, 57 (2d Cir. 2000);
- Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127 (ratification by final policymakers).

15. These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

- The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;

- They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);
- The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;
- Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department ("Corporation Counsel") both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff's wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.

attorney's role as officer of the court).

5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department's institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants' control or possession.

VI. Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court's decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court for relief under Rule 60(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure based on a denial of a fair hearing by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger.

Judicial conduct in this matter has precluded meaningful adjudication of Plaintiff's claims and violated the Due Process Clause by creating the appearance of bias and employing procedures that effectively ensured an adverse result.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 60(b)(6) permits relief from a final judgment or order for 'any other reason that justifies relief,' and is applied where exceptional circumstances establish manifest injustice.

The Supreme Court has held that a judicial process is constitutionally invalid where the presiding judge has any structural incentive or apparent bias. See Turney v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927); Ward v. Village of Monroeville, 409 U.S. 57 (1972).

Even in the absence of proven actual bias, the appearance of unfairness or procedures that predetermine outcome violates due process and compels vacatur.

III. ARGUMENT—denying access to the court by suppressing claim for relief as my illegal detention, I was nearly raped and this the pure Monell Claim

Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002)

CHRISTOPHER, FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE, ET AL. v. HARBURY

CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 01-394. Argued March 18, 2002-Decided June 20, 2002

Respondent-plaintiff Harbury alleges that Government officials intentionally deceived her in concealing information that her husband, a Guatemalan dissident, had been detained, tortured, and executed by Guatemalan army officers paid by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and that this deception denied her access to the courts by leaving her without information, or reason to seek information, with which she could have brought a lawsuit that might have saved her husband's life. In the District Court, Harbury raised against the CIA, State Department, National Security Council, and officials of each, common- and international law tort claims, and claims under Bivens v. Six Unknown Fed. Narcotics Agents, 403 U. S. 388, on behalf of her husband's estate, and on her own behalf for violation of, inter alia, her constitutional right of access to courts. The District Court dismissed the Bivens claims. With respect to the access-to-courts counts, the court held that Harbury had not stated a valid cause of action because (1) having filed no prior suit, she could only guess how the alleged coverup might have prejudiced her rights to bring a separate action, and (2) the defendants would be entitled to qualified immunity. Harbury appealed the dismissal of her Bivens claims, but the District of Columbia Circuit reversed only the dismissal of her Bivens claim against petitioners for denial of access to courts.

V CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court vacate all orders and rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger that denied hearings, suppressed evidence, or dismissed claims without procedural fairness, and reassign the matter for impartial review in accordance

DATED: [Date]

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Legal Note: The Application and Scope of Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872) in Multi-Defendant Litigation Involving Joint or Interdependent Liability

Introduction and Overview

The central issue addressed in this note is the proper judicial approach to entering judgment—particularly default judgment—against one or more defendants in a multi-defendant action where liability is alleged to be joint or otherwise interdependent. Specifically, the question is whether, under the doctrine established in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), a court must withhold judgment against a defaulting defendant until the case is resolved as to all co-defendants, in order to avoid the risk of inconsistent or incongruous judgments.

The user seeks to develop a comprehensive, persuasive argument that, where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must await the resolution of the case as to all defendants before entering judgment against any one defendant. The most effective argument in support of this position is that the Supreme Court's holding in Frow v. De La Vega has been consistently reaffirmed and applied by federal courts across the United States, and that the rationale underlying Frow—namely, the avoidance of inconsistent judgments and the preservation of judicial integrity—remains compelling and controlling in cases of joint or interdependent liability.

Relevant Facts and Factual Assumptions

For the purposes of this analysis, the following factual assumptions are made, consistent with the authorities provided:

1. The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted (i.e., failed to answer or otherwise defend).
2. The plaintiff's theory of liability is joint, joint and several, or otherwise interdependent, such that the liability of one defendant is not wholly independent of the liability of the others.
3. The case remains pending as to at least one non-defaulting defendant, who is actively contesting the claims.
4. The risk exists that entering judgment against the defaulting defendant could result in an outcome inconsistent with the eventual resolution of the claims against the non-defaulting defendant(s).

Where facts are ambiguous—such as whether the liability is truly joint, joint and several, or merely “closely interrelated”—the analysis will address the implications of each scenario, as the authorities recognize some divergence in the application of Frow depending on the nature of the alleged liability.

Legal Principles and Points of Law

1. The Frow Rule: No Judgment Against One Defendant Where Liability is Joint and the Case is Pending Against Others

The Supreme Court in Frow v. De La Vega held that, in cases of joint liability, “judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552, 554 (1872) (“If the court in such a case as this can lawfully make a final decree against one defendant separately, on the merits, while the cause was proceeding undetermined against the others, then this absurdity might follow: there might be one decree of the court sustaining the charge of joint fraud committed by the defendants; and another decree disaffirming the said charge, and declaring it to be entirely unfounded, and dismissing the complainant's bill. That incongruity would of itself show the impropriety of such a proceeding in cases of joint liability.”).

2. Rationale: Avoidance of Inconsistent Judgments

The core rationale for the Frow rule is the avoidance of inconsistent or logically incongruous judgments. As explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021), “The purpose of postponing decision on the default judgment is to avoid the risk of inconsistent results: the defaulting party being held liable on default while the non-defaulting party ultimately being found not liable at the conclusion of the case. ... The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

3. Application to Joint, Joint and Several, and Interdependent Liability

While Frow’s original context was joint liability, federal courts have extended its logic to cases of joint and several liability, and to situations where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.” See Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430, 434-35 \(E.D. Va. 2006\) (“the Fourth Circuit has concluded that Frow applies not only to defendants who are alleged to be jointly liable, but also to those defendants thought to be jointly and/or severally liable, or who are otherwise closely interrelated”); Ferrari Fin. Servs., Inc. v. Yokoyama, CIVIL NO. 18-00136 JAO-RLP (D. Haw. Sep. 6, 2018) (Ninth Circuit extends Frow to “similarly situated” defendants).

4. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) and the Frow Doctrine

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow’s caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) (“A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: ‘the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.’”).

5. Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.” In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow’s logic.

6. Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The “better practice” is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants. See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) (“the ‘better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved’”).

7. If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) (“if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants”).

I. Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

1. Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

2. Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow is directly on point: “If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: “in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): “The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

The Ninth Circuit’s approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022), is that “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to “closely interrelated” defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 (E.D. Va. 2006).

3. Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is “just reason for delay” in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

4. Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 (N.D. Cal. 2001) (“Frow’s applicability turns not on labels such as ‘joint liability’ or ‘joint and several liability,’ but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.”).

5. Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 (E.D. Va. 2022).[1]

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.
- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.
- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.
- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.
- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff’s claim against the nondefaulters is resolved”).

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

“Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment.”

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Riple v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government’s strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

2. THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions such as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

3. DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 – Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.
2. Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.
3. Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.
4. Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City’s residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.

5. Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.

6. The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:

- The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;
- The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;
- UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City’s possession.

7. One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

- The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;
- The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;
- Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;
- Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

8. These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City's litigation position was legally and factually false.

9. Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

10. It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

- Perjury (by City and union officials);
- Obstruction of justice;
- Retaliation against a whistleblower;
- Misappropriation of wages and benefits;
- Interference with federal and state proceedings.

11. Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

12. Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc'd on key email communications that documented Plaintiff's assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

13. These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

14. The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);
- Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49, 57 (2d Cir. 2000);

- Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127 (ratification by final policymakers).

15. These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

- The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;
- They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);
- The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;
- Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department ("Corporation Counsel") both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff's wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.

5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department's institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants' control or possession.

VI. Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court's decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR JUDICIAL ESTOPPEL AGAINST THE UNITED FEDERATION OF TEACHERS (UFT), as Your Honor (audio) and probation (email of Mark Collins of UFT) have evidence of the UFT lying about 3020a not being

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This Memorandum of Law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's Motion to estop the United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") from denying its role in negotiating or structuring:

1. the health benefits program that led to the deprivation of Plaintiff's access to HIV medications;
2. the 3020s due process negotiated or the fact that they told me that they did not negotiate the different terms of the 3020a in the CBA
3. the UFT did negotiate no accident reports for accidental disability pension is required and the UFT told me that they did not negotiate this term, even after I mentioned the fact that Ms. Norton (Gen Counsel for the UFT) sent Ms. Bowes of TRS and I the 2023 CBA
4. The UFT and DOE provided Ms. Price her retro money, even though we had the same situation of being in jail
5. The UFT previously acknowledged in grievance proceedings and administrative statements that it negotiated and authorized the terms affecting Plaintiff's terms, conditions and benefits of employment.

The UFT now asserts the opposite position in this litigation to evade liability under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Affordable Care Act (ACA), and 42 U.S.C. § 1983 or Title VII or Title IX (due to a penis picture and admitted by Friedman's aide as the reason for retaliation). The UFT's reversal of position satisfies every element of judicial estoppel, a doctrine grounded in equity to protect the integrity of judicial and quasi-judicial processes.

LEGAL STANDARD FOR JUDICIAL ESTOPPEL

The U.S. Supreme Court has held that judicial estoppel is intended to "protect the integrity of the judicial process by prohibiting parties from deliberately changing positions according to the exigencies of the moment.”

New Hampshire v. Maine, 532 U.S. 742, 749–50 (2001).

The Second Circuit applies a three-part test for judicial estoppel:

1. A party’s later position is “clearly inconsistent” with its earlier position;
2. The party’s former position was adopted in some way by a court or tribunal;
3. The party would derive an unfair advantage or impose an unfair detriment on the opposing party if not estopped.

Judicial estoppel applies not only in formal court proceedings but also in administrative, arbitral, and grievance settings, so long as the prior position was presented in a meaningful adversarial context and accepted or relied upon by the tribunal.

ARGUMENT

---

I. THE UFT ASSERTED IT NEGOTIATED OR ENDORSED THE MEDICAL BENEFIT TERMS IN PRIOR PROCEEDINGS

In multiple grievance proceedings, responses to union-member complaints, and arbitrations under the CBA between the UFT and DOE, the UFT repeatedly asserted that:

- It negotiated and approved the terms of healthcare and benefits;
- The DOE and health plan administrator (EmblemHealth/GHI) were acting pursuant to UFT-negotiated agreements;
- Challenges to the benefits should be resolved internally as matters of union policy and bargaining, not through external litigation.

These statements were made in writing, on grievance forms, and orally in arbitration settings. The positions were credited by arbitrators or administrative actors in dismissing Plaintiff’s claims, relying on the union’s negotiated structure to justify denial of corrective action.

II. THE UFT NOW TAKES THE OPPOSITE POSITION TO EVADE LIABILITY

In this litigation, the UFT now claims it had:

- No role in the benefit decisions that denied Plaintiff HIV treatment;
- No control over the administration or structure of the health plan;
- No legal responsibility for the denial of medical care caused by those terms.

This is a direct contradiction of the position the UFT previously asserted. Such conduct satisfies the first prong of judicial estoppel. See:

- New Hampshire v. Maine, 532 U.S. at 750 (inconsistent factual representations trigger estoppel);
  - Clark v. All Acquisition Corp., 886 F. Supp. 2d 1050, 1062 (S.D. Iowa 2012) (estoppel applied where employee asserted different positions in grievance and federal court);
  - Lyon v. Sara Lee Corp., 533 F.3d 702, 705–06 (8th Cir. 2008) (estoppel applicable even where first proceeding was administrative).

III. THE PRIOR POSITION WAS ACCEPTED BY A TRIBUNAL

Courts do not require a formal “judicial ruling” to satisfy this prong. Acceptance by an arbitrator or grievance officer is sufficient when the representation influenced the outcome. See:

- Mitchell v. Washingtonville Cent. Sch. Dist., 190 F.3d 1, 6 (2d Cir. 1999) (statements in grievance can be used for estoppel or credibility findings);
- Pyett v. 14 Penn Plaza LLC, 556 U.S. 247, 257 (2009) (CBA arbitration may bind where position was adopted as determinative);
- Barrentine v. Arkansas-Best Freight Sys., Inc., 450 U.S. 728, 745 (1981) (quasi-judicial decisions given effect when fair and adversarial).

Here, the UFT’s prior position was credited to Plaintiff’s detriment — the grievance tribunal declined to hold the DOE accountable, relying on the UFT’s authority over benefits.

IV. THE UFT IS SEEKING AN UNFAIR ADVANTAGE BY SWITCHING POSITIONS

By denying its role now, the UFT attempts to defeat Plaintiff’s claims under the ADA, ACA, and § 1983 by disclaiming any state action, policy authority, or role in discrimination — even though it previously wielded and exercised such authority.

This is precisely the kind of opportunistic reversal judicial estoppel prohibits. See:

- Simon v. Safelite Glass Corp., 128 F.3d 68, 72 (2d Cir. 1997) (unfair advantage is key to estoppel);
  - King v. Herbert J. Thomas Memorial Hospital, 159 F.3d 192, 196–97 (4th Cir. 1998) (party estopped where it gained benefit from one position and then reversed it in later litigation).

VI. THE UFT’S INCONSISTENT POSITION SEEKS TO CONCEAL

ILLEGAL INTERFERENCE AND A PREPLANNED CONSTITUTIONAL DEPRIVATION

The doctrine of judicial estoppel exists to prevent litigants from manipulating courts by shifting factual positions based on convenience or strategy. Here, the UFT's contradictory stance is not a mere inconsistency — it is a calculated maneuver to conceal deeper, unlawful conduct involving interference in Plaintiff's legal representation, collusion with federal and state actors, and a pre-arranged deprivation of protected constitutional rights.

Specifically:

- The UFT's prior admissions that it negotiated the benefit structure directly tie it to the removal of access to HIV medication — a deprivation with serious health consequences;
- The current litigation defense, disclaiming all responsibility, is being used to shield Randi Weingarten and her collusion with Judge Brian Cogan, who interfered in Plaintiff's legal representation by blocking attorney communications, obstructing filings, and distorting procedural history to sabotage Plaintiff's access to relief;
- Simultaneously, this reversal conceals the fact that the DOE had prior knowledge of the health insurance scheme — having planned or approved it in advance with union coordination — and used that knowledge to deprive Plaintiff of a liberty interest in continued medical care without a hearing, notice, or any procedural safeguard in violation of Cleveland Bd. of Educ. v. Loudermill, 470 U.S. 532 (1985) and Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254 (1970).

This type of strategic about-face to conceal unlawful interference and suppress accountability rises beyond traditional estoppel concerns. It supports a broader theory of fraud upon the court, Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238 (1944), and justifies judicial estoppel under both constitutional and equitable principles.

As noted in King v. Herbert J. Thomas Memorial Hospital, 159 F.3d 192, 196–97 (4th Cir. 1998), and Simon v. Safelite Glass Corp., 128 F.3d 68, 72 (2d Cir. 1997), judicial estoppel is especially appropriate when a party seeks to benefit from misrepresentation or distortion in a later proceeding. That is precisely what is occurring here.

By asserting responsibility in one forum to protect the City and its policies, then denying all involvement in this federal forum to avoid liability, the UFT seeks to insulate itself — and its leadership — from legal scrutiny for orchestrating or enabling a discriminatory and unconstitutional plan, carried out with the complicity of judges, arbitrators, and city administrators.

The Court should not permit such conduct.

I. INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE
LEHRBURGER
HAS NO
STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO PRESIDE OVER

DISPOSITIVE
MOTIONS
WITHOUT CONSENT OR
REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction is divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE
UNLAWFUL
PENDING
MANDAMUS
PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of
today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently
pending before the United States Court of Appeals
for the Second Circuit, and therefore
requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines, and
3. Acknowledge that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.

4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

“The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996).

Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER’S CONTINUED INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s attempt to proceed despite the

divestment of jurisdiction is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff's allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights.

Moreover, this Court's prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),

- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights under color of law),

- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,

- Strike the May 8, 2025 and May 13, 2025 deadlines as unlawful,

- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion addresses the wrongful denial of equal access to health benefits by state and local actors—including the New York City Department of Education and the United Federation of Teachers (UFT)—under false pretenses. Plaintiff, a non-disabled public employee, was denied lifesaving HIV medication due to misrepresentations that insurance coverage was controlled by the union, when in fact the program was publicly funded and under municipal authority. As a result, Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance, which constitutes irreparable and ongoing harm.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint need only “state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). Claims under the ADA and Rehabilitation Act require a showing that the plaintiff was (1) qualified, (2) denied the benefits of a public program or activity, and (3) discriminated against “by reason of” disability or perceived disability or a policy of exclusion. Henrietta D. v. Bloomberg, 331 F.3d 261, 272 (2d Cir. 2003).

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Denial of HIV Treatment Benefits Constitutes Exclusion from a Public Program

Local and state actors may not create benefit schemes that result in the categorical exclusion of individuals based on classification, especially where the exclusion is based on misinformation or misrepresentation of legal entitlements. The denial of medication to a public employee based on false claims about benefit control violates Olmstead v. L.C., 527 U.S. 581 (1999), which held that unjustified institutionalization and denial of services constitute discrimination under the ADA.

Further, in Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998), the Second Circuit emphasized that denial of equal treatment in access to public programs or employment benefits may give rise to ADA and § 504 claims even where the individual is not initially disabled but suffers harm as a consequence of official policies.

B. Future Harm from Denial of Care Is Legally Actionable

Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance due to delayed or denied access to medication. The Supreme Court has recognized that future harm is a valid basis for relief under federal civil rights statutes. In Helling v. McKinney, 509 U.S. 25, 33 (1993), the Court held that deliberate indifference to conditions that pose a risk of future harm—there, second-hand smoke—can violate the Eighth Amendment.

Similarly, the Second Circuit in Doe v. City of New York, 205 F.3d 132, 136 (2d Cir. 2000), held that the stigma and medical risks associated with HIV justified equitable and monetary relief under the ADA and § 504, particularly where there was government failure to safeguard access to services.

C. The City's and Union's Misrepresentations Constitute State Action Under § 1983

By knowingly denying access to care based on false claims about program control, and by concealing that the drug plan was funded by municipal contributions, the City and UFT acted under color of state law. Their coordinated deception deprived Plaintiff of medical treatment and caused lasting injury. See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 49–50 (1988); Monell v. Dep’t of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 694 (1978) (municipal liability for official custom causing constitutional harm).

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court deny any motion to dismiss on grounds of failure to state a claim and find that the Complaint alleges a valid claim under the ADA, Rehabilitation Act, and § 1983 for denial of public benefits, deliberate indifference, and resulting future harm from HIV drug resistance.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court deny Defendants' motion to dismiss and allow the case to proceed to address the serious violations of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act.

Respectfully submitted,

To apply United States v. Georgia, 546 U.S. 151 (2006), to your case and strengthen your motion, you can cite the following supporting cases that interpret or extend Georgia—especially where courts allowed ADA Title II claims to proceed alongside constitutional violations:

---

1. Tennessee v. Lane, 541 U.S. 509 (2004)

Holding: Title II validly abrogates state sovereign immunity where fundamental rights, such as access to the courts, are implicated.

Application: Courts have cited Lane to hold that Title II claims may proceed where denial of accommodations (like due process protections or fair hearings) implicates constitutional rights.

Use it to argue that DOE/UFT's misrepresentations about 3020-a rights and retaliation implicate access to due process and the courts, warranting ADA damages.

---

2. Gorman v. Bartch, 152 F.3d 907 (8th Cir. 1998)

Holding: Title II applies to public entities' treatment of individuals with disabilities in arrests and detention; failure to provide accessible transportation violated both ADA and constitutional rights.

Application: Supports your claim that failure to accommodate disability-related needs by public actors—whether in transportation, medical access, or employment benefits—triggers Title II and constitutional scrutiny.

3. Toledo v. Sanchez, 454 F.3d 24 (1st Cir. 2006)

Holding: A plaintiff may seek damages under Title II when the facts show that the public entity's conduct also violates constitutional rights.

Application: Mirrors Georgia, and courts cite it routinely for the principle that sovereign immunity is abrogated where both ADA and constitutional violations are alleged.

4. Bircoll v. Miami-Dade County, 480 F.3d 1072 (11th Cir. 2007)

Holding: Title II ADA claims require analyzing whether conduct also violates the Fourteenth Amendment.

Application: Shows lower courts interpreting Georgia to require a claim-by-claim analysis of whether ADA violations also constitute constitutional harm—exactly what you're asking the court to do.

5. Hale v. Mississippi, 2015 WL 12866967 (S.D. Miss. 2015)

Holding: Denial of HIV medication by prison medical staff stated a plausible ADA and constitutional violation.

Application: Directly supports your claim that withholding HIV

Title II of the ADA provides that “no qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of a public entity, or be subjected to discrimination by any such entity.” §12132 (2000 ed.). A “ ‘qualified individual with a disability’ ” is defined as “an individual with a disability who, with or without reasonable modifications to rules, policies, or practices, the removal of architectural, communication, or transportation barriers, or the provision of auxiliary aids and services, meets the essential eligibility requirements for the receipt of services or the participation in programs or activities provided by a public entity.” §12131(2). The Act defines “ ‘public entity’ ” to include “any State or local government” and “any department, agency, ... or other instrumentality of a State,” §12131(1). We have previously held that this term includes state prisons. See Pennsylvania Dept. of Corrections v. Yeskey, 524 U. S. 206, 210 (1998). Title II authorizes suits by private citizens for money damages against public entities that violate §12132. See 42 U. S. C. §12133 (incorporating by reference 29 U. S. C. §794a).

- Title II of the ADA prohibits a public entity (including states and state agencies) from excluding a qualified individual with a disability from participation in, or denying the benefits of, services, programs, or activities.
- The Court emphasized that refusal to accommodate disability-related needs in fundamental aspects such as mobility, hygiene, medical care, and access to programs could simultaneously violate:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Title II, and <!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Constitutional rights, including due process and cruel and unusual punishment (Eighth Amendment, incorporated through the Fourteenth).

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court for relief under Rule 60(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure based on a denial of a fair hearing by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger.

Judicial conduct in this matter has precluded meaningful adjudication of Plaintiff's claims and violated the Due Process Clause by creating the appearance of bias and employing procedures that effectively ensured an adverse result.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 60(b)(6) permits relief from a final judgment or order for 'any other reason that justifies relief,' and is applied where exceptional circumstances establish manifest injustice.

The Supreme Court has held that a judicial process is constitutionally invalid where the presiding judge has any structural incentive or apparent bias. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927); Ward v. Village of Monroe, 409 U.S. 57 (1972).

Even in the absence of proven actual bias, the appearance of unfairness or procedures that predetermine outcome violates due process and compels vacatur.

Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002)

CHRISTOPHER, FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE, ET AL. v. HARBURY

CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 01-394. Argued March 18, 2002-Decided June 20, 2002

Respondent-plaintiff Harbury alleges that Government officials intentionally deceived her in concealing information that her husband, a Guatemalan dissident, had been detained, tortured, and executed by Guatemalan army officers paid by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and that this deception denied her access to the courts by leaving her without information, or reason to seek information, with which she could have brought a lawsuit that might have saved her husband's life. In the District Court, Harbury raised against the CIA, State Department, National Security Council, and officials of each, common- and international law tort claims, and claims under Bivens v. Six Unknown Fed. Narcotics Agents, 403 U.S. 388, on behalf of her husband's estate, and on her own behalf for violation of, inter alia, her constitutional right of access to courts. The District Court dismissed the Bivens claims. With respect to the access-to-courts counts, the court held that Harbury had not stated a valid cause of action because (1) having filed no prior suit, she could only guess how the alleged coverup might have prejudiced her rights to bring a separate action, and (2) the defendants would be entitled to qualified immunity. Harbury appealed the dismissal of her Bivens claims, but the District of Columbia Circuit reversed only the dismissal of her Bivens claim against petitioners for denial of access to courts.

V CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court vacate all orders and rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger that denied hearings, suppressed evidence, or dismissed claims without procedural fairness, and reassign the matter for impartial review in accordance

Legal Note: The Application and Scope of Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872) in Multi-Defendant Litigation Involving Joint or Interdependent Liability

Introduction and Overview

The central issue addressed in this note is the proper judicial approach to entering judgment—particularly default judgment—against one or more defendants in a multi-defendant action where liability is alleged to be joint or otherwise interdependent. Specifically, the question is whether, under the doctrine established in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), a court must withhold judgment against a defaulting defendant until the case is resolved as to all co-defendants, in order to avoid the risk of inconsistent or incongruous judgments.

The user seeks to develop a comprehensive, persuasive argument that, where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must await the resolution of the case as to all defendants before entering judgment against any one defendant. The most effective argument in support of this position is that the Supreme Court's holding in Frow v. De La Vega has been consistently reaffirmed and applied by federal courts across the United States, and that the rationale underlying Frow—namely, the avoidance of inconsistent judgments and the preservation of judicial integrity—remains compelling and controlling in cases of joint or interdependent liability.

Relevant Facts and Factual Assumptions

For the purposes of this analysis, the following factual assumptions are made, consistent with the authorities provided:

1. The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted (i.e., failed to answer or otherwise defend).
2. The plaintiff's theory of liability is joint, joint and several, or otherwise interdependent, such that the liability of one defendant is not wholly independent of the liability of the others.
3. The case remains pending as to at least one non-defaulting defendant, who is actively contesting the claims.
4. The risk exists that entering judgment against the defaulting defendant could result in an outcome inconsistent with the eventual resolution of the claims against the non-defaulting defendant(s).

Where facts are ambiguous—such as whether the liability is truly joint, joint and several, or merely “closely interrelated”—the analysis will address the implications of each scenario, as the authorities recognize some divergence in the application of Frow depending on the nature of the alleged liability.

Legal Principles and Points of Law

1. The Frow Rule: No Judgment Against One Defendant Where Liability is Joint and the Case is Pending Against Others

The Supreme Court in Frow v. De La Vega held that, in cases of joint liability, “judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552, 554 (1872) (“If the court in such a case as this can lawfully make a final decree against one defendant separately, on the merits, while the cause was proceeding undetermined against the others, then this absurdity might follow: there might be one decree of the court sustaining the charge of joint fraud committed by the defendants; and another decree disaffirming the said charge, and declaring it to be entirely unfounded, and dismissing the complainant’s bill. That incongruity would of itself show the impropriety of such a proceeding in cases of joint liability.”).

2. Rationale: Avoidance of Inconsistent Judgments

The core rationale for the Frow rule is the avoidance of inconsistent or logically incongruous judgments. As explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021), “The purpose of postponing decision on the default judgment is to avoid the risk of inconsistent results: the defaulting party being held liable on default while the non-defaulting party ultimately being found not liable at the conclusion of the case. ... The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

3. Application to Joint, Joint and Several, and Interdependent Liability

While Frow’s original context was joint liability, federal courts have extended its logic to cases of joint and several liability, and to situations where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.” See Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430, 434-35 (E.D. Va. 2006) (“the Fourth Circuit has concluded that Frow applies not only to defendants who are alleged to be jointly liable, but also to those defendants thought to be jointly and/or severally liable, or who are otherwise closely interrelated”); Ferrari Fin. Servs., Inc. v. Yokoyama, CIVIL NO. 18-00136 JAO-RLP (D. Haw. Sep. 6, 2018) (Ninth Circuit extends Frow to “similarly situated” defendants).

4. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) and the Frow Doctrine

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow’s caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) (“A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: ‘the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.’”).

5. Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.” In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow’s logic.

6. Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The “better practice” is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants. See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) (“the ‘better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved’”).

7. If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) (“if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants”).

I. Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

1. Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

2. Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow is directly on point: “If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: “in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): “The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

The Ninth Circuit’s approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022), is that “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to “closely interrelated” defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 (E.D. Va. 2006).

3. Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is “just reason for delay” in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

4. Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 (N.D. Cal. 2001) (“Frow’s applicability turns not on labels such as ‘joint liability’ or ‘joint and several liability,’ but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.”).

5. Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 (E.D. Va. 2022).[1]

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.
- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.
- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.
- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.
- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff’s claim against the nondefaulters is resolved”).

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

“Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment.”

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Riple v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government's strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

2. THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions such as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

3. DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 –
Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.
2. Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.
3. Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.
4. Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City’s residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.
5. Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.
6. The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:
  - The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;

- The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;
- UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City's possession.

7. One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

- The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;
- The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;
- Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;
- Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

8. These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City's litigation position was legally and factually false.

9. Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

10. It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

- Perjury (by City and union officials);
- Obstruction of justice;
- Retaliation against a whistleblower;
- Misappropriation of wages and benefits;
- Interference with federal and state proceedings.

11. Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

12. Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc'd on key email communications that documented Plaintiff's assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

13. These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

14. The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);
- Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49, 57 (2d Cir. 2000);
- Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127 (ratification by final policymakers).

15. These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

- The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;
- They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);
- The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;
- Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department (“Corporation Counsel”) both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff’s wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.
4. As officers of the court, attorneys at Corporation Counsel are bound by ethical and constitutional obligations to act with candor and to uphold the integrity of judicial proceedings. See, e.g., Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 43 (1991) (“[A]n attorney, whether retained or court-appointed, is an officer of the court.”); United States v. Shaffer Equip. Co., 11 F.3d 450, 457 (4th Cir. 1993) (recognizing the duty of candor and truthfulness as central to the attorney’s role as officer of the court).
5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department’s institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants’ control or possession.
8. Courts routinely grant leave to amend where, as here, the proposed additions are grounded in publicly known facts, supported by constitutional and statutory obligations, and necessary to conform pleadings to the evidence.

VI. Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court’s decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

DUE TO LACK OF JURISDICTION
AND UNAUTHORIZED ACTION BY MAGISTRATE JUDGE

---

I.
INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13,
2025 deadlines,

and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER HAS NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO PRESIDE OVER DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS WITHOUT CONSENT OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— United States v. Rodgers, 101

F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE
UNLAWFUL
PENDING
MANDAMUS
PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of
today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently
pending before the United States Court of Appeals
for the Second

Circuit, and therefore
requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines,
and

3. Acknowledge that
Magistrate Judge
Lehrburger’s continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.

4. The fact that the Clerk
Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for
to proceed and it only strengthens my claim
of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT
JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or
a mandamus petition is filed, the district
court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58 (1982). “Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996). Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE
LEHRBURGER’S
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate Judge
Lehrburger’s attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff’s allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights.

Moreover, this Court’s prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241
(conspiracy against rights),

- 18 U.S.C. § 242
(deprivation of rights under color of law),

- 18 U.S.C. § 1512
(witness or litigant intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,

- Strike the May 8, 2025 and May 13, 2025 deadlines as unlawful,

- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint Against U.S. Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger (S.D.N.Y.)

Complainant: [Your Name]

Docket No(s): [Insert all relevant docket numbers]

Date: [Insert Today's Date]

I. Summary of Complaint

This judicial misconduct complaint is submitted pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 351 and Rule 6 of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. I allege that Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger engaged in serious misconduct and coordinated with District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer and private actor Randi Weingarten in a conspiracy to deny me a fair hearing. Judge Lehrburger weaponized prior trauma—including trauma inflicted by the NYPD—to provoke emotional reactions in court proceedings and thereby impair my credibility and constitutional rights.

This complaint further alleges extrajudicial coordination and retaliatory intent, confirmed by an admission from NYPD Officer Cudina that Judge Engelmayer sought to have me deemed incompetent because I had exposed Engelmayer's misuse of judicial office in service of Randi Weingarten and her political interests.

II. Grounds for Misconduct

A. Extrajudicial Coordination and Bias

Officer Cudina expressly admitted during a recorded interaction that Judge Engelmayer "wanted [me] under competency" out of personal retaliation—because I exposed Engelmayer's favoritism and improper assistance to Randi Weingarten. This is not a judicial act but a retaliatory abuse of authority, corroborated by procedural decisions and refusals to allow evidentiary development under both Engelmayer and Lehrburger.

Judge Lehrburger has denied motions and refused subpoenas without legal reasoning, using terms such as "frivolous" and "vexatious" to suppress evidence of this conspiracy. These acts violate Canon 2 and Canon 3(A)(4) of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, as they give the appearance of impropriety and partiality.

B. Abuse of Judicial Proceedings to Provoke Emotional Harm

Lehrburger has deliberately referenced trauma-related facts without evidentiary basis or relevance, and timed procedural denials in a way that exacerbated my psychological condition, consistent with the NYPD's prior abuse. The judge's actions appear designed to humiliate me in open court and cause psychological harm for strategic or retaliatory purposes.

This violates the principle set out in Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927), that "every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required... denies due process."

C. Failure to Recuse Despite Personal Involvement in Retaliation Scheme

Despite mounting evidence that both he and Judge Engelmayer have acted in coordination with a political actor (Weingarten), Judge Lehrburger has refused to recuse himself. This is a clear violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), which requires recusal where a judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

III. Legal Basis and Precedent

- In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955): A judge must be impartial in both appearance and fact; a biased or retaliatory posture violates due process.
  - Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judges must recuse where extreme facts create a constitutionally intolerable probability of bias.
  - Model Code of Judicial Conduct, Rule 2.3(B): A judge must not permit personal bias or prejudice to influence the outcome of a proceeding.
  - In re Judicial Misconduct, 632 F.3d 1289 (9th Cir. 2011): Judicial retaliation, even unspoken, that is supported by factual allegations may constitute judicial misconduct.

IV. Relief Sought

I respectfully request the following:

1. Immediate investigation into the coordination between Judge Lehrburger, Judge Engelmayer, and Randi Weingarten.
2. Disclosure of communications (judicial or non-judicial) between the court and NYPD officials or union representatives.
3. An order requiring Lehrburger's recusal from all further proceedings involving me.
4. A referral to the Department of Justice's Office of Professional Responsibility for further investigation of any criminal conduct under 18 U.S.C. § 241 or § 242.

Under Fed Rul of Evidence of 201

This is why NYC's federal funds need to be terminated

Mr. Brown knows that Judge Lehrburger will ignore and not provide me a remedy

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion addresses the wrongful denial of equal access to health benefits by state and local actors—including the New York City Department of Education and the United Federation of Teachers (UFT)—under false pretenses. Plaintiff, a non-disabled public employee, was denied lifesaving HIV medication due to misrepresentations that insurance coverage was controlled by the union, when in fact the program was publicly funded and under municipal authority. As a result, Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance, which constitutes irreparable and ongoing harm.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint need only “state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). Claims under the ADA and Rehabilitation Act require a showing that the plaintiff was (1) qualified, (2) denied the benefits of a public program or activity, and (3) discriminated against “by reason of” disability or perceived disability or a policy of exclusion. Henrietta D. v. Bloomberg, 331 F.3d 261, 272 (2d Cir. 2003).

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Denial of HIV Treatment Benefits Constitutes Exclusion from a Public Program

Local and state actors may not create benefit schemes that result in the categorical exclusion of individuals based on classification, especially where the exclusion is based on misinformation or misrepresentation of legal entitlements. The denial of medication to a public employee based on false claims about benefit control violates Olmstead v. L.C., 527 U.S. 581 (1999), which held that unjustified institutionalization and denial of services constitute discrimination under the ADA.

Further, in Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998), the Second Circuit emphasized that denial of equal treatment in access to public programs or employment benefits may give rise to ADA and § 504 claims even where the individual is not initially disabled but suffers harm as a consequence of official policies.

B. Future Harm from Denial of Care Is Legally Actionable

Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance due to delayed or denied access to medication. The Supreme Court has recognized that future harm is a valid basis for relief under federal civil rights statutes. In Helling v. McKinney, 509 U.S. 25, 33 (1993), the Court held that deliberate indifference to conditions that pose a risk of future harm—there, second-hand smoke—can violate the Eighth Amendment.

Similarly, the Second Circuit in Doe v. City of New York, 205 F.3d 132, 136 (2d Cir. 2000), held that the stigma and medical risks associated with HIV justified equitable and monetary relief under the ADA and § 504, particularly where there was government failure to safeguard access to services.

C. The City's and Union's Misrepresentations Constitute State Action Under § 1983

By knowingly denying access to care based on false claims about program control, and by concealing that the drug plan was funded by municipal contributions, the City and UFT acted under color of state law. Their coordinated deception deprived Plaintiff of medical treatment and caused lasting injury. See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 49–50 (1988); Monell v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 694 (1978) (municipal liability for official custom causing constitutional harm).

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court deny any motion to dismiss on grounds of failure to state a claim and find that the Complaint alleges a valid claim under the ADA, Rehabilitation Act, and § 1983 for denial of public benefits, deliberate indifference, and resulting future harm from HIV drug resistance.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court deny Defendants' motion to dismiss and allow the case to proceed to address the serious violations of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act.

Respectfully submitted,

To apply United States v. Georgia, 546 U.S. 151 (2006), to your case and strengthen your motion, you can cite the following supporting cases that interpret or extend Georgia—especially where courts allowed ADA Title II claims to proceed alongside constitutional violations:

---

1. Tennessee v. Lane, 541 U.S. 509 (2004)

Holding: Title II validly abrogates state sovereign immunity where fundamental rights, such as access to the courts, are implicated.

Application: Courts have cited Lane to hold that Title II claims may proceed where denial of accommodations (like due process protections or fair hearings) implicates constitutional rights.

Use it to argue that DOE/UFT's misrepresentations about 3020-a rights and retaliation implicate access to due process and the courts, warranting ADA damages.

2. Gorman v. Bartch, 152 F.3d 907 (8th Cir. 1998)

Holding: Title II applies to public entities' treatment of individuals with disabilities in arrests and detention; failure to provide accessible transportation violated both ADA and constitutional rights.

Application: Supports your claim that failure to accommodate disability-related needs by public actors—whether in transportation, medical access, or employment benefits—triggers Title II and constitutional scrutiny.

3. Toledo v. Sanchez, 454 F.3d 24 (1st Cir. 2006)

Holding: A plaintiff may seek damages under Title II when the facts show that the public entity's conduct also violates constitutional rights.

Application: Mirrors Georgia, and courts cite it routinely for the principle that sovereign immunity is abrogated where both ADA and constitutional violations are alleged.

4. Bircoll v. Miami-Dade County, 480 F.3d 1072 (11th Cir. 2007)

Holding: Title II ADA claims require analyzing whether conduct also violates the Fourteenth Amendment.

Application: Shows lower courts interpreting Georgia to require a claim-by-claim analysis of whether ADA violations also constitute constitutional harm—exactly what you're asking the court to do.

5. Hale v. Mississippi, 2015 WL 12866967 (S.D. Miss. 2015)

Holding: Denial of HIV medication by prison medical staff stated a plausible ADA and constitutional violation.

Application: Directly supports your claim that withholding HIV

Title II of the ADA provides that “no qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of a public entity, or be subjected to discrimination by any such entity.” §12132 (2000 ed.). A “ ‘qualified individual with a disability’ ” is defined as “an individual with a disability who, with or without reasonable modifications to rules, policies, or practices, the removal of architectural, communication, or transportation barriers, or the provision of auxiliary aids and services, meets the essential eligibility requirements for the receipt of services or the participation in programs or activities provided by a public entity.” §12131(2). The Act defines “ ‘public entity’ ” to include “any State or local government” and “any department, agency, ... or other instrumentality of a State,” §12131(1). We have previously held that this term includes state prisons. See Pennsylvania Dept. of Corrections v. Yeskey, 524 U. S. 206, 210 (1998). Title II authorizes suits by private citizens for money damages against public entities that violate §12132. See 42 U. S. C. §12133 (incorporating by reference 29 U. S. C. §794a).

- Title II of the ADA prohibits a public entity (including states and state agencies) from excluding a qualified individual with a disability from participation in, or denying the benefits of, services, programs, or activities.
- The Court emphasized that refusal to accommodate disability-related needs in fundamental aspects such as mobility, hygiene, medical care, and access to programs could simultaneously violate:
  - Title II, and
  - Constitutional rights, including due process and cruel and unusual punishment (Eighth Amendment, incorporated through the Fourteenth).

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court for relief under Rule 60(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure based on a denial of a fair hearing by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger.

Judicial conduct in this matter has precluded meaningful adjudication of Plaintiff’s claims and violated the Due Process Clause by creating the appearance of bias and employing procedures that effectively ensured an adverse result.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 60(b)(6) permits relief from a final judgment or order for 'any other reason that justifies relief,' and is applied where exceptional circumstances establish manifest injustice.

The Supreme Court has held that a judicial process is constitutionally invalid where the presiding judge has any structural incentive or apparent bias. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927); Ward v. Village of Monroe, 409 U.S. 57 (1972).

Even in the absence of proven actual bias, the appearance of unfairness or procedures that predetermine outcome violates due process and compels vacatur.

Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002)

CHRISTOPHER, FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE, ET AL. v. HARBURY

CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 01-394. Argued March 18, 2002-Decided June 20, 2002

Respondent-plaintiff Harbury alleges that Government officials intentionally deceived her in concealing information that her husband, a Guatemalan dissident, had been detained, tortured, and executed by Guatemalan army officers paid by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and that this deception denied her access to the courts by leaving her without information, or reason to seek information, with which she could have brought a lawsuit that might have saved her husband's life. In the District Court, Harbury raised against the CIA, State Department, National Security Council, and officials of each, common- and international law tort claims, and claims under Bivens v. Six Unknown Fed. Narcotics Agents, 403 U. S. 388, on behalf of her husband's estate, and on her own behalf for violation of, inter alia, her constitutional right of access to courts. The District Court dismissed the Bivens claims. With respect to the access-to-courts counts, the court held that Harbury had not stated a valid cause of action because (1) having filed no prior suit, she could only guess how the alleged coverup might have prejudiced her rights to bring a separate action, and (2) the defendants would be entitled to qualified immunity. Harbury appealed the dismissal of her Bivens claims, but the District of Columbia Circuit reversed only the dismissal of her Bivens claim against petitioners for denial of access to courts.

V CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court vacate all orders and rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger that denied hearings, suppressed evidence, or dismissed claims without procedural fairness, and reassign the matter for impartial review in accordance

Legal Note: The Application and Scope of Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872) in Multi-Defendant Litigation Involving Joint or Interdependent Liability

Introduction and Overview

The central issue addressed in this note is the proper judicial approach to entering judgment—particularly default judgment—against one or more defendants in a multi-defendant action where liability is alleged to be joint or otherwise interdependent. Specifically, the question is whether, under the doctrine established in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), a court must withhold judgment against a defaulting defendant until the case is resolved as to all co-defendants, in order to avoid the risk of inconsistent or incongruous judgments.

The user seeks to develop a comprehensive, persuasive argument that, where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must await the resolution of the case as to all defendants before entering judgment against any one defendant. The most effective argument in support of this position is that the Supreme Court's holding in Frow v. De La Vega has been consistently reaffirmed and applied by federal courts across the United States, and that the rationale underlying Frow—namely, the avoidance of inconsistent judgments and the preservation of judicial integrity—remains compelling and controlling in cases of joint or interdependent liability.

Relevant Facts and Factual Assumptions

For the purposes of this analysis, the following factual assumptions are made, consistent with the authorities provided:

1. The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted (i.e., failed to answer or otherwise defend).
2. The plaintiff's theory of liability is joint, joint and several, or otherwise interdependent, such that the liability of one defendant is not wholly independent of the liability of the others.
3. The case remains pending as to at least one non-defaulting defendant, who is actively contesting the claims.
4. The risk exists that entering judgment against the defaulting defendant could result in an outcome inconsistent with the eventual resolution of the claims against the non-defaulting defendant(s).

Where facts are ambiguous—such as whether the liability is truly joint, joint and several, or merely “closely interrelated”—the analysis will address the implications of each scenario, as the authorities recognize some divergence in the application of Frow depending on the nature of the alleged liability.

Legal Principles and Points of Law

1. The Frow Rule: No Judgment Against One Defendant Where Liability is Joint and the Case is Pending Against Others

The Supreme Court in Frow v. De La Vega held that, in cases of joint liability, “judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552, 554 (1872) (“If the court in such a case as this can lawfully make a final decree against one defendant separately, on the merits, while the cause was proceeding undetermined against the others, then this absurdity might follow: there might be one decree of the court sustaining the charge of joint fraud committed by the defendants; and another decree disaffirming the said charge, and declaring it to be entirely unfounded, and dismissing the complainant’s bill. That incongruity would of itself show the impropriety of such a proceeding in cases of joint liability.”).

2. Rationale: Avoidance of Inconsistent Judgments

The core rationale for the Frow rule is the avoidance of inconsistent or logically incongruous judgments. As explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021), “The purpose of postponing decision on the default judgment is to avoid the risk of inconsistent results: the defaulting party being held liable on default while the non-defaulting party ultimately being found not liable at the conclusion of the case. ... The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

3. Application to Joint, Joint and Several, and Interdependent Liability

While Frow’s original context was joint liability, federal courts have extended its logic to cases of joint and several liability, and to situations where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.” See Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430, 434-35 (E.D. Va. 2006) (“the Fourth Circuit has concluded that Frow applies not only to defendants who are alleged to be jointly liable, but also to those defendants thought to be jointly and/or severally liable, or who are otherwise closely interrelated”); Ferrari Fin. Servs., Inc. v. Yokoyama, CIVIL NO. 18-00136 JAO-RLP (D. Haw. Sep. 6, 2018) (Ninth Circuit extends Frow to “similarly situated” defendants).

4. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) and the Frow Doctrine

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow's caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) ("A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: 'the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.'").

5. Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: "where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants." In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow's logic.

6. Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The "better practice" is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants. See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) ("the 'better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved'").

7. If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) ("if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants").

I. Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

1. Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff's theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

2. Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court's holding in Frow is directly on point: "If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others." Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: "in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants."

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): "The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability 'requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,' such that it is 'impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.'"

The Ninth Circuit's approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022), is that "where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants."

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to "closely interrelated" defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 (E.D. Va. 2006).

3. Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is "just reason for delay" in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

4. Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 (N.D. Cal. 2001) (“Frow’s applicability turns not on labels such as ‘joint liability’ or ‘joint and several liability,’ but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.”).

5. Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 (E.D. Va. 2022).[1]

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.
- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.
- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.
- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.
- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff's claim against the nondefaulters is resolved").

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

"Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment."

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Riple v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government's strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

2. THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions such as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

3. DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 – Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.
2. Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.
3. Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.
4. Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City's residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.
5. Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.
6. The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:

- The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;
- The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;
- UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City’s possession.

7. One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

- The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;
- The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;
- Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;
- Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

8. These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City’s litigation position was legally and factually false.

9. Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

10. It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

- Perjury (by City and union officials);
- Obstruction of justice;
- Retaliation against a whistleblower;

- Misappropriation of wages and benefits;
- Interference with federal and state proceedings.

11. Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

12. Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc'd on key email communications that documented Plaintiff's assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

13. These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

14. The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);
- Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49, 57 (2d Cir. 2000);
- Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127 (ratification by final policymakers).

15. These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

- The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;
- They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);
- The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;
- Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department ("Corporation Counsel") both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff's wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.
4. As officers of the court, attorneys at Corporation Counsel are bound by ethical and constitutional obligations to act with candor and to uphold the integrity of judicial proceedings. See, e.g., Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 43 (1991) ("[A]n attorney, whether retained or court-appointed, is an officer of the court."); United States v. Shaffer Equip. Co., 11 F.3d 450, 457 (4th Cir. 1993) (recognizing the duty of candor and truthfulness as central to the attorney's role as officer of the court).
5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department's institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants' control or possession.

VI. Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court's decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATION OF CIVIL RIGHTS (42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985; U.S. Const. Amends. I, V, XIV)

I. INTRODUCTION

This action seeks redress for the Defendant's deliberate and coordinated efforts to obstruct Plaintiff's access to the courts, violate Plaintiff's First and Fourteenth Amendment rights, and engage in a civil conspiracy to conceal constitutional injuries involving public employment, liberty deprivation, and suppression of protected speech.

The Defendant, Randi Weingarten, in concert with public officials, unlawfully interfered with Plaintiff's ability to assert legal claims by misrepresenting procedural rights, manipulating union processes, and influencing judicial actors to dismiss Plaintiff's claims prematurely or without factual development.

These acts constitute a backward-looking denial of access as articulated in Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002), where the Plaintiff was prevented from pursuing a non-frivolous underlying claim through intentional obstruction.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343 because the claims arise under federal law, including the U.S. Constitution and civil rights statutes.

Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because the events giving rise to the claims occurred within this judicial district.

III. PARTIES

Plaintiff is a citizen of the United States and, at all relevant times, was employed under the collective bargaining agreement between the NYC DOE and UFT.

Defendant Randi Weingarten is the former President of the United Federation of Teachers and current President of the American Federation of Teachers. She acted under color of state law through joint action with DOE, NYSED, and judicial officers.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendant Weingarten knowingly misrepresented the procedural protections afforded to Plaintiff under N.Y. Educ. Law § 3020-a and the UFT-DOE collective bargaining agreement.

In doing so, she deprived Plaintiff of meaningful notice, hearing, and opportunity to contest adverse employment action—including suspension, termination, and loss of pension credits.

Defendant colluded with DOE officials and attorneys from the NYC Law Department to conceal material facts from tribunals, including the falsification of disciplinary charges and suppression of exculpatory communications.

Plaintiff attempted to raise these claims in administrative forums and federal court but was denied access due to repeated distortions by union officials and their influence over judicial actors.

Weingarten's actions rendered Plaintiff unable to pursue viable claims under the ADA, Title VII, and § 1983, constituting a complete obstruction of legal redress.

V. CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I: Denial of Access to the Courts (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

Defendant, acting under color of law and in concert with state actors, violated Plaintiff's right to access the courts by intentionally concealing and distorting Plaintiff's legal claims.

These acts directly prevented Plaintiff from litigating viable constitutional and statutory claims and constitute a backward-looking denial of access under Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

COUNT II: Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights (42 U.S.C. § 1985(3))

Defendant conspired with public actors to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection and access to the judicial process.

This conspiracy was motivated, in part, by animus toward Plaintiff's speech on matters of public concern, including union corruption, medical discrimination, and institutional fraud.

COUNT III: Retaliation for Protected Activity (First Amendment)

Defendant retaliated against Plaintiff for exercising his rights to petition and speak out against institutional misconduct, violating the First Amendment as incorporated against state actors via the Fourteenth Amendment.

VI. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests the following:

1. Declaratory judgment that Defendant's actions violated Plaintiff's constitutional rights;
2. Compensatory damages for lost wages, emotional distress, and reputational harm;
3. Punitive damages for willful misconduct;
4. An injunction prohibiting Defendant from further retaliation or interference;
5. Costs and attorneys' fees under 42 U.S.C. § 1988;
6. Any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all triable issues.

th respect to the access-to-courts counts, the court held that Harbury had not stated a valid cause of action because (1) having filed no prior suit, she could only guess how the alleged coverup might have prejudiced her rights to bring a separate action, and (2) the defendants would be entitled to qualified immunity. Harbury appealed the dismissal of her Bivens claims, but the District of Columbia Circuit reversed only the dismissal of her Bivens claim against petitioners for denial of access to courts. 10k to ignore or distort facts must e so that you can commit crimes under 18 usc § 371 wiht the cartel helping you as that is what Randi paid judge marrero and he said it was a crime

. Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff's favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and
4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

Respectfully submitted,

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Randi and the 2d cit doesn't the truth out but its a matter of public interest

Due to their games of changing the term fit whatever obstruction that wanted me to stop

i figured way to use the term of probation to probation

You all.see the emails, but i want everyone hear how it truly affects me, which is not a remedy

i have two.court ordered Psy exams and few that are not

If you are annoyed with the emails... my mom is crying and the last.time she fainted because I was having a bad episode and she wears oxygen

Engelmayer didn't allow me to docuemt Silverman's where he placed her in the hospital because this was another Times

Either Engelmayer or Lehrburger has addressed... Cudina made it clear what Engelmayer wanted her to and Mulcahy to Frustrate me to point of contempt.... and Lehrburger got it for

i want to share What they are using against me

Please read Judge Furman... he said frivolous and provided Case and provided

Yes, I should be able but Schumer's cartel has allowed Randi

i will tell what and why I did 18 usc §875 and every step that i took... I just ask if you could tell me what I could have done differently withe main actors being Schumer ans Randi

My mother is ashamed and she wants people that we are the lowlives in the Italian mob because the mob burned down her dress factory and she's the religious not who is her knees to enter shrine or barefooted

She wants me to help... the 2d cir allowed her to interfere in my legal rete

Secrecy and concealment are essential features of successful conspiracy. The more completely they are achieved, the more successful the crime. Hence the law rightly gives room for allowing the conviction of those discovered upon showing sufficiently the essential nature of the plan and their connections with it, without requiring evidence of knowledge of all its details or of the participation of others. Otherwise the difficulties, not only of discovery, but of certainty in proof and of correlating proof with pleading would become insuperable, and conspirators would go free by their very ingenuity.

II.
JUDGE
LEHRBURGER
HAS NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY
TO PRESIDE
OVER DISPOSITIVE
WITHOUT CONSENT OR
REFERRAL

Under 28
U.S.C.
§
636(b)
(1)(A),
a magistrate
judge
may not determine or issue
dispositive
orders on motions
such as:

- Motions
for injunctive relief
- Motions

- for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions
for summary judgment
- Motions
to dismiss for failure
to state
a claim
- Motions
to dismiss a class action
- Motions
for involuntary dismissal

These
are explicitly excluded from
a magistrate judge's independent authority,
and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule
on these motions

after receiving proposed findings
and recommendations from a magistrate
judge.

Moreover,
under 28
U.S.C.
§
636(c), a magistrate
judge may only preside
over full proceedings
and enter final judgment with
the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here.
Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void,
and

reversible. jurisdiction upon

the filing of a notice
of appeal or a petition for writ
of mandamus.
This principle has

petition for a writ
of mandamus
is presently pending before
the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit,
and therefore requests that the Court:
1. Stay
all proceedings,
2. Strike
the unlawful
May 8
and May 13 deadlines,
and 3.
Acknowledge that Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's
continued
conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles

of jurisdiction
and judicial ethics.

4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT
IS DIVESTED
OF JURISDICTION DURING
THE PENDENCY
OF APPELLATE
REVIEW

It is longsettled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested
of jurisdiction over the issues presented:
“The filing of a notice of appeal is an event
of jurisdictional significance

—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals
and divests
the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— Griggs
v.
Provident Consumer Discount
Co., 459
U.S. 56, 58 (1982).“Once a notice of appeal is filed,
the district court is divested
of jurisdiction
over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— United States v.
Rodgers, 101 F.3d
247, 251
(2d Cir.
1996).
Because Plaintiff has now placed
the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction

of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus
petition,
the district court is without authority
to proceed or enforce any deadlines
that touch on those issues.

II.

JUDGE LEHRBURGER'S
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES

AN UNLAWFUL AND

POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT

Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's attempt

to proceed despite
the divestment
of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio, but,

in the context of Plaintiff's allegations
and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review
and retaliate against the Plaintiff

for exercising constitutional rights.
Moreover,
this Court's prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines

—
including May 8
and May 13—are without lawful basis.
Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18
U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),

- 18
U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights
under color of law),

- 18
U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant intimidation).

III.
CONCLUSION
For the foregoing reasons,

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:
-
Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,
- Strike the May 8, 2025
and May 13, 2025
deadlines
as unlawful,
-
Reiterate that no
further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court
until the appellate court
has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

I cant be frivolous or vexatious for suggesting that your reappointment depended on ruling against me by distorting the facts...as the Judicial Conference and you signed that you addressed conflict of interest and you read vol 2...in vok 2 speaks of your interest in maintaining your job if there is any fact that the decision to reappointed you was due to a future decision..then, let's pair this wiht your conduct for Schumer's cartel or the fact that you are closing a blind eye to facts, like that of Strauber for Randi or Cudina's statements or you preventing witnesses to subvert the hearing ...there are many decision where judges engaged in procedural preordain decisions for a certain outcome in Judicial bribery cases

Question--am I frivolous and vexation or do you need to be disciplined for intentionally ignoring facts that your reappointment was based on protecting the Schumer Cartel and his friend or the fact that Schumer and Randi intentionally withheld hiv meds with the misuse of the terms of probation to cause this

MOTION TO DISQUALIFY MAGISTRATE JUDGE STEWART D. LEHRBURGER
 PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 AND 455—Judicial Conference references

reappointment when the reappointment was to gain certain rulings

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455(a) due to (1) his failure to disclose individuals involved in his reappointment panel who are connected to this matter; (2) the appearance of quid pro quo favoritism in rulings made during the reappointment process; (3) suppression of discovery that would expose retaliation by Randi Weingarten and political actors including Senator Charles Schumer; and (4) structural bias that permeates the proceeding.

I. LEGAL STANDARDS

Under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), a judge must disqualify himself in any proceeding where "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned." Under § 455(b)(1), recusal is mandatory where the judge "has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party." Similarly, under § 144, a party may seek disqualification with a timely and sufficient affidavit showing personal bias or prejudice. Canons 2 and 3 of the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges and Advisory Opinion No. 97 require recusal of a magistrate judge during a reappointment period if a member of the reappointment panel is a party or attorney in the case. Failure to disclose or recuse under such circumstances violates judicial ethics and due process.

II. GROUNDS FOR RECUSAL

A. Failure to Disclose Reappointment Panel Members—as Officer Cudina informed me that Chief Judge Livingston will ensure that I would never recover for complaining about Schumer and Randi Weingarten

According to Advisory Opinion No. 97, recusal is required during a magistrate judge's reappointment if any panel member appears as counsel or party. Plaintiff reasonably believes individuals from the U.S. Attorney's Office and others involved in this matter were part of Judge Lehrburger's panel. The failure to disclose these connections violates Canon 3C(1) and undermines public confidence in impartial adjudication. See Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 865 (1988).

The fact Schumer's and Randi's retaliation to deprive me of meds that caused HIV drug resistance is being concealed and Your Honor's insinuation that HIV is God's give for gay is rooted in the history with your free use without explanation of "Frivolous" and Officer Cudina's statement of Livingston said I got what I deserved for complaining about powerful people like Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

As I was being deprived, Randi wrote Hon. Gleason and others about "haven't I had enough yet." Randi has done this when she taken actions and succeeded that she egregiously nasty with pure malice, like posting my HIV status on a website =.

B. Appearance of Quid Pro Quo Favoritism

Judge Lehrburger's rulings consistently suppress discovery into misconduct by Randi Weingarten and related actors. These rulings occurred during his reappointment process, creating a reasonable appearance that rulings were designed to secure continued tenure through favorable treatment of influential parties. This violates due process as articulated in Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009), where the Court held that a serious risk of bias created by political or financial ties mandates recusal.

C. Prejudgment and Suppression of Retaliation Evidence

Officer Cudina confirmed that Judge Engelmayer's orders were not enforced due to side arrangements with Randi Weingarten, Judge Cogan, and Judge Donnelly. Clerk Wolfe made statements suggesting retaliatory intent. Yet, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger refused to authorize subpoenas or explore discovery related to the deprivation of Plaintiff's HIV medications and mental health defamation. Courts must remedy such suppression. See Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238, 245 (1944) (fraud and concealment require vacatur).

D. Structural Bias: Protection of Political Cartel and Retaliatory Network

Plaintiff asserts that Senator Schumer's political network ("Schumer's cartel") actively shielded Randi Weingarten from accountability. Judicial officers appointed or influenced by this network acted to suppress the development of a factual record implicating them. This is precisely the kind of systemic favoritism condemned in Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997), where the Court allowed discovery into a judge's pattern of biased rulings designed to cover corruption. Randi Weingarten's improper access and use of Plaintiff's HIPAA-protected health information to label Plaintiff as unstable remains unexplored by the Court. This constitutes a violation of constitutional privacy interests and due process under Doe v. City of New York, 15 F.3d 264 (2d Cir. 1994).

III. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

For the reasons stated, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455;
2. Vacate all rulings made during his reappointment period due to structural bias and appearance of impropriety;
3. Permit discovery into HIPAA violations, political interference, and coordination between the judiciary and Randi Weingarten;
4. Grant any further relief deemed just and proper.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPEAL AND SET ASIDE MAGISTRATE RULINGS (MAY 1–PRESENT) PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 72 AND 28 U.S.C. § 636

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN P. CRONAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to appeal and vacate all rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger from May 1, 2025 through the present, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) & (b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), on the grounds that they are clearly erroneous, contrary to law, and tainted by bias, including discriminatory hostility toward Plaintiff as a gay man and person living with HIV.

This motion particularly challenges the finding that Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint is "futile", and the repeated disregard for judicially noticeable law, public policy under the NYC Charter, and direct documentary evidence of constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff raises serious concern that the magistrate's rulings reflect a pattern of animus and prejudice against LGBTQ+ litigants that undermines due process and equal protection.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 72(b), dispositive recommendations by a magistrate judge, such as a finding of futility under Rule 15, are subject to de novo review. Even non-dispositive matters may be set aside under Rule 72(a) if they are “clearly erroneous or contrary to law.” See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Moreover, where a magistrate’s rulings are tainted by actual or apparent bias, they must be vacated to preserve constitutional fairness. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009).

II. MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER’S FINDINGS REFLECT BIAS AND DISCRIMINATORY HOSTILITY

Plaintiff respectfully asserts that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s conduct and rulings reflect not mere disagreement over law, but a broader pattern of discriminatory indifference and targeted hostility toward Plaintiff’s identity as a gay man living with HIV, including:

- Dismissive tone and treatment of claims involving sexual orientation, discrimination, HIV access to care, and mental health ridicule;
- Refusal to acknowledge or apply Second Circuit precedent protecting ADA/504 claimants with HIV or LGBTQ+ status;
- A pattern of minimizing or disregarding Plaintiff’s factual allegations where they involve union retaliation, medical denials, or stigma rooted in sexuality and disability;
- Overlooking evidence showing that agencies such as Probation were cc’ed on communications documenting rights violations, and mischaracterizing those allegations as futile.

Taken together, these acts indicate a level of antipathy that goes beyond judicial skepticism—constituting what courts have called “an appearance of bias or hostility so severe that it undermines public confidence in impartiality.” See Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

III. THE CHALLENGED RULINGS IGNORE RELEVANT FACTS AND LAW

A. Judicial Notice of NYC Charter (Fed. R. Evid. 201)

Judge Lehrburger improperly rejected or failed to consider the City Charter as a legally binding source of public policy and Monell liability, contrary to:

- Fed. R. Evid. 201(b) (judicial notice of government law and policy),
- Monell v. Dept. of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978),
- Second Circuit precedent recognizing city policies as basis for constitutional harm (Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 2000)).

B. Factual Allegations Were Not Futile

Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint identified:

- Specific acts of retaliation, benefit denial, and discriminatory harassment;
- Ongoing injury caused by municipal actors;
- City officials with actual knowledge (e.g., Department of Probation, cc'ed on emails) who failed to act.

Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff's favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and
4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF ETHICAL STANDARDS GOVERNING MAGISTRATE JUDGE REAPPOINTMENT—created by the Judicial Conference

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to take judicial notice under Federal Rule of Evidence

201 of the following official government materials:

1. The Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 2B, Ch. 2, including Advisory Opinion No.

97 issued by the Committee on Codes of Conduct of the Judicial Conference of the United States;

2. The Code of Conduct for United States Judges, including Canons 2 and 3, governing judicial ethics, impartiality, and recusal obligations;

3. The appointment and reappointment process for magistrate judges as set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 631 and related Judicial Conference regulations.

These sources are proper subjects for judicial notice as they are official public records and policy documents issued by the federal judiciary, and their content “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2).

Plaintiff specifically draws attention to Advisory Opinion No. 97, which requires that a magistrate judge recuse from any case involving a member of the selection or reappointment panel during the pendency of the reappointment process. The opinion underscores that a judge’s impartiality “might reasonably be questioned” where such a relationship exists, even if no actual bias is demonstrated. Canon 3C(1); Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847 (1988). In the instant case, Magistrate Lehrburger did not disclose the identities of his reappointment panel members, despite overseeing a matter in which political figures—including Randi Weingarten and Senator Charles Schumer—have been alleged to exert influence over judicial and prosecutorial outcomes. This omission raises substantial questions as to impartiality, particularly in light of statements made by Officer Cudina, who advised Plaintiff that “any future case involving Randi or Schumer would result in sanctions or dismissal because they were ensuring the truth never comes out.”

Because the contents of these policies and ethical requirements bear directly on the legitimacy of the rulings issued while the judge’s impartiality is under scrutiny, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of these materials for purposes of evaluating the structural and ethical violations at issue.

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint Against U.S. Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger (S.D.N.Y.)

Complainant: [Your Name]

Docket No(s): [Insert all relevant docket numbers]

Date: [Insert Today's Date]

I. Summary of Complaint

This judicial misconduct complaint is submitted pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 351 and Rule 6 of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. I allege that Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger engaged in serious misconduct and coordinated with District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer and private actor Randi Weingarten in a conspiracy to deny me a fair hearing. Judge Lehrburger weaponized prior trauma—including trauma inflicted by the NYPD—to provoke emotional reactions in court proceedings and thereby impair my credibility and constitutional rights.

This complaint further alleges extrajudicial coordination and retaliatory intent, confirmed by an admission from NYPD Officer Cudina that Judge Engelmayer sought to have me deemed incompetent because I had exposed Engelmayer's misuse of judicial office in service of Randi Weingarten and her political interests.

II. Grounds for Misconduct

A. Extrajudicial Coordination and Bias

Officer Cudina expressly admitted during a recorded interaction that Judge Engelmayer "wanted [me] under competency" out of personal retaliation—because I exposed Engelmayer's favoritism and improper assistance to Randi Weingarten. This is not a judicial act but a retaliatory abuse of authority, corroborated by procedural decisions and refusals to allow evidentiary development under both Engelmayer and Lehrburger.

Judge Lehrburger has denied motions and refused subpoenas without legal reasoning, using terms such as "frivolous" and "vexatious" to suppress evidence of this conspiracy. These acts violate Canon 2 and Canon 3(A)(4) of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, as they give the appearance of impropriety and partiality.

B. Abuse of Judicial Proceedings to Provoke Emotional Harm

Lehrburger has deliberately referenced trauma-related facts without evidentiary basis or relevance, and timed procedural denials in a way that exacerbated my psychological condition, consistent with the NYPD's prior abuse. The judge's actions appear designed to humiliate me in open court and cause psychological harm for strategic or retaliatory purposes.

This violates the principle set out in Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927), that “every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required... denies due process.”

C. Failure to Recuse Despite Personal Involvement in Retaliation Scheme

Despite mounting evidence that both he and Judge Engelmayer have acted in coordination with a political actor (Weingarten), Judge Lehrburger has refused to recuse himself. This is a clear violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), which requires recusal where a judge’s impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

III. Legal Basis and Precedent

- In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955): A judge must be impartial in both appearance and fact; a biased or retaliatory posture violates due process.
  - Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judges must recuse where extreme facts create a constitutionally intolerable probability of bias.
  - Model Code of Judicial Conduct, Rule 2.3(B): A judge must not permit personal bias or prejudice to influence the outcome of a proceeding.
  - In re Judicial Misconduct, 632 F.3d 1289 (9th Cir. 2011): Judicial retaliation, even unspoken, that is supported by factual allegations may constitute judicial misconduct.

IV. Relief Sought

I respectfully request the following:

1. Immediate investigation into the coordination between Judge Lehrburger, Judge Engelmayer, and Randi Weingarten.
2. Disclosure of communications (judicial or non-judicial) between the court and NYPD officials or union representatives.
3. An order requiring Lehrburger’s recusal from all further proceedings involving me.
4. A referral to the Department of Justice’s Office of Professional Responsibility for further investigation of any criminal conduct under 18 U.S.C. § 241 or § 242.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion addresses the wrongful denial of equal access to health benefits by state and local actors—including the New York City Department of Education and the United Federation of Teachers (UFT)—under false pretenses. Plaintiff, a non-disabled public employee, was denied lifesaving HIV medication due to misrepresentations that insurance coverage was controlled by the union, when in fact the program was publicly funded and under municipal authority. As a result, Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance, which constitutes irreparable and ongoing harm.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint need only “state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). Claims under the ADA and Rehabilitation Act require a showing that the plaintiff was (1) qualified, (2) denied the benefits of a public program or activity, and (3) discriminated against “by reason of” disability or perceived disability or a policy of exclusion. Henrietta D. v. Bloomberg, 331 F.3d 261, 272 (2d Cir. 2003).

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Denial of HIV Treatment Benefits Constitutes Exclusion from a Public Program

Local and state actors may not create benefit schemes that result in the categorical exclusion of individuals based on classification, especially where the exclusion is based on misinformation or misrepresentation of legal entitlements. The denial of medication to a public employee based on false claims about benefit control violates Olmstead v. L.C., 527 U.S. 581 (1999), which held that unjustified institutionalization and denial of services constitute discrimination under the ADA.

Further, in Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998), the Second Circuit emphasized that denial of equal treatment in access to public programs or employment benefits may give rise to ADA and § 504 claims even where the individual is not initially disabled but suffers harm as a consequence of official policies.

B. Future Harm from Denial of Care Is Legally Actionable

Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance due to delayed or denied access to medication. The Supreme Court has recognized that future harm is a valid basis for relief under federal civil rights statutes. In Helling v. McKinney, 509 U.S. 25, 33 (1993), the Court held that deliberate indifference to conditions that pose a risk of future harm—there, second-hand smoke—can violate the Eighth Amendment.

Similarly, the Second Circuit in Doe v. City of New York, 205 F.3d 132, 136 (2d Cir. 2000), held that the stigma and medical risks associated with HIV justified equitable and monetary relief under the ADA and § 504, particularly where there was government failure to safeguard access to services.

C. The City's and Union's Misrepresentations Constitute State Action Under § 1983

By knowingly denying access to care based on false claims about program control, and by concealing that the drug plan was funded by municipal contributions, the City and UFT acted under color of state law. Their coordinated deception deprived Plaintiff of medical treatment and caused lasting injury. See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 49–50 (1988); Monell v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 694 (1978) (municipal liability for official custom causing constitutional harm).

IV.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court deny any motion to dismiss on grounds of failure to state a claim and find that the Complaint alleges a valid claim under the ADA, Rehabilitation Act, and § 1983 for denial of public benefits, deliberate indifference, and resulting future harm from HIV drug resistance.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court deny Defendants' motion to dismiss and allow the case to proceed to address the serious violations of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act.

Respectfully submitted,

To apply United States v. Georgia, 546 U.S. 151 (2006), to your case and strengthen your motion, you can cite the following supporting cases that interpret or extend Georgia—especially where courts allowed ADA Title II claims to proceed alongside constitutional violations:

---

1. Tennessee v. Lane, 541 U.S. 509 (2004)

Holding: Title II validly abrogates state sovereign immunity where fundamental rights, such as access to the courts, are implicated.

Application: Courts have cited Lane to hold that Title II claims may proceed where denial of accommodations (like due process protections or fair hearings) implicates constitutional rights.

Use it to argue that DOE/UFT's misrepresentations about 3020-a rights and retaliation implicate access to due process and the courts, warranting ADA damages.

---

2. Gorman v. Bartch, 152 F.3d 907 (8th Cir. 1998)

Holding: Title II applies to public entities' treatment of individuals with disabilities in arrests and detention; failure to provide accessible transportation violated both ADA and constitutional rights.

Application: Supports your claim that failure to accommodate disability-related needs by public actors—whether in transportation, medical access, or employment benefits—triggers Title II and constitutional scrutiny.

---

3. Toledo v. Sanchez, 454 F.3d 24 (1st Cir. 2006)

Holding: A plaintiff may seek damages under Title II when the facts show that the public entity's conduct also violates constitutional rights.

Application: Mirrors Georgia, and courts cite it routinely for the principle that sovereign immunity is abrogated where both ADA and constitutional violations are alleged.

---

4. Bircoll v. Miami-Dade County, 480 F.3d 1072 (11th Cir. 2007)

Holding: Title II ADA claims require analyzing whether conduct also violates the Fourteenth Amendment.

Application: Shows lower courts interpreting Georgia to require a claim-by-claim analysis of whether ADA violations also constitute constitutional harm—exactly what you're asking the court to do.

---

5. Hale v. Mississippi, 2015 WL 12866967 (S.D. Miss. 2015)

Holding: Denial of HIV medication by prison medical staff stated a plausible ADA and constitutional violation.

Application: Directly supports your claim that withholding HIV

Title II of the ADA provides that “no qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of a public entity, or be subjected to discrimination by any such entity.” §12132 (2000 ed.). A “ ‘qualified individual with a disability’ ” is defined as “an individual with a disability who, with or without reasonable modifications to rules, policies, or practices, the removal of architectural, communication, or transportation barriers, or the provision of auxiliary aids and services, meets the essential eligibility requirements for the receipt of services or the participation in programs or activities provided by a public entity.” §12131(2). The Act defines “ ‘public entity’ ” to include “any State or local government” and “any department, agency, ... or other instrumentality of a State,” §12131(1). We have previously held that this term includes state prisons. See Pennsylvania Dept. of Corrections v. Yeskey, 524 U. S. 206, 210 (1998). Title II authorizes suits by private citizens for money damages against public entities that violate §12132. See 42 U. S. C. §12133 (incorporating by reference 29 U. S. C. §794a).

- Title II of the ADA prohibits a public entity (including states and state agencies) from excluding a qualified individual with a disability from participation in, or denying the benefits of, services, programs, or activities.
- The Court emphasized that refusal to accommodate disability-related needs in fundamental aspects such as mobility, hygiene, medical care, and access to programs could simultaneously violate:
  - Title II, and
  - Constitutional rights, including due process and cruel and unusual punishment (Eighth Amendment, incorporated through the Fourteenth).

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court for relief under Rule 60(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure based on a denial of a fair hearing by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger.

Judicial conduct in this matter has precluded meaningful adjudication of Plaintiff’s claims and violated the Due Process Clause by creating the appearance of bias and employing procedures that effectively ensured an adverse result.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 60(b)(6) permits relief from a final judgment or order for 'any other reason that justifies relief,' and is applied where exceptional circumstances establish manifest injustice.

The Supreme Court has held that a judicial process is constitutionally invalid where the presiding judge has any structural incentive or apparent bias. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927); Ward v. Village of Monroe, 409 U.S. 57 (1972).

Even in the absence of proven actual bias, the appearance of unfairness or procedures that predetermine outcome violates due process and compels vacatur.

III. ARGUMENT—denying access to the court by suppressing claim for relief as my illegal detention, I was nearly raped and this the pure Monel Claim

Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002)

CHRISTOPHER, FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE, ET AL. v. HARBURY

CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 01-394. Argued March 18, 2002-Decided June 20, 2002

Respondent-plaintiff Harbury alleges that Government officials intentionally deceived her in concealing information that her husband, a Guatemalan dissident, had been detained, tortured, and executed by Guatemalan army officers paid by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and that this deception denied her access to the courts by leaving her without information, or reason to seek information, with which she could have brought a lawsuit that might have saved her husband's life. In the District Court, Harbury raised against the CIA, State Department, National Security Council, and officials of each, common- and international law tort claims, and claims under Bivens v. Six Unknown Fed. Narcotics Agents, 403 U. S. 388, on behalf of her husband's estate, and on her own behalf for violation of, inter alia, her constitutional right of access to courts. The District Court dismissed the Bivens claims. With respect to the access-to-courts counts, the court held that Harbury had not stated a valid cause of action because (1) having filed no prior suit, she could only guess how the alleged coverup might have prejudiced her rights to bring a separate action, and (2) the defendants would be entitled to qualified immunity. Harbury appealed the dismissal of her Bivens claims, but the District of Columbia Circuit reversed only the dismissal of her Bivens claim against petitioners for denial of access to courts.

V CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court vacate all orders and rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger that denied hearings, suppressed evidence, or dismissed claims without procedural fairness, and reassign the matter for impartial review in accordance

Legal Note: The Application and Scope of Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872) in Multi-Defendant Litigation Involving Joint or Interdependent

Liability

Introduction and Overview

The central issue addressed in this note is the proper judicial approach to entering judgment—particularly default judgment—against one or more defendants in a multi-defendant action where liability is alleged to be joint or otherwise interdependent. Specifically, the question is whether, under the doctrine established in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), a court must withhold judgment against a defaulting defendant until the case is resolved as to all co-defendants, in order to avoid the risk of inconsistent or incongruous judgments.

The user seeks to develop a comprehensive, persuasive argument that, where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must await the resolution of the case as to all defendants before entering judgment against any one defendant. The most effective argument in support of this position is that the Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega has been consistently reaffirmed and applied by federal courts across the United States, and that the rationale underlying Frow—namely, the avoidance of inconsistent judgments and the preservation of judicial integrity—remains compelling and controlling in cases of joint or interdependent liability.

Relevant Facts and Factual Assumptions

For the purposes of this analysis, the following factual assumptions are made, consistent with the authorities provided:

1. The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted (i.e., failed to answer or otherwise defend).
2. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint, joint and several, or otherwise interdependent, such that the liability of one defendant is not wholly independent of the liability of the others.
3. The case remains pending as to at least one non-defaulting defendant, who is actively contesting the claims.
4. The risk exists that entering judgment against the defaulting defendant could result in an outcome inconsistent with the eventual resolution of the claims against the non-defaulting defendant(s).

Where facts are ambiguous—such as whether the liability is truly joint, joint and several, or merely “closely interrelated”—the analysis will address the implications of each scenario, as the authorities recognize some divergence in the application of Frow depending on the nature of the alleged liability.

Legal Principles and Points of Law

1. The Frow Rule: No Judgment Against One Defendant Where Liability is Joint and the Case is Pending Against Others

The Supreme Court in Frow v. De La Vega held that, in cases of joint liability, “judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552, 554 (1872) (“If the court in such a case as this can lawfully make a final decree against one defendant separately, on the merits, while the cause was proceeding undetermined against the others, then this absurdity might follow: there might be one decree of the court sustaining the charge of joint fraud committed by the defendants; and another decree disaffirming the said charge, and declaring it to be entirely unfounded, and dismissing the complainant’s bill. That incongruity would of itself show the impropriety of such a proceeding in cases of joint liability.”).

2. Rationale: Avoidance of Inconsistent Judgments

The core rationale for the Frow rule is the avoidance of inconsistent or logically incongruous judgments. As explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021), “The purpose of postponing decision on the default judgment is to avoid the risk of inconsistent results: the defaulting party being held liable on default while the non-defaulting party ultimately being found not liable at the conclusion of the case. ... The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

3. Application to Joint, Joint and Several, and Interdependent Liability

While Frow’s original context was joint liability, federal courts have extended its logic to cases of joint and several liability, and to situations where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.” See Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430, 434-35 (E.D. Va. 2006) (“the Fourth Circuit has concluded that Frow applies not only to defendants who are alleged to be jointly liable, but also to those defendants thought to be jointly and/or severally liable, or who are otherwise closely interrelated”); Ferrari Fin. Servs., Inc. v. Yokoyama, CIVIL NO. 18-00136 JAO-RLP (D. Haw. Sep. 6, 2018) (Ninth Circuit extends Frow to “similarly situated” defendants).

4. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) and the Frow Doctrine

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow’s caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) (“A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: ‘the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.’”).

5. Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.” In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow’s logic.

6. Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The “better practice” is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants. See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) (“the ‘better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved’”).

7. If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) (“if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants”).

I. Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

1. Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

2. Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow is directly on point: “If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: “in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): “The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

The Ninth Circuit’s approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022), is that “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to “closely interrelated” defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 (E.D. Va. 2006).

3. Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is “just reason for delay” in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

4. Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 (N.D. Cal. 2001) (“Frow’s applicability turns not on labels such as ‘joint liability’ or ‘joint and several liability,’ but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.”).

5. Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 (E.D. Va. 2022).[1]

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.
- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.
- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.
- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.
- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff’s claim against the nondefaulters is resolved”).

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

“Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment.”

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Riple v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government's strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

2. THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions such as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

3. DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 – Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.
2. Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.
3. Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.
4. Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City’s residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.
5. Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.
6. The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:
  - The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;
  - The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;
  - UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City’s possession.

7. One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

- The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;
- The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;
- Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;
- Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

8. These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City’s litigation position was legally and factually false.

9. Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

10. It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

- Perjury (by City and union officials);
- Obstruction of justice;
- Retaliation against a whistleblower;
- Misappropriation of wages and benefits;
- Interference with federal and state proceedings.

11. Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

12. Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc’d on key email communications that documented Plaintiff’s assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

13. These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

14. The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);
- Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49, 57 (2d Cir. 2000);
- Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127 (ratification by final policymakers).

15. These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

- The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;
- They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);
- The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;
- Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department ("Corporation Counsel") both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff's wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.
4. As officers of the court, attorneys at Corporation Counsel are bound by ethical and constitutional obligations to act with candor and to uphold the integrity of judicial proceedings. See, e.g., Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 43 (1991) (“[A]n attorney, whether retained or court-appointed, is an officer of the court.”); United States v. Shaffer Equip. Co., 11 F.3d 450, 457 (4th Cir. 1993) (recognizing the duty of candor and truthfulness as central to the attorney's role as officer of the court).
5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department's institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants' control or possession.

VI. Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court's decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Subject: Re: 24-cv- 9743 Schumer"s voting bloc is not frivolous with motion to have a copy of your signed compliance with the copy of finical recusal b/c reappointment is a violation of turney

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

I cant find anything that helping Schumer and Randi get away with planned deprivation of med and cudina's statement that Livingston has any case filed by me in relation to what was done to me is going to be dismissed as frivolous and sanctions-- as always, there is a plan to prevent me from present evidence and calling witnesses like Cuduna or the probation who understands waht other probation officers knew in other places and I cited Hon. Gleason either law review or judicial opinion ...I love it when I get statement that back me that helps me prove misconduct and misuse of positioj to harass me becaue Randi believes it is funny ...I guess Livngston and Engelmayer believe it is funny

Let me play how funny it is ..i am offering the court ordered mental exam...I have no problem sharing because it is funny ....everyone needs to laugh

MOTION TO INFORM THE COURT OF THE ACTUAL NEED FOR RECUSAL with a COPY of Judge Lehrburger's Certification statement for judges—months ago but labeled "frivolous" but issued by Judicial Conference—maybe it is me, I believe—the general public too—that this body knows more that you Plaintiff respectfully moves to inform this Court of the urgent and non-waivable need for recusal pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455, based on Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger's undisclosed reappointment interests, admissions by NYPD Officer Cudina, and the Court's active concealment of criminal conduct by Randi Weingarten and associates of Senator Charles Schumer.

As Officer Cudina informed Plaintiff directly, any case involving Randi Weingarten or Senator Schumer would result in dismissal or sanctions because "they [the judges] were ensuring the truth never comes out." These statements, combined with the Court's refusal to allow discovery, compel the conclusion that Your Honor's decisions were tainted by political bias and undue influence tied to your own reappointment process, in violation of the ethical requirements articulated in the Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 2B, Ch. 2 and Advisory Opinion No. 97.

Plaintiff has a fundamental right to participate in conflict review and requests that Your Honor immediately disclose:

1. The names of all individuals and attorneys involved in Your Honor's reappointment panel;
  2. Any communications between panel members and parties to this action, directly or through designees;
  3. The identity of the final decision-maker regarding reappointment;
  4. All documents relied upon or created as part of Your Honor's reappointment process.
- The continued failure to disclose this information deprives Plaintiff of meaningful judicial review and obstructs Plaintiff's ability to develop a record to challenge these actions. Plaintiff had no such issue with Judge Furman, who provided proper notice and access, unlike Judge Lehrburger whose conduct has ensured that the Court of Appeals has nothing meaningful to review.

Plaintiff asserts that Your Honor has knowingly used NYPD interactions—which were instigated or manipulated by those seeking to provoke Plaintiff, as Cudina confirmed—to falsely justify adverse credibility assumptions and procedural sanctions. This conduct violates basic constitutional guarantees and appears calculated to protect Senator Schumer's political network and prevent discovery of misconduct tied to Randi Weingarten.

If I may assert a fact-- JUDICIAL ETHICS

Media accounts alleging that certain judges may have participated in cases in which they had a financial interest or failed to include in financial disclosure reports ...have led to renewed congressional interest in judicial ethics, including efforts to impose an inspector general on the judiciary. The Executive Committee discussed the issue on a number of occasions and agreed that a strong, appropriate response was necessary to assure Congress and the public that the judiciary is committed to upholding the highest ethical standards and maintaining accountability. With the endorsement of the Chief Justice, the Committee, in August 2006, distributed to judges and congressional leadership a report on the status of the judiciary's efforts to address judicial ethics issues. In addition, the Committee asked the Codes of Conduct Committee to consider on an expedited basis proposals regarding the use of automated conflict-checking software (see infra "Judicial Ethics," p. 11). It had also previously asked the Judicial Branch Committee to make proposals to the Conference,

I cannot find lying and concealing Schumer's and Randi Weingarten's crimes as something good. Therefore, Plaintiff formally places the Court on notice that continued adjudication of this matter by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger constitutes a structural due process violation and respectfully demands recusal, full disclosure, and an opportunity to participate in any review or objection process regarding judicial conflicts.

Secrecy and concealment are essential features of successful conspiracy. The more completely they are achieved, the more successful the crime. Hence the law rightly gives room for allowing the conviction of those discovered upon showing sufficiently the essential nature of the plan and their connections with it, without requiring evidence of knowledge of all its details or of the participation of others. Otherwise the difficulties, not only of discovery, but of certainty in proof and of correlating proof with pleading would become insuperable, and conspirators would go free by their very ingenuity.

I.
INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise

of jurisdiction while a mandamus
petition
is pending
in the Second Circuit.

Under 28
U.S.C.
§
636(b)
(1)(A),
a magistrate
judge
may not determine or issue
dispositive
orders on motions
such as:

- Motions

- for

- Motions

These
are explicitly excluded from
a magistrate

and the statute further provides that only

on these motions
after receiving proposed findings

a

Moreover,
under 28
U.S.C.
**§

a

the filing of a notice
of appeal or a petition for writ
of mandamus.
This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice
of appeal
is filed,
the district
court
is divested
of

TO PENDING MANDAMUS
PETITION, as an appeal
of Judge Lehrburger" order of today
Plaintiff
respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ
of mandamus
is presently pending before
the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit,
and therefore requests that the Court:
1. Stay
all proceedings,
2. Strike
the unlawful
May 8
and May 13 deadlines,
and 3.
Acknowledge that

Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's
continued
conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles
of jurisdiction
and judicial ethics.

4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it
only strengthens my claim

of her criminal conduct
I. THE DISTRICT COURT
IS DIVESTED
OF JURISDICTION DURING
THE PENDENCY
OF APPELLATE
REVIEW

It is longsettled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested
of jurisdiction over the issues presented:
"The filing of a notice of appeal is an event

of jurisdictional significance
—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals
and divests
the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— Griggs
v.
Provident Consumer Discount
Co., 459
U.S. 56, 58 (1982). “Once a notice of appeal is filed,
the district court is divested
of jurisdiction
over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— United States v.
Rodgers, 101 F.3d
247, 251
(2d Cir.
1996).
Because Plaintiff has now placed
the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus

petition,
the district court is without authority
to proceed or enforce any deadlines
that touch on those issues.

II.
JUDGE LEHRBURGER'S
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's attempt
to proceed despite
the divestment
of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio, but,
in the context of Plaintiff's allegations
and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review

and retaliate against the Plaintiff
for exercising constitutional rights.
Moreover,
this Court's prior order (Dkt. 89)
confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines

—
including
May 8
and May 13—are without lawful basis.
Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:
- 18
U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),
- 18
U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights
under color of law),
- 18
U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant

intimidation).

III.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons,
Plaintiff
respectfully requests that the Court:

Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,

- Strike
the May 8, 2025
and May 13, 2025
deadlines
as unlawful,

Reiterate that no
further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the

Court
until the appellate court
has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

Subject:

Welcome campaigning legal— I need your help against Sen Schumer and his judges

Date:

---

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

There is an entire court of appeals, sdny and north who have misused their office for Schumer's ally Randi Weingarten

Supposedly, the causing HIV drug resistance is deserve because i complained about the misconduct

Each that i had attempted to lie about their how Schumer got them their job, as of the job is they form Schumer's Cartel for people

I waited until there could be no doubt that the kingpin of US Court is Chucky and influencer for Randi is none other than Schumer

We started out at Schumer's daughter and Donnelly's daughter went to school ,.. i needed wait

Engelmayer, i waited for the lie and cursed him the fuck out by saying like look at the senate's hearing where your face and his face are seen ,..!for sure i said its public knowledge

I am working on how Judge McAvoy's kid received a "disposition that his received which which no other pedo with his facts has received. What is available to the public groups like yours is there is no appearance that anyone could point to ...

I believe Trump 's statement that Schumer interfered which comes right to a fair trial— players Schumer and James ... then what James said to about IEP

I would like to you to layoff of Justice Thomas because what Schumer did to me for Randi is shorten time — clerk Wolfe said you have to die soon

The list provide you with direct email access to the court ... i showed what the uft and doe did to me —4 months and they played the game of its you, no it you .. Judge Lehrburger has deemed my life as Unnecessary because it was god's intention to punish gays with and now, it's futile that Randi retaliated against me over penis pic sent to me because weak gay need to be raped in jail as Randi and Cogan

According officer cudina, chief Judge Livingston said that she'll ensure that i will never receive any b remedy done to me and Engelmayer with chief will ensure that role of Randi in denying liberty without due process

Engelmayer made an order for Karamigios to fine out how the doe had prior... Livingston and Engelmayer know how doe received prior and they will protect Tree Randi

i ask you to help me foil the information from the doe and then help me prove my allegation being televised. I haven't sent yet but somene here write fbi

The only thing I enjoyed after being was going to work... Jail is too good for and I want her To be eaten up alive because public Randi doesn't match the true Randi

i want to give the best “look me, look at me”

Yes, let's truly look at you when all the facts are showned... i hope and pray that she live for 1000 years I want those words to have bitter fucking taste

Please inquiry about whether Lehrburger will be held accountable for knowingly lie about how he was reappointed as the schumer voting bloc was needed to ensure that he would maintain his job, judicial conference requires Financial disclosure..i might emailed about his a 100x.

The Judicial conference wrote reappointment of a magistrate is a financial disclosure and he signed a document that stated any violation is warrants misconduct.. This relates to your artilce and Hon. Conrad

I cant find anything that helping Schumer and Randi get away with planned deprivation of med and cudina's statement that Livingston has any case filed by me in relation to what was done to me is going to be dismissed as frivolous and sanctions--as always, there is a plan to prevent me from present evidence and calling witnesses like Cuduna or the probation who understands waht other probation officers knew in other places and I cited Hon. Gleason either law review or judicial opinion ...I love it when I get statement that back me that helps me prove misconduct and misuse of positioj to harass me becaue Randi believes it is funny ...I guess Livngston and Engelmayer believe it is funny

Let me play how funny it is ..i am offering the court ordered mental exam...I have no problem sharing because it is funny ....everyone needs to laugh

MOTION TO INFORM THE COURT OF THE ACTUAL NEED FOR RECUSAL with a COPY of Judge Lehrburger's Certification statement for judges—months ago but labeled “frivolous” but issued by Judicial Conference—maybe it is me, I believe—the general public too—that this body knows more that you Plaintiff respectfully moves to inform this Court of the urgent and non-waivable need for recusal pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455, based on Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger's undisclosed reappointment interests, admissions by NYPD Officer Cudina, and the Court's active concealment of criminal conduct by Randi Weingarten and associates of Senator Charles Schumer.

As Officer Cudina informed Plaintiff directly, any case involving Randi Weingarten or Senator Schumer would result in dismissal or sanctions because “they [the judges] were ensuring the truth never comes out.” These statements, combined with the Court’s refusal to allow discovery, compel the conclusion that Your Honor’s decisions were tainted by political bias and undue influence tied to your own reappointment process, in violation of the ethical requirements articulated in the Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 2B, Ch. 2 and Advisory Opinion No. 97.

Plaintiff has a fundamental right to participate in conflict review and requests that Your Honor immediately disclose:

1. The names of all individuals and attorneys involved in Your Honor’s reappointment panel;
2. Any communications between panel members and parties to this action, directly or through designees;
3. The identity of the final decision-maker regarding reappointment;
4. All documents relied upon or created as part of Your Honor’s reappointment process.

The continued failure to disclose this information deprives Plaintiff of meaningful judicial review and obstructs Plaintiff’s ability to develop a record to challenge these actions. Plaintiff had no such issue with Judge Furman, who provided proper notice and access, unlike Judge Lehrburger whose conduct has ensured that the Court of Appeals has nothing meaningful to review.

Plaintiff asserts that Your Honor has knowingly used NYPD interactions—which were instigated or manipulated by those seeking to provoke Plaintiff, as Cudina confirmed—to falsely justify adverse credibility assumptions and procedural sanctions. This conduct violates basic constitutional guarantees and appears calculated to protect Senator Schumer’s political network and prevent discovery of misconduct tied to Randi Weingarten.

If I may assert a fact-- JUDICIAL ETHICS

Media accounts alleging that certain judges may have participated in cases in which they had a financial interest or failed to include in financial disclosure reports ...have led to renewed congressional interest in judicial ethics, including efforts to impose an inspector general on the judiciary. The Executive Committee discussed the issue on a number of occasions and agreed that a strong, appropriate response was necessary to assure Congress and the public that the judiciary is committed to upholding the highest ethical standards and maintaining accountability. With the endorsement of the Chief Justice, the Committee, in August 2006, distributed to judges and congressional leadership a report on the status of the judiciary’s efforts to address judicial ethics issues. In addition, the Committee asked the Codes of Conduct Committee to consider on an expedited basis proposals regarding the use of automated conflict-checking software (see infra “Judicial Ethics,” p. 11). It had also previously asked the Judicial Branch Committee to make proposals to the Conference,

I cannot find lying and concealing Schumer’s and Randi Weingarten’s crimes as something good. Therefore, Plaintiff formally places the Court on notice that continued adjudication of this matter by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger constitutes a structural due process violation and respectfully demands recusal, full disclosure, and an opportunity to participate in any review or objection process regarding judicial conflicts.

ethics.

DISTRICT COURT
IS DIVESTED
OF JURISDICTION DURING
THE

OF APPELLATE REVIEW
It
is longsettled
law
that once
a notice
of appeal or a mandamus

the

is an event
of jurisdictional significance

it confers jurisdiction
on the court

divests
the district

v.
Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d

Because Plaintiff
has now placed
the relevant subject matter
under
the jurisdiction
of
the Court

II.
JUDGE LEHRBURGER'S
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT

Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's attempt
to proceed despite
the divestment
of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio,
but,
in the context
of Plaintiff's allegations
and filings, reflects
a deliberate effort
to obstruct appellate review
and retaliate against the Plaintiff
for exercising constitutional rights.
Moreover,
this Court's prior order (Dkt.
89) confirms that no
further action should be taken until appellate resolution,
and thus any new

Such

conduct

risks

CONCLUSION

For

the foregoing reasons,

Plaintiff

respectfully

requests

that the Court:
-
Formally
stay

Reiterate
that

There is an entire court of appeals, sdny and north who have misused their office for Schumer's ally Randi Weingarten

Supposedly, the causing HIV drug resistance is deserve because i complained about the misconduct

Each that i had attempted to lie about their how Schumer got them their job, as of the job is they form Schumer's Cartel for people

I waited until there could be no doubt that the kingpin of US Court is Chucky and influencer for Randi is none other than Schumer

We started out at Schumer's daughter and Donnelly's daughter went to school ,... i needed wait

Engelmayer, i waited for the lie and cursed him the fuck out by saying like look at the senate's hearing where your face and his face are seen ,...!for sure i said its public knowledge

I am working on how Judge McAvoy's kid received a "disposition that his received which which no other pedo with his facts has received. What is available to the public groups like yours is there is no appearance that anyone could point to ...

I believe Trump 's statement that Schumer interfered which comes right to a fair trial— players Schumer and James ... then what James said to about IEP

I would like to you to layoff of Justice Thomas because what Schumer did to me for Randi is shorten time — clerk Wolfe said you have to die soon

The list provide you with direct email access to the court ... i showed what the uft and doe did to me —4 months and they played the game of its you, no it you .. Judge Lehrburger has deemed my life as Unnecessary because it was god's intention to punish gays with and now, it's futile that Randi retaliated against me over penis pic sent to me because weak gay need to be raped in jail as Randi and Cogan

According officer cudina, chief Judge Livingston said that she'll ensure that i will never receive any b remedy done to me and Engelmayer with chief will ensure that role of Randi in denying liberty without due process

Engelmayer made an order for Karamigios to fine out how the doe had prior... Livingston and Engelmayer know how doe received prior and they will protect Tree Randi

i ask you to help me foil the information from the doe and then help me prove my allegation being televised. I haven't sent yet but somene here write fbi

The only thing I enjoyed after being was going to work... Jail is too good for and I want her To be eaten up alive because public Randi doesn't match the true Randi

i want to give the best "look me, look at me"

Yes, let's truly look at you when all the facts are showned... i hope and pray that she live for 1000 years I want those words to have bitter fucking taste

Please inquiry about whether Lehrburger will be held accountable for knowingly lie about how he was reappointed as the schumer voting bloc was needed to ensure that he would maintain his job, .judicial conference requires Financial disclosure..i might emailed about his a 100x.

The Judicial conference wrote reappointment of a magistrate is a financial disclosure and he signed a document that stated any violation is warrants misconduct.. This relates to your artilce and Hon. Conrad

I cant find anything that helping Schumer and Randi get away with planned deprivation of med and cudina's statement that Livingston has any case filed by me in relation to what was done to me is going to be dismissed as frivolous and sanctions--as always, there is a plan to prevent me from present evidence and calling witnesses like Cuduna or the probation who understands waht other probation officers knew in other places and I cited Hon. Gleason either law review or judicial opinion ...I love it when I get statement that back me that helps me prove misconduct and misuse of positioj to harass me becaue Randi believes it is funny ...I guess Livngston and Engelmayer believe it is funny

Let me play how funny it is ..i am offering the court ordered mental exam...I have no problem sharing because it is funny ....everyone needs to laugh

MOTION TO INFORM THE COURT OF THE ACTUAL NEED FOR RECUSAL with a COPY of Judge Lehrburger's Certification statement for judges—months ago but labeled “frivolous” but issued by Judicial Conference—maybe it is me, I believe—the general public too—that this body knows more that you Plaintiff respectfully moves to inform this Court of the urgent and non-waivable need for recusal pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455, based on Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger's undisclosed reappointment interests, admissions by NYPD Officer Cudina, and the Court's active concealment of criminal conduct by Randi Weingarten and associates of Senator Charles Schumer.

As Officer Cudina informed Plaintiff directly, any case involving Randi Weingarten or Senator Schumer would result in dismissal or sanctions because “they [the judges] were ensuring the truth never comes out.” These statements, combined with the Court's refusal to allow discovery, compel the conclusion that Your Honor's decisions were tainted by political bias and undue influence tied to your own reappointment process, in violation of the ethical requirements articulated in the Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 2B, Ch. 2 and Advisory Opinion No. 97.

Plaintiff has a fundamental right to participate in conflict review and requests that Your Honor immediately disclose:

1. The names of all individuals and attorneys involved in Your Honor's reappointment panel;
  2. Any communications between panel members and parties to this action, directly or through designees;
  3. The identity of the final decision-maker regarding reappointment;
  4. All documents relied upon or created as part of Your Honor's reappointment process.
- The continued failure to disclose this information deprives Plaintiff of meaningful judicial review and obstructs Plaintiff's ability to develop a record to challenge these actions. Plaintiff had no such issue with Judge Furman, who provided proper notice and access, unlike Judge

Lehrburger whose conduct has ensured that the Court of Appeals has nothing meaningful to review.

Plaintiff asserts that Your Honor has knowingly used NYPD interactions—which were instigated or manipulated by those seeking to provoke Plaintiff, as Cudina confirmed—to falsely justify adverse credibility assumptions and procedural sanctions. This conduct violates basic constitutional guarantees and appears calculated to protect Senator Schumer's political network and prevent discovery of misconduct tied to Randi Weingarten.

If I may assert a fact-- JUDICIAL ETHICS

Media accounts alleging that certain judges may have participated in cases in which they had

a financial interest or failed to include in financial disclosure reports ...have led to renewed congressional interest in judicial ethics, including efforts to impose an inspector general on the judiciary. The Executive Committee discussed the issue on a number of occasions and agreed that a strong, appropriate response was necessary to assure Congress and the public that the judiciary is committed to upholding the highest ethical standards and maintaining accountability. With the endorsement of the Chief Justice, the Committee, in August 2006, distributed to judges and congressional leadership a report on the status of the judiciary's efforts to address judicial ethics issues. In addition, the Committee asked the Codes of Conduct Committee to consider on an expedited basis proposals regarding the use of automated conflict-checking software (see infra "Judicial Ethics," p. 11). It had also previously asked the Judicial Branch Committee to make proposals to the Conference, I cannot find lying and concealing Schumer's and Randi Weingarten's crimes as something good Therefore, Plaintiff formally places the Court on notice that continued adjudication of this matter by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger constitutes a structural due process violation and respectfully demands recusal, full disclosure, and an opportunity to participate in any review or objection process regarding judicial conflicts.

I.
INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful

action
by Magistrate
Judge
Robert
Lehrburger.
These acts violate both statutory limitations
under 28
U.S.C.
**§
636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule
of Civil Procedure
72, and they constitute an illegal exercise
of jurisdiction while a mandamus
petition
is pending
in
the Second
Circuit.

STATUTORY
AUTHORITY

TO

OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28
U.S.C.

**§
636(b)
(1)
(A),

a magistrate
judge
may not determine or issue
dispositive
orders on motions
such as:

- Motions
for injunctive relief
- Motions
for judgment
on the pleadings
- Motions
for summary

for failure

- to
- state
- a
- claim
- Motions
- to
- dismiss
- a
- class
- action
- Motions
- for
- involuntary
- dismissal

These
are explicitly excluded from
a magistrate judge's independent authority,
and the statute

that

on these motions
after receiving proposed findings
and recommendations from a magistrate
judge.

Moreover,
under 28
U.S.C.
**§
636(c),

a magistrate
judge
may only preside

enter final judgment with which has not

Any such purported

Plaintiff's consent is unlawful,

CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL

POSSIBLY CRIMINAL

Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's attempt
to despite

the divestment
of

is not only void ab

but,
in the context
of Plaintiff's allegations

reflects

retaliate against

the Plaintiff
for exercising constitutional rights.
Moreover,
this Court's prior order (Dkt.

confirms that no
further action should be taken until

and thus any

—
including
May

are without lawful basis.
Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure,
but also criminal statutes
such as:

18
U.S.C.
§
1512 (witness or litigant
intimidation).
III.

CONCLUSION

For
the foregoing reasons,
Plaintiff
respectfully requests
that the Court:

Formally
stay all proceedings
in this matter,
-

Strike
the

Reiterate

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

I have been treated like a person who doesnt have rights like a human. Throughout this WHOLE process, the court ignores EVERYTHING is an issue for discovery--as it is impossible to ignore what people are doing to me

I will that Your Honor provide a reason that I did not state a claim based on the two elements required to state a claim as you must write "experience" and common sense

- 1) Engelmayer's order prevent me from having aany right beyond notice
- 2) provide state actor's name

Plus with the NUMEROUS misconduct--like of Brown---that you also ignored Monell claim

fPlus you denied AUSAs with thier misrepresentation of context

you one word answer is the problem and has the probelm--aas Engelmaye had change "great job" to "thereare issues

this I am entitled to discovery of your conduct to haras me in court and out of court

I waited until there could be no doubt that the kingpin of US Court is Chucky and influencer for Randi is none other than Schumer

We started out at Schumer's daughter and Donnelly's daughter went to school ... i needed wait

Engelmayer, i waited for the lie and cursed him the fuck out by saying like look at the senate's hearing where your face and his face are seen ...!for sure i said its public knowledge

I am working on how Judge McAvoy's kid received a "disposition that his received which which no other pedo with his facts has received. What is available to the public groups like yours is there is no appearance that anyone could point to ...

I believe Trump 's statement that Schumer interfered which comes right to a fair trial—players Schumer and James ... then what James said to about IEP

I would like to you to layoff of Justice Thomas because what Schumer did to me for Randi is shorten time — clerk Wolfe said you have to die soon

The list provide you with direct email access to the court ... i showed what the uft and doe did to me —4 months and they played the game of its you, no it you .. Judge Lehrburger has deemed my life as Unnecessary because it was god's intention to punish gays with and now, it's futile that Randi retaliated against me over penis pic sent to me because weak gay need to be raped in jail as Randi and Cogan

According officer cudina, chief Judge Livingston said that she'll ensure that i will never receive any b remedy done to me and Engelmayer with chief will ensure that role of Randi in denying liberty without due process

Engelmayer made an order for Karamigios to fine out how the doe had prior... Livingston and Engelmayer know how doe received prior and they will protect Tree Randi

i ask you to help me foil the information from the doe and then help me prove my allegation being televised. I haven't sent yet but someone here write fbi

The only thing I enjoyed after being was going to work... Jail is too good for and I want her To be eaten up alive because public Randi doesn't match the true Randi

i want to give the best "look me, look at me"

Yes, let's truly look at you when all the facts are showned... i hope and pray that she live for 1000 years I want those words to have bitter fucking taste

Please inquiry about whether Lehrburger will be held accountable for knowingly lie about how he was reappointed as the schumer voting bloc was needed to ensure that he would maintain his job, .judicial conference requires Financial disclosure..i might emailed about his a 100x.

The Judicial conference wrote reappointment of a magistrate is a financial disclosure and he signed a document that stated any violation is warrants misconduct.. This relates to your

MOTION TO INFORM THE COURT OF THE ACTUAL NEED FOR RECUSAL with a

COPY of Judge Lehrburger's Certification statement for judges—months ago but labeled “frivolous” but issued by Judicial Conference—maybe it is me, I believe—the general public too—that this body knows more that you Plaintiff respectfully moves to inform this Court of the urgent and non-waivable need for recusal pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455, based on Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger's undisclosed reappointment interests, admissions by NYPD Officer Cudina, and the Court's active concealment of criminal conduct by Randi Weingarten and associates of Senator Charles Schumer.

As Officer Cudina informed Plaintiff directly, any case involving Randi Weingarten or Senator

Schumer would result in dismissal or sanctions because “they [the judges] were ensuring the truth never comes out.” These statements, combined with the Court's refusal to allow discovery, compel the conclusion that Your Honor's decisions were tainted by political bias and undue influence tied to your own reappointment process, in violation of the ethical requirements articulated in the Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 2B, Ch. 2 and Advisory Opinion No. 97.

Plaintiff has a fundamental right to participate in conflict review and requests that Your Honor immediately disclose:

1. The names of all individuals and attorneys involved in Your Honor's reappointment panel;
2. Any communications between panel members and parties to this action, directly or through designees;
3. The identity of the final decision-maker regarding reappointment;

4. All documents relied upon or created as part of Your Honor's reappointment process. The continued failure to disclose this information deprives Plaintiff of meaningful judicial review and obstructs Plaintiff's ability to develop a record to challenge these actions. Plaintiff had no such issue with Judge Furman, who provided proper notice and access, unlike Judge Lehrburger whose conduct has ensured that the Court of Appeals has nothing meaningful to review. Plaintiff asserts that Your Honor has knowingly used NYPD interactions—which were instigated or manipulated by those seeking to provoke Plaintiff, as Cudina confirmed—to falsely justify adverse credibility assumptions and procedural sanctions. This conduct violates basic constitutional guarantees and appears calculated to protect Senator Schumer's political network and prevent discovery of misconduct tied to Randi Weingarten. If I may assert a fact-- JUDICIAL ETHICS Media accounts alleging that certain judges may have participated in cases in which they had a financial interest or failed to include in financial disclosure reports ...have led to renewed congressional interest in judicial ethics, including efforts to impose an inspector general on the judiciary. The Executive Committee discussed the issue on a number of occasions and agreed that a strong, appropriate response was necessary to assure Congress and the public that the judiciary is committed to upholding the highest ethical standards and maintaining accountability. With the endorsement of the Chief Justice, the Committee, in August 2006, distributed to judges and congressional leadership a report on the status of the judiciary's efforts to address judicial ethics issues. In addition, the Committee asked the Codes of Conduct Committee to consider on an expedited basis proposals regarding the use of automated conflict-checking software (see infra "Judicial Ethics," p. 11). It had also previously asked the Judicial Branch Committee to make proposals to the Conference, I cannot find lying and concealing Schumer's and Randi Weingarten's crimes as something good Therefore, Plaintiff formally places the Court on notice that continued adjudication of this matter by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger constitutes a structural due process violation and respectfully demands recusal, full disclosure, and an opportunity to participate in any review or objection process regarding judicial conflicts. I.
INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted
in support
of

Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025
deadlines,
and
to enjoin further unlawful action
by Magistrate
Judge
Robert
Lehrburger.
These acts violate both statutory limitations
under 28
U.S.C.
**§
636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule
of Civil Procedure
72,
and they constitute an illegal exercise
of jurisdiction while a mandamus

petition
is pending
in the Second Circuit.

II.
JUDGE
LEHRBURGER
HAS NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY
TO
DISPOSITIVE
WITHOUT CONSENT OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28
U.S.C.
§
636(b)
(1)
(A), a magistrate
judge
may not determine or issue
dispositive
orders on motions
such as:

- Motions
for injunctive
relief

- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on

these motions
after receiving proposed findings
and recommendations from a magistrate
judge.

Moreover,
under 28
U.S.C.
§
636(c), a magistrate
judge
may only preside
over full proceedings
and enter final judgment with
the express consent
of
the parties, which has not been given here.
Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful,

void,
and reversible.

III.
ACTIONS
TAKEN BY
THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING
APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs
v.
Provident
Consumer
Discount
Co., 459
U.S.

a district
court is divested
of jurisdiction upon
the filing
of a notice
of appeal or a petition
for writ
of mandamus.

This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction

is divested.”

order
of today
Plaintiff
respectfully submits this motion
to inform the Court
that a petition
for a writ
of mandamus
is presently pending before
the United States Court
of Appeals
for the Second Circuit,
and therefore requests
that the Court:

1.
Stay
all proceedings,

2.
Strike
the unlawful
May 8
and May

deadlines,
and 3.

Acknowledge that Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's
continued
conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles
of jurisdiction
and judicial ethics.

4.
The fact that the Clerk Wolfe
is obstructing justice
is a fact for this for
to proceed
and it
only strengthens my claim
of her criminal conduct
I.

THE DISTRICT COURT
IS DIVESTED
OF JURISDICTION DURING
THE PENDENCY
OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It
is longsettled
law
that once
a notice
of appeal or a mandamus petition
is filed,
the district
court
is divested
of jurisdiction
over the issues presented:

"The filing
of a notice
of appeal
is an event
of jurisdictional significance
—

it confers jurisdiction
on the court
of appeals
and divests

the district court
of its control over those aspects
of the case involved
in the appeal.”
—

Griggs
v.
Provident Consumer Discount
Co., 459
U.S.
56, 58 (1982). “Once
a notice
of appeal
is filed,
the district
court
is divested
of jurisdiction
over those aspects
of the case involved
in the appeal.”

United States
v.
Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir.
1996).
Because Plaintiff

has now placed
the relevant subject matter
under
the jurisdiction
of
the Court
of Appeals via a mandamus
petition,
the district
court
is without authority
to proceed or enforce any deadlines
that touch on those issues.

II.
JUDGE LEHRBURGER'S
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's attempt
to proceed despite
the divestment
of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio,

but,
in the context
of Plaintiff's allegations
and filings, reflects
a deliberate effort
to obstruct appellate review
and retaliate against the Plaintiff
for exercising constitutional rights.
Moreover,
this Court's prior order (Dkt.
89) confirms that no
further action should be taken until appellate resolution,
and thus any new deadlines
—
including
May 8
and May 13
—
are without lawful basis.
Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure,

but also criminal statutes
such as:

18
U.S.C.
§
241 (conspiracy against rights),

18
U.S.C.
§
242 (deprivation of rights under color
of law),

18
U.S.C.
§
1512 (witness or litigant
intimidation).

III.
CONCLUSION

For
the foregoing reasons,
Plaintiff
respectfully requests
that the Court:

Formally
stay all proceedings
in this matter,

Strike
the May 8, 2025

and May 13, 2025 deadlines
as unlawful,
-
Reiterate that no
further actions shall be taken by
the Magistrate
Judge or any officer
of the Court
until the appellate court
has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ
of mandamus.

Notice of Intent to File Motion Invoking Crime–Fraud Exception and for Sanctions Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11

Dear Judge [Last Name]:

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(c)(2) and Local Civil Rule 11.1, Plaintiff hereby provides formal 21-day notice of my intent to file a motion seeking:

1. An order compelling production of communications and documents currently withheld as privileged under the crime–fraud exception, see Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933); United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554 (1989), and Second Circuit authority (In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69 (2d Cir. 1999)).
2. Rule 11 sanctions against Defendants and their counsel for advancing factual contentions that lack evidentiary support, for asserting privilege to conceal ongoing fraudulent retaliation, and for causing unnecessary delay and expense.

Grounds for the Motion

- Prima-Facie Crime–Fraud Showing: Evidence already before the Court—including audio recordings, documentary admissions, and contradictory pleadings—establishes that counsel's communications were used in furtherance of a scheme to retaliate against me, deny medical benefits, and obstruct discovery. See Jacobs, 117 F.3d 82 (2d Cir. 1997).
- Meritless Denials & Misrepresentations: Defendants have repeatedly claimed I “failed to state a claim,” yet the Court's own standards under Twombly and Swierkiewicz require acceptance of my detailed factual allegations. Their continued refusal to admit obvious facts and their invocation of privilege to hide misconduct violate Rule 11(b)(3) and (b)(4).
- Need for In Camera Review: Under Zolin, the Court may inspect the disputed documents to confirm their nexus to wrongdoing before ordering full production.

Because I have plainly stated viable claims—including retaliation, denial of constitutional rights, and civil-rights conspiracy—Defendants' obstruction cannot be justified as zealous advocacy.

Requested Relief in the Anticipated Motion

- Compel immediate production of all materials falling within the crime–fraud exception, or, in the alternative, conduct an in camera review.
- Impose monetary and non-monetary sanctions sufficient to deter future misconduct, including costs and fees under Rule 11(c)(4).
- Any additional relief the Court deems just.

Next Steps

Unless Defendants withdraw their frivolous privilege assertions and correct the factual misrepresentations within twenty-one (21) days of service of this notice, I will file the Rule 11 motion together with my crime-fraud brief and proposed order.

Thank you for your attention.

Respectfully submitted,

It will also help in my misconduct if Your Honor engage in cherry picking as it is without this court has and I will show in the near future because there are 100s of documents not on pacer.

Case Title: Lucio Celli v. New York City et al.

Dear Magistrate Judge Lehrburger,

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to consider the factual parallels between the Second Circuit's decision in United States v. Vario, 943 F.2d 236 (2d Cir. 1991) and the obstruction, interference, and concealment of evidence orchestrated by Defendant Randi Weingarten, allegedly aided by politically connected individuals including Senator Charles Schumer and members of the federal judiciary.

1. MOB-STYLE INTERFERENCE IN UNITED STATES v. VARIO

In Vario, the Second Circuit upheld the use of an anonymous jury due to prior mob-related witness tampering, illustrating how systematic efforts to obstruct justice pose a grave threat to due process and the rule of law.

2. PARALLEL PATTERN OF OBSTRUCTION BY DEFENDANT RANDI WEINGARTEN

Plaintiff alleges that Defendant Weingarten:

- Actively suppressed testimony from material witnesses;
- Coordinated with agents of influence to prevent judicial review of key evidence;
- Benefited from judicial decisions that restricted Plaintiff's access to legal process;
- Leveraged Senator Schumer's political influence to secure favorable treatment and judicial shielding.

---

3. JUDICIAL COLLUSION AND COVER-UP

Unlike Vario, where the judiciary took steps to protect the process, Plaintiff asserts that in the present case:

- Judicial officers acted in concert with Defendant Weingarten to bury misconduct;
- The court has repeatedly denied Plaintiff the right to present evidence and testimony critical to allegations of civil rights violations, fraud, and retaliation;
- This conduct reflects a pattern of judicial complicity, rather than impartial adjudication.

4. DUE PROCESS VIOLATION AND DEMAND FOR INDEPENDENT HEARING

Plaintiff invokes the Due Process Clause and cites Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254 (1970), emphasizing the constitutional right to a meaningful opportunity to be heard. The magnitude of interference in this case is akin to organized criminal obstruction and demands independent review and evidentiary hearing.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Take judicial notice of United States v. Vario as precedent for recognizing systemic interference with court processes;
2. Order an independent evidentiary hearing to evaluate the extent of obstruction, judicial bias, and external political influence;
3. Permit Plaintiff to fully present evidence and call witnesses previously excluded;
4. Grant any other relief the Court deems just and necessary to protect the integrity of these proceedings.

Sincerely,
Lucio Celli

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF ETHICAL STANDARDS GOVERNING MAGISTRATE JUDGE REAPPOINTMENT—created by the Judicial Conference

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to take judicial notice under Federal Rule of Evidence 201 of the following official government materials:

1. The Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 2B, Ch. 2, including Advisory Opinion No. 97 issued by the Committee on Codes of Conduct of the Judicial Conference of the United States;
2. The Code of Conduct for United States Judges, including Canons 2 and 3, governing judicial ethics, impartiality, and recusal obligations;
3. The appointment and reappointment process for magistrate judges as set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 631 and related Judicial Conference regulations.

These sources are proper subjects for judicial notice as they are official public records and policy documents issued by the federal judiciary, and their content “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2).

Plaintiff specifically draws attention to Advisory Opinion No. 97, which requires that a magistrate judge recuse from any case involving a member of the selection or reappointment panel during the pendency of the reappointment process. The opinion underscores that a judge’s impartiality “might reasonably be questioned” where such a relationship exists, even if no actual bias is demonstrated. Canon 3C(1); Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847 (1988). In the instant case, Magistrate Lehrburger did not disclose the identities of his reappointment panel members, despite overseeing a matter in which political figures—including Randi Weingarten and Senator Charles Schumer—have been alleged to exert influence over judicial and prosecutorial outcomes. This omission raises substantial questions as to impartiality, particularly in light of statements made by Officer Cudina, who advised Plaintiff that “any future case involving Randi or Schumer would result in sanctions or dismissal because they were ensuring the truth never comes out.”

Because the contents of these policies and ethical requirements bear directly on the legitimacy of the rulings issued while the judge's impartiality is under scrutiny, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of these materials for purposes of evaluating the structural and ethical violations at issue.

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint Against U.S. Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger (S.D.N.Y.)

Complainant: [Your Name]

Docket No(s): [Insert all relevant docket numbers]

Date: [Insert Today's Date]

I. Summary of Complaint

This judicial misconduct complaint is submitted pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 351 and Rule 6 of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. I allege that Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger engaged in serious misconduct and coordinated with District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer and private actor Randi Weingarten in a conspiracy to deny me a fair hearing. Judge Lehrburger weaponized prior trauma—including trauma inflicted by the NYPD—to provoke emotional reactions in court proceedings and thereby impair my credibility and constitutional rights.

This complaint further alleges extrajudicial coordination and retaliatory intent, confirmed by an admission from NYPD Officer Cudina that Judge Engelmayer sought to have me deemed incompetent because I had exposed Engelmayer's misuse of judicial office in service of Randi Weingarten and her political interests.

II. Grounds for Misconduct

A. Extrajudicial Coordination and Bias

Officer Cudina expressly admitted during a recorded interaction that Judge Engelmayer "wanted [me] under competency" out of personal retaliation—because I exposed Engelmayer's favoritism and improper assistance to Randi Weingarten. This is not a judicial act but a retaliatory abuse of authority, corroborated by procedural decisions and refusals to allow evidentiary development under both Engelmayer and Lehrburger.

Judge Lehrburger has denied motions and refused subpoenas without legal reasoning, using terms such as "frivolous" and "vexatious" to suppress evidence of this conspiracy. These acts violate Canon 2 and Canon 3(A)(4) of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, as they give the appearance of impropriety and partiality.

B. Abuse of Judicial Proceedings to Provoke Emotional Harm

Lehrburger has deliberately referenced trauma-related facts without evidentiary basis or relevance, and timed procedural denials in a way that exacerbated my psychological condition, consistent with the NYPD's prior abuse. The judge's actions appear designed to humiliate me in open court and cause psychological harm for strategic or retaliatory purposes.

This violates the principle set out in Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927), that “every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required... denies due process.”

C. Failure to Recuse Despite Personal Involvement in Retaliation Scheme

Despite mounting evidence that both he and Judge Engelmayer have acted in coordination with a political actor (Weingarten), Judge Lehrburger has refused to recuse himself. This is a clear violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), which requires recusal where a judge’s impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

III. Legal Basis and Precedent

- In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955): A judge must be impartial in both appearance and fact; a biased or retaliatory posture violates due process.
  - Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judges must recuse where extreme facts create a constitutionally intolerable probability of bias.
  - Model Code of Judicial Conduct, Rule 2.3(B): A judge must not permit personal bias or prejudice to influence the outcome of a proceeding.
  - In re Judicial Misconduct, 632 F.3d 1289 (9th Cir. 2011): Judicial retaliation, even unspoken, that is supported by factual allegations may constitute judicial misconduct.

IV. Relief Sought

I respectfully request the following:

1. Immediate investigation into the coordination between Judge Lehrburger, Judge Engelmayer, and Randi Weingarten.
2. Disclosure of communications (judicial or non-judicial) between the court and NYPD officials or union representatives.
3. An order requiring Lehrburger’s recusal from all further proceedings involving me.
4. A referral to the Department of Justice’s Office of Professional Responsibility for further investigation of any criminal conduct under 18 U.S.C. § 241 or § 242.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion addresses the wrongful denial of equal access to health benefits by state and local actors—including the New York City Department of Education and the United Federation of Teachers (UFT)—under false pretenses. Plaintiff, a non-disabled public employee, was denied lifesaving HIV medication due to misrepresentations that insurance coverage was controlled by the union, when in fact the program was publicly funded and under municipal authority. As a result, Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance, which constitutes irreparable and ongoing harm.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint need only “state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). Claims under the ADA and Rehabilitation Act require a showing that the plaintiff was (1) qualified, (2) denied the benefits of a public program or activity, and (3) discriminated against “by reason of” disability or perceived disability or a policy of exclusion. Henrietta D. v. Bloomberg, 331 F.3d 261, 272 (2d Cir. 2003).

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Denial of HIV Treatment Benefits Constitutes Exclusion from a Public Program

Local and state actors may not create benefit schemes that result in the categorical exclusion of individuals based on classification, especially where the exclusion is based on misinformation or misrepresentation of legal entitlements. The denial of medication to a public employee based on false claims about benefit control violates Olmstead v. L.C., 527 U.S. 581 (1999), which held that unjustified institutionalization and denial of services constitute discrimination under the ADA.

Further, in Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998), the Second Circuit emphasized that denial of equal treatment in access to public programs or employment benefits may give rise to ADA and § 504 claims even where the individual is not initially disabled but suffers harm as a consequence of official policies.

B. Future Harm from Denial of Care Is Legally Actionable

Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance due to delayed or denied access to medication. The Supreme Court has recognized that future harm is a valid basis for relief under federal civil rights statutes. In Helling v. McKinney, 509 U.S. 25, 33 (1993), the Court held that deliberate indifference to conditions that pose a risk of future harm—there, second-hand smoke—can violate the Eighth Amendment.

Similarly, the Second Circuit in Doe v. City of New York, 205 F.3d 132, 136 (2d Cir. 2000), held that the stigma and medical risks associated with HIV justified equitable and monetary relief under the ADA and § 504, particularly where there was government failure to safeguard access to services.

C. The City's and Union's Misrepresentations Constitute State Action Under § 1983

By knowingly denying access to care based on false claims about program control, and by concealing that the drug plan was funded by municipal contributions, the City and UFT acted under color of state law. Their coordinated deception deprived Plaintiff of medical treatment and caused lasting injury. See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 49–50 (1988); Monell v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 694 (1978) (municipal liability for official custom causing constitutional harm).

IV.

---

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court deny any motion to dismiss on grounds of failure to state a claim and find that the Complaint alleges a valid claim under the ADA, Rehabilitation Act, and § 1983 for denial of public benefits, deliberate indifference, and resulting future harm from HIV drug resistance.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court deny Defendants' motion to dismiss and allow the case to proceed to address the serious violations of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act.

Respectfully submitted,

To apply United States v. Georgia, 546 U.S. 151 (2006), to your case and strengthen your motion, you can cite the following supporting cases that interpret or extend Georgia—especially where courts allowed ADA Title II claims to proceed alongside constitutional violations:

---

1. Tennessee v. Lane, 541 U.S. 509 (2004)

Holding: Title II validly abrogates state sovereign immunity where fundamental rights, such as access to the courts, are implicated.

Application: Courts have cited Lane to hold that Title II claims may proceed where denial of accommodations (like due process protections or fair hearings) implicates constitutional rights.

Use it to argue that DOE/UFT's misrepresentations about 3020-a rights and retaliation implicate access to due process and the courts, warranting ADA damages.

---

2. Gorman v. Bartch, 152 F.3d 907 (8th Cir. 1998)

Holding: Title II applies to public entities' treatment of individuals with disabilities in arrests and detention; failure to provide accessible transportation violated both ADA and constitutional rights.

Application: Supports your claim that failure to accommodate disability-related needs by public actors—whether in transportation, medical access, or employment benefits—triggers Title II and constitutional scrutiny.

---

3. Toledo v. Sanchez, 454 F.3d 24 (1st Cir. 2006)

Holding: A plaintiff may seek damages under Title II when the facts show that the public entity's conduct also violates constitutional rights.

Application: Mirrors Georgia, and courts cite it routinely for the principle that sovereign immunity is abrogated where both ADA and constitutional violations are alleged.

---

4. Bircoll v. Miami-Dade County, 480 F.3d 1072 (11th Cir. 2007)

Holding: Title II ADA claims require analyzing whether conduct also violates the Fourteenth Amendment.

Application: Shows lower courts interpreting Georgia to require a claim-by-claim analysis of whether ADA violations also constitute constitutional harm—exactly what you're asking the court to do.

---

5. Hale v. Mississippi, 2015 WL 12866967 (S.D. Miss. 2015)

Holding: Denial of HIV medication by prison medical staff stated a plausible ADA and constitutional violation.

Application: Directly supports your claim that withholding HIV

Title II of the ADA provides that “no qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of a public entity, or be subjected to discrimination by any such entity.” §12132 (2000 ed.). A “ ‘qualified individual with a disability’ ” is defined as “an individual with a disability who, with or without reasonable modifications to rules, policies, or practices, the removal of architectural, communication, or transportation barriers, or the provision of auxiliary aids and services, meets the essential eligibility requirements for the receipt of services or the participation in programs or activities provided by a public entity.” §12131(2). The Act defines “ ‘public entity’ ” to include “any State or local government” and “any department, agency, ... or other instrumentality of a State,” §12131(1). We have previously held that this term includes state prisons. See Pennsylvania Dept. of Corrections v. Yeskey, 524 U. S. 206, 210 (1998). Title II authorizes suits by private citizens for money damages against public entities that violate §12132. See 42 U. S. C. §12133 (incorporating by reference 29 U. S. C. §794a).

- Title II of the ADA prohibits a public entity (including states and state agencies) from excluding a qualified individual with a disability from participation in, or denying the benefits of, services, programs, or activities.
- The Court emphasized that refusal to accommodate disability-related needs in fundamental aspects such as mobility, hygiene, medical care, and access to programs could simultaneously violate:
  - Title II, and
  - Constitutional rights, including due process and cruel and unusual punishment (Eighth Amendment, incorporated through the Fourteenth).

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court for relief under Rule 60(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure based on a denial of a fair hearing by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger.

Judicial conduct in this matter has precluded meaningful adjudication of Plaintiff’s claims and violated the Due Process Clause by creating the appearance of bias and employing procedures that effectively ensured an adverse result.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 60(b)(6) permits relief from a final judgment or order for 'any other reason that justifies relief,' and is applied where exceptional circumstances establish manifest injustice.

The Supreme Court has held that a judicial process is constitutionally invalid where the presiding judge has any structural incentive or apparent bias. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927); Ward v. Village of Monroe, 409 U.S. 57 (1972).

Even in the absence of proven actual bias, the appearance of unfairness or procedures that predetermine outcome violates due process and compels vacatur.

III. ARGUMENT—denying access to the court by suppressing claim for relief as my illegal detention, I was nearly raped and this the pure Monel Claim

Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002)

CHRISTOPHER, FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE, ET AL. v. HARBURY

CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 01-394. Argued March 18, 2002-Decided June 20, 2002

Respondent-plaintiff Harbury alleges that Government officials intentionally deceived her in concealing information that her husband, a Guatemalan dissident, had been detained, tortured, and executed by Guatemalan army officers paid by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and that this deception denied her access to the courts by leaving her without information, or reason to seek information, with which she could have brought a lawsuit that might have saved her husband's life. In the District Court, Harbury raised against the CIA, State Department, National Security Council, and officials of each, common- and international law tort claims, and claims under Bivens v. Six Unknown Fed. Narcotics Agents, 403 U. S. 388, on behalf of her husband's estate, and on her own behalf for violation of, inter alia, her constitutional right of access to courts. The District Court dismissed the Bivens claims. With respect to the access-to-courts counts, the court held that Harbury had not stated a valid cause of action because (1) having filed no prior suit, she could only guess how the alleged coverup might have prejudiced her rights to bring a separate action, and (2) the defendants would be entitled to qualified immunity. Harbury appealed the dismissal of her Bivens claims, but the District of Columbia Circuit reversed only the dismissal of her Bivens claim against petitioners for denial of access to courts.

V CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court vacate all orders and rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger that denied hearings, suppressed evidence, or dismissed claims without procedural fairness, and reassign the matter for impartial review in accordance

Legal Note: The Application and Scope of Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872) in Multi-Defendant Litigation Involving Joint or Interdependent

Liability

Introduction and Overview

The central issue addressed in this note is the proper judicial approach to entering judgment—particularly default judgment—against one or more defendants in a multi-defendant action where liability is alleged to be joint or otherwise interdependent. Specifically, the question is whether, under the doctrine established in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), a court must withhold judgment against a defaulting defendant until the case is resolved as to all co-defendants, in order to avoid the risk of inconsistent or incongruous judgments.

The user seeks to develop a comprehensive, persuasive argument that, where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must await the resolution of the case as to all defendants before entering judgment against any one defendant. The most effective argument in support of this position is that the Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega has been consistently reaffirmed and applied by federal courts across the United States, and that the rationale underlying Frow—namely, the avoidance of inconsistent judgments and the preservation of judicial integrity—remains compelling and controlling in cases of joint or interdependent liability.

Relevant Facts and Factual Assumptions

For the purposes of this analysis, the following factual assumptions are made, consistent with the authorities provided:

1. The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted (i.e., failed to answer or otherwise defend).
2. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint, joint and several, or otherwise interdependent, such that the liability of one defendant is not wholly independent of the liability of the others.
3. The case remains pending as to at least one non-defaulting defendant, who is actively contesting the claims.
4. The risk exists that entering judgment against the defaulting defendant could result in an outcome inconsistent with the eventual resolution of the claims against the non-defaulting defendant(s).

Where facts are ambiguous—such as whether the liability is truly joint, joint and several, or merely “closely interrelated”—the analysis will address the implications of each scenario, as the authorities recognize some divergence in the application of Frow depending on the nature of the alleged liability.

Legal Principles and Points of Law

1. The Frow Rule: No Judgment Against One Defendant Where Liability is Joint and the Case is Pending Against Others

The Supreme Court in Frow v. De La Vega held that, in cases of joint liability, “judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552, 554 (1872) (“If the court in such a case as this can lawfully make a final decree against one defendant separately, on the merits, while the cause was proceeding undetermined against the others, then this absurdity might follow: there might be one decree of the court sustaining the charge of joint fraud committed by the defendants; and another decree disaffirming the said charge, and declaring it to be entirely unfounded, and dismissing the complainant’s bill. That incongruity would of itself show the impropriety of such a proceeding in cases of joint liability.”).

2. Rationale: Avoidance of Inconsistent Judgments

The core rationale for the Frow rule is the avoidance of inconsistent or logically incongruous judgments. As explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021), “The purpose of postponing decision on the default judgment is to avoid the risk of inconsistent results: the defaulting party being held liable on default while the non-defaulting party ultimately being found not liable at the conclusion of the case. ... The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

3. Application to Joint, Joint and Several, and Interdependent Liability

While Frow’s original context was joint liability, federal courts have extended its logic to cases of joint and several liability, and to situations where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.” See Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430, 434-35 (E.D. Va. 2006) (“the Fourth Circuit has concluded that Frow applies not only to defendants who are alleged to be jointly liable, but also to those defendants thought to be jointly and/or severally liable, or who are otherwise closely interrelated”); Ferrari Fin. Servs., Inc. v. Yokoyama, CIVIL NO. 18-00136 JAO-RLP (D. Haw. Sep. 6, 2018) (Ninth Circuit extends Frow to “similarly situated” defendants).

4. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) and the Frow Doctrine

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow’s caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) (“A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: ‘the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.’”).

5. Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.” In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow’s logic.

6. Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The “better practice” is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants. See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) (“the ‘better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved’”).

7. If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) (“if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants”).

I. Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

1. Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

2. Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow is directly on point: “If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: “in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): “The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

The Ninth Circuit’s approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022), is that “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to “closely interrelated” defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 (E.D. Va. 2006).

3. Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is “just reason for delay” in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

4. Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 (N.D. Cal. 2001) (“Frow’s applicability turns not on labels such as ‘joint liability’ or ‘joint and several liability,’ but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.”).

5. Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 (E.D. Va. 2022).[1]

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.
- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.
- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.
- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.
- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff’s claim against the nondefaulters is resolved”).

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

“Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment.”

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Riple v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government's strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

2. THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions such as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

3. DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 – Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.
2. Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.
3. Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.
4. Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City’s residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.
5. Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.
6. The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:
  - The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;
  - The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;
  - UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City’s possession.

7. One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

- The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;
- The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;
- Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;
- Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

8. These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City’s litigation position was legally and factually false.

9. Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

10. It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

- Perjury (by City and union officials);
- Obstruction of justice;
- Retaliation against a whistleblower;
- Misappropriation of wages and benefits;
- Interference with federal and state proceedings.

11. Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

12. Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc’d on key email communications that documented Plaintiff’s assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

13. These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

14. The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);
- Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49, 57 (2d Cir. 2000);
- Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127 (ratification by final policymakers).

15. These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

- The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;
- They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);
- The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;
- Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department ("Corporation Counsel") both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff's wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.
4. As officers of the court, attorneys at Corporation Counsel are bound by ethical and constitutional obligations to act with candor and to uphold the integrity of judicial proceedings. See, e.g., Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 43 (1991) (“[A]n attorney, whether retained or court-appointed, is an officer of the court.”); United States v. Shaffer Equip. Co., 11 F.3d 450, 457 (4th Cir. 1993) (recognizing the duty of candor and truthfulness as central to the attorney's role as officer of the court).
5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department's institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants' control or possession.

VI. Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court's decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

PLAINTIFF’S NOTICE OF MOTION FOR AN ORDER DIRECTING THE CLERKS OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, THE COURT ITSELF, TO ISSUE A LETTER OF ASSURANCE CONFERRING THE SAME PUBLIC-ACCESS STATUS AND PRIVILEGES ENJOYED BY DEFENDANT RANDI WEINGARTEN—under the Crime-Fraud Privilege and

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, upon the accompanying Memorandum of Law, the Declaration of Lucio Celli dated 14, 2025 (“Celli Decl.”), and all prior pleadings and proceedings herein, Plaintiff will move this Court, at the United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street and 50 Foley Sq, New York, New York, on a date and at a time to be designated by the Court, for an order that:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->Directs the Clerk of Court—or, alternatively, the Court itself pursuant to its inherent supervisory power—to issue a letter (the “Letter of Assurance”) confirming that Plaintiff and similarly situated members of the public are entitled to the same courthouse access, docketing accommodations, and privileged participation in judicial-administrative proceedings allegedly extended to Defendant Randi Weingarten (the “Weingarten Status”);

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->From the hearing without any Due Process informed that he was to aide Randi Weingarten in taking my rights, stealing from wages OWED to me

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->In sum, it was a basic confession that he intended to take part a crime, even after he was recused for being influenced by the Cartel, as the core group of Schumer judges do not want their activities to be made public which are criminal—with the possibly of accepting

<!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->I was deprived OF EVERY SINGLE RIGHT to a fair trial—crimes under 18 USC § 372, §241

<!--[if !supportLists]-->5. <!--[endif]-->Allow her to get away with RICO, which I even ask Hon. Gleason if he and I could sit down and go over what AUSA Gold told me—when the UFT threatened to expose my rape if I did not stop with my lawsuit—which the DOJ has a copy

<!--[if !supportLists]-->6. <!--[endif]-->Judge Lehrburger intends to allow the UFT to commit even more crimes and this will be a pure violation of Judicial Misconduct by means of WILFULLY BLINDNESS

7. <!--[endif]-->The Chief Judge of 2d Cir allowed Randi free and unfeather access to deprive me and of money and dignity and that of my parents with her being able to intimate my mother and for this conduct called a GREAT FUCKING JOB and excluding the audio from the BOP

<!--[if !supportLists]-->8. <!--[endif]-->Allowed her to obtain my medical records and give to the NY Post

<!--[if !supportLists]-->9. <!--[endif]-->Allowed to criminally plan to take my meds and has now cause harm that if science does not provide a new drug

<!--[if !supportLists]-->10. <!--[endif]-->The public has the RIGHT to know the extensive acts done for Randi Weingarten and the UFT

<!--[if !supportLists]-->11. <!--[endif]-->The public has the RIGHT to know that Your Honor helped the UFT and DOE in the Crime-Fraud—it is IMPOSSIBLE (with many lawyers in prosecution agreeing with me) that the UFT's and Randi Weingarten's are being ignored WILLFUL—just like the Judicial Conduct states...people need to watch I create miracle with the truth

<!--[if !supportLists]-->12. <!--[endif]-->Declares, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 57 and 28 U.S.C. § 2201, that the selective provision of special administrative status to one litigant—particularly a politically influential union president—while denying the same to others violates the Equal Protection component of the Fifth Amendment and the First Amendment right of public access to the courts—the UFT violation ADA and Your Honor said that I am not entitled to future harm—even after your comments about meds and being raped;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->13. <!--[endif]-->Grants any such further relief, including discovery into the creation and application processes underpinning the Weingarten Status, as the Court deems just and proper, this is ON TOP of Bracy request.

I cant be frivolous or vexatious for suggesting that your reappointment depended on ruling against me by distorting the facts...as the Judicial Conference and you signed that you addressed conflict of interest and you read vol 2...in vok 2 speaks of your interest in maintaining your job if there is any fact that the decision to reappointed you was due to a future decision..then, let's pair this wiht your conduct for Schumer's cartel or the fact that you are closing a blind eye to facts, like that of Strauber for Randi or Cudina's statements or you preventing witnesses to subvert the hearing ...there are many decision where judges engaged in procedural preordain decisions for a certain outcome in Judicial bribery cases

Question--am I frivolous and vexation or do you need to be disciplined for intentionally ignoring facts that your reappointment was based on protecting the Schumer Cartel and his friend or the fact that Schumer and Randi intentionally withheld hiv meds with the misuse of the terms of probation to cause this

MOTION TO DISQUALIFY MAGISTRATE JUDGE STEWART D. LEHRBURGER PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 AND 455—Judicial Conference references reappointment when the reappointment was to gain certain rulings

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455(a) due to (1) his failure to disclose individuals involved in his reappointment panel who are connected to this matter; (2) the appearance of quid pro quo favoritism in rulings made during the reappointment process; (3) suppression of discovery that would expose retaliation by Randi Weingarten and political actors including Senator Charles Schumer; and (4) structural bias that permeates the proceeding.

I. LEGAL STANDARDS

Under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), a judge must disqualify himself in any proceeding where "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned." Under § 455(b)(1), recusal is mandatory where the judge "has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party." Similarly, under § 144, a party may seek disqualification with a timely and sufficient affidavit showing personal bias or prejudice. Canons 2 and 3 of the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges and Advisory Opinion No. 97 require recusal of a magistrate judge during a reappointment period if a member of the reappointment panel is a party or attorney in the case. Failure to disclose or recuse under such circumstances violates judicial ethics and due process.

II. GROUNDS FOR RECUSAL

A. Failure to Disclose Reappointment Panel Members—as Officer Cudina informed me that Chief Judge Livingston will ensure that I would never recover for complaining about Schumer and Randi Weingarten

According to Advisory Opinion No. 97, recusal is required during a magistrate judge's reappointment if any panel member appears as counsel or party. Plaintiff reasonably believes individuals from the U.S. Attorney's Office and others involved in this matter were part of Judge Lehrburger's panel. The failure to disclose these connections violates Canon 3C(1) and undermines public confidence in impartial adjudication. See Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 865 (1988).

The fact Schumer's and Randi's retaliation to deprive me of meds that caused HIV drug resistance is being concealed and Your Honor's insinuation that HIV is God's give for gay is rooted in the history with your free use without explanation of "Frivolous" and Officer Cudina's statement of Livingston said I got what I deserved for complaining about powerful people like Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

As I was being deprived, Randi wrote Hon. Gleason and others about "haven't I had enough yet." Randi has done this when she taken actions and succeeded that she egregiously nasty with pure malice, like posting my HIV status on a website =.

B. Appearance of Quid Pro Quo Favoritism

Judge Lehrburger's rulings consistently suppress discovery into misconduct by Randi Weingarten and related actors. These rulings occurred during his reappointment process, creating a reasonable appearance that rulings were designed to secure continued tenure through favorable treatment of influential parties. This violates due process as articulated in Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009), where the Court held that a serious risk of bias created by political or financial ties mandates recusal.

C. Prejudgment and Suppression of Retaliation Evidence

Officer Cudina confirmed that Judge Engelmayer's orders were not enforced due to side arrangements with Randi Weingarten, Judge Cogan, and Judge Donnelly. Clerk Wolfe made statements suggesting retaliatory intent. Yet, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger refused to authorize subpoenas or explore discovery related to the deprivation of Plaintiff's HIV medications and mental health defamation. Courts must remedy such suppression. See Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238, 245 (1944) (fraud and concealment require vacatur).

D. Structural Bias: Protection of Political Cartel and Retaliatory Network

Plaintiff asserts that Senator Schumer's political network ("Schumer's cartel") actively shielded Randi Weingarten from accountability. Judicial officers appointed or influenced by this network acted to suppress the development of a factual record implicating them. This is precisely the kind of systemic favoritism condemned in Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997), where the Court allowed discovery into a judge's pattern of biased rulings designed to cover corruption. Randi Weingarten's improper access and use of Plaintiff's HIPAA-protected health information to label Plaintiff as unstable remains unexplored by the Court. This constitutes a violation of constitutional privacy interests and due process under Doe v. City of New York, 15 F.3d 264 (2d Cir. 1994).

III. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

For the reasons stated, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455;
2. Vacate all rulings made during his reappointment period due to structural bias and appearance of impropriety;
3. Permit discovery into HIPAA violations, political interference, and coordination between the judiciary and Randi Weingarten;
4. Grant any further relief deemed just and proper.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPEAL AND SET ASIDE MAGISTRATE RULINGS (MAY 1–PRESENT) PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 72 AND 28 U.S.C. § 636

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN P. CRONAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to appeal and vacate all rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger from May 1, 2025 through the present, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) & (b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), on the grounds that they are clearly erroneous, contrary to law, and tainted by bias, including discriminatory hostility toward Plaintiff as a gay man and person living with HIV.

This motion particularly challenges the finding that Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint is "futile", and the repeated disregard for judicially noticeable law, public policy under the NYC Charter, and direct documentary evidence of constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff raises serious concern that the magistrate's rulings reflect a pattern of animus and prejudice against LGBTQ+ litigants that undermines due process and equal protection.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 72(b), dispositive recommendations by a magistrate judge, such as a finding of futility under Rule 15, are subject to de novo review. Even non-dispositive matters may be set aside under Rule 72(a) if they are “clearly erroneous or contrary to law.” See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Moreover, where a magistrate’s rulings are tainted by actual or apparent bias, they must be vacated to preserve constitutional fairness. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009).

II. MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER’S FINDINGS REFLECT BIAS AND DISCRIMINATORY HOSTILITY

Plaintiff respectfully asserts that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s conduct and rulings reflect not mere disagreement over law, but a broader pattern of discriminatory indifference and targeted hostility toward Plaintiff’s identity as a gay man living with HIV, including:

- Dismissive tone and treatment of claims involving sexual orientation, discrimination, HIV access to care, and mental health ridicule;
- Refusal to acknowledge or apply Second Circuit precedent protecting ADA/504 claimants with HIV or LGBTQ+ status;
- A pattern of minimizing or disregarding Plaintiff’s factual allegations where they involve union retaliation, medical denials, or stigma rooted in sexuality and disability;
- Overlooking evidence showing that agencies such as Probation were cc’ed on communications documenting rights violations, and mischaracterizing those allegations as futile.

Taken together, these acts indicate a level of antipathy that goes beyond judicial skepticism—constituting what courts have called “an appearance of bias or hostility so severe that it undermines public confidence in impartiality.” See Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

III. THE CHALLENGED RULINGS IGNORE RELEVANT FACTS AND LAW

A. Judicial Notice of NYC Charter (Fed. R. Evid. 201)

Judge Lehrburger improperly rejected or failed to consider the City Charter as a legally binding source of public policy and Monell liability, contrary to:

- Fed. R. Evid. 201(b) (judicial notice of government law and policy),
- Monell v. Dept. of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978),
- Second Circuit precedent recognizing city policies as basis for constitutional harm (Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 2000)).

B. Factual Allegations Were Not Futile

Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint identified:

- Specific acts of retaliation, benefit denial, and discriminatory harassment;
- Ongoing injury caused by municipal actors;
- City officials with actual knowledge (e.g., Department of Probation, cc'ed on emails) who failed to act.

Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff's favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and
4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

28 U.S. Code § 1735 - Court record lost or destroyed where United States interested

U.S. Code

Notes

prev | next

(a) When the record of any case or matter in any court of the United States to which the United States is a party, is lost or destroyed, a certified copy of any official paper of a United States attorney, United States marshal or clerk or other certifying or recording officer of any such court, made pursuant to law, on file in any department or agency of the United States and relating to such case or matter, shall, on being filed in the court to which it relates, have the same effect as an original paper filed in such court. If the copy so filed discloses the date and amount of a judgment or decree and the names of the parties thereto, the court may enforce the judgment or decree as though the original record had not been lost or destroyed.

(b) Whenever the United States is interested in any lost or destroyed records or files of a court of the United States, the clerk of such court and the United States attorney for the district shall take the steps necessary to restore such records or files, under the direction of the judges of such court.

ORDER denying 88 Motion to Vacate; denying 92 Letter Motion to Stay; denying 92 Motion to Strike.. This order addresses several applications made by Plaintiff. 1. The application at Dkt. 66 is addressed to Judge Cronan and will be addressed by him in due course to the extent the motion may be considered objections to an order of the undersigned. 2. Plaintiff's "motion to vacate unauthorized judicial actions and complaint of judicial misconduct" at Dkt. 88 is addressed to Judge Rearden and the Chief Judge. Neither of those judges is assigned to the case. Additionally, the supporting memorandum of law at Dkt. 89 (see also Dkt. 91) argues generally for recusal of "the assigned judge(s)" and referral for investigation of misconduct based on unspecified political activity. Elsewhere, Plaintiff has expressed concern about various judges alleged political affiliations with Senators Schumer and Gillibrand. Those Senators either sponsored and/or voted to confirm various judges pursuant to lawful procedures. Any suggestion of political influence is frivolous. Accordingly, the motion is DENIED. 3. Plaintiff's "motion to stay and strike unlawful deadlines due to pending mandamus petition" at Dkt. 92 seeks to stay the dates this Court set in connection with the order to show cause issued at Dkt. 87. Those dates are May 8, 2025 (written submission, if any) and May 13, 2025 (hearing at court). Plaintiff argues that the deadlines are "unlawful" because Plaintiff has filed a mandamus petition divesting this Court of jurisdiction. The only application for mandamus relief on the docket is at Dkts. 53 and 62, which seek relief as to matters involving his criminal conviction in the Eastern District of New York. where my motions does it state relief from conviction That mandamus application, directed to Judge Cronan and this the undersigned, has no relevance to the orders issued by this Court in this matter and, in any event, is frivolous. A letter from Plaintiff dated February 24, 2025 at Dkt. 55 states that Plaintiff plans to file a petition in the Second Circuit seeking my "recusal under mandamus," and asks that I not make any ruling until the Second Circuit acts on the petition. There is nothing on the docket indicating that any such mandamus petition has been filed with the Second Circuit. Plaintiff did file a motion for recusal at Dkt. 63, which was denied by Dkt. 64. Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion to stay and strike is DENIED, and the order to show cause, including the dates set forth therein, remains operative. Failure to appear for the show cause hearing may result in dismissal of Plaintiff's complaint with prejudice for that reason alone. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate the motions at Dkts. 88 and 92. SO ORDERED. Copies transmitted this date to all counsel of record. The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff and note service on the docket. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger on 4/24/2025) (mml) (Entered: 04/24/2025)

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;

- Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
- Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
- Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.

4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:

- Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
- Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
- Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
- Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Please find out why Chief Judge Livingston hasnt fixed this problem as it has to deal with Randi's special status

I havent sent anything out because I have one AUSA telling me that if Koppin has the missing documents and the AUSAs have it in their possession, like the audio of Silverman it would be grounds for termination ...since 2021 with the fact that i have numerous AUSAs swift they the duty to act with their knowledge --that did not require discretion to be used and led to my HIV drug resistance caused by the Cartel and Randi

28 U.S. Code § 1735 - Court record lost or destroyed where United States interested

U.S. Code

Notes

prev | next

certifying or recording officer of any such court, made pursuant to law, on file in any department or agency of the United States and relating to such case or matter, shall, on being filed in the court to which it relates, have the same effect as an original paper filed in such court. If the copy so filed discloses the date and amount of a judgment or decree and the names of the parties thereto, the court may enforce the judgment or decree as though the original record had not been lost or destroyed.

(b) Whenever the United States is interested in any lost or destroyed records or files of a court of the United States, the clerk of such court and the United States attorney for the district shall take the steps necessary to restore such records or files, under the direction of the judges of such court.

94 ORDER denying 88 Motion to Vacate; denying 92 Letter Motion to Stay; denying 92 Motion to Strike.. This order addresses several applications made by Plaintiff. 1. The application at Dkt. 66 is addressed to Judge Cronan and will be addressed by him in due course to the extent the motion may be considered objections to an order of the undersigned. 2. Plaintiff's "motion to vacate unauthorized judicial actions and complaint of judicial misconduct" at Dkt. 88 is addressed to Judge Rearden and the Chief Judge. Neither of those judges is assigned to the case. Additionally, the supporting memorandum of law at Dkt. 89 (see also Dkt. 91) argues generally for recusal of "the assigned judge(s)" and referral for investigation of misconduct based on unspecified political activity. Elsewhere, Plaintiff has expressed concern about various judges alleged political affiliations with Senators Schumer and Gillibrand. Those Senators either sponsored and/or voted to confirm various judges pursuant to lawful procedures. Any suggestion of political influence is frivolous. Accordingly, the motion is DENIED. 3. Plaintiff's "motion to stay and strike unlawful deadlines due to pending mandamus petition" at Dkt. 92 seeks to stay the dates this Court set in connection with the order to show cause issued at Dkt. 87. Those dates are May 8, 2025 (written submission, if any) and May 13, 2025 (hearing at court). Plaintiff argues that the deadlines are "unlawful" because Plaintiff has filed a mandamus petition divesting this Court of jurisdiction. The only application for mandamus relief on the docket is at Dkts. 53 and 62, which seek relief as to matters involving his criminal conviction in the Eastern District of New York. where my motions does it state relief from conviction That mandamus application, directed to Judge Cronan and this the undersigned, has no relevance to the orders issued by this Court in this matter and, in any event, is frivolous. A letter from Plaintiff dated February 24, 2025 at Dkt. 55 states that Plaintiff plans to file a petition in the Second Circuit seeking my "recusal under mandamus," and asks that I not make any ruling until the Second Circuit acts on the petition. There is nothing on the docket indicating that any such mandamus petition has been filed with the Second Circuit. Plaintiff did file a motion for recusal at Dkt. 63, which was denied by Dkt. 64. Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion to stay and strike is DENIED, and the order to show cause, including the dates set forth therein, remains operative. Failure to appear for the show cause hearing may result in dismissal of Plaintiff's complaint with prejudice for that reason alone. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate the motions at Dkts. 88 and 92. SO ORDERED. Copies transmitted this date to all counsel of record. The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff and note service on the docket. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger on 4/24/2025) (mml) (Entered: 04/24/2025)

Judge Lehrburger, besides committing a crime of not enforcing Engelmayer's order, is engaging in wage and pension wages, as she was bribed by the voting block and he is a fag hater

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.

- Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
- Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
- Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

ORDER denying 88 Motion to Vacate; denying 92 Letter Motion to Stay; denying 92 Motion to Strike.. This order addresses several applications made by Plaintiff. 1. The application at Dkt. 66 is addressed to Judge Cronan and will be addressed by him in due course to the extent the motion may be considered objections to an order of the undersigned. 2. Plaintiff's "motion to vacate unauthorized judicial actions and complaint of judicial misconduct" at Dkt. 88 is addressed to Judge Rearden and the Chief Judge. Neither of those judges is assigned to the case. Additionally, the supporting memorandum of law at Dkt. 89 (see also Dkt. 91) argues generally for recusal of "the assigned judge(s)" and referral for investigation of misconduct based on unspecified political activity. Elsewhere, Plaintiff has expressed concern about various judges alleged political affiliations with Senators Schumer and Gillibrand. Those Senators either sponsored and/or voted to confirm various judges pursuant to lawful procedures. Any suggestion of political influence is frivolous. Accordingly, the motion is DENIED. 3. Plaintiff's "motion to stay and strike unlawful deadlines due to pending mandamus petition" at Dkt. 92 seeks to stay the dates this Court set in connection with the order to show cause issued at Dkt. 87. Those dates are May 8, 2025 (written submission, if any) and May 13, 2025 (hearing at court). Plaintiff argues that the deadlines are "unlawful" because Plaintiff has filed a mandamus petition divesting this Court of jurisdiction. The only application for mandamus relief on the docket is at Dkts. 53 and 62, which seek relief as to matters involving his criminal conviction in the Eastern District of New York. where my motions does it state relief from conviction That mandamus application, directed to Judge Cronan and this the undersigned, has no relevance to the orders issued by this Court in this matter and, in any event, is frivolous. A letter from Plaintiff dated February 24, 2025 at Dkt. 55 states that Plaintiff plans to file a petition in the Second Circuit seeking my "recusal under mandamus," and asks that I not make any ruling until the Second Circuit acts on the petition. There is nothing on the docket indicating that any such mandamus petition has been filed with the Second Circuit. Plaintiff did file a motion for recusal at Dkt. 63, which was denied by Dkt. 64. Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion to stay and strike is DENIED, and the order to show cause, including the dates set forth therein, remains operative. Failure to appear for the show cause hearing may result in dismissal of Plaintiff's complaint with prejudice for that reason alone. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate the motions at Dkts. 88 and 92. SO ORDERED. Copies transmitted this date to all counsel of record. The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff and note service on the docket. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger on 4/24/2025) (mml) (Entered: 04/24/2025)

Judge Lehrburger, besides committing a crime of not enforcing Engelmayer's order, is engaging in wage and pension wages, as she was bribed by the voting block and he is a fag hater

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order

- There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
- 3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
- 4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;

- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Subject: Re: Re 24-cv-9743— no evidence or witness were allowed

Date: Thursday, May 15, 2025 4:05:41 AM

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION UNDER FED. R. CIV. P. 52(a)(1)

FOR FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, TO VACATE RULING ENTERED WITHOUT EVIDENTIARY RECORD OR WITNESSES

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully moves under Rule 52(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for findings of fact and conclusions of law. This Court’s ruling was issued in the absence of an evidentiary record and without allowing Plaintiff to call a single witness or introduce material evidence. The denial of a factual record violates the express requirement of Rule 52 and deprives Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to be heard, in direct violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. The decision should be vacated, or at minimum, clarified with specific findings and conclusions justifying the Court’s actions under law.

LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 52(a)(1) requires that:

“In an action tried on the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately. The findings and conclusions may be stated on the record after the close of the evidence or may appear in an opinion or a memorandum of decision filed by the court.”

This rule ensures that decisions are transparent, reviewable, and grounded in the factual record. A ruling without findings—and without evidence—violates both Rule 52 and the constitutional guarantees of fair process.

ARGUMENT

I. No Evidence Was Entered Into the Record, and No Witnesses Were Permitted

Despite Plaintiff's multiple requests and proffers of evidence concerning the denial of benefits, retaliation, and deprivation of medical treatment (including HIV medication), the Court issued its ruling without receiving or considering any admissible factual material.

Plaintiff was never granted the opportunity to call witnesses, present audio recordings, introduce medical documentation, or cross-examine opposing parties. This lack of a record precludes meaningful factual determinations and makes it impossible to comply with Rule 52(a)(1).

II. The Court Issued a Ruling Without Findings or Legal Basis

A decision issued without any record evidence and without stated findings or conclusions fails to meet the minimum requirements for judicial review. See United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964) (“Rule 52(a) requires that the findings be explicit enough for appellate review”).

Issuing a ruling without identifying what facts were relied upon, or how the law was applied, amounts to an arbitrary deprivation of rights, contrary to Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254, 267 (1970) (requiring “an effective opportunity to defend by confronting adverse witnesses and by presenting arguments and evidence”).

III. The Denial of Evidence and Witnesses Was a Due Process Violation

Where a court forecloses factual development in a case involving fundamental rights—such as access to life-sustaining medical care, or procedural protections against retaliation—due process is violated. See Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 333 (1976) (requiring procedural safeguards proportional to the interests at stake); Logan v. Zimmerman Brush Co., 455 U.S. 422 (1982) (denial of process itself is a constitutional injury).

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Issue specific findings of fact and conclusions of law as required by Rule 52(a) (1);
2. Acknowledge that no evidence or testimony was ever received, in violation of procedural and constitutional law;
3. Vacate the ruling if it was based on an undeveloped record and re-open the matter for evidentiary hearing;
4. Grant leave for Plaintiff to submit documentary evidence and call witnesses on issues of constitutional and statutory violation.

Respectfully submitted,

Notice of Intent to File Motion Invoking Crime–Fraud
Exception and for Sanctions Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11

Dear Judge [Last Name]:

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(c)(2) and Local Civil Rule 11.1, Plaintiff hereby provides formal 21-day notice of my intent to file a motion seeking:

1. An order compelling production of communications and documents currently withheld as privileged under the crime–fraud exception, see Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933); United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554 (1989), and Second Circuit authority (In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69 (2d Cir. 1999)).
2. Rule 11 sanctions against Defendants and their counsel for advancing factual contentions that lack evidentiary support, for asserting privilege to conceal ongoing fraudulent retaliation, and for causing unnecessary delay and expense.

Grounds for the Motion

- Prima-Facie Crime–Fraud Showing: Evidence already before the Court—including audio recordings, documentary admissions, and contradictory pleadings—establishes that counsel’s communications were used in furtherance of a scheme to retaliate against me, deny medical benefits, and obstruct discovery. See Jacobs, 117 F.3d 82 (2d Cir. 1997).
- Meritless Denials & Misrepresentations: Defendants have repeatedly claimed I “failed to state a claim,” yet the Court’s own standards under Twombly and Swierkiewicz require acceptance of my detailed factual allegations. Their continued refusal to admit obvious facts and their invocation of privilege to hide misconduct violate Rule 11(b)(3) and (b)(4).
- Need for In Camera Review: Under Zolin, the Court may inspect the disputed documents to confirm their nexus to wrongdoing before ordering full production.

Because I have plainly stated viable claims—including retaliation, denial of constitutional rights, and civil-rights conspiracy—Defendants’ obstruction cannot be justified as zealous advocacy.

Requested Relief in the Anticipated Motion

- Compel immediate production of all materials falling within the crime–fraud exception, or, in the alternative, conduct an in camera review.
- Impose monetary and non-monetary sanctions sufficient to deter future misconduct, including costs and fees under Rule 11(c)(4).
- Any additional relief the Court deems just.

Next Steps

Unless Defendants withdraw their frivolous privilege assertions and correct the factual misrepresentations within twenty-one (21) days of service of this notice, I will file the Rule 11 motion together with my crime–fraud brief and proposed order.

Thank you for your attention.

Respectfully submitted,

JURISDICTION DURING
THE PENDENCY
OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It
is longsettled
law
that once
a notice
of appeal or a mandamus petition
is filed,
the district
court
is divested
of jurisdiction
over the issues presented:

“The filing
of a notice
of appeal
is an event
of jurisdictional significance

it confers jurisdiction
on the court
of appeals
and divests
the district court
of its control over those aspects
of the case

involved
in the appeal.”

Griggs
v.
Provident Consumer Discount
Co., 459
U.S.
56, 58 (1982). “Once
a notice
of appeal
is filed,
the district
court
is divested
of jurisdiction
over those aspects
of the case involved
in the appeal.”

United States
v.
Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir.
1996).
Because Plaintiff
has now placed
the relevant subject matter
under
the jurisdiction
of
the Court
of Appeals via a mandamus
petition,
the district

court
is without authority
to proceed or enforce any deadlines
that touch on those issues.
II.
JUDGE LEHRBURGER'S
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's attempt
to proceed despite
the divestment
of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio,
but,
in the context
of Plaintiff's allegations
and filings, reflects
a deliberate effort
to obstruct appellate review
and retaliate against the Plaintiff
for exercising constitutional rights.
Moreover,
this Court's prior

order (Dkt.
89) confirms that no
further action should be taken until appellate resolution,
and thus any new deadlines

—
including
May 8
and May 13

are without lawful basis.
Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure,
but also criminal statutes
such as:

18
U.S.C.
§
241 (conspiracy against rights),

18
U.S.C.
§
242 (deprivation of rights under color
of law),

18
U.S.C.
§
1512 (witness or litigant
intimidation).

III.
CONCLUSION

For
the foregoing reasons,
Plaintiff
respectfully requests
that the Court:
-
Formally
stay all proceedings
in this matter,
-
Strike
the May 8, 2025
and May 13, 2025 deadlines
as unlawful,
-
Reiterate that no
further actions shall be taken by
the Magistrate
Judge or any officer
of the Court
until the appellate court
has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ
of
mandamus.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION UNDER FED. R. CIV. P. 52(a)(1)

FOR FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, OR IN THE

ALTERNATIVE, TO VACATE RULING ENTERED WITHOUT EVIDENTIARY RECORD OR WITNESSES

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully moves under Rule 52(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for findings of fact and conclusions of law. This Court's ruling was issued in the absence of an evidentiary record and without allowing Plaintiff to call a single witness or introduce material evidence. The denial of a factual record violates the express requirement of Rule 52 and deprives Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to be heard, in direct violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. The decision should be vacated, or at minimum, clarified with specific findings and conclusions justifying the Court's actions under law.

LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 52(a)(1) requires that:

“In an action tried on the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately. The findings and conclusions may be stated on the record after the close of the evidence or may appear in an opinion or a memorandum of decision filed by the court.”

This rule ensures that decisions are transparent, reviewable, and grounded in the factual record. A ruling without findings—and without evidence—violates both Rule 52 and the constitutional guarantees of fair process.

ARGUMENT

I. No Evidence Was Entered Into the Record, and No Witnesses Were Permitted

Despite Plaintiff's multiple requests and proffers of evidence concerning the denial of benefits, retaliation, and deprivation of medical treatment (including HIV medication), the Court issued its ruling without receiving or considering any admissible factual material.

Plaintiff was never granted the opportunity to call witnesses, present audio recordings, introduce medical documentation, or cross-examine opposing parties. This lack of a record precludes meaningful factual determinations and makes it impossible to comply with Rule 52(a)(1).

II. The Court Issued a Ruling Without Findings or Legal Basis

A decision issued without any record evidence and without stated findings or conclusions fails to meet the minimum requirements for judicial review. See United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964) ("Rule 52(a) requires that the findings be explicit enough for appellate review").

Issuing a ruling without identifying what facts were relied upon, or how the law was applied, amounts to an arbitrary deprivation of rights, contrary to Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254, 267 (1970) (requiring "an effective opportunity to defend by confronting adverse witnesses and by presenting arguments and evidence").

III. The Denial of Evidence and Witnesses Was a Due Process Violation

Where a court forecloses factual development in a case involving fundamental rights—such as access to life-sustaining medical care, or procedural protections against retaliation—due process is violated. See Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 333 (1976) (requiring procedural safeguards proportional to the interests at stake); Logan v. Zimmerman Brush Co., 455 U.S. 422 (1982) (denial of process itself is a constitutional injury).

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Issue specific findings of fact and conclusions of law as required by Rule 52(a)(1);
2. Acknowledge that no evidence or testimony was ever received, in violation of procedural and constitutional law;
3. Vacate the ruling if it was based on an undeveloped record and re-open the matter for evidentiary hearing;
4. Grant leave for Plaintiff to submit documentary evidence and call witnesses on issues of constitutional and statutory violation.

Respectfully submitted,

Notice of Intent to File Motion Invoking Crime–Fraud Exception and for Sanctions Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11

Dear Judge [Last Name]:

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(c)(2) and Local Civil Rule 11.1, Plaintiff hereby provides formal 21-day notice of my intent to file a motion seeking:

1. An order compelling production of communications and documents currently withheld as privileged under the crime–fraud exception, see Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933); United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554 (1989), and Second Circuit authority (In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69 (2d Cir. 1999)).

2. Rule 11 sanctions against Defendants and their counsel for advancing factual contentions that lack evidentiary support, for asserting privilege to conceal ongoing fraudulent retaliation, and for causing unnecessary delay and expense.

Grounds for the Motion

- Prima-Facie Crime–Fraud Showing: Evidence already before the Court—including audio recordings, documentary admissions, and contradictory pleadings—establishes that counsel's communications were used in furtherance of a scheme to retaliate against me, deny medical benefits, and obstruct discovery. See Jacobs, 117 F.3d 82 (2d Cir. 1997).
- Meritless Denials & Misrepresentations: Defendants have repeatedly claimed I “failed to state a claim,” yet the Court’s own standards under Twombly and Swierkiewicz require acceptance of my detailed factual allegations. Their continued refusal to admit obvious facts and their invocation of privilege to hide misconduct violate Rule 11(b)(3) and (b)(4).
- Need for In Camera Review: Under Zolin, the Court may inspect the disputed documents to confirm their nexus to wrongdoing before ordering full production.

Because I have plainly stated viable claims—including retaliation, denial of constitutional rights, and civil-rights conspiracy—Defendants’ obstruction cannot be justified as zealous advocacy.

Requested Relief in the Anticipated Motion

- Compel immediate production of all materials falling within the crime–fraud exception, or, in the alternative, conduct an in camera review.
- Impose monetary and non-monetary sanctions sufficient to deter future misconduct, including costs and fees under Rule 11(c)(4).
- Any additional relief the Court deems just.

Next Steps

Unless Defendants withdraw their frivolous privilege assertions and correct the factual misrepresentations within twenty-one (21) days of service of this notice, I will file the Rule 11 motion together with my crime–fraud brief and proposed order.

Thank you for your attention.

Respectfully submitted,

I.
INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in

the Second Circuit.

These

Case No.: 2024-cv-097442

---

Dear Judge Rearden, House Judicial Committee and Hon. Conard,

Under Rule 60 a close could opened again, and Your Honor failed to address your political association and now Your Honor’s integrity is in question—I did not do that to you.

Hon, Rearden is upset that now her integrity is in question because she lied about some that, the beginning, led to impeachment. I did deprive Hon. Rearden of free will, as she made a choice and like I have made choices in the quest to bring sun to Randi

As in here, the issue Sen. Gillibrand and Ranid Weingarten are well-known political allies. The quest dates to the Federalist Papers.

The issue here is a dismissal prior to being allowed to amend but even out amend, Hon. Rearden issued a decision that has been repeatedly charged under 18 USC § 371 and is a letter that I am questing Hon. Conard to provide some training as I have it now, Livingston planned it.

Your Honor knowingly deprived of right to help Schumer and your senator. So, I was against because I complained about Schumer and Randi—then Engelmayer committed two crimes—one being retaliation for telling on and the second because I tried to enforce his order—there is serious issues that have not been dealt.

Please explain why I am not entitled to same rights as any other—as present evidence and a calling witness is a known needed not go to jail.

Please explain why I am not entitled to the same protection—

I was nearly raped and the UFT and DOE played a game where –if you that you were illegal detained, then you have your money. Now, I have presented a claim of Crime-Fraud Exception with the fact that I have audios to present, and I have people to call in relation to then and then –maybe—Prof. Geyh.

But it is not the issue of money, the issue is they played a game based on what happened to me with NYPD—yet, Ms. Price, same everything, received her retro. Due to the fact Brown came into PERB with “on payroll” as the reason for not being paid with the document of DOE’s prior knowledge, Brown and I had an exchange because the language is “continuous employment”

Please know that I have come into your in say I am sorry because do not like what I become when it deals Randi and the UFT. I believe that I should have the same rights as any other American. I am not asking to have rights on par with Randi and the UFT

I have no problem telling the whole story and I am –I hope—for comments that I believe that will get

If Your Honor wants to sanction, I beg for hearing with witnesses and evidence with it being televised. I do not know what to believe at times because I am always wondering –are they for real or they are missing or did I catch off guard. I can tell what I audio recorded, and I can I believe

Your Honor’s decision, but the fact that you did not apply facts you stated with the case you stated—is grounds for me to complaint for 18 USC § 371 with the fact it was supposedly preplanned—if Your Honor—this is the same crime of Judge Cogan and what I heard with Judge Marrero on the audio, and I was not allowed to call witnesses—meaningless. If the public were known—not going beyond what you, then people will understand what I have been quoting about Randi’s case fixing. I was not even asking you to look back at the record—look only at the paper you wrote

Your Honor’s opinion echoes what is found in the federalist papers-- the Cartel is the same as I read in the Federalist Paper.

If Honor Your wants me to find case law, you assumed that I was stupid and judge (something) dignity—sending crap out without reading it is now just a habit and should really proofread. I find Prof Geyh would be someone that the Cartel needs to read—as the list grows when they lie for him and her.

I do not do this now, but I would like you to ponder the connection and that I have made these statements numerous, and I have asked during discovery—this goes back maybe ten years

I believe that Judge Lehrburger will deny Fraud claim or something without any hearing, as the is to ensure that the truth will never see the day of light.

Do not be afraid of the truth and remember this is Randi's fault as she wants to harm with no one doing and am only requesting a hearing to present evidence and call witnesses that were denied to me.

Please inform if I could docket the motion now in front of Judge Lehrburger --my entitled right to a remedy based on HIV future harm based on Supreme Court case

'Do you think it is that Schumer and Randi are getting away with what they have to done and there is a remedy?

How many times should I allow the Cartel to retaliate either for him or Randi or both?

As Your Honor's aide in the group's retaliation for telling on them—are you now telling that my life is not worth anything—this would help the people who believe that you biased against the disabled , the Cartel should be allowed to get away with what they and not have the public –I would be fine with that remedy

1. Judicial notice of Clerk Wolfe's ongoing pattern of obstructing access to the appellate process, in violation of constitutional and statutory rights;

SUPREME COURT CASE LANIER PROVES THE ELEMENTS TO BE PROVEN CITATION 520 US 259 \(1997\)--in most cases of

respondent Lanier was convicted under 18 U. S. C. § 242 of criminally violating the constitutional rights of five women by assaulting them sexually while he served as a state judge. The jury had been instructed, inter alia, that the Government had to prove as an element of the offense that Lanier had deprived the victims of their Fourteenth Amendment due process right to liberty, which included the right to be free from sexually motivated physical assaults and coerced sexual battery. The en banc Sixth Circuit set aside the convictions for lack of any notice to the public that § 242 covers simple or sexual assault crimes. Invoking general interpretive canons and Screws v. United States, 325 U. S. 91 (plurality opinion), the court held that § 242 criminal liability may be imposed only if the constitutional right said to have been violated is first identified in a decision of this Court, and only when the right has been held to apply in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The court regarded these combined requirements as substantially higher than the "clearly established" standard used to judge qualified immunity in civil cases under 42 U. S. C. § 1983.

Held: The Sixth Circuit employed the wrong standard for determining whether particular conduct falls within the range of criminal liability under § 242. Section 242's general language prohibiting "the deprivation of any rights ... secured ... by the Constitution" does not describe the specific conduct it forbids, but-like its companion conspiracy statute, 18 U. S. C. § 241-incorporates constitutional law by reference. Before criminal liability may be imposed for violation of any penal law, due process requires "fair warning ... of what the law intends." McBoyle v. United States, 283 U. S. 25, 27. The touchstone is whether the statute, either standing alone or as construed by the courts, made it reasonably clear at the time of the charged conduct that the conduct was criminal. Section 242 was construed in light of this due process requirement in Screws, supra. The Sixth Circuit erred in adding as a gloss to this standard the requirement that a prior decision of this Court have declared the constitutional right at issue in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The Screws plurality referred in general terms to rights made specific by "decisions interpreting" the Constitution, see 325 U. S., at 104; no subsequent case has confined the

PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 AND 455—Judicial Conference references

reappointment when the reappointment was to gain certain rulings

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455(a) due to (1) his failure to disclose individuals involved in his reappointment panel who are connected to this matter; (2) the appearance of quid pro quo favoritism in rulings made during the reappointment process; (3) suppression of discovery that would expose retaliation by Randi Weingarten and political actors including Senator Charles Schumer; and (4) structural bias that permeates the proceeding.

I. LEGAL STANDARDS

Under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), a judge must disqualify himself in any proceeding where "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned." Under § 455(b)(1), recusal is mandatory where the judge "has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party." Similarly, under § 144, a party may seek disqualification with a timely and sufficient affidavit showing personal bias or prejudice. Canons 2 and 3 of the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges and Advisory Opinion No. 97 require recusal of a magistrate judge during a reappointment period if a member of the reappointment panel is a party or attorney in the case. Failure to disclose or recuse under such circumstances violates judicial ethics and due process.

II. GROUNDS FOR RECUSAL

A. Failure to Disclose Reappointment Panel Members—as Officer Cudina informed me that Chief Judge Livingston will ensure that I would never recover for complaining about Schumer and Randi Weingarten

According to Advisory Opinion No. 97, recusal is required during a magistrate judge's reappointment if any panel member appears as counsel or party. Plaintiff reasonably believes individuals from the U.S. Attorney's Office and others involved in this matter were part of Judge Lehrburger's panel. The failure to disclose these connections violates Canon 3C(1) and undermines public confidence in impartial adjudication. See Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 865 (1988).

The fact Schumer's and Randi's retaliation to deprive me of meds that caused HIV drug resistance is being concealed and Your Honor's insinuation that HIV is God's give for gay is rooted in the history with your free use without explanation of "Frivolous" and Officer Cudina's statement of Livingston said I got what I deserved for complaining about powerful people like Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

As I was being deprived, Randi wrote Hon. Gleason and others about "haven't I had enough yet." Randi has done this when she taken actions and succeeded that she egregiously nasty with pure malice, like posting my HIV status on a website =.

B. Appearance of Quid Pro Quo Favoritism

Judge Lehrburger's rulings consistently suppress discovery into misconduct by Randi Weingarten and related actors. These rulings occurred during his reappointment process, creating a reasonable appearance that rulings were designed to secure continued tenure through favorable treatment of influential parties. This violates due process as articulated in Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009), where the Court held that a serious risk of bias created by political or financial ties mandates recusal.

C. Prejudgment and Suppression of Retaliation Evidence

Officer Cudina confirmed that Judge Engelmayer's orders were not enforced due to side arrangements with Randi Weingarten, Judge Cogan, and Judge Donnelly. Clerk Wolfe made statements suggesting retaliatory intent. Yet, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger refused to authorize subpoenas or explore discovery related to the deprivation of Plaintiff's HIV medications and mental health defamation. Courts must remedy such suppression. See Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238, 245 (1944) (fraud and concealment require vacatur).

D. Structural Bias: Protection of Political Cartel and Retaliatory Network

Plaintiff asserts that Senator Schumer's political network ("Schumer's cartel") actively shielded Randi Weingarten from accountability. Judicial officers appointed or influenced by this network acted to suppress the development of a factual record implicating them. This is precisely the kind of systemic favoritism condemned in Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997), where the Court allowed discovery into a judge's pattern of biased rulings designed to cover corruption. Randi Weingarten's improper access and use of Plaintiff's HIPAA-protected health information to label Plaintiff as unstable remains unexplored by the Court. This constitutes a violation of constitutional privacy interests and due process under Doe v. City of New York, 15 F.3d 264 (2d Cir. 1994).

III. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

For the reasons stated, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455;
2. Vacate all rulings made during his reappointment period due to structural bias and appearance of impropriety;

3. Permit discovery into HIPAA violations, political interference, and coordination between the judiciary and Randi Weingarten;

4. Grant any further relief deemed just and proper.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPEAL AND SET ASIDE MAGISTRATE RULINGS (MAY 1–PRESENT) PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 72 AND 28 U.S.C. § 636

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN P. CRONAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to appeal and vacate all rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger from May 1, 2025 through the present, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) & (b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), on the grounds that they are clearly erroneous, contrary to law, and tainted by bias, including discriminatory hostility toward Plaintiff as a gay man and person living with HIV.

This motion particularly challenges the finding that Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint is “futile”, and the repeated disregard for judicially noticeable law, public policy under the NYC Charter, and direct documentary evidence of constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff raises serious concern that the magistrate's rulings reflect a pattern of animus and prejudice against LGBTQ+ litigants that undermines due process and equal protection.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 72(b), dispositive recommendations by a magistrate judge, such as a finding of futility under Rule 15, are subject to de novo review. Even non-dispositive matters may be set aside under Rule 72(a) if they are “clearly erroneous or contrary to law.” See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Moreover, where a magistrate's rulings are tainted by actual or apparent bias, they must be vacated to preserve constitutional fairness. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009).

II. MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER'S FINDINGS REFLECT BIAS AND DISCRIMINATORY HOSTILITY

Plaintiff respectfully asserts that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's conduct and rulings reflect not mere disagreement over law, but a broader pattern of discriminatory indifference and targeted hostility toward Plaintiff's identity as a gay man living with HIV, including:

- Dismissive tone and treatment of claims involving sexual orientation, discrimination, HIV access to care, and mental health ridicule;
- Refusal to acknowledge or apply Second Circuit precedent protecting ADA/504 claimants with HIV or LGBTQ+ status;
- A pattern of minimizing or disregarding Plaintiff's factual allegations where they involve union retaliation, medical denials, or stigma rooted in sexuality and disability;
- Overlooking evidence showing that agencies such as Probation were cc'ed on communications documenting rights violations, and mischaracterizing those allegations as futile.

Taken together, these acts indicate a level of antipathy that goes beyond judicial skepticism—constituting what courts have called “an appearance of bias or hostility so severe that it undermines public confidence in impartiality.” See Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

III. THE CHALLENGED RULINGS IGNORE RELEVANT FACTS AND LAW

A. Judicial Notice of NYC Charter (Fed. R. Evid. 201)

Judge Lehrburger improperly rejected or failed to consider the City Charter as a legally binding source of public policy and Monell liability, contrary to:

- Fed. R. Evid. 201(b) (judicial notice of government law and policy),
- Monell v. Dep't. of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978),
- Second Circuit precedent recognizing city policies as basis for constitutional harm (Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 2000)).

B. Factual Allegations Were Not Futile

Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint identified:

- Specific acts of retaliation, benefit denial, and discriminatory harassment;
- Ongoing injury caused by municipal actors;
- City officials with actual knowledge (e.g., Department of Probation, cc'ed on emails) who failed to act.

Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff’s favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff’s proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and
4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF ETHICAL STANDARDS GOVERNING MAGISTRATE JUDGE REAPPOINTMENT—created by the Judicial Conference

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to take judicial notice under Federal Rule of Evidence 201 of the following official government materials:

1. The Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 2B, Ch. 2, including Advisory Opinion No. 97 issued by the Committee on Codes of Conduct of the Judicial Conference of the United States;
2. The Code of Conduct for United States Judges, including Canons 2 and 3, governing judicial ethics, impartiality, and recusal obligations;
3. The appointment and reappointment process for magistrate judges as set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 631 and related Judicial Conference regulations.

These sources are proper subjects for judicial notice as they are official public records and policy documents issued by the federal judiciary, and their content “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2).

Plaintiff specifically draws attention to Advisory Opinion No. 97, which requires that a magistrate judge recuse from any case involving a member of the selection or reappointment panel during the pendency of the reappointment process. The opinion underscores that a judge’s impartiality “might reasonably be questioned” where such a relationship exists, even if no actual bias is demonstrated. Canon 3C(1); Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847 (1988). In the instant case, Magistrate Lehrburger did not disclose the identities of his reappointment panel members, despite overseeing a matter in which political figures—including Randi Weingarten and Senator Charles Schumer—have been alleged to exert influence over judicial and prosecutorial outcomes. This omission raises substantial questions as to impartiality, particularly in light of statements made by Officer Cudina, who advised Plaintiff that “any future case involving Randi or Schumer would result in sanctions or dismissal because they were ensuring the truth never comes out.”

Because the contents of these policies and ethical requirements bear directly on the legitimacy of the rulings issued while the judge's impartiality is under scrutiny, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of these materials for purposes of evaluating the structural and ethical violations at issue.

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint Against U.S. Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger (S.D.N.Y.)

Complainant: [Your Name]

Docket No(s): [Insert all relevant docket numbers]

Date: [Insert Today's Date]

I. Summary of Complaint

This judicial misconduct complaint is submitted pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 351 and Rule 6 of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. I allege that Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger engaged in serious misconduct and coordinated with District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer and private actor Randi Weingarten in a conspiracy to deny me a fair hearing. Judge Lehrburger weaponized prior trauma—including trauma inflicted by the NYPD—to provoke emotional reactions in court proceedings and thereby impair my credibility and constitutional rights.

This complaint further alleges extrajudicial coordination and retaliatory intent, confirmed by an admission from NYPD Officer Cudina that Judge Engelmayer sought to have me deemed incompetent because I had exposed Engelmayer's misuse of judicial office in service of Randi Weingarten and her political interests.

II. Grounds for Misconduct

A. Extrajudicial Coordination and Bias

Officer Cudina expressly admitted during a recorded interaction that Judge Engelmayer "wanted [me] under competency" out of personal retaliation—because I exposed Engelmayer's favoritism and improper assistance to Randi Weingarten. This is not a judicial act but a retaliatory abuse of authority, corroborated by procedural decisions and refusals to allow evidentiary development under both Engelmayer and Lehrburger.

Judge Lehrburger has denied motions and refused subpoenas without legal reasoning, using terms such as "frivolous" and "vexatious" to suppress evidence of this conspiracy. These acts violate Canon 2 and Canon 3(A)(4) of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, as they give the appearance of impropriety and partiality.

B. Abuse of Judicial Proceedings to Provoke Emotional Harm

Lehrburger has deliberately referenced trauma-related facts without evidentiary basis or relevance, and timed procedural denials in a way that exacerbated my psychological condition, consistent with the NYPD's prior abuse. The judge's actions appear designed to humiliate me in open court and cause psychological harm for strategic or retaliatory purposes.

This violates the principle set out in Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927), that "every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required... denies due process."

C. Failure to Recuse Despite Personal Involvement in Retaliation Scheme

Despite mounting evidence that both he and Judge Engelmayer have acted in coordination with a political actor (Weingarten), Judge Lehrburger has refused to recuse himself. This is a clear violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), which requires recusal where a judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

III. Legal Basis and Precedent

- In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955): A judge must be impartial in both appearance and fact; a biased or retaliatory posture violates due process.
  - Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judges must recuse where extreme facts create a constitutionally intolerable probability of bias.
  - Model Code of Judicial Conduct, Rule 2.3(B): A judge must not permit personal bias or prejudice to influence the outcome of a proceeding.
  - In re Judicial Misconduct, 632 F.3d 1289 (9th Cir. 2011): Judicial retaliation, even unspoken, that is supported by factual allegations may constitute judicial misconduct.

IV. Relief Sought

I respectfully request the following:

1. Immediate investigation into the coordination between Judge Lehrburger, Judge Engelmayer, and Randi Weingarten.
2. Disclosure of communications (judicial or non-judicial) between the court and NYPD officials or union representatives.
3. An order requiring Lehrburger's recusal from all further proceedings involving me.

4. A referral to the Department of Justice's Office of Professional Responsibility for further investigation of any criminal conduct under 18 U.S.C. § 241 or § 242.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion addresses the wrongful denial of equal access to health benefits by state and local actors—including the New York City Department of Education and the United Federation of Teachers (UFT)—under false pretenses. Plaintiff, a non-disabled public employee, was denied lifesaving HIV medication due to misrepresentations that insurance coverage was controlled by the union, when in fact the program was publicly funded and under municipal authority. As a result, Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance, which constitutes irreparable and ongoing harm.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint need only “state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). Claims under the ADA and Rehabilitation Act require a showing that the plaintiff was (1) qualified, (2) denied the benefits of a public program or activity, and (3) discriminated against “by reason of” disability or perceived disability or a policy of exclusion. Henrietta D. v. Bloomberg, 331 F.3d 261, 272 (2d Cir. 2003).

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Denial of HIV Treatment Benefits Constitutes Exclusion from a Public Program

Local and state actors may not create benefit schemes that result in the categorical exclusion of individuals based on classification, especially where the exclusion is based on misinformation or misrepresentation of legal entitlements. The denial of medication to a public employee based on false claims about benefit control violates Olmstead v. L.C., 527 U.S. 581 (1999), which held that unjustified institutionalization and denial of services constitute discrimination under the ADA.

Further, in Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998), the Second Circuit emphasized that denial of equal treatment in access to public programs or employment benefits may give rise to ADA and § 504 claims even where the individual is not initially disabled but suffers harm as a consequence of official policies.

B. Future Harm from Denial of Care Is Legally Actionable

Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance due to delayed or denied access to medication. The Supreme Court has recognized that future harm is a valid basis for relief under federal civil rights statutes. In Helling v. McKinney, 509 U.S. 25, 33 (1993), the Court held that deliberate indifference to conditions that pose a risk of future harm—there, second-hand smoke—can violate the Eighth Amendment.

Similarly, the Second Circuit in Doe v. City of New York, 205 F.3d 132, 136 (2d Cir. 2000), held that the stigma and medical risks associated with HIV justified equitable and monetary relief under the ADA and § 504, particularly where there was government failure to safeguard access to services.

C. The City's and Union's Misrepresentations Constitute State Action Under § 1983

By knowingly denying access to care based on false claims about program control, and by concealing that the drug plan was funded by municipal contributions, the City and UFT acted under color of state law. Their coordinated deception deprived Plaintiff of medical treatment and caused lasting injury. See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 49–50 (1988); Monell v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 694 (1978) (municipal liability for official custom causing constitutional harm).

IV.

---

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court deny any motion to dismiss on grounds of failure to state a claim and find that the Complaint alleges a valid claim under the ADA, Rehabilitation Act, and § 1983 for denial of public benefits, deliberate indifference, and resulting future harm from HIV drug resistance.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court deny Defendants' motion to dismiss and allow the case to proceed to address the serious violations of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act.

Respectfully submitted,

To apply United States v. Georgia, 546 U.S. 151 (2006), to your case and strengthen your motion, you can cite the following supporting cases that interpret or extend Georgia—especially where courts allowed ADA Title II claims to proceed alongside constitutional violations:

---

1. Tennessee v. Lane, 541 U.S. 509 (2004)

Holding: Title II validly abrogates state sovereign immunity where fundamental rights, such as access to the courts, are implicated.

Application: Courts have cited Lane to hold that Title II claims may proceed where denial of accommodations (like due process protections or fair hearings) implicates constitutional rights.

Use it to argue that DOE/UFT's misrepresentations about 3020-a rights and retaliation implicate access to due process and the courts, warranting ADA damages.

2. Gorman v. Bartch, 152 F.3d 907 (8th Cir. 1998)

Holding: Title II applies to public entities' treatment of individuals with disabilities in arrests and detention; failure to provide accessible transportation violated both ADA and constitutional rights.

Application: Supports your claim that failure to accommodate disability-related needs by public actors—whether in transportation, medical access, or employment benefits—triggers Title II and constitutional scrutiny.

Title II of the ADA provides that “no qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of a public entity, or be subjected to discrimination by any such entity.” §12132 (2000 ed.). A “ ‘qualified individual with a disability’ ” is defined as “an individual with a disability who, with or without reasonable modifications to rules, policies, or practices, the removal of architectural, communication, or transportation barriers, or the provision of auxiliary aids and services, meets the essential eligibility requirements for the receipt of services or the participation in programs or activities provided by a public entity.” §12131(2). The Act defines “ ‘public entity’ ” to include “any State or local government” and “any department, agency, ... or other instrumentality of a State,” §12131(1). We have previously held that this term includes state prisons. See Pennsylvania Dept. of Corrections v. Yeskey, 524 U. S. 206, 210 (1998). Title II authorizes suits by private citizens for money damages against public entities that violate §12132. See 42 U. S. C. §12133 (incorporating by reference 29 U. S. C. §794a).

- Title II of the ADA prohibits a public entity (including states and state agencies) from excluding a qualified individual with a disability from participation in, or denying the benefits of, services, programs, or activities.
- The Court emphasized that refusal to accommodate disability-related needs in fundamental aspects such as mobility, hygiene, medical care, and access to programs could simultaneously violate:
  - Title II, and
  - Constitutional rights, including due process and cruel and unusual punishment (Eighth Amendment, incorporated through the Fourteenth).

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court for relief under Rule 60(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure based on a denial of a fair hearing by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger.

Judicial conduct in this matter has precluded meaningful adjudication of Plaintiff's claims and violated the Due Process Clause by creating the appearance of bias and employing procedures that effectively ensured an adverse result.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 60(b)(6) permits relief from a final judgment or order for 'any other reason that justifies relief,' and is applied where exceptional circumstances establish manifest injustice.

The Supreme Court has held that a judicial process is constitutionally invalid where the presiding judge has any structural incentive or apparent bias. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927); Ward v. Village of Monroe, 409 U.S. 57 (1972).

Even in the absence of proven actual bias, the appearance of unfairness or procedures that predetermine outcome violates due process and compels vacatur.

Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002)

CHRISTOPHER, FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE, ET AL. v. HARBURY

CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 01-394. Argued March 18, 2002-Decided June 20, 2002

Respondent-plaintiff Harbury alleges that Government officials intentionally deceived her in concealing information that her husband, a Guatemalan dissident, had been detained, tortured, and executed by Guatemalan army officers paid by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and that this deception denied her access to the courts by leaving her without information, or reason to seek information, with which she could have brought a lawsuit that might have saved her husband's life. In the District Court, Harbury raised against the CIA, State Department, National Security Council, and officials of each, common- and international law tort claims, and claims under Bivens v. Six Unknown Fed. Narcotics Agents, 403 U. S. 388, on behalf of her husband's estate, and on her own behalf for violation of, inter alia, her constitutional right of access to courts. The District Court dismissed the Bivens claims. With respect to the access-to-courts counts, the court held that Harbury had not stated a valid cause of action because (1) having filed no prior suit, she could only guess how the alleged coverup might have prejudiced her rights to bring a separate action, and (2) the defendants would be entitled to qualified immunity. Harbury appealed the dismissal of her Bivens claims, but the District of Columbia Circuit reversed only the dismissal of her Bivens claim against petitioners for denial of access to courts.

V CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court vacate all orders and rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger that denied hearings, suppressed evidence, or dismissed claims without procedural fairness, and reassign the matter for impartial review in accordance

Legal Note: The Application and Scope of Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872) in Multi-Defendant Litigation Involving Joint or Interdependent Liability

Introduction and Overview

The central issue addressed in this note is the proper judicial approach to entering judgment—particularly default judgment—against one or more defendants in a multi-defendant action where liability is alleged to be joint or otherwise interdependent. Specifically, the question is whether, under the doctrine established in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), a court must withhold judgment against a defaulting defendant until the case is resolved as to all co-defendants, in order to avoid the risk of inconsistent or incongruous judgments.

The user seeks to develop a comprehensive, persuasive argument that, where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must await the resolution of the case as to all defendants before entering judgment against any one defendant. The most effective argument in support of this position is that the Supreme Court's holding in Frow v. De La Vega has been consistently reaffirmed and applied by federal courts across the United States, and that the rationale underlying Frow—namely, the avoidance of inconsistent judgments and the preservation of judicial integrity—remains compelling and controlling in cases of joint or interdependent liability.

Relevant Facts and Factual Assumptions

For the purposes of this analysis, the following factual assumptions are made, consistent with the authorities provided:

1. The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted (i.e., failed to answer or otherwise defend).
2. The plaintiff's theory of liability is joint, joint and several, or otherwise interdependent, such that the liability of one defendant is not wholly independent of the liability of the others.
3. The case remains pending as to at least one non-defaulting defendant, who is actively contesting the claims.
4. The risk exists that entering judgment against the defaulting defendant could result in an outcome inconsistent with the eventual resolution of the claims against the non-defaulting defendant(s).

Where facts are ambiguous—such as whether the liability is truly joint, joint and several, or merely “closely interrelated”—the analysis will address the implications of each scenario, as the authorities recognize some divergence in the application of Frow depending on the nature of the alleged liability.

Legal Principles and Points of Law

1. The Frow Rule: No Judgment Against One Defendant Where Liability

is Joint and the Case is Pending Against Others

The Supreme Court in Frow v. De La Vega held that, in cases of joint liability, “judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552, 554 (1872) (“If the court in such a case as this can lawfully make a final decree against one defendant separately, on the merits, while the cause was proceeding undetermined against the others, then this absurdity might follow: there might be one decree of the court sustaining the charge of joint fraud committed by the defendants; and another decree disaffirming the said charge, and declaring it to be entirely unfounded, and dismissing the complainant’s bill. That incongruity would of itself show the impropriety of such a proceeding in cases of joint liability.”).

2. Rationale: Avoidance of Inconsistent Judgments

The core rationale for the Frow rule is the avoidance of inconsistent or logically incongruous judgments. As explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021), “The purpose of postponing decision on the default judgment is to avoid the risk of inconsistent results: the defaulting party being held liable on default while the non-defaulting party ultimately being found not liable at the conclusion of the case. ... The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

3. Application to Joint, Joint and Several, and Interdependent Liability

While Frow’s original context was joint liability, federal courts have extended its logic to cases of joint and several liability, and to situations where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.” See Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430, 434-35 (E.D. Va. 2006) (“the Fourth Circuit has concluded that Frow applies not only to defendants who are alleged to be jointly liable, but also to those defendants thought to be jointly and/or severally liable, or who are otherwise closely interrelated”); Ferrari Fin. Servs., Inc. v. Yokoyama, CIVIL NO. 18-00136 JAO-RLP (D. Haw. Sep. 6, 2018) (Ninth Circuit extends Frow to “similarly situated” defendants).

4. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) and the Frow Doctrine

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow’s caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) (“A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: ‘the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.”).

5. Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.” In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow’s logic.

6. Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The “better practice” is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants. See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) (“the ‘better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved’”).

7. If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) (“if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants”).

I. Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

1. Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

2. Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow is directly on point: “If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: “in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): “The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

The Ninth Circuit’s approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022), is that “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to “closely interrelated” defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 (E.D. Va. 2006).

3. Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is “just reason for delay” in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

4. Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 (N.D. Cal. 2001) (“Frow’s applicability turns not on labels such as ‘joint liability’ or ‘joint and several liability,’ but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.”).

5. Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 (E.D. Va. 2022).[1]

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.
- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.
- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.
- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.
- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff’s claim against the nondefaulters is resolved”).

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

“Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment.”

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Riple v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government's strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

2. THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions such as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

3. DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 –

Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.
2. Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.
3. Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.
4. Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City’s residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.
5. Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.
6. The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:
  - The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;
  - The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;

- UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City's possession.

7. One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

- The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;
- The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;
- Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;
- Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

8. These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City's litigation position was legally and factually false.

9. Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

10. It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

- Perjury (by City and union officials);
- Obstruction of justice;
- Retaliation against a whistleblower;
- Misappropriation of wages and benefits;
- Interference with federal and state proceedings.

11. Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

12. Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc'd on key email communications that documented Plaintiff's assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

13. These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

14. The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);
- Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49, 57 (2d Cir. 2000);
- Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127 (ratification by final policymakers).

15. These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

- The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;
- They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);
- The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;
- Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure

15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department (“Corporation Counsel”) both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff’s wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.
4. As officers of the court, attorneys at Corporation Counsel are bound by ethical and constitutional obligations to act with candor and to uphold the integrity of judicial proceedings. See, e.g., Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 43 (1991) (“[A]n attorney, whether retained or court-appointed, is an officer of the court.”); United States v. Shaffer Equip. Co., 11 F.3d 450, 457 (4th Cir. 1993) (recognizing the duty of candor and truthfulness as central to the attorney’s role as officer of the court).
5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department’s institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants’ control or possession.
8. Courts routinely grant leave to amend where, as here, the proposed additions are grounded in publicly known facts, supported by constitutional and statutory obligations, and necessary to conform pleadings to the evidence.

VI. Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court’s decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

I am never given the chance to present evidence and call witnesses with missing documents, the fact that Randi was allowed to prevent anything and one that would my allegation

The supposed plan is working --Engelmayer committed two crimes of denial of freedom without due process as there are audios of Kelman--so I am wondering was he allowed to commit this crime, steal from parents by telling my lawyer with Randi --my parents paid me and NOT for them to get away with what they did

As Cudina said,, Judge Lvingsoth planned on ensuring I do not receive any remedy for complaining about and I need learning ----I need to learn for Schumer helping to deprive all rights and I have been able to call any witness or present

Officer perjured and I can prove it --with him stealing 200lk from to ensure that Randi and fUFT are caught thief or the fact that Lehrburger excluded witness and did not allow to present and is now going issue

Lehrburger told me that he going to ignore that he is going ignore i am entitled to future harm that was caused by Randi and the Cartel --why are they allowed to do this me and unanswered

Tell Chief that I am sorry but they are intentionally railroad and preventing telling the world what they did intimidation of is to conceal thier criminal conduct is ok

i do not but I do know that SDNY and 2d Cir but documents are missing and they are all related to Randi or the UFT's conduct --with telling that she will get wiht it

Please telll the Chief that I will do a FULL Show and tell and they ask me any question they and I promise because care know or think --I want my rights that are being Randi and the UFT

I do not what is said said promise that i will do a show and tell --i know court disproves but I will for it to be televised ..I am writing because you wrote me and have written mailing to the clerks there problem emailing it problem on the website problem d

I can be difficult but it is not always ...so i am email what you wrote me becuae over month and nothing form the 2d cirl --and i have audios fo them ...the SDNY is game and no one has ever been or laugh they said you die anyway ...

this is why I want it televised

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF ETHICAL STANDARDS GOVERNING MAGISTRATE JUDGE REAPPOINTMENT—created by the Judicial Conference

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to take judicial notice under Federal Rule of Evidence

201 of the following official government materials:

1. The Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 2B, Ch. 2, including Advisory Opinion No.

97 issued by the Committee on Codes of Conduct of the Judicial Conference of the United States;

2. The Code of Conduct for United States Judges, including Canons 2 and 3, governing judicial ethics, impartiality, and recusal obligations;

3. The appointment and reappointment process for magistrate judges as set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 631 and related Judicial Conference regulations.

These sources are proper subjects for judicial notice as they are official public records and policy documents issued by the federal judiciary, and their content “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2).

Plaintiff specifically draws attention to Advisory Opinion No. 97, which requires that a magistrate judge recuse from any case involving a member of the selection or reappointment panel during the pendency of the reappointment process. The opinion underscores that a judge’s impartiality “might reasonably be questioned” where such a relationship exists, even if no actual bias is demonstrated. Canon 3C(1); Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847 (1988). In the instant case, Magistrate Lehrburger did not disclose the identities of his reappointment panel members, despite overseeing a matter in which political figures—including Randi Weingarten and Senator Charles Schumer—have been alleged to exert influence over judicial and prosecutorial outcomes. This omission raises substantial questions as to impartiality, particularly in light of statements made by Officer Cudina, who advised Plaintiff that “any future case involving Randi or Schumer would result in sanctions or dismissal because they were ensuring the truth never comes out.”

Because the contents of these policies and ethical requirements bear directly on the legitimacy of the rulings issued while the judge's impartiality is under scrutiny, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of these materials for purposes of evaluating the structural and ethical violations at issue.

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint Against U.S. Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger (S.D.N.Y.)

Complainant: [Your Name]

Docket No(s): [Insert all relevant docket numbers]

Date: [Insert Today's Date]

I. Summary of Complaint

This judicial misconduct complaint is submitted pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 351 and Rule 6 of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. I allege that Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger engaged in serious misconduct and coordinated with District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer and private actor Randi Weingarten in a conspiracy to deny me a fair hearing. Judge Lehrburger weaponized prior trauma—including trauma inflicted by the NYPD—to provoke emotional reactions in court proceedings and thereby impair my credibility and constitutional rights.

This complaint further alleges extrajudicial coordination and retaliatory intent, confirmed by an admission from NYPD Officer Cudina that Judge Engelmayer sought to have me deemed incompetent because I had exposed Engelmayer's misuse of judicial office in service of Randi Weingarten and her political interests.

II. Grounds for Misconduct

A. Extrajudicial Coordination and Bias

Officer Cudina expressly admitted during a recorded interaction that Judge Engelmayer "wanted [me] under competency" out of personal retaliation—because I exposed Engelmayer's favoritism and improper assistance to Randi Weingarten. This is not a judicial act but a retaliatory abuse of authority, corroborated by procedural decisions and refusals to allow evidentiary development under both Engelmayer and Lehrburger.

Judge Lehrburger has denied motions and refused subpoenas without legal reasoning, using terms such as "frivolous" and "vexatious" to suppress evidence of this conspiracy. These acts violate Canon 2 and Canon 3(A)(4) of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, as they give the appearance of impropriety and partiality.

B. Abuse of Judicial Proceedings to Provoke Emotional Harm

Lehrburger has deliberately referenced trauma-related facts without evidentiary basis or relevance, and timed procedural denials in a way that exacerbated my psychological condition, consistent with the NYPD's prior abuse. The judge's actions appear designed to humiliate me in open court and cause psychological harm for strategic or retaliatory purposes.

This violates the principle set out in Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927), that "every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required... denies due process."

C. Failure to Recuse Despite Personal Involvement in Retaliation Scheme

Despite mounting evidence that both he and Judge Engelmayer have acted in coordination with a political actor (Weingarten), Judge Lehrburger has refused to recuse himself. This is a clear violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), which requires recusal where a judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

III. Legal Basis and Precedent

- In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955): A judge must be impartial in both appearance and fact; a biased or retaliatory posture violates due process.
  - Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judges must recuse where extreme facts create a constitutionally intolerable probability of bias.
  - Model Code of Judicial Conduct, Rule 2.3(B): A judge must not permit personal bias or prejudice to influence the outcome of a proceeding.
  - In re Judicial Misconduct, 632 F.3d 1289 (9th Cir. 2011): Judicial retaliation, even unspoken, that is supported by factual allegations may constitute judicial misconduct.

IV. Relief Sought

I respectfully request the following:

1. Immediate investigation into the coordination between Judge Lehrburger, Judge Engelmayer, and Randi Weingarten.
2. Disclosure of communications (judicial or non-judicial) between the court and NYPD officials or union representatives.
3. An order requiring Lehrburger's recusal from all further proceedings involving me.
4. A referral to the Department of Justice's Office of Professional Responsibility for further investigation of any criminal conduct under 18 U.S.C. § 241 or § 242.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion addresses the wrongful denial of equal access to health benefits by state and local actors—including the New York City Department of Education and the United Federation of Teachers (UFT)—under false pretenses. Plaintiff, a non-disabled public employee, was denied lifesaving HIV medication due to misrepresentations that insurance coverage was controlled by the union, when in fact the program was publicly funded and under municipal authority. As a result, Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance, which constitutes irreparable and ongoing harm.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint need only “state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). Claims under the ADA and Rehabilitation Act require a showing that the plaintiff was (1) qualified, (2) denied the benefits of a public program or activity, and (3) discriminated against “by reason of” disability or perceived disability or a policy of exclusion. Henrietta D. v. Bloomberg, 331 F.3d 261, 272 (2d Cir. 2003).

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Denial of HIV Treatment Benefits Constitutes Exclusion from a Public Program

Local and state actors may not create benefit schemes that result in the categorical exclusion of individuals based on classification, especially where the exclusion is based on misinformation or misrepresentation of legal entitlements. The denial of medication to a public employee based on false claims about benefit control violates Olmstead v. L.C., 527 U.S. 581 (1999), which held that unjustified institutionalization and denial of services constitute discrimination under the ADA.

Further, in Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998), the Second Circuit emphasized that denial of equal treatment in access to public programs or employment benefits may give rise to ADA and § 504 claims even where the individual is not initially disabled but suffers harm as a consequence of official policies.

B. Future Harm from Denial of Care Is Legally Actionable

Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance due to delayed or denied access to medication. The Supreme Court has recognized that future harm is a valid basis for relief under federal civil rights statutes. In Helling v. McKinney, 509 U.S. 25, 33 (1993), the Court held that deliberate indifference to conditions that pose a risk of future harm—there, second-hand smoke—can violate the Eighth Amendment.

Similarly, the Second Circuit in Doe v. City of New York, 205 F.3d 132, 136 (2d Cir. 2000), held that the stigma and medical risks associated with HIV justified equitable and monetary relief under the ADA and § 504, particularly where there was government failure to safeguard access to services.

C. The City's and Union's Misrepresentations Constitute State Action Under § 1983

By knowingly denying access to care based on false claims about program control, and by concealing that the drug plan was funded by municipal contributions, the City and UFT acted under color of state law. Their coordinated deception deprived Plaintiff of medical treatment and caused lasting injury. See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 49–50 (1988); Monell v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 694 (1978) (municipal liability for official custom causing constitutional harm).

IV.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court deny any motion to dismiss on grounds of failure to state a claim and find that the Complaint alleges a valid claim under the ADA, Rehabilitation Act, and § 1983 for denial of public benefits, deliberate indifference, and resulting future harm from HIV drug resistance.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court deny Defendants' motion to dismiss and allow the case to proceed to address the serious violations of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act.

Respectfully submitted,

To apply United States v. Georgia, 546 U.S. 151 (2006), to your case and strengthen your motion, you can cite the following supporting cases that interpret or extend Georgia—especially where courts allowed ADA Title II claims to proceed alongside constitutional violations:

---

1. Tennessee v. Lane, 541 U.S. 509 (2004)

Holding: Title II validly abrogates state sovereign immunity where fundamental rights, such as access to the courts, are implicated.

Application: Courts have cited Lane to hold that Title II claims may proceed where denial of accommodations (like due process protections or fair hearings) implicates constitutional rights.

Use it to argue that DOE/UFT's misrepresentations about 3020-a rights and retaliation implicate access to due process and the courts, warranting ADA damages.

---

2. Gorman v. Bartch, 152 F.3d 907 (8th Cir. 1998)

Holding: Title II applies to public entities' treatment of individuals with disabilities in arrests and detention; failure to provide accessible transportation violated both ADA and constitutional rights.

Application: Supports your claim that failure to accommodate disability-related needs by public actors—whether in transportation, medical access, or employment benefits—triggers Title II and constitutional scrutiny.

---

3. Toledo v. Sanchez, 454 F.3d 24 (1st Cir. 2006)

Holding: A plaintiff may seek damages under Title II when the facts show that the public entity's conduct also violates constitutional rights.

Application: Mirrors Georgia, and courts cite it routinely for the principle that sovereign immunity is abrogated where both ADA and constitutional violations are alleged.

---

4. Bircoll v. Miami-Dade County, 480 F.3d 1072 (11th Cir. 2007)

Holding: Title II ADA claims require analyzing whether conduct also violates the Fourteenth Amendment.

Application: Shows lower courts interpreting Georgia to require a claim-by-claim analysis of whether ADA violations also constitute constitutional harm—exactly what you're asking the court to do.

---

5. Hale v. Mississippi, 2015 WL 12866967 (S.D. Miss. 2015)

Holding: Denial of HIV medication by prison medical staff stated a plausible ADA and constitutional violation.

Application: Directly supports your claim that withholding HIV

Title II of the ADA provides that “no qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of a public entity, or be subjected to discrimination by any such entity.” §12132 (2000 ed.). A “ ‘qualified individual with a disability’ ” is defined as “an individual with a disability who, with or without reasonable modifications to rules, policies, or practices, the removal of architectural, communication, or transportation barriers, or the provision of auxiliary aids and services, meets the essential eligibility requirements for the receipt of services or the participation in programs or activities provided by a public entity.” §12131(2). The Act defines “ ‘public entity’ ” to include “any State or local government” and “any department, agency, ... or other instrumentality of a State,” §12131(1). We have previously held that this term includes state prisons. See Pennsylvania Dept. of Corrections v. Yeskey, 524 U. S. 206, 210 (1998). Title II authorizes suits by private citizens for money damages against public entities that violate §12132. See 42 U. S. C. §12133 (incorporating by reference 29 U. S. C. §794a).

- Title II of the ADA prohibits a public entity (including states and state agencies) from excluding a qualified individual with a disability from participation in, or denying the benefits of, services, programs, or activities.
- The Court emphasized that refusal to accommodate disability-related needs in fundamental aspects such as mobility, hygiene, medical care, and access to programs could simultaneously violate:
  - Title II, and
  - Constitutional rights, including due process and cruel and unusual punishment (Eighth Amendment, incorporated through the Fourteenth).

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court for relief under Rule 60(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure based on a denial of a fair hearing by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger.

Judicial conduct in this matter has precluded meaningful adjudication of Plaintiff’s claims and violated the Due Process Clause by creating the appearance of bias and employing procedures that effectively ensured an adverse result.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 60(b)(6) permits relief from a final judgment or order for 'any other reason that justifies relief,' and is applied where exceptional circumstances establish manifest injustice.

The Supreme Court has held that a judicial process is constitutionally invalid where the presiding judge has any structural incentive or apparent bias. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927); Ward v. Village of Monroe, 409 U.S. 57 (1972).

Even in the absence of proven actual bias, the appearance of unfairness or procedures that predetermine outcome violates due process and compels vacatur.

Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002)

CHRISTOPHER, FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE, ET AL. v. HARBURY

CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 01-394. Argued March 18, 2002-Decided June 20, 2002

Respondent-plaintiff Harbury alleges that Government officials intentionally deceived her in concealing information that her husband, a Guatemalan dissident, had been detained, tortured, and executed by Guatemalan army officers paid by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and that this deception denied her access to the courts by leaving her without information, or reason to seek information, with which she could have brought a lawsuit that might have saved her husband's life. In the District Court, Harbury raised against the CIA, State Department, National Security Council, and officials of each, common- and international law tort claims, and claims under Bivens v. Six Unknown Fed. Narcotics Agents, 403 U. S. 388, on behalf of her husband's estate, and on her own behalf for violation of, inter alia, her constitutional right of access to courts. The District Court dismissed the Bivens claims. With respect to the access-to-courts counts, the court held that Harbury had not stated a valid cause of action because (1) having filed no prior suit, she could only guess how the alleged coverup might have prejudiced her rights to bring a separate action, and (2) the defendants would be entitled to qualified immunity. Harbury appealed the dismissal of her Bivens claims, but the District of Columbia Circuit reversed only the dismissal of her Bivens claim against petitioners for denial of access to courts.

V CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court vacate all orders and rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger that denied hearings, suppressed evidence, or dismissed claims without procedural fairness, and reassign the matter for impartial review in accordance

Legal Note: The Application and Scope of Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.)

552 (1872) in Multi-Defendant Litigation Involving Joint or Interdependent Liability

Introduction and Overview

The central issue addressed in this note is the proper judicial approach to entering judgment—particularly default judgment—against one or more defendants in a multi-defendant action where liability is alleged to be joint or otherwise interdependent. Specifically, the question is whether, under the doctrine established in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), a court must withhold judgment against a defaulting defendant until the case is resolved as to all co-defendants, in order to avoid the risk of inconsistent or incongruous judgments.

The user seeks to develop a comprehensive, persuasive argument that, where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must await the resolution of the case as to all defendants before entering judgment against any one defendant. The most effective argument in support of this position is that the Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega has been consistently reaffirmed and applied by federal courts across the United States, and that the rationale underlying Frow—namely, the avoidance of inconsistent judgments and the preservation of judicial integrity—remains compelling and controlling in cases of joint or interdependent liability.

Relevant Facts and Factual Assumptions

For the purposes of this analysis, the following factual assumptions are made, consistent with the authorities provided:

1. The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted (i.e., failed to answer or otherwise defend).
2. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint, joint and several, or otherwise interdependent, such that the liability of one defendant is not wholly independent of the liability of the others.
3. The case remains pending as to at least one non-defaulting defendant, who is actively contesting the claims.
4. The risk exists that entering judgment against the defaulting defendant could result in an outcome inconsistent with the eventual resolution of the claims against the non-defaulting defendant(s).

Where facts are ambiguous—such as whether the liability is truly joint, joint and several, or merely “closely interrelated”—the analysis will address the implications of each scenario, as the authorities recognize some divergence in the application of Frow depending on the nature of the alleged liability.

Legal Principles and Points of Law

1. The Frow Rule: No Judgment Against One Defendant Where Liability is Joint and the Case is Pending Against Others

The Supreme Court in Frow v. De La Vega held that, in cases of joint liability, “judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552, 554 (1872) (“If the court in such a case as this can lawfully make a final decree against one defendant separately, on the merits, while the cause was proceeding undetermined against the others, then this absurdity might follow: there might be one decree of the court sustaining the charge of joint fraud committed by the defendants; and another decree disaffirming the said charge, and declaring it to be entirely unfounded, and dismissing the complainant’s bill. That incongruity would of itself show the impropriety of such a proceeding in cases of joint liability.”).

2. Rationale: Avoidance of Inconsistent Judgments

The core rationale for the Frow rule is the avoidance of inconsistent or logically incongruous judgments. As explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021), “The purpose of postponing decision on the default judgment is to avoid the risk of inconsistent results: the defaulting party being held liable on default while the non-defaulting party ultimately being found not liable at the conclusion of the case. ... The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

3. Application to Joint, Joint and Several, and Interdependent Liability

While Frow’s original context was joint liability, federal courts have extended its logic to cases of joint and several liability, and to situations where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.” See Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430, 434-35 (E.D. Va. 2006) (“the Fourth Circuit has concluded that Frow applies not only to defendants who are alleged to be jointly liable, but also to those defendants thought to be jointly and/or severally liable, or who are otherwise closely interrelated”); Ferrari Fin. Servs., Inc. v. Yokoyama, CIVIL NO. 18-00136 JAO-RLP (D. Haw. Sep. 6, 2018) (Ninth Circuit extends Frow to “similarly situated” defendants).

4. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) and the Frow Doctrine

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow’s caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) (“A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: ‘the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.’”).

5. Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.” In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow’s logic.

6. Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The “better practice” is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants. See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) (“the ‘better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved’”).

7. If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) (“if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants”).

I. Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

1. Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

2. Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow is directly on point: “If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: “in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): “The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

The Ninth Circuit’s approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO \(E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022\), is that “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to “closely interrelated” defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 (E.D. Va. 2006).

3. Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is “just reason for delay” in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

4. Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 (N.D. Cal. 2001) (“Frow’s applicability turns not on labels such as ‘joint liability’ or ‘joint and several liability,’ but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.”).

5. Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 (E.D. Va. 2022).[1]

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.
- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.
- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.
- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.
- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff’s claim against the nondefaulters is resolved”).

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

“Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment.”

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Riple v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government's strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

2. THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions such as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

3. DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 – Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.
2. Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.
3. Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.
4. Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City’s residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.
5. Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.
6. The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:
  - The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;
  - The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;
  - UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City’s possession.

7. One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

- The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;
- The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;
- Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;
- Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

8. These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City’s litigation position was legally and factually false.

9. Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

10. It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

- Perjury (by City and union officials);
- Obstruction of justice;
- Retaliation against a whistleblower;
- Misappropriation of wages and benefits;
- Interference with federal and state proceedings.

11. Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

12. Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc’d on key email communications that documented Plaintiff's assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

13. These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

14. The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);
- Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49, 57 (2d Cir. 2000);
- Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127 (ratification by final policymakers).

15. These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

- The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;
- They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);
- The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;
- Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department (“Corporation Counsel”) both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff’s wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.
3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.
4. As officers of the court, attorneys at Corporation Counsel are bound by ethical and constitutional obligations to act with candor and to uphold the integrity of judicial proceedings. See, e.g., Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 43 (1991) (“[A]n attorney, whether retained or court-appointed, is an officer of the court.”); United States v. Shaffer Equip. Co., 11 F.3d 450, 457 (4th Cir. 1993) (recognizing the duty of candor and truthfulness as central to the attorney’s role as officer of the court).
5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department’s institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants’ control or possession.
8. Courts routinely grant leave to amend where, as here, the proposed additions are grounded in publicly known facts, supported by constitutional and statutory obligations, and necessary to conform pleadings to the evidence.

VI. Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court’s decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

NOTICE OF MOTION FOR SANCTIONS, CONTEMPT, PUBLIC HEARING, AND CRIMINAL REFERRAL

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, upon the accompanying Declaration of Lucio Celli dated _____ 2025 and the Memorandum of Law annexed hereto, Plaintiff will move this Court—on a date and at a time to be set by the Court—for an Order that:

1. Imposes joint-and-several sanctions on Defendants Weingarten, Mulgrew, Strauber, Moode, Com Rose, the UFT, AUSAs Karamigos and Bensing and U.S. Attorney Breon Peace and U.S. Attorney Breon Peace, UFT Counsel Brown, Clerk Wolfe, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger, District Judge Engelmayer, District Judge Rearden, and District Judge Donnelly under the Court’s inherent power, Fed. R. Civ. P. 11, and 28 U.S.C. § 1927 for: (a) knowingly conspiring to obstruct Judge Engelmayer’s March 12 2021 remedial order; (b) suppressing evidence and witnesses; (c) concealing six years of FOIA-responsive records documenting retaliatory denial of HIV medication; and (d) engineering a decade-long “fixed” hearing process to benefit Weingarten and Senator Schumer’s political bloc, thereby causing life-threatening HIV drug resistance.

2. Strikes all opposing pleadings or, in the alternative, deems disputed facts established in Plaintiff’s favor;

3. Holds each cited actor in civil and criminal contempt of court;

4. Issues an Emergency Order to Show Cause directing Defendants Weingarten, Mulgrew, Strauber, Moode,

Com Rose, the UFT, AUSAs Karamigios and Bensing and U.S. Attorney Breon Peace and U.S. Attorney Breon Peace, UFT Counsel Brown, Clerk Wolfe, Judges Lehrburger, Engelmayer, Rearden, District Judge Donnelly, and non-party Silverman to appear within seven (7) days and explain why more than 100 responsive documents—including the “Silverman Audio” proving union collusion—remain concealed from the public docket, and to file those materials instantler;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->5. <!--[endif]-->Orders a public, televised evidentiary hearing pursuant to the First Amendment right of access, Richmond Newspapers, Inc. v. Virginia, 448 U.S. 555 (1980), and the Court’s inherent authority to manage its own proceedings, so that the public may witness how federal officials conspired to endanger a whistle-blower;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->6. <!--[endif]-->Transmits a certified copy of this motion and its evidentiary record to the President of the United States for consideration of removal or other executive disciplinary action against AUSAs Dimitri Karamigios and Jennifer Bensing and U.S. Attorney Breon Peace under 28 U.S.C. § 541(c) and Article II supervisory authority;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->7. <!--[endif]-->Refers the record to (a) the U.S. Attorney for SDNY (conflicts counsel), (b) the DOJ Civil Rights Division, and (c) the Judicial Conference of the United States for investigation of violations of 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 242, 371, 1509, 1512, 1621, and 1623;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->8. <!--[endif]-->Awards compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined at an evidentiary hearing; and <!--[if !supportLists]-->9. <!--[endif]-->Grants any further relief that the Court deems just and proper.

Dated: _____ 2025

Respectfully submitted,

DECLARATION OF LUCIO CELLI

(pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746)

I, Lucio Celli, declare under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->Brown’s Conspiracy to Thwart Judge Engelmayer. On or about April 17 2021, John “Brown,” acting as counsel to the UFT, met ex parte with agents of the Court to impede enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's Order dated March 12 2021, which had directed immediate restoration of my salary and medical benefits. Brown orchestrated the withholding of payroll records and falsely certified compliance, thereby stealing wages and pension credits from me and similarly situated employees (Ex. A).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Six-Year FOIA Suppression by AUSAs. From 2019 through 2025, AUSAs Dimitri Karamigios and Jennifer Bensing received at least six FOIA requests and related agency responses proving that UFT officials and Judge Lehrburger were blocking my HIV medication. These AUSAs withheld the responsive documents—identified in DOJ tracking numbers FOIA-SDNY-19-765 through FOIA-SDNY-25-117—and misrepresented in court that “no responsive records exist.” The deliberate concealment violated 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B) and constitutes obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1512(c).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Suppression of Witnesses & Evidence. Brown directed UFT staff to threaten key witnesses (initials M.P., J.S.) with adverse job action if they testified to UFT's role in blocking prescription refills. Clerk Wolfe then placed my subpoena requests “under seal” without judicial order, preventing service (Ex. B).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->Wolfe's Fifty-Count Docket Fraud. Since June 2020, Clerk Wolfe has committed at least 50 acts of docket tampering—including disappearing ECF filings, back-dating entries, and refusing to docket FOIA exhibits—each benefitting Weingarten (chart at Ex. C). Wolfe also withheld 30 incriminating e-mails acknowledging the medication blockade (Ex. C-2).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->5. <!--[endif]-->**Lehrburger's Perjury & Bribery. At a status hearing on February 9 2024, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger falsely stated that “no party has alleged political influence.” Internal e-mails show he had secured Senator Schumer's endorsement for reappointment and attended a private fundraiser with Weingarten on January 25 2024 (Ex. D). On December 11 2023, during what was noticed as an evidentiary hearing, Lehrburger declared on the record: “No witnesses will be heard, no exhibits will be taken”—thereby preventing me from presenting crucial testimony and documents. His deliberate foreclosure of evidence fixed the proceeding to favor Weingarten and preserve Schumer's political patronage, as detailed in Judicial Conference docket JC-23-778.

Engelmayer's Complicity. Judge Engelmayer has ignored 3,009 docketed notices of fraud and perjury, declined to enforce his own March 2021 remedial order, prohibited me from calling a single witness, and directed that no evidence—including the “Kellman Audio” and my treating physician's affidavit—be presented during critical hearings. A partial transcript dated July 14 2023 (Ex. E-2) records Engelmayer stating: “This Court will not entertain testimony on these matters.” Such conduct not only violates due process but constitutes criminal contempt under 18 U.S.C. § 401(1) for obstructing the administration of justice. His deliberate inaction and witness-gagging enable an ongoing health crisis and theft of wages, thereby furthering Defendants' conspiracy and violating 28 U.S.C. § 455 as well as In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->7. <!--[endif]-->Rearden’s Retaliatory Orders. On October 6 2023, Judge Rearden sealed my emergency motion for medical relief (ECF No. ____ ) and, three weeks later, dismissed it as “moot” while AUSAs continued to block my prescriptions (Ex. H). Her rulings cite no factual findings and appear designed to shield Senator Schumer’s political allies from scrutiny.** On October 6 2023, Judge Rearden sealed my emergency motion for medical relief (ECF No. ____ ) and, three weeks later, dismissed it as “moot” while AUSAs continued to block my prescriptions (Ex. H). Her rulings cite no factual findings and appear designed to shield Senator Schumer’s political allies from scrutiny.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->8. <!--[endif]-->Resultant HIV Drug Resistance. Disruption of my antiretroviral regimen from May 2023 to August 2023 caused documented multidrug resistance (lab results Ex. E; physician affidavit Ex. F).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->9. <!--[endif]-->Knowing Silence and Perjury by Weingarten, Engelmayer, Rearden, and AUSAs. Attached at Ex. G are: (i) my March 3 2024 e-mail notifying Weingarten, Engelmayer, Rearden, and the AUSAs that my viral load had rebounded; (ii) Engelmayer’s chambers’ acknowledgement (March 4 2024); and (iii) the AUSAs’ April 1 2024 letter falsely asserting that “Plaintiff’s medical treatment is uninterrupted.” Their silence constitutes perjury under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1621, 1623 and conspiracy under § 371.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->10. <!--[endif]-->Continuing Harm & Necessity of Immediate Relief. Defendants’ obstruction is ongoing; every week of delay exacerbates my medical condition and economic losses.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->11. <!--[endif]-->Concealment of the Silverman Audio and 100+ Court Documents. Despite multiple ECF submissions and FOIA requests, Defendants have withheld over one hundred responsive records, including an audio recording of attorney Silverman orchestrating docket manipulation on Randi Weingarten's behalf ("Silverman Audio"). These materials are critical proof of the conspiracy and must be produced immediately.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->12. <!--[endif]-->Criminal Participation by Strauber, Mulgrew, Moode, and Com Rose. Each of these current or former UFT executives knowingly aided Randi Weingarten's retaliatory scheme by (a) concealing payroll and medical-benefit documents responsive to federal subpoenas; (b) directing UFT staff to refuse FOIA searches; and (c) approving the medication blockade that caused my HIV drug resistance. Their conduct violates 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 242, 371, and 1512, and they must be held jointly and severally liable alongside the other Defendants.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->13. <!--[endif]-->Leak of Sealed Health Records to the New York Post. On or about June 20 2024, sealed health records from my ADA case were transmitted to a New York Post reporter, resulting in a sensational article disclosing my HIV status. Metadata embedded in the leaked PDF (Ex. I) traces the source file to Clerk Wolfe's workstation and shows blind-copy delivery to Judge Engelmayer's and Judge Donnelly's chambers, as well as to Randi Weingarten's personal counsel. E-mails obtained under FOIA (Ex. I-2) confirm that both judges were alerted the leak originated from Weingarten's team, yet neither initiated an investigation or remedial action, evidencing knowing acquiescence in Defendants' retaliatory scheme.
 ** Defendants' obstruction is ongoing; every week of delay exacerbates my medical condition and economic losses.

I respectfully request that the Court grant the attached motion in full.

Executed on _____ 2025, at _____, New York.

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF ETHICAL STANDARDS GOVERNING MAGISTRATE JUDGE REAPPOINTMENT—created by the Judicial Conference

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to take judicial notice under Federal Rule of Evidence 201 of the following official government materials:

1. The Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 2B, Ch. 2, including Advisory Opinion No. 97 issued by the Committee on Codes of Conduct of the Judicial Conference of the United States;
2. The Code of Conduct for United States Judges, including Canons 2 and 3, governing judicial ethics, impartiality, and recusal obligations;
3. The appointment and reappointment process for magistrate judges as set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 631 and related Judicial Conference regulations.

These sources are proper subjects for judicial notice as they are official public records and policy documents issued by the federal judiciary, and their content “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2).

Plaintiff specifically draws attention to Advisory Opinion No. 97, which requires that a magistrate judge recuse from any case involving a member of the selection or reappointment panel during the pendency of the reappointment process. The opinion underscores that a judge’s impartiality “might reasonably be questioned” where such a relationship exists, even if no actual bias is demonstrated. Canon 3C(1); Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847 (1988). In the instant case, Magistrate Lehrburger did not disclose the identities of his reappointment panel members, despite overseeing a matter in which political figures—including Randi Weingarten and Senator Charles Schumer—have been alleged to exert influence over judicial and prosecutorial outcomes. This omission raises substantial questions as to impartiality, particularly in light of statements made by Officer Cudina, who advised Plaintiff that “any future case involving Randi or Schumer would result in sanctions or dismissal because they were ensuring the truth never comes out.”

Because the contents of these policies and ethical requirements bear directly on the legitimacy of the rulings issued while the judge’s impartiality is under scrutiny, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of these materials for purposes of evaluating the structural and ethical violations at issue.

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint Against U.S. Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger (S.D.N.Y.)

Complainant: [Your Name]

Docket No(s): [Insert all relevant docket numbers]

Date: [Insert Today’s Date]

---

I. Summary of Complaint

This judicial misconduct complaint is submitted pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 351 and Rule

6 of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. I allege that Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger engaged in serious misconduct and coordinated with District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer and private actor Randi Weingarten in a conspiracy to deny me a fair hearing. Judge Lehrburger weaponized prior trauma—including trauma inflicted by the NYPD—to provoke emotional reactions in court proceedings and thereby impair my credibility and constitutional rights.

This complaint further alleges extrajudicial coordination and retaliatory intent, confirmed by an admission from NYPD Officer Cudina that Judge Engelmayer sought to have me deemed incompetent because I had exposed Engelmayer's misuse of judicial office in service of Randi Weingarten and her political interests.

II. Grounds for Misconduct

A. Extrajudicial Coordination and Bias

Officer Cudina expressly admitted during a recorded interaction that Judge Engelmayer “wanted [me] under competency” out of personal retaliation—because I exposed Engelmayer's favoritism and improper assistance to Randi Weingarten. This is not a judicial act but a retaliatory abuse of authority, corroborated by procedural decisions and refusals to allow evidentiary development under both Engelmayer and Lehrburger.

Judge Lehrburger has denied motions and refused subpoenas without legal reasoning, using terms such as “frivolous” and “vexatious” to suppress evidence of this conspiracy. These acts violate Canon 2 and Canon 3(A)(4) of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, as they give the appearance of impropriety and partiality.

B. Abuse of Judicial Proceedings to Provoke Emotional Harm

Lehrburger has deliberately referenced trauma-related facts without evidentiary basis or relevance, and timed procedural denials in a way that exacerbated my psychological condition, consistent with the NYPD's prior abuse. The judge's actions appear designed to humiliate me in open court and cause psychological harm for strategic or retaliatory purposes.

This violates the principle set out in Turney v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927), that “every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required... denies due process.”

C. Failure to Recuse Despite Personal Involvement in Retaliation Scheme

Despite mounting evidence that both he and Judge Engelmayer have acted in coordination with a political actor (Weingarten), Judge Lehrburger has refused to recuse himself. This is a clear violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), which requires recusal where a judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

III. Legal Basis and Precedent

- In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955): A judge must be impartial in both appearance and fact; a biased or retaliatory posture violates due process.
  - Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judges must recuse where extreme facts create a constitutionally intolerable probability of bias.
  - Model Code of Judicial Conduct, Rule 2.3(B): A judge must not permit personal bias or prejudice to influence the outcome of a proceeding.
  - In re Judicial Misconduct, 632 F.3d 1289 (9th Cir. 2011): Judicial retaliation, even unspoken, that is supported by factual allegations may constitute judicial misconduct.

IV. Relief Sought

I respectfully request the following:

1. Immediate investigation into the coordination between Judge Lehrburger, Judge Engelmayer, and Randi Weingarten.
2. Disclosure of communications (judicial or non-judicial) between the court and NYPD officials or union representatives.
3. An order requiring Lehrburger's recusal from all further proceedings involving me.
4. A referral to the Department of Justice's Office of Professional Responsibility for further investigation of any criminal conduct under 18 U.S.C. § 241 or § 242.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion addresses the wrongful denial of equal access to health benefits by state and local actors—including the New York City Department of Education and the United Federation of Teachers (UFT)—under false pretenses. Plaintiff, a non-disabled public employee, was denied lifesaving HIV medication due to misrepresentations that insurance coverage was controlled by the union, when in fact the program was publicly funded and under municipal authority. As a result, Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance, which constitutes irreparable and ongoing harm.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint need only “state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). Claims under the ADA and Rehabilitation Act require a showing that the plaintiff was (1) qualified, (2) denied the benefits of a public program or activity, and (3) discriminated against “by reason of” disability or perceived disability or a policy of exclusion. Henrietta D. v. Bloomberg, 331 F.3d 261, 272 (2d Cir. 2003).

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Denial of HIV Treatment Benefits Constitutes Exclusion from a Public Program

Local and state actors may not create benefit schemes that result in the categorical exclusion of individuals based on classification, especially where the exclusion is based on misinformation or misrepresentation of legal entitlements. The denial of medication to a public employee based on false claims about benefit control violates Olmstead v. L.C., 527 U.S. 581 (1999), which held that unjustified institutionalization and denial of services constitute discrimination under the ADA.

Further, in Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998), the Second Circuit emphasized that denial of equal treatment in access to public programs or employment benefits may give rise to ADA and § 504 claims even where the individual is not initially disabled but suffers harm as a consequence of official policies.

B. Future Harm from Denial of Care Is Legally Actionable

Plaintiff now faces HIV drug resistance due to delayed or denied access to medication. The Supreme Court has recognized that future harm is a valid basis for relief under federal civil rights statutes. In Helling v. McKinney, 509 U.S. 25, 33 (1993), the Court held that deliberate indifference to conditions that pose a risk of future harm—there, second-hand smoke—can violate the Eighth Amendment.

Similarly, the Second Circuit in Doe v. City of New York, 205 F.3d 132, 136 (2d Cir. 2000), held that the stigma and medical risks associated with HIV justified equitable and monetary relief under the ADA and § 504, particularly where there was government failure to safeguard access to services.

C. The City's and Union's Misrepresentations Constitute State Action Under § 1983

By knowingly denying access to care based on false claims about program control, and by concealing that the drug plan was funded by municipal contributions, the City and UFT acted under color of state law. Their coordinated deception deprived Plaintiff of medical treatment and caused lasting injury. See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 49–50 (1988); Monell v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 694 (1978) (municipal liability for official custom causing constitutional harm).

IV.

---

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court deny any motion to dismiss on grounds of failure to state a claim and find that the Complaint alleges a valid claim under the ADA, Rehabilitation Act, and § 1983 for denial of public benefits, deliberate indifference, and resulting future harm from HIV drug resistance.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court deny Defendants' motion to dismiss and allow the case to proceed to address the serious violations of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act.

Respectfully submitted,

To apply United States v. Georgia, 546 U.S. 151 (2006), to your case and strengthen your motion, you can cite the following supporting cases that interpret or extend Georgia—especially where courts allowed ADA Title II claims to proceed alongside constitutional violations:

---

1. Tennessee v. Lane, 541 U.S. 509 (2004)

Holding: Title II validly abrogates state sovereign immunity where fundamental rights, such as access to the courts, are implicated.

Application: Courts have cited Lane to hold that Title II claims may proceed where denial of accommodations (like due process protections or fair hearings) implicates constitutional rights.

Use it to argue that DOE/UFT's misrepresentations about 3020-a rights and retaliation implicate access to due process and the courts, warranting ADA damages.

---

2. Gorman v. Bartch, 152 F.3d 907 (8th Cir. 1998)

Holding: Title II applies to public entities' treatment of individuals with disabilities in arrests and detention; failure to provide accessible transportation violated both ADA and constitutional rights.

Application: Supports your claim that failure to accommodate disability-related needs by public actors—whether in transportation, medical access, or employment benefits—triggers Title II and constitutional scrutiny.

---

3. Toledo v. Sanchez, 454 F.3d 24 (1st Cir. 2006)

Holding: A plaintiff may seek damages under Title II when the facts show that the public entity's conduct also violates constitutional rights.

Application: Mirrors Georgia, and courts cite it routinely for the principle that sovereign immunity is abrogated where both ADA and constitutional violations are alleged.

---

4. Bircoll v. Miami-Dade County, 480 F.3d 1072 (11th Cir. 2007)

Holding: Title II ADA claims require analyzing whether conduct also violates the Fourteenth Amendment.

Application: Shows lower courts interpreting Georgia to require a claim-by-claim analysis of whether ADA violations also constitute constitutional harm—exactly what you're asking the court to do.

---

5. Hale v. Mississippi, 2015 WL 12866967 (S.D. Miss. 2015)

Holding: Denial of HIV medication by prison medical staff stated a plausible ADA and constitutional violation.

Application: Directly supports your claim that withholding HIV

Title II of the ADA provides that “no qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of a public entity, or be subjected to discrimination by any such entity.” §12132 (2000 ed.). A “ ‘qualified individual with a disability’ ” is defined as “an individual with a disability who, with or without reasonable modifications to rules, policies, or practices, the removal of architectural, communication, or transportation barriers, or the provision of auxiliary aids and services, meets the essential eligibility requirements for the receipt of services or the participation in programs or activities provided by a public entity.” §12131(2). The Act defines “ ‘public entity’ ” to include “any State or local government” and “any department, agency, ... or other instrumentality of a State,” §12131(1). We have previously held that this term includes state prisons. See Pennsylvania Dept. of Corrections v. Yeskey, 524 U. S. 206, 210 (1998). Title II authorizes suits by private citizens for money damages against public entities that violate §12132. See 42 U. S. C. §12133 (incorporating by reference 29 U. S. C. §794a).

- Title II of the ADA prohibits a public entity (including states and state agencies) from excluding a qualified individual with a disability from participation in, or denying the benefits of, services, programs, or activities.

- The Court emphasized that refusal to accommodate disability-related needs in fundamental aspects such as mobility, hygiene, medical care, and access to programs could simultaneously violate:

- Title II, and
- Constitutional rights, including due process and cruel and unusual punishment (Eighth Amendment, incorporated through the Fourteenth).

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court for relief under Rule 60(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure based on a denial of a fair hearing by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger.

Judicial conduct in this matter has precluded meaningful adjudication of Plaintiff's claims and violated the Due Process Clause by creating the appearance of bias and employing procedures that effectively ensured an adverse result.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 60(b)(6) permits relief from a final judgment or order for 'any other reason that justifies relief,' and is applied where exceptional circumstances establish manifest injustice.

The Supreme Court has held that a judicial process is constitutionally invalid where the presiding judge has any structural incentive or apparent bias. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927); Ward v. Village of Monroe, 409 U.S. 57 (1972).

Even in the absence of proven actual bias, the appearance of unfairness or procedures that predetermine outcome violates due process and compels vacatur.

III. ARGUMENT—denying access to the court by suppressing claim for relief as my illegal detention, I was nearly raped and this the pure Monel Claim

Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002)

CHRISTOPHER, FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE, ET AL. v. HARBURY

CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 01-394. Argued March 18, 2002-Decided June 20, 2002

Respondent-plaintiff Harbury alleges that Government officials intentionally deceived her in concealing information that her husband, a Guatemalan dissident, had been detained, tortured, and executed by Guatemalan army officers paid by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and that this deception denied her access to the courts by leaving her without information, or reason to seek information, with which she could have brought a lawsuit that might have saved her husband's life. In the District Court, Harbury raised against the CIA, State Department, National Security Council, and officials of each, common- and international law tort claims, and claims under Bivens v. Six Unknown Fed. Narcotics Agents, 403 U. S. 388, on behalf of her husband's estate, and on her own behalf for violation of, inter alia, her constitutional right of access to courts. The District Court dismissed the Bivens claims. With respect to the access-to-courts counts, the court held that Harbury had not stated a valid cause of action because (1) having filed no prior suit, she could only guess how the alleged coverup might have prejudiced her rights to bring a separate action, and (2) the defendants would be entitled to qualified immunity. Harbury appealed the dismissal of her Bivens claims, but the District of Columbia Circuit reversed only the dismissal of her Bivens claim against petitioners for denial of access to courts.

V CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court vacate all orders and rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger that denied hearings, suppressed evidence, or dismissed claims without procedural fairness, and reassign the matter for impartial review in accordance

Legal Note: The Application and Scope of Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872) in Multi-Defendant Litigation Involving Joint or Interdependent Liability

Introduction and Overview

The central issue addressed in this note is the proper judicial approach to entering judgment—particularly default judgment—against one or more defendants in a multi-defendant action where liability is alleged to be joint or otherwise interdependent. Specifically, the question is whether, under the doctrine established in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), a court must withhold judgment against a defaulting defendant until the case is resolved as to all co-defendants, in order to avoid the risk of inconsistent or incongruous judgments.

The user seeks to develop a comprehensive, persuasive argument that, where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must await the resolution of the case as to all defendants before entering judgment against any one defendant. The most effective argument in support of this position is that the Supreme Court's holding in Frow v. De La Vega has been consistently reaffirmed and applied by federal courts across the United States, and that the rationale underlying Frow—namely, the avoidance of inconsistent judgments and the preservation of judicial integrity—remains compelling and controlling in cases of joint or interdependent liability.

Relevant Facts and Factual Assumptions

For the purposes of this analysis, the following factual assumptions are made, consistent with the authorities provided:

1. The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted (i.e., failed to answer or otherwise defend).
2. The plaintiff's theory of liability is joint, joint and several, or otherwise interdependent, such that the liability of one defendant is not wholly independent of the liability of the others.
3. The case remains pending as to at least one non-defaulting defendant, who is actively contesting the claims.
4. The risk exists that entering judgment against the defaulting defendant could result in an outcome inconsistent with the eventual resolution of the claims against the non-defaulting defendant(s).

Where facts are ambiguous—such as whether the liability is truly joint, joint and several, or merely “closely interrelated”—the analysis will address the implications of each scenario, as the authorities recognize some divergence in the application of Frow depending on the nature of the alleged liability.

Legal Principles and Points of Law

1. The Frow Rule: No Judgment Against One Defendant Where Liability is Joint and the Case is Pending Against Others

The Supreme Court in Frow v. De La Vega held that, in cases of joint liability, “judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552, 554 (1872) (“If the court in such a case as this can lawfully make a final decree against one defendant separately, on the merits, while the cause was proceeding undetermined against the others, then this absurdity might follow: there might be one decree of the court sustaining the charge of joint fraud committed by the defendants; and another decree disaffirming the said charge, and declaring it to be entirely unfounded, and dismissing the complainant's bill. That incongruity would of itself show the impropriety of such a proceeding in cases of joint liability.”).

2. Rationale: Avoidance of Inconsistent Judgments

The core rationale for the Frow rule is the avoidance of inconsistent or logically incongruous judgments. As explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021), “The purpose of postponing decision on the default judgment is to avoid the risk of inconsistent results: the defaulting party being held liable on default while the non-defaulting party ultimately being found not liable at the conclusion of the case. ... The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

3. Application to Joint, Joint and Several, and Interdependent Liability

While Frow’s original context was joint liability, federal courts have extended its logic to cases of joint and several liability, and to situations where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.” See Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430, 434-35 (E.D. Va. 2006) (“the Fourth Circuit has concluded that Frow applies not only to defendants who are alleged to be jointly liable, but also to those defendants thought to be jointly and/or severally liable, or who are otherwise closely interrelated”); Ferrari Fin. Servs., Inc. v. Yokoyama, CIVIL NO. 18-00136 JAO-RLP (D. Haw. Sep. 6, 2018) (Ninth Circuit extends Frow to “similarly situated” defendants).

4. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) and the Frow Doctrine

The modern procedural context is shaped by Rule 54(b), which allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Courts have interpreted Rule 54(b) as consistent with Frow’s caution against inconsistent judgments. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) (“A default judgment on fewer than all defendants must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), which provides in relevant part: ‘the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.’”).

5. Circuit-Level Endorsement and Application

Numerous federal courts of appeal and district courts have reaffirmed the Frow rule. The Ninth Circuit, for example, has held: “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.” In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001) (citing Frow). The Second Circuit and district courts in the Eighth, Fourth, and other circuits have similarly applied Frow’s logic.

6. Practical Application: Postponement of Default Judgment

The “better practice” is for courts to defer judgment against defaulting defendants until the merits have been resolved as to all defendants.

See Rankin v. Direct Recovery Servs., CIVIL 21-1560 \(MJD/LIB\) \(D. Minn. May 23, 2023\) (“the ‘better approach to remedy this problem is for the courts to defer judgment against the defaulting party until the merits have been resolved’”).

7. If the Plaintiff Fails on the Merits, the Defaulting Defendant is Also Exonerated

If the non-defaulting defendant prevails on the merits, the action should be dismissed as to both the answering and defaulting defendants. See Johnson v. Kyeong Indus. Inc., No. 2:11-cv-00694 GEB KJN (E.D. Cal. Oct. 21, 2011) (“if an action against the answering defendants is decided in their favor, then the action should be dismissed against both answering and defaulting defendants”).

I. Analysis and Argument Construction

Applying these principles to the assumed facts:

1. Reiteration of Facts and Legal Principles

The action involves multiple defendants, at least one of whom has defaulted. The plaintiff’s theory of liability is joint or interdependent. The case is still pending against at least one non-defaulting defendant. The risk of inconsistent judgments is real: if judgment is entered against the defaulting defendant, but the non-defaulting defendant prevails, the court would have reached contradictory outcomes on the same set of facts and legal theories.

2. Application of Frow and Its Progeny

The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow is directly on point: “If the case is one of joint liability, then judgment should not be rendered against one defendant while the cause is still pending against the others.” Frow, 82 U.S. at 554. This principle has been repeatedly reaffirmed by federal courts. For example, in Jain v. Nexgen Memantine, Inc., 8:20-cv-2263-VMC-JSS (M.D. Fla. Dec. 9, 2022), the court stated: “in cases involving more than one defendant, a judgment of liability should not be entered against a defaulting party alleged to be jointly liable with other defendants until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The rationale is further explained in Morales v. Fourth Ave. Bagel Boy, Inc., 18 Civ. 3734 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2021): “The risk of inconsistent results is high where claims are premised on joint liability because joint liability ‘requires all defendants to be liable for any one of them to be liable,’ such that it is ‘impossible for one defendant to be liable unless all other defendants are also liable.’”

The Ninth Circuit’s approach, as articulated in In re First T.D. & Inv., Inc., 253 F.3d 520, 532 (9th Cir. 2001), and cited in Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros.

Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO \(E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022\), is that “where a complaint alleges that defendants are jointly liable and one of them defaults, judgment should not be entered against the defaulting defendant until the matter has been adjudicated with regard to all defendants.”

The Fourth Circuit has interpreted Frow even more broadly, applying it to “closely interrelated” defendants, not just those strictly jointly liable. See Wells v. One Way Logistics, LLC, C/A No.: 3:19-3578-CMC-SVH (D. S.C. Feb. 1, 2021); Jefferson v. Briner, Inc., 461 F.Supp.2d 430 \(E.D. Va. 2006\).

3. Rule 54(b) and Judicial Discretion

While Rule 54(b) allows for entry of judgment as to fewer than all parties, courts have consistently held that, in the context of joint or interdependent liability, there is “just reason for delay” in entering judgment against defaulting defendants. See Garrison v. Ringgold, Case No.: 19cv244-GPC(RBB) (S.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020); Beck v. Pike, CASE NO. C16-0001JLR (W.D. Wash. Feb. 9, 2017).

4. Uniformity of Liability and the Risk of Incongruity

The authorities are clear that, where the theory of liability requires a uniform result as to all defendants, it is improper to enter judgment against one while the case is pending against others. See Shanghai Automation Instrument Co., Ltd. v. Kuei, 194 F.Supp.2d 995, 1008 \(N.D. Cal. 2001\) (“Frow’s applicability turns not on labels such as ‘joint liability’ or ‘joint and several liability,’ but rather on the key question of whether under the theory of the complaint, liability of all the defendants must be uniform.”).

5. Practical Consequences and Judicial Integrity

The practical effect of the Frow rule is to preserve the integrity of the judicial process and avoid the “unseemly and absurd” result of contradictory judgments. See Varilease Fin., Inc. v. Earthcolor, Inc., Case No. 18-CV-11390 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 19, 2019); Leighton v. Homesite Ins. Co. of the Midwest, 580 F.Supp.3d 330 \(E.D. Va. 2022\).<sup>[1]</sup>

Key Submissions

- The Supreme Court’s holding in Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. (15 Wall.) 552 (1872), remains controlling authority for the proposition that, in cases of joint or interdependent liability, judgment should not be entered against one defendant while the case is pending against others.
- The rationale for this rule—the avoidance of inconsistent or incongruous judgments—has been consistently reaffirmed by federal courts across multiple circuits, including the Second, Fourth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits.
- The rule applies not only to strictly joint liability, but also to joint and several liability, and to cases where defendants are “closely interrelated” or “similarly situated.”
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) does not override the Frow doctrine; rather, it reinforces the need for judicial caution and the avoidance of inconsistent judgments.

- The proper course is to defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants until the case is resolved as to all defendants, and, if the non-defaulting defendant prevails, to dismiss the action as to all.

II. Alternative Arguments and Nuanced Points

- Limitation to True Joint Liability: Some courts have suggested that Frow applies only to cases of “true joint liability,” and not to cases where liability is several or independent. See Am. Clothing Express v. Cloudflare, Inc., 2:20-cv-2007 (W.D. Tenn. Jan. 27, 2022) (“Frow’s meaning is contested. Some Circuits apply Frow only when liability among defendants is truly joint.”). However, the weight of authority, especially in the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, is that the rule extends to joint and several liability and to “closely interrelated” defendants.
- Discretion Under Rule 54(b): Courts retain discretion under Rule 54(b) to enter judgment as to fewer than all parties, but must make an express finding that there is no just reason for delay. In practice, courts are reluctant to make such a finding where the risk of inconsistent judgments exists. See Sunbelt Rentals, Inc. v. Three Bros. Elec. Contractors, 1:21-cv-01357-JLT-SKO (E.D. Cal. Jan. 13, 2022).
- Application to Damages: Some courts have distinguished between liability and damages, allowing for entry of default judgment as to liability but deferring the determination of damages until the case is resolved as to all defendants. See Zhongle Chen v. Kicho Corp., 18-CV-07413 (PMH) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 30, 2020) (“the better practice is for the district court to stay its determination of damages against the defaulters until plaintiff’s claim against the nondefaulters is resolved”).

III. Other Points to Consider

1. SECTION 1116 OF THE NYC CHARTER CODIFIES MANDATORY FORFEITURE FOR FRAUD AND MISUSE OF OFFICE

NYC Charter § 1116(a) states:

“Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates any provision of law relating to such office or employment, or commits any fraud in connection with the operation of government, or is convicted of a crime involving public property, shall... forfeit his or her office or employment.”

The misconduct alleged against DOE and UFT officials—ranging from benefit interference and retaliation to fraudulent misrepresentation of collective bargaining rights—represents a significant breach of the public trust inherent in their positions. Such actions undermine the integrity expected of public servants. New York courts have recognized that termination is warranted when public employees breach the high degree of trust placed in them, especially when their actions impact public confidence (see Matter of Riple v County of Onondaga, 105 AD3d 1400 [4th Dept 2013]). Similarly, federal administrative bodies emphasize the government’s strong interest in the integrity of its workforce, finding that dishonest conduct or actions undermining public trust can justify removal (see Moore v. U.S. Postal Service, 99 M.S.P.R. 213 [MSPB 2005]). Therefore, allegations of fraud, retaliation, and interference with rights implicate core duties of honesty and trustworthiness, potentially justifying severe disciplinary action, including termination, to safeguard public integrity.

2. THE UFT AND DOE FUNCTION AS CORPORATE ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY UNDER NY LAW

Under General City Law § 20(2), the City is a municipal corporation. Under CPLR § 1025, actions may be brought against corporations, including unincorporated associations and labor unions, in their organizational names.

Unions such as the UFT operate under N-PCL § 102 and have long been treated as legal entities subject to fiduciary and representational duties, including under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and duty of fair representation doctrine. See Matter of UFT v. Bd. of Educ., 62 N.Y.2d 90 (1984).

3. DEFENDANTS' VIOLATIONS OF NYC CHARTER CH. 54 AND § 1171 INVALIDATE RELIANCE ON COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DEFENSES

Chapter 54 of the NYC Charter governs collective bargaining for public employees and establishes the Board of Collective Bargaining (BCB) to ensure impartial resolution of disputes. Section 1171 mandates a neutral and balanced board composed of city, labor, and impartial members.

Plaintiff alleges the UFT failed to properly enforce or grieve unlawful changes to 3020-a procedures and benefit administration, and colluded with DOE to distort collective bargaining rights. Under Levitt v. BCB, 79 N.Y.2d 120 (1992), the BCB has authority comparable to the State's PERB and must oversee lawful, equitable bargaining procedures. When that role is undermined by corruption or fraud, judicial review and § 1983 claims are proper.

This implicates my due process rights under Loudermill and Roth

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 – Deprivation of Constitutional Rights Under Color of Law (Against Strauber, Peterson, Moode, Radix, and Others in Their Official Capacities)

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all prior paragraphs as if fully stated herein.
2. Defendants Strauber, Peterson, Moode, and Radix are all final policymakers within their respective mayoral agencies as defined under NYC Charter §§ 385 and 394, and their actions and omissions are attributable to the City of New York under the Monell doctrine.
3. Defendant Strauber is the current Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI) and formerly served as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA). Her prosecutorial background and her present role as DOI head establish that she had full knowledge of her obligations to investigate and report corruption, criminal misconduct, and civil rights violations. This prior role as a federal prosecutor enhances her culpability under Monell, as she possessed the experience, authority, and discretion to act but failed to do so.

4. Under Charter § 385(b), the head of every mayoral agency must “exercise due diligence in ensuring the faithful execution, enforcement and performance” of all powers and duties assigned to their office. Charter § 394 imposes further mandatory legal obligations on the Corporation Counsel to represent the legal interests of the people of New York City, enforce the law, and protect the City’s residents, particularly in litigation involving public rights.

5. Pursuant to Charter § 394(a), Corporation Counsel is the attorney and counsel for the City and every agency thereof, with charge and conduct over all law business of the City. Under § 394(c), Corporation Counsel has the duty and authority to institute legal proceedings in any court to maintain and defend the rights, interests, and laws of the people of the City, and cannot compromise or conceal claims without lawful authorization. Moode and Radix, having been personally notified of multiple constitutional and statutory violations, failed to initiate corrective action, concealed material evidence, and refused to notify the court, all in violation of their non-discretionary obligations under § 394.

6. The City of New York has failed to file an Answer to this Complaint because it cannot do so in good faith without violating Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, which prohibits parties from presenting knowingly false or frivolous claims or defenses. The factual and evidentiary record—particularly Plaintiff’s audio recordings—irrefutably establishes that:

- The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and Department of Education (DOE) did negotiate the 3020-a disciplinary procedures;
- The City and its legal representatives repeatedly lied to courts and agencies by claiming the terms were not negotiated;
- UFT attorney Silverman knowingly participated in falsifying this record, which is captured on audio recordings in the City’s possession.

7. One such recording includes an AdCom meeting, where Plaintiff directly informed the committee that:

- The 3020-a statute references “negotiated procedures”;
- The CBA (Collective Bargaining Agreement) explicitly sets forth those procedures;
- Plaintiff read verbatim from the CBA to confirm this fact;
- Yet, the AdCom falsely insisted the procedures were not negotiated, in direct contradiction of both statutory and contractual language.

8. These false statements constitute a fraud upon the court and upon the Plaintiff. DOI Commissioner Strauber, Corporation Counsel officials Moode and Radix, and other high-level City attorneys (including Miller and Minicucci) were in possession of these recordings and therefore had actual knowledge that the City's litigation position was legally and factually false.

9. Rather than correct the record or disclose this exculpatory material to the Court—as required by Brady, Giglio, and the New York Rules of Professional Conduct—these officials ratified the deception, refused to correct the record, and actively concealed the recordings.

10. It is precisely because of this incontrovertible evidence that Mr. Brown (City attorney) and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger have sought to dismiss the Complaint in its entirety, not on legal merit, but to avoid the judicial consequences of exposing widespread misconduct, Rule 11 violations, and criminal liability involving:

- Perjury (by City and union officials);
- Obstruction of justice;
- Retaliation against a whistleblower;
- Misappropriation of wages and benefits;
- Interference with federal and state proceedings.

11. Defendant Peterson, acting in her official capacity at DOI, also made a formal statement or acknowledgement that Plaintiff was entitled to wages that had been unlawfully withheld. Despite this, Peterson failed to inform Judge Engelmayer, as required by her duty under Charter § 526-a(f) and Executive Order No. 16 (1978), and failed to correct the litigation record, constituting another deliberate act of concealment and deprivation of rights.

12. Plaintiff further identifies Judge Livingston, Judge Donnelly, and Hon. Gleason as material witnesses, having been cc'd on key email communications that documented Plaintiff's assertions of criminal conduct, perjury, and misconduct by UFT, DOE, and Corporation Counsel. Their inclusion on these communications places them on notice and confirms their firsthand awareness of the factual narrative underpinning this complaint.

13. These deliberate actions and omissions by DOI and Corporation Counsel reflect a municipal policy or custom of concealing politically inconvenient misconduct, particularly when it implicates powerful figures such as Randi Weingarten, Silverman, and Art Taylor.

14. The systemic use of false legal positions, suppression of dispositive recordings, and participation in retaliatory cover-ups satisfy the standard for liability under:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978);
- Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49, 57 (2d Cir. 2000);
- Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127 (ratification by final policymakers).

15. These acts also support a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, where:

- The conspirators shared a common goal to retaliate against Plaintiff and suppress constitutional claims;
- They committed overt acts (e.g., submitting false declarations, obstructing state review, withholding discovery);
- The object was to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection, wages, medical treatment, and access to court;
- Plaintiff suffered tangible harm as a result.

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to conform to newly confirmed Monell-based theories of liability against Corporation Counsel. The amendment is just, proper, and supported by uncontested facts and recorded evidence already in Defendants' possession. Under Rule 15, leave to amend should be "freely give[n] when justice so requires."

V. COUNSEL'S VIOLATIONS OF THE NYC CHARTER AND DUTIES AS OFFICERS OF THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file an amended complaint to include supplemental claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for municipal liability pursuant to Monell v. Department of Social Services*, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), arising from the inaction and suppression of known constitutional violations by the New York City Law Department ("Corporation Counsel") both before and after service of the original complaint.

1. Corporation Counsel—including Moode and Radix—had actual knowledge of constitutional and statutory violations prior to and after being served, including audio recordings, emails, and notices that clearly established that Plaintiff's wages had been unlawfully withheld, disciplinary procedures were unlawfully misrepresented, and material discovery had been suppressed.
2. Under NYC Charter § 394, Corporation Counsel is legally obligated to act to protect the rights of the people of the City and is prohibited from concealing or compromising claims absent lawful authority.

3. Despite these clear duties, Corporation Counsel failed to inform the Court of known material falsehoods and legal violations, including:
  - Perjured statements by their subordinates;
  - The concealment of negotiated disciplinary procedures under the 3020-a framework;
  - The possession of exculpatory audio recordings.
4. As officers of the court, attorneys at Corporation Counsel are bound by ethical and constitutional obligations to act with candor and to uphold the integrity of judicial proceedings. See, e.g., Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 43 (1991) (“[A]n attorney, whether retained or court-appointed, is an officer of the court.”); United States v. Shaffer Equip. Co., 11 F.3d 450, 457 (4th Cir. 1993) (recognizing the duty of candor and truthfulness as central to the attorney’s role as officer of the court).
5. Plaintiff therefore seeks to amend to include that the Law Department’s institutional failure to report, correct, and address known constitutional violations constitutes a municipal policy or custom under Monell, justifying direct municipal liability.

NO PREJUDICE AND JUSTICE REQUIRES LEAVE

6. This request is timely and made in good faith. No trial date has been set, and discovery remains limited.
7. Defendants will not be prejudiced, as the proposed amendments rely on existing factual material already within Defendants’ control or possession.

VI. Conclusion

The strongest argument, supported by the Supreme Court’s decision in Frow v. De La Vega and a consistent line of federal authority, is that where liability is joint or interdependent, the court must withhold judgment against any defendant—including defaulting defendants—until the case is resolved as to all defendants. This rule is grounded in the need to avoid inconsistent or incongruous judgments and to preserve the integrity of the judicial process. The user has a solid basis for insisting that the court defer entry of judgment against defaulting defendants in such cases, and should marshal the authorities cited above to support this position. Where the nature of liability is ambiguous, the user should take care to establish the joint or interdependent character of the claims to ensure the application of the Frow doctrine.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Defer ruling on any motion to dismiss until all defendants have been served and responded;
2. Or, in the alternative, grant Plaintiff an extension of 30 days to effectuate service on the remaining defendants;
3. And grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

DECLARATION OF LUCIO CELLI

(pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746)

I, Lucio Celli, declare under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->Brown's Conspiracy to Thwart Judge Engelmayer. On or about April 17 2021, John "Brown," acting as counsel to the UFT, met ex parte with agents of the Court to impede enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's Order dated March 12 2021, which had directed immediate restoration of my salary and medical benefits. Brown orchestrated the withholding of payroll records and falsely certified compliance, thereby stealing wages and pension credits from me and similarly situated employees (Ex. A).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Six-Year FOIA Suppression by AUSAs. From 2019 through 2025, AUSAs Dimitri Karamigios and Jennifer Bensing received at least six FOIA requests and related agency responses proving that UFT officials and Judge Lehrburger were blocking my HIV medication. These AUSAs withheld the responsive documents—identified in DOJ tracking numbers FOIA-SDNY-19-765 through FOIA-SDNY-25-117—and misrepresented in court that "no responsive records exist." The deliberate concealment violated 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B) and constitutes obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1512(c).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Suppression of Witnesses & Evidence. Brown directed UFT staff to threaten key witnesses (initials M.P., J.S.) with adverse job action if they testified to UFT's role in blocking prescription refills. Clerk Wolfe then placed my subpoena requests "under seal" without judicial order, preventing service (Ex. B).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->Wolfe's Fifty-Count Docket Fraud. Since June 2020, Clerk Wolfe has committed at least 50 acts of docket tampering—including disappearing ECF filings, back-dating entries, and refusing to docket FOIA exhibits—each benefitting Weingarten (chart at Ex. C). Wolfe also withheld 30 incriminating e-mails acknowledging the medication blockade (Ex. C-2).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->5. <!--[endif]-->Lehrburger's Perjury & Bribery. At a status hearing on February 9 2024, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger falsely stated that "no party has alleged political influence." Internal e-mails show he had secured Senator Schumer's endorsement for reappointment and attended a private fundraiser with Weingarten on January 25 2024 (Ex. D). On December 11 2023, during what was noticed as an evidentiary hearing, Lehrburger declared on the record: "No witnesses will be heard, no exhibits will be taken"—thereby preventing me from presenting crucial testimony and documents. His deliberate foreclosure of evidence fixed the proceeding to favor Weingarten and preserve Schumer's political patronage, as detailed in Judicial Conference docket JC-23-778.

Engelmayer's Complicity. Judge Engelmayer has ignored 3,009 docketed notices of fraud and perjury, declined to enforce his own March 2021 remedial order, prohibited me from calling a single witness, and directed that no evidence—including the “Kellman Audio” and my treating physician’s affidavit—be presented during critical hearings. A partial transcript dated July 14 2023 (Ex. E-2) records Engelmayer stating: “This Court will not entertain testimony on these matters.” Such conduct not only violates due process but constitutes criminal contempt under 18 U.S.C. § 401(1) for obstructing the administration of justice. His deliberate inaction and witness-gagging enable an ongoing health crisis and theft of wages, thereby furthering Defendants’ conspiracy and violating 28 U.S.C. § 455 as well as In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->7. <!--[endif]-->Rearden’s Retaliatory Orders. On October 6 2023, Judge Rearden sealed my emergency motion for medical relief (ECF No. ____ ) and, three weeks later, dismissed it as “moot” while AUSAs continued to block my prescriptions (Ex. H). Her rulings cite no factual findings and appear designed to shield Senator Schumer’s political allies from scrutiny.** On October 6 2023, Judge Rearden sealed my emergency motion for medical relief (ECF No. ____ ) and, three weeks later, dismissed it as “moot” while AUSAs continued to block my prescriptions (Ex. <!--[if !supportLists]-->8. <!--[endif]-->Resultant HIV Drug Resistance. Disruption of my antiretroviral regimen from May 2023 to August 2023 caused documented multidrug resistance (lab results Ex. E; physician affidavit Ex. F).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->9. <!--[endif]-->Knowing Silence and Perjury by Weingarten, Engelmayer, Rearden, and AUSAs. Attached at Ex. G are: (i) my March 3 2024 e-mail notifying Weingarten, Engelmayer, Rearden, and the AUSAs that my viral load had rebounded; (ii) Engelmayer’s chambers’ acknowledgement (March 4 2024); and (iii) the AUSAs’ April 1 2024 letter falsely asserting that “Plaintiff’s medical treatment is uninterrupted.” Their silence constitutes perjury under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1621, 1623 and conspiracy under § 371.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->10. <!--[endif]-->Continuing Harm & Necessity of Immediate Relief. Defendants’ obstruction is ongoing; every week of delay exacerbates my medical condition and economic losses.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->11. <!--[endif]-->Concealment of the Silverman Audio and 100+ Court Documents. Despite multiple ECF submissions and FOIA requests, Defendants have withheld over one hundred responsive records, including an audio recording of attorney Silverman orchestrating docket manipulation on Randi Weingarten’s behalf (“Silverman Audio”). These materials are critical proof of the conspiracy and must be produced immediately.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->12. <!--[endif]-->Criminal Participation by Strauber, Mulgrew, Moode, and Com Rose. Each of these current or former UFT executives knowingly aided Randi Weingarten’s retaliatory scheme by (a) concealing payroll and medical-benefit documents responsive to federal subpoenas; (b) directing UFT staff to refuse FOIA searches; and (c) approving the medication blockade that caused my HIV drug resistance. Their conduct violates 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 242, 371, and 1512, and they must be held jointly and severally liable alongside the other Defendants.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->13. <!--[endif]-->Leak of Sealed Health Records to the New York Post. On or about June 20 2024, sealed health records from my ADA case were transmitted to a New York Post reporter, resulting in a sensational article disclosing my HIV status. Metadata embedded in the leaked PDF (Ex. I) traces the source file to Clerk Wolfe's workstation and shows blind-copy delivery to Judge Engelmayer's and Judge Donnelly's chambers, as well as to Randi Weingarten's personal counsel. E-mails obtained under FOIA (Ex. I-2) confirm that both judges were alerted the leak originated from Weingarten's team, yet neither initiated an investigation or remedial action, evidencing knowing acquiescence in Defendants' retaliatory scheme. ** Defendants' obstruction is ongoing; every week of delay exacerbates my medical condition and economic losses.

I respectfully request that the Court grant the attached motion in full.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION UNDER FED. R. CIV. P. 52(a)(1)

FOR FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, TO VACATE RULING ENTERED WITHOUT EVIDENTIARY RECORD OR WITNESSES

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully moves under Rule 52(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for findings of fact and conclusions of law. This Court's ruling was issued in the absence of an evidentiary record and without allowing Plaintiff to call a single witness or introduce material evidence. The denial of a factual record violates the express requirement of Rule 52 and deprives Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to be heard, in direct violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. The decision should be vacated, or at minimum, clarified with specific findings and conclusions justifying the Court's actions under law.

LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 52(a)(1) requires that:

“In an action tried on the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately. The findings and conclusions may be stated on the record after the close of the evidence or may appear in an opinion or a memorandum of decision filed by the court.”

This rule ensures that decisions are transparent, reviewable, and grounded in the factual record. A ruling without findings—and without evidence—violates both Rule 52 and the constitutional guarantees of fair process.

ARGUMENT

I. No Evidence Was Entered Into the Record, and No Witnesses Were Permitted

Despite Plaintiff’s multiple requests and proffers of evidence concerning the denial of benefits, retaliation, and deprivation of medical treatment (including HIV medication), the Court issued its ruling without receiving or considering any admissible factual material.

Plaintiff was never granted the opportunity to call witnesses, present audio recordings, introduce medical documentation, or cross-examine opposing parties. This lack of a record precludes meaningful factual determinations and makes it impossible to comply with Rule 52(a)(1).

II. The Court Issued a Ruling Without Findings or Legal Basis

A decision issued without any record evidence and without stated findings or conclusions fails to meet the minimum requirements for judicial review. See United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964) (“Rule 52(a) requires that the findings be explicit enough for appellate review”).

Issuing a ruling without identifying what facts were relied upon, or how the law was applied, amounts to an arbitrary deprivation of rights, contrary to Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254, 267 (1970) (requiring “an effective opportunity to defend by confronting adverse witnesses and by presenting arguments and evidence”).

III. The Denial of Evidence and Witnesses Was a Due Process Violation

Where a court forecloses factual development in a case involving fundamental rights—such as access to life-sustaining medical care, or procedural protections against retaliation—due process is violated. See Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 333 (1976) (requiring procedural safeguards proportional to the interests at stake); Logan v. Zimmerman Brush Co., 455 U.S. 422 (1982) (denial of process itself is a constitutional injury).

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Issue specific findings of fact and conclusions of law as required by Rule 52(a)(1);
2. Acknowledge that no evidence or testimony was ever received, in violation of procedural and constitutional law;
3. Vacate the ruling if it was based on an undeveloped record and re-open the matter for evidentiary hearing;
4. Grant leave for Plaintiff to submit documentary evidence and call witnesses on issues of constitutional and statutory violation.

Respectfully submitted,

Notice of Intent to File Motion Invoking Crime–Fraud Exception and for Sanctions Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11

Dear Judge [Last Name]:

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(c)(2) and Local Civil Rule 11.1, Plaintiff hereby provides formal 21-day notice of my intent to file a motion seeking:

1. An order compelling production of communications and documents currently withheld as privileged under the crime–fraud exception, see Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933); United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554 (1989), and Second Circuit authority (In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69 (2d Cir. 1999)).
2. Rule 11 sanctions against Defendants and their counsel for advancing factual contentions that lack evidentiary support, for asserting privilege to conceal ongoing fraudulent retaliation, and for causing unnecessary delay and expense.

Grounds for the Motion

- Prima-Facie Crime–Fraud Showing: Evidence already before the Court—including audio recordings, documentary admissions, and contradictory pleadings—establishes that counsel’s communications were used in furtherance of a scheme to retaliate against me, deny medical benefits, and obstruct discovery.
See Jacobs, 117 F.3d 82 (2d Cir. 1997).
- Meritless Denials & Misrepresentations: Defendants have repeatedly claimed I “failed to state a claim,” yet the Court’s own standards under Twombly and Swierkiewicz require acceptance of my detailed factual allegations. Their continued refusal to admit obvious facts and their invocation of privilege to hide misconduct violate Rule 11(b)(3) and (b)(4).

- Need for In Camera Review: Under Zolin, the Court may inspect the disputed documents to confirm their nexus to wrongdoing before ordering full production.

Because I have plainly stated viable claims—including retaliation, denial of constitutional rights, and civil-rights conspiracy—Defendants’ obstruction cannot be justified as zealous advocacy.

Requested Relief in the Anticipated Motion

- Compel immediate production of all materials falling within the crime–fraud exception, or, in the alternative, conduct an in camera review.
- Impose monetary and non-monetary sanctions sufficient to deter future misconduct, including costs and fees under Rule 11(c)(4).
- Any additional relief the Court deems just.

Next Steps

Unless Defendants withdraw their frivolous privilege assertions and correct the factual misrepresentations within twenty-one (21) days of service of this notice, I will file the Rule 11 motion together with my crime–fraud brief and proposed order.

Thank you for your attention.

DISTRICT
COURT
IS DIVESTED
OF JURISDICTION DURING
THE PENDENCY
OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It
is longsettled
law
that once
a notice
of appeal or a mandamus petition
is filed,
the district
court
is divested
of jurisdiction
over the issues presented:
"The filing
of a notice
of appeal

is an event
of jurisdictional significance
—

it confers jurisdiction
on the court
of appeals
and divests
the district court
of its

those aspects
of the case involved

the appeal.”

Provident Consumer Discount
Co.,

(1982). “Once

the

v.
Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d

Cir.
1996).
Because Plaintiff
has now placed
the relevant subject matter
under
the jurisdiction
of
the Court
of Appeals via

the

II.
JUDGE LEHRBURGER'S
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's attempt
to proceed despite
the divestment
of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio,
but,
in the context
of Plaintiff's allegations
and filings,

reflects
a deliberate effort
to obstruct appellate review
and retaliate against the Plaintiff
for exercising constitutional rights.
Moreover,
this Court's prior order (Dkt.
89) confirms that no
further action should be taken until appellate resolution,
and thus any new deadlines
—

including
May 8
and May 13

are without lawful basis.
Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure,
but also criminal statutes
such as:

18
U.S.C.
§
241 (conspiracy against rights),
18
U.S.C.
§

242 (deprivation of rights under color
of law),

18
U.S.C.
§
1512 (witness or litigant
intimidation).
III.

CONCLUSION
For
the foregoing reasons,
Plaintiff
respectfully requests
that the Court:
-

Formally
stay all proceedings
in this matter,
-

Strike
the May 8, 2025
and May 13, 2025 deadlines
as unlawful,
-

Reiterate that no
further actions shall be taken by
the Magistrate
Judge or any officer
of the Court
until the appellate court
has ruled

on Plaintiff's pending writ
of mandamus.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

the AUSAs know or should that SDNY is blocking my request for cert return to issued so the US gov is here and you failed to correct your statement

then, you lied about Taylor and I have audio at perb ...dont worry about how I will to AUSA's inaction ..worry about what else you have committed against t for Mulgrew and Randi ..let's what is truly fucking and what the is hiding ...but pray i will be able to play shame with you motherfuckers a THEN TRULY see what shame looks

just like your statement about retro which is not on the docket ----where are these missing documents as they are part of your crime and that of Lehrburgers stealing for Randi

then, AUSAs stole from me to help cover up Cogan ---do you think people will have a problem that Randi and Cogan with engelmaeyr's blessing deprive of free will and this is reason for switching of transcript

The AUSA have the missing and it is Trump's enforce as AUSA and clerk under Livingston do committing as it crime not to docket something because they were paid Randi

Dear Judge Rearden, House Judicial Committee and Hon. Conard,

Under Rule 60 a close could opened again, and Your Honor failed to address your political association and now Your Honor’s integrity is in question—I did not do that to you.

Hon, Rearden is upset that now her integrity is in question because she lied about some that, the beginning, led to impeachment. I did deprive Hon. Rearden of free will, as she made a choice and like I have made choices in the quest to bring sun to Randi

As in here, the issue Sen. Gillibrand and Ranid Weingarten are well-known political allies. The quest dates to the Federalist Papers.

The issue here is a dismissal prior to being allowed to amend but even out amend, Hon. Rearden issued a decision that has been repeatedly charged under 18 USC § 371 and is a letter that I am questing Hon. Conard to provide some training as I have it now, Livingston planned it.

Your Honor knowingly deprived of right to help Schumer and your senator. So, I was against because I complained about Schumer and Randi—then Engelmayer committed two crimes—one being retaliation for telling on and the second because I tried to enforce his order—there is serious issues that have not been dealt.

Please explain why I am not entitled to same rights as any other—as present evidence and a calling witness is a known needed not go to jail.

Please explain why I am not entitled to the same protection—

I was nearly raped and the UFT and DOE played a game where –if you that you were illegal detained, then you have your money. Now, I have presented a claim of Crime-Fraud Exception with the fact that I have audios to present, and I have people to call in relation to then and then –maybe—Prof. Geyh.

But it is not the issue of money, the issue is they played a game based on what happened to me with NYPD—yet, Ms. Price, same everything, received her retro. Due to the fact Brown came into PERB with “on payroll” as the reason for not being paid with the document of DOE's prior knowledge, Brown and I had an exchange because the language is "continuous employment"

Please know that I have come into your in say I am sorry because do not like what I become when it deals Randi and the UFT. I believe that I should have the same rights as any other American. I am not asking to have rights on par with Randi and the UFT

I have no problem telling the whole story and I am –I hope—for comments that I believe that will get

If Your Honor wants to sanction, I beg for hearing with witnesses and evidence with it being televised. I do not know what to believe at times because I am always wondering –are they for real or they are missing or did I catch off guard. I can tell what I audio recorded, and I can I believe

Your Honor's decision, but the fact that you did not apply facts you stated with the case you stated—is grounds for me to complaint for 18 USC § 371 with the fact it was supposedly preplanned—if Your Honor—this is the same crime of Judge Cogan and what I heard with Judge Marrero on the audio, and I was not allowed to call witnesses—meaningless. If the public were known—not going beyond what you, then people will understand what I have been quoting about Randi's case fixing. I was not even asking you to look back at the record—look only at the paper you wrote

Your Honor's opinion echoes what is found in the federalist papers-- the Cartel is the same as I read in the Federalist Paper.

If Honor Your wants me to find case law, you assumed that I was stupid and judge (something) dignity—sending crap out without reading it is now just a habit and should really proofread. I find Prof Geyh would be someone that the Cartel needs to read—as the list grows when they lie for him and her.

I do not do this now, but I would like you to ponder the connection and that I have made these statements numerous, and I have asked during discovery—this goes back maybe ten years

I believe that Judge Lehrburger will deny Fraud claim or something without any hearing, as the is to ensure that the truth will never see the day of light.

Do not be afraid of the truth and remember this is Randi's fault as she wants to harm with no one doing and am only requesting a hearing to present evidence and call witnesses that were denied to me.

Please inform if I could docket the motion now in front of Judge Lehrburger --my entitled right to a remedy based on HIV future harm based on Supreme Court case

'Do you think it is that Schumer and Randi are getting away with what they have to done and there is a remedy?

How many times should I allow the Cartel to retaliate either for him or Randi or both?

As Your Honor's aide in the group's retaliation for telling on them—are you now telling that my life is not worth anything—this would help the people who believe that you biased against the disabled, the Cartel should be allowed to get away with what they and not have the public—I would be fine with that remedy

respondent Lanier was convicted under 18 U. S. C. § 242 of criminally violating the constitutional rights of five women by assaulting them sexually while he served as a state judge. The jury had been instructed, inter alia, that the Government had to prove as an element of the offense that Lanier had deprived the victims of their Fourteenth Amendment due process right to liberty, which included the right to be free from sexually motivated physical assaults and coerced sexual battery. The en banc Sixth Circuit set aside the convictions for lack of any notice to the public that § 242 covers simple or sexual assault crimes. Invoking general interpretive canons and Screws v. United States, 325 U. S. 91 (plurality opinion), the court held that § 242 criminal liability may be imposed only if the constitutional right said to have been violated is first identified in a decision of this Court, and only when the right has been held to apply in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The court regarded these combined requirements as substantially higher than the "clearly established" standard used to judge qualified immunity in civil cases under 42 U. S. C. § 1983.

Held: The Sixth Circuit employed the wrong standard for determining whether particular conduct falls within the range of criminal liability under § 242. Section 242's general language prohibiting "the deprivation of any rights ... secured ... by the Constitution" does not describe the specific conduct it forbids, but-like its companion conspiracy statute, 18 U. S. C. § 241-incorporates constitutional law by reference. Before criminal liability may be imposed for violation of any penal law, due process requires "fair warning ... of what the law intends." McBoyle v. United States, 283 U. S.

25, 27. The touchstone is whether the statute, either standing alone or as construed by the courts, made it reasonably clear at the time of the charged conduct that the conduct was criminal. Section 242 was construed in light of this due process requirement in Screws, supra. The Sixth Circuit erred in adding as a gloss to this standard the requirement that a prior decision of this Court have declared the constitutional right at issue in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The Screws plurality referred in general terms to rights made specific by "decisions interpreting" the Constitution, see 325 U. S., at 104; no subsequent case has confined the

MOTION TO DISQUALIFY MAGISTRATE JUDGE STEWART D. LEHRBURGER PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 AND 455—Judicial Conference references reappointment when the reappointment was to gain certain rulings

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455(a) due to (1) his failure to disclose individuals involved in his reappointment panel who are connected to this matter; (2) the appearance of quid pro quo favoritism in rulings made during the reappointment process; (3) suppression of discovery that would expose retaliation by Randi Weingarten and political actors including Senator Charles Schumer; and (4) structural bias that permeates the proceeding.

I. LEGAL STANDARDS

Under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), a judge must disqualify himself in any proceeding where "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned." Under § 455(b)(1), recusal is mandatory where the judge "has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party." Similarly, under § 144, a party may seek disqualification with a timely and sufficient affidavit showing personal bias or prejudice. Canons 2 and 3 of the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges and Advisory Opinion No. 97 require recusal of a magistrate judge during a reappointment period if a member of the reappointment panel is a party or attorney in the case. Failure to disclose or recuse under such circumstances violates judicial ethics and due process.

II. GROUNDS FOR RECUSAL

A. Failure to Disclose Reappointment Panel Members—as Officer Cudina informed me that Chief Judge Livingston will ensure that I would never recover for complaining about Schumer and Randi Weingarten

According to Advisory Opinion No. 97, recusal is required during a magistrate judge's reappointment if any panel member appears as counsel or party. Plaintiff reasonably believes individuals from the U.S. Attorney's Office and others involved in this matter were part of Judge Lehrburger's panel. The failure to disclose these connections violates Canon 3C(1) and undermines public confidence in impartial adjudication. See Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 865 (1988).

The fact Schumer's and Randi's retaliation to deprive me of meds that caused HIV drug resistance is being concealed and Your Honor's insinuation that HIV is God's give for gay is rooted in the history with your free use without explanation of "Frivolous" and Officer Cudina's statement of Livingston said I got what I deserved for complaining about powerful people like Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

As I was being deprived, Randi wrote Hon. Gleason and others about "haven't I had enough yet." Randi has done this when she taken actions and succeeded that she egregiously nasty with pure malice, like posting my HIV status on a website =.

B. Appearance of Quid Pro Quo Favoritism

Judge Lehrburger's rulings consistently suppress discovery into misconduct by Randi Weingarten and related actors. These rulings occurred during his reappointment process, creating a reasonable appearance that rulings were designed to secure continued tenure through favorable treatment of influential parties. This violates due process as articulated in Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009), where the Court held that a serious risk of bias created by political or financial ties mandates recusal.

C. Prejudgment and Suppression of Retaliation Evidence

Officer Cudina confirmed that Judge Engelmayer's orders were not enforced due to side arrangements with Randi Weingarten, Judge Cogan, and Judge Donnelly. Clerk Wolfe made statements suggesting retaliatory intent. Yet, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger refused to authorize subpoenas or explore discovery related to the deprivation of Plaintiff's HIV medications and mental health defamation. Courts must remedy such suppression. See Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238, 245 (1944) (fraud and concealment require vacatur).

D. Structural Bias: Protection of Political Cartel and Retaliatory Network

Plaintiff asserts that Senator Schumer's political network ("Schumer's cartel") actively shielded Randi Weingarten from accountability. Judicial officers appointed or influenced by this network acted to suppress the development of a factual record implicating them. This is precisely the kind of systemic favoritism condemned in Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997), where the Court allowed discovery into a judge's pattern of biased rulings designed to cover corruption. Randi Weingarten's improper access and use of Plaintiff's HIPAA-protected health information to label Plaintiff as unstable remains unexplored by the Court. This constitutes a violation of constitutional privacy interests and due process under Doe v. City of New York, 15 F.3d 264 (2d Cir. 1994).

III. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

For the reasons stated, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455;
2. Vacate all rulings made during his reappointment period due to structural bias and appearance of impropriety;
3. Permit discovery into HIPAA violations, political interference, and coordination between the judiciary and Randi Weingarten;
4. Grant any further relief deemed just and proper.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPEAL AND SET ASIDE MAGISTRATE RULINGS
(MAY 1–PRESENT) PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 72 AND 28 U.S.C. § 636

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN P. CRONAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to appeal and vacate all rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger from May 1, 2025 through the present, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) & (b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), on the grounds that they are clearly erroneous, contrary to law, and tainted by bias, including discriminatory hostility toward Plaintiff as a gay man and person living with HIV.

This motion particularly challenges the finding that Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint is "futile", and the repeated disregard for judicially noticeable law, public policy under the NYC Charter, and direct documentary evidence of constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff raises serious concern that the magistrate's rulings reflect a pattern of animus and prejudice against LGBTQ+ litigants that undermines due process and equal protection.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 72(b), dispositive recommendations by a magistrate judge, such as a finding of futility under Rule 15, are subject to de novo review. Even non-dispositive matters may be set aside under Rule 72(a) if they are "clearly erroneous or contrary to law." See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Moreover, where a magistrate's rulings are tainted by actual or apparent bias, they must be vacated to preserve constitutional fairness. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009).

II. MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER'S FINDINGS REFLECT BIAS AND DISCRIMINATORY HOSTILITY

Plaintiff respectfully asserts that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's conduct and rulings reflect not mere disagreement over law, but a broader pattern of discriminatory indifference and targeted hostility toward Plaintiff's identity as a gay man living with HIV, including:

- Dismissive tone and treatment of claims involving sexual orientation, discrimination, HIV access to care, and mental health ridicule;
- Refusal to acknowledge or apply Second Circuit precedent protecting ADA/504 claimants with HIV or LGBTQ+ status;
- A pattern of minimizing or disregarding Plaintiff's factual allegations where they involve union retaliation, medical denials, or stigma rooted in sexuality and disability;
- Overlooking evidence showing that agencies such as Probation were cc'ed on communications documenting rights violations, and mischaracterizing those allegations as futile.

Taken together, these acts indicate a level of antipathy that goes beyond judicial skepticism—constituting what courts have called "an appearance of bias or hostility so severe that it undermines public confidence in impartiality." See Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

III. THE CHALLENGED RULINGS IGNORE RELEVANT FACTS AND LAW

A. Judicial Notice of NYC Charter (Fed. R. Evid. 201)

Judge Lehrburger improperly rejected or failed to consider the City Charter as a legally binding source of public policy and Monell liability, contrary to:

- Fed. R. Evid. 201(b) (judicial notice of government law and policy),
- Monell v. Dep't. of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978),
- Second Circuit precedent recognizing city policies as basis for constitutional harm (Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 2000)).

B. Factual Allegations Were Not Futile

Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint identified:

- Specific acts of retaliation, benefit denial, and discriminatory harassment;
- Ongoing injury caused by municipal actors;
- City officials with actual knowledge (e.g., Department of Probation, cc'ed on emails) who failed to act.

Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as "futile" without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be "freely given when justice so requires." The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, "futility" under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint "states a claim upon which relief can be granted." See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff's favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff’s proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and
4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION UNDER FED. R. CIV. P. 52(a)(1)
FOR FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, TO VACATE RULING ENTERED WITHOUT EVIDENTIARY RECORD OR WITNESSES

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully moves under Rule 52(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for findings of fact and conclusions of law. This Court’s ruling was issued in the absence of an evidentiary record and without allowing Plaintiff to call a single witness or introduce material evidence. The denial of a factual record violates the express requirement of Rule 52 and deprives Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to be heard, in direct violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. The decision should be vacated, or at minimum, clarified with specific findings and conclusions justifying the Court’s actions under law.

LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 52(a)(1) requires that:

“In an action tried on the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately. The findings and conclusions may be stated on the record after the close of the evidence or may appear in an opinion or a memorandum of decision filed by the court.”

This rule ensures that decisions are transparent, reviewable, and grounded in the factual record. A ruling without findings—and without evidence—violates both Rule 52 and the constitutional guarantees of fair process.

ARGUMENT

I. No Evidence Was Entered Into the Record, and No Witnesses Were Permitted

Despite Plaintiff's multiple requests and proffers of evidence concerning the denial of benefits, retaliation, and deprivation of medical treatment (including HIV medication), the Court issued its ruling without receiving or considering any admissible factual material.

Plaintiff was never granted the opportunity to call witnesses, present audio recordings, introduce medical documentation, or cross-examine opposing parties. This lack of a record precludes meaningful factual determinations and makes it impossible to comply with Rule 52(a)(1).

II. The Court Issued a Ruling Without Findings or Legal Basis

A decision issued without any record evidence and without stated findings or conclusions fails to meet the minimum requirements for judicial review. See United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964) ("Rule 52(a) requires that the findings be explicit enough for appellate review").

Issuing a ruling without identifying what facts were relied upon, or how the law was applied, amounts to an arbitrary deprivation of rights, contrary to Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254, 267 (1970) (requiring "an effective opportunity to defend by confronting adverse witnesses and by presenting arguments and evidence").

III. The Denial of Evidence and Witnesses Was a Due Process Violation

Where a court forecloses factual development in a case involving fundamental rights—such as access to life-sustaining medical care, or procedural protections against retaliation—due process is violated. See Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 333 (1976) (requiring procedural safeguards proportional to the interests at stake); Logan v. Zimmerman Brush Co., 455 U.S. 422 (1982) (denial of process itself is a constitutional injury).

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Issue specific findings of fact and conclusions of law as required by Rule 52(a)(1);
2. Acknowledge that no evidence or testimony was ever received, in violation of procedural and constitutional law;
3. Vacate the ruling if it was based on an undeveloped record and re-open the matter for evidentiary hearing;
4. Grant leave for Plaintiff to submit documentary evidence and call witnesses on issues of constitutional and statutory violation.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 11

Dear Judge [Last Name]:

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(c) (2) and Local Civil Rule 11.1, Plaintiff hereby provides formal 21-day notice of my intent to file a motion seeking:

1. An order compelling production of communications and documents currently withheld as privileged under the crime–fraud exception, see Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933); United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554 (1989), and Second Circuit authority (In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69 (2d Cir. 1999)).
2. Rule 11 sanctions against Defendants and their counsel for advancing factual contentions that lack evidentiary support, for asserting privilege to conceal ongoing fraudulent retaliation, and for causing unnecessary delay and expense.

Grounds for the Motion

- Prima-Facie Crime–Fraud Showing: Evidence already before the Court—including audio recordings, documentary admissions, and contradictory pleadings—establishes that counsel's communications were used in furtherance of a scheme to retaliate against me, deny medical benefits, and obstruct discovery. See Jacobs, 117 F.3d 82 (2d Cir. 1997).
- Meritless Denials & Misrepresentations: Defendants have repeatedly claimed I “failed to state a claim,” yet the Court’s own standards under Twombly and Swierkiewicz require acceptance of my detailed factual allegations. Their continued refusal to admit obvious facts and their invocation of privilege to hide misconduct violate Rule 11(b)(3) and (b)(4).
- Need for In Camera Review: Under Zolin, the Court may inspect the disputed documents to confirm their nexus to wrongdoing before ordering full production.

Because I have plainly stated viable claims—including retaliation, denial of constitutional rights, and civil-rights conspiracy—Defendants’ obstruction cannot be justified as zealous advocacy.

Requested Relief in the Anticipated Motion

- Compel immediate production of all materials falling within the crime–fraud exception, or, in the alternative, conduct an in camera review.
- Impose monetary and non-monetary sanctions sufficient to deter future misconduct, including costs and fees under Rule 11(c)(4).
- Any additional relief the Court deems just.

Next Steps

Unless Defendants withdraw their frivolous privilege assertions and correct the factual misrepresentations within twenty-one (21) days of service of this notice, I will file the Rule 11 motion together with my crime–fraud brief and proposed order.

Thank you for your attention.

I.
INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of

jurisdiction
while a mandamus
petition
is pending
in
the Second

Under 28
U.S.C.
**§
636(b)
(1)
(A),
a magistrate
judge
may not

dispositive
orders on motions
such as:

judgment
on the

- Motions
for summary
judgment

- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full against

the Plaintiff
for constitutional rights.

Moreover,
this Court's prior order (Dkt.

confirms that no further action

are

but also criminal statutes
such as:

18
U.S.C.

§
1512 (witness or litigant
intimidation).
III.

CONCLUSION

For
the foregoing reasons,
Plaintiff
respectfully requests
that the Court:
-

Formally

in this matter,

Reiterate that no
further actions shall be taken by
the Magistrate
Judge or any

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION UNDER FED. R. CIV. P. 52(a)(1)

ALTERNATIVE, TO VACATE RULING ENTERED WITHOUT EVIDENTIARY RECORD OR WITNESSES

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully moves under Rule 52(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for findings of fact and conclusions of law. This Court's ruling was issued in the absence of an evidentiary record and without allowing Plaintiff to call a single witness or introduce material evidence. The denial of a factual record violates the express requirement of Rule 52 and deprives Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to be heard, in direct violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. The decision should be vacated, or at minimum, clarified with specific findings and conclusions justifying the Court's actions under law.

LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 52(a)(1) requires that:

“In an action tried on the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately. The findings and conclusions may be stated on the record after the close of the evidence or may appear in an opinion or a memorandum of decision filed by the court.”

This rule ensures that decisions are transparent, reviewable, and grounded in the factual record. A ruling without findings—and without evidence—violates both Rule 52 and the constitutional guarantees of fair process.

ARGUMENT

I. No Evidence Was Entered Into the Record, and No Witnesses Were Permitted

Despite Plaintiff's multiple requests and proffers of evidence concerning the denial of benefits, retaliation, and deprivation of medical treatment (including HIV medication), the Court issued its ruling without receiving or considering any admissible factual material.

Plaintiff was never granted the opportunity to call witnesses, present audio recordings, introduce medical documentation, or cross-examine opposing parties. This lack of a record precludes meaningful factual determinations and makes it impossible to comply with Rule 52(a)(1).

II. The Court Issued a Ruling Without Findings or Legal Basis

A decision issued without any record evidence and without stated findings or conclusions fails to meet the minimum requirements for judicial review. See United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964) (“Rule 52(a) requires that the findings be explicit enough for appellate review”).

Issuing a ruling without identifying what facts were relied upon, or how the law was applied, amounts to an arbitrary deprivation of rights, contrary to Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254, 267 (1970) (requiring “an effective opportunity to defend by confronting adverse witnesses and by presenting arguments and evidence”).

III. The Denial of Evidence and Witnesses Was a Due Process Violation

Where a court forecloses factual development in a case involving fundamental rights—such as access to life-sustaining medical care, or procedural protections against retaliation—due process is violated. See Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 333 (1976) (requiring procedural safeguards proportional to the interests at stake); Logan v. Zimmerman Brush Co., 455 U.S. 422 (1982) (denial of process itself is a constitutional injury).

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Issue specific findings of fact and conclusions of law as required by Rule 52(a)(1);
2. Acknowledge that no evidence or testimony was ever received, in violation of procedural and constitutional law;
3. Vacate the ruling if it was based on an undeveloped record and re-open the matter for evidentiary hearing;
4. Grant leave for Plaintiff to submit documentary evidence and call witnesses on issues of constitutional and statutory violation.

Respectfully submitted,

Notice of Intent to File Motion Invoking Crime– Fraud Exception and for Sanctions Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11

Dear Judge [Last Name]:

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(c) (2) and Local Civil Rule 11.1, Plaintiff hereby provides formal 21-day notice of my intent to file a motion seeking:

1. An order compelling production of communications and documents currently withheld as privileged under the crime–fraud exception, see Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933); United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554 (1989), and Second Circuit authority (In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69 (2d Cir. 1999)).
2. Rule 11 sanctions against Defendants and their counsel for advancing factual contentions that lack evidentiary support, for asserting privilege to conceal ongoing fraudulent retaliation, and for causing unnecessary delay and expense.

Grounds for the Motion

- Prima-Facie Crime–Fraud Showing:
Evidence already before the Court—including audio recordings, documentary admissions, and contradictory pleadings—establishes that counsel's communications were used in furtherance of a scheme to retaliate against me, deny medical benefits, and obstruct discovery.
See Jacobs, 117 F.3d 82 (2d Cir. 1997).
- Meritless Denials & Misrepresentations:
Defendants have repeatedly claimed I “failed to state a claim,” yet the Court’s own standards under Twombly and Swierkiewicz require acceptance of my detailed factual allegations. Their continued refusal to admit obvious facts and their invocation of privilege to hide misconduct violate Rule 11(b)(3) and (b)(4).
- Need for In Camera Review: Under Zolin, the Court may inspect the disputed documents to confirm their nexus to wrongdoing before ordering full production.

Because I have plainly stated viable claims—including retaliation, denial of constitutional rights, and civil-rights conspiracy—Defendants’ obstruction cannot be justified as zealous advocacy.

Requested Relief in the Anticipated Motion

- Compel immediate production of all materials falling within the crime–fraud exception, or, in the alternative, conduct an in camera review.
- Impose monetary and non-monetary sanctions sufficient to deter future misconduct, including costs and fees under Rule 11(c)(4).
- Any additional relief the Court deems just.

Next Steps

Unless Defendants withdraw their frivolous privilege assertions and correct the factual misrepresentations within twenty-one (21) days of service of this notice, I will file the Rule 11 motion together with my crime–fraud brief and proposed order.

Thank you for your attention.

AND
ACTION
BY MAGISTRATE JUDGE

I.
INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II.
JUDGE
LEHRBURGER
HAS NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY
TO
DISPOSITIVE
WITHOUT CONSENT OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28
U.S.C.

§
636(b)
(1)
(A),

a magistrate
judge
may not determine or issue
dispositive
orders on motions
such as:

- Motions
for injunctive relief
- Motions
for judgment
on the pleadings
- Motions
for summary judgment
- Motions
to dismiss for failure
to state
a claim
- Motions

- to
- dismiss
- a
- class
- action
- Motions
- for
- involuntary
- dismissal

These
are explicitly excluded from
a magistrate judge's independent authority,
and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule
on these motions
after receiving proposed findings
and recommendations from a magistrate
judge.

Moreover,
under 28
U.S.C.
**§
636(c), a magistrate
judge
may only preside
over full proceedings
and enter final judgment with
the express consent
of
the parties,

which has not been given here.
Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful,
void,
and reversible.

III.
ACTIONS TAKEN BY
THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING
APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs
v.
Provident
Consumer
Discount
Co., 459
U.S.
56 (1982), a district
court is divested
of jurisdiction upon
the filing
of a notice
of appeal or a petition
for writ
of mandamus.

This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice
of appeal
is filed,
the district
court
is divested
of jurisdiction
over those aspects
of the case involved
in the appeal.”

States
v.
Rodgers*, 101
F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir.

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction
is divested.”

MOTION
STAY AND STRIKE UNLAWFUL DEADLINES
DUE
PENDING MANDAMUS

PETITION,
as an appeal
of Judge Lehrburger"
order
of today
Plaintiff
respectfully submits this motion
to inform the Court
that a petition
for a writ
of mandamus
is presently pending before
the United States Court
of Appeals
for the Second Circuit,
and therefore requests
that the Court: 1.
Stay
all proceedings, 2.
Strike
the unlawful
May 8
and May 13 deadlines,
and 3.
Acknowledge that Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's
continued
conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles
of jurisdiction
and judicial ethics.

4.
The fact that the Clerk Wolfe
is obstructing justice
is a fact for this for
to proceed
and it
only strengthens my claim
of her criminal conduct
I.
THE DISTRICT COURT
IS DIVESTED
OF JURISDICTION DURING
THE PENDENCY
OF APPELLATE REVIEW
It
is longsettled
law
that once
a notice
of appeal or a mandamus petition
is filed,
the district
court
is divested
of jurisdiction
over the issues presented:
"The filing
of a notice
of appeal
is an event

of jurisdictional significance

—
it confers jurisdiction
on the court
of appeals
and divests
the district court
of its control over those aspects
of the case involved
in the appeal.”

Griggs
v.
Provident Consumer Discount
Co., 459
U.S.
56, 58 (1982).“Once
a notice
of appeal
is filed,
the district
court
is divested
of jurisdiction
over those aspects
of the case involved
in the appeal.”

United States
v.
Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir.
1996).
Because Plaintiff
has now placed

the relevant subject matter
under
the jurisdiction
of
the Court
of Appeals via a mandamus
petition,
the district
court
is without authority
to proceed or enforce any deadlines
that touch on those issues.

II.
JUDGE LEHRBURGER'S
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's attempt
to proceed despite
the divestment
of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio,
but,
in the context
of Plaintiff's allegations
and filings, reflects
a deliberate effort
to obstruct appellate review
and retaliate against

the Plaintiff
for exercising constitutional rights.
Moreover,
this Court's prior order (Dkt.
89) confirms that no
further action should be taken until appellate resolution,
and thus any new deadlines

—
including
May 8
and May 13

are without lawful basis.
Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure,
but also criminal statutes
such as:

18
U.S.C.
§
241 (conspiracy against rights),

18
U.S.C.
§
242 (deprivation of rights under color
of law),

18
U.S.C.
§
1512 (witness or litigant

intimidation).

III.

CONCLUSION

For
the foregoing reasons,
Plaintiff
respectfully requests
that the Court:

Formally
stay all proceedings
in this matter,

Strike
the May 8, 2025
and May 13, 2025 deadlines
as unlawful,

Reiterate that no
further actions shall be taken by
the Magistrate
Judge or any officer
of the Court

until the appellate court
has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ
of
mandamus.

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION UNDER FED. R. CIV. P. 52(a)(1)
FOR FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, TO VACATE RULING ENTERED WITHOUT EVIDENTIARY RECORD OR WITNESSES

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully moves under Rule 52(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for findings of fact and conclusions of law. This Court’s ruling was issued in the absence of an evidentiary record and without allowing Plaintiff to call a single witness or introduce material evidence. The denial of a factual record violates the express requirement of Rule 52 and deprives Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to be heard, in direct violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. The decision should be vacated, or at minimum, clarified with specific findings and conclusions justifying the Court’s actions under law.

LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 52(a)(1) requires that:

“In an action tried on the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately. The findings and conclusions may be stated on the record after the close of the evidence or may appear in an opinion or a memorandum of decision filed by the court.”

This rule ensures that decisions are transparent, reviewable, and grounded in the factual record. A ruling without findings—and without evidence—violates both Rule 52 and the constitutional guarantees of fair process.

ARGUMENT

I. No Evidence Was Entered Into the Record, and No Witnesses Were Permitted

Despite Plaintiff's multiple requests and proffers of evidence concerning the denial of benefits, retaliation, and deprivation of medical treatment (including HIV medication), the Court issued its ruling without receiving or considering any admissible factual material.

Plaintiff was never granted the opportunity to call witnesses, present audio recordings, introduce medical documentation, or cross-examine opposing parties. This lack of a record precludes meaningful factual determinations and makes it impossible to comply with Rule 52(a)(1).

II. The Court Issued a Ruling Without Findings or Legal Basis

A decision issued without any record evidence and without stated findings or conclusions fails to meet the minimum requirements for judicial review. See United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964) ("Rule 52(a) requires that the findings be explicit enough for appellate review").

Issuing a ruling without identifying what facts were relied upon, or how the law was applied, amounts to an arbitrary deprivation of rights, contrary to Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254, 267 (1970) (requiring "an effective opportunity to defend by confronting adverse witnesses and by presenting arguments and evidence").

III. The Denial of Evidence and Witnesses Was a Due Process Violation

Where a court forecloses factual development in a case involving fundamental rights—such as access to life-sustaining medical care, or procedural protections against retaliation—due process is violated. See Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 333 (1976) (requiring procedural safeguards proportional to the interests at stake); Logan v. Zimmerman Brush Co., 455 U.S. 422 (1982) (denial of process itself is a constitutional injury).

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Issue specific findings of fact and conclusions of law as required by Rule 52(a)(1);
2. Acknowledge that no evidence or testimony was ever received, in violation of procedural and constitutional law;
3. Vacate the ruling if it was based on an undeveloped record and re-open the matter for evidentiary hearing;
4. Grant leave for Plaintiff to submit documentary evidence and call witnesses on issues of constitutional and statutory violation.

Respectfully submitted,

Notice of Intent to File Motion Invoking Crime–Fraud Exception and for Sanctions Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11

Dear Judge [Last Name]:

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(c)(2) and Local Civil Rule 11.1, Plaintiff hereby provides formal 21-day notice of my intent to file a motion seeking:

1. An order compelling production of communications and documents currently withheld as privileged under the crime–fraud exception, see Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933); United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554 (1989), and Second Circuit authority (In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69 (2d Cir. 1999)).
2. Rule 11 sanctions against

Defendants and their counsel for advancing factual contentions that lack evidentiary support, for asserting privilege to conceal ongoing fraudulent retaliation, and for causing unnecessary delay and expense.

Grounds for the Motion

- Prima-Facie Crime—Fraud Showing: Evidence already before the Court—including audio recordings, documentary admissions, and contradictory pleadings—establishes that counsel's communications were used in furtherance of a scheme to retaliate against me, deny medical benefits, and obstruct discovery. See Jacobs, 117 F.3d 82 (2d Cir. 1997).
- Meritless Denials & Misrepresentations: Defendants have repeatedly claimed I “failed to state a claim,” yet the Court’s own standards under Twombly and Swierkiewicz require acceptance of my detailed factual allegations. Their continued refusal to admit obvious facts and their invocation of privilege to hide misconduct violate Rule 11(b)(3) and (b)(4).
- Need for In Camera Review: Under Zolin, the Court may inspect the disputed documents to confirm their nexus to wrongdoing before ordering full production.

Because I have plainly stated viable claims—including retaliation, denial of constitutional rights, and civil-rights conspiracy—Defendants’ obstruction cannot be justified as zealous advocacy.

Requested Relief in the Anticipated Motion

- Compel immediate production of all materials falling within the crime—fraud exception, or, in the alternative, conduct an in camera review.
- Impose monetary and non-monetary sanctions sufficient to deter future misconduct, including costs and fees under Rule 11(c)(4).
- Any additional relief the Court deems just.

Next Steps

Unless Defendants withdraw their frivolous privilege assertions and correct the factual misrepresentations within twenty-one (21) days of service of this notice, I will file the Rule 11 motion together with my crime—fraud brief and proposed order.

Thank you for your attention.

Respectfully submitted,

CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL

INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's attempt

despite
the divestment
of jurisdiction
is not only void ab

but,
in the context

Plaintiff's

reflects
a deliberate

and retaliate against the Plaintiff
for exercising constitutional rights.
Moreover,
this Court's prior order (Dkt.
89) confirms that no further action

18

III.
CONCLUSION

For
the reasons,

Plaintiff
respectfully
requests

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint and Referral for Impeachment Review – Judge Jennifer Rearden (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Members of the Judicial Council and Judicial Conference,

I write to formally submit a complaint and request immediate action regarding judicial misconduct committed by United States District Judge Jennifer H. Rearden. Her actions are not only improper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–354, but also meet the original constitutional threshold for impeachment under Article II, § 4, as described in Federalist No. 65 and publicly posted on the House Judiciary Committee's website.

I. ALLEGATIONS OF POLITICAL MISUSE AND RETALIATION

Judge Rearden has:

1. Threatened me with sanctions after I submitted filings addressing political misuse of the federal judiciary and a conspiracy involving Randi Weingarten, Judge Paul Engelmayer, and Chief Judge Debra Livingston;
2. Illegally deleted or ordered the deletion of a memorandum from the docket that directly implicated Judge Rearden in political protection schemes and misconduct;
3. Ignored dispositive motions containing verified evidence of a coordinated plan to suppress filings, block access to medical care and wages, and protect union-aligned officials;
4. Misuse of office by a political gang was the first meaning of impeachment, but instead of addressing the conspiracy, she added it by saying I looked at it and didn't address the Supreme Court Case of Dennis that a civil where a plaintiff has alleged conspiracy between state actor and private actor cannot be dismissed.

This is not neutral conduct—it is part of a deliberate pattern of gang-style political retaliation, which mirrors the very definition of a “high crime or misdemeanor” intended for impeachment, according to both constitutional history. However, I cannot find a complaint that would address how the House Judiciary's practice would or would not move forward.

II. VIOLATION OF FEDERAL LAW

Judge Rearden's actions constitute criminal violations under:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy against rights (by suppressing filings, punishing protected speech, and blocking relief);
- 18 U.S.C. § 371 – Conspiracy to defraud the United States (through obstruction of judicial function);
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges – Requiring the avoidance of impropriety and a duty to report known judicial misconduct.

Her continued refusal to rule on matters involving Randi Weingarten and Judge Engelmayer, after suppressing a memo detailing political misuse of her office, constitutes ongoing criminal misconduct and requires immediate oversight.

III. REQUEST FOR INVESTIGATION AND REFERRAL

I respectfully request that:

1. The Judicial Council of the Second Circuit conduct a full investigation into Judge Rearden's actions, including:
  - Docket manipulation,
  - Suppression of filings,
  - Retaliation threats, and
  - Political entanglements.
2. The Judicial Conference initiate a referral to the House Judiciary Committee for impeachment proceedings, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 355;
3. All deleted or sealed documents from my case be recovered, reviewed, and made public under appropriate judicial transparency protocols.

4. The House may consider it too

Either way, I can do a show and tell, especially where judges (like Rearden who want to take the chance of "no one looks back--like Randi and Wolfe)

I believe "a look back" is the remedy that is required to protect the integrity of Rearden's court and many who have engaged in the original meaning of impeachment. Of course, there needs for it to be televised because the picture of a political gang is concealed from the public

The public cannot trust the integrity of the courts when judges operate as protectors of political figures rather than neutral adjudicators. I do not fear political reprisal. What I fear is a judiciary that acts above the Constitution.

Judge Rearden has already committed misconduct. If she refuses to rule on the record before her, she will be committing another crime—and I am placing this letter on file to ensure that the record reflects that fact.

Dear Judge Rearden, House Judicial Committee and Hon. Conard,

Under Rule 60 a close could opened again, and Your Honor failed to address your political association and now Your Honor’s integrity is in question—I did not do that to you.

Hon, Rearden is upset that now her integrity is in question because she lied about some that, the beginning, led to impeachment. I did deprive Hon. Rearden of free will, as she made a choice and like I have made choices in the quest to bring sun to Randi

As in here, the issue Sen. Gillibrand and Ranid Weingarten are well-known political allies. The quest dates to the Federalist Papers.

The issue here is a dismissal prior to being allowed to amend but even out amend, Hon. Rearden issued a decision that has been repeatedly charged under 18 USC § 371 and is a letter that I am questing Hon. Conard to provide some training as I have it now, Livingston planned it.

Your Honor knowingly deprived of right to help Schumer and your senator. So, I was against because I complained about Schumer and Randi—then Engelmayer committed two crimes—one being retaliation for telling on and the second because I tried to enforce his order—there is serious issues that have not been dealt.

Please explain why I am not entitled to same rights as any other—as present evidence and a calling witness is a known needed not go to jail.

Please explain why I am not entitled to the same protection—

I was nearly raped and the UFT and DOE played a game where—if you that you were illegal detained, then you have your money. Now, I have presented a claim of Crime-Fraud Exception with the fact that I have audios to present, and I have people to call in relation to then and then –maybe—Prof. Geyh.

But it is not the issue of money, the issue is they played a game based on what happened to me with NYPD—yet, Ms. Price, same everything, received her retro. Due to the fact Brown came into PERB with “on payroll” as the reason for not being paid with the document of DOE’s prior knowledge, Brown and I had an exchange because the language is “continuous employment”

Please know that I have come into your in say I am sorry because do not like what I become when it deals Randi and the UFT. I believe that I should have the same rights as any other American. I am not asking to have rights on par with Randi and the UFT

I have no problem telling the whole story and I am –I hope—for comments that I believe that will get

If Your Honor wants to sanction, I beg for hearing with witnesses and evidence with it being televised. I do not know what to believe at times because I am always wondering –are they for real or they are missing or did I catch off guard. I can tell what I audio recorded, and I can I believe

Your Honor’s decision, but the fact that you did not apply facts you stated with the case you stated—is grounds for me to complaint for 18 USC § 371 with the fact it was supposedly preplanned—if Your Honor—this is the same crime of Judge Cogan and what I heard with Judge Marrero on the audio, and I was not allowed to call witnesses—meaningless. If the public were known—not going beyond what you, then people will understand what I have been quoting about Randi’s case fixing. I was not even asking you to look back at the record—look only at the paper you wrote

Your Honor’s opinion echoes what is found in the federalist papers-- the Cartel is the same as I read in the Federalist Paper.

If Honor Your wants me to find case law, you assumed that I was stupid and judge (something) dignity—sending crap out without reading it is now just a habit and should really proofread. I find Prof Geyh would be someone that the Cartel needs to read—as the list grows when they lie for him and her.

I do not do this now, but I would like you to ponder the connection and that I have made these statements numerous, and I have asked during discovery—this goes back maybe ten years

I believe that Judge Lehrburger will deny Fraud claim or something without any hearing, as the is to ensure that the truth will never see the day of light.

Do not be afraid of the truth and remember this is Randi's fault as she wants to harm with no one doing and am only requesting a hearing to present evidence and call witnesses that were denied to me.

Please inform if I could docket the motion now in front of Judge Lehrburger --my entitled right to a remedy based on HIV future harm based on Supreme Court case

'Do you think it is that Schumer and Randi are getting away with what they have to done and there is a remedy?

How many times should I allow the Cartel to retaliate either for him or Randi or both?

As Your Honor's aide in the group's retaliation for telling on them—are you now telling that my life is not worth anything—this would help the people who believe that you biased against the disabled , the Cartel should be allowed to get away with what they and not have the public—I would be fine with that remedy

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Judicial notice of Clerk Wolfe's ongoing pattern of obstructing access to the appellate process, in violation of constitutional and statutory rights;
2. Immediate referral of Wolfe to the Chief Judge of the Circuit for investigation under § 372(c);
3. Issuance of an order compelling the docketing, review, and restoration of Plaintiff's suppressed appellate filings;
4. Consideration of structural relief, including evidentiary hearing, sanctions, and restoration of due process protections;

5. Any additional relief necessary to ensure Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory rights are vindicated.

520 US 259 \(1997\)--in most cases of

respondent Lanier was convicted under 18 U. S. C. § 242 of criminally violating the constitutional rights of five women by assaulting them sexually while he served as a state judge. The jury had been instructed, inter alia, that the Government had to prove as an element of the offense that Lanier had deprived the victims of their Fourteenth Amendment due process right to liberty, which included the right to be free from sexually motivated physical assaults and coerced sexual battery. The en banc Sixth Circuit set aside the convictions for lack of any notice to the public that § 242 covers simple or sexual assault crimes. Invoking general interpretive canons and Screws v. United States, 325 U. S. 91 (plurality opinion), the court held that § 242 criminal liability may be imposed only if the constitutional right said to have been violated is first identified in a decision of this Court, and only when the right has been held to apply in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The court regarded these combined requirements as substantially higher than the "clearly established" standard used to judge qualified immunity in civil cases under 42 U. S. C. § 1983.

Held: The Sixth Circuit employed the wrong standard for determining whether particular conduct falls within the range of criminal liability under § 242. Section 242's general language prohibiting "the deprivation of any rights ... secured ... by the Constitution" does not describe the specific conduct it forbids, but-like its companion conspiracy statute, 18 U. S. C. § 241-incorporates constitutional law by reference. Before criminal liability may be imposed for violation of any penal law, due process requires "fair warning ... of what the law intends." McBoyle v. United States, 283 U. S. 25, 27. The touchstone is whether the statute, either standing alone or as construed by the courts, made it reasonably clear at the time of the charged conduct that the conduct was criminal. Section 242 was construed in light of this due process requirement in Screws, supra. The Sixth Circuit erred in adding as a gloss to this standard the requirement that a prior decision of this Court have declared the constitutional right at issue in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The Screws plurality referred in general terms to rights made specific by "decisions interpreting" the Constitution, see 325 U. S., at 104; no subsequent case has confined the

PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 AND 455—Judicial Conference references reappointment when the reappointment was to gain certain rulings

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455(a) due to (1) his failure to disclose individuals involved in his reappointment panel who are connected to this matter; (2) the appearance of quid pro quo favoritism in rulings made during the reappointment process; (3) suppression of discovery that would expose retaliation by Randi Weingarten and political actors including Senator Charles Schumer; and (4) structural bias that permeates the proceeding.

I. LEGAL STANDARDS

Under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), a judge must disqualify himself in any proceeding where "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned." Under § 455(b)(1), recusal is mandatory where the judge "has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party." Similarly, under § 144, a party may seek disqualification with a timely and sufficient affidavit showing personal bias or prejudice. Canons 2 and 3 of the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges and Advisory Opinion No. 97 require recusal of a magistrate judge during a reappointment period if a member of the reappointment panel is a party or attorney in the case. Failure to disclose or recuse under such circumstances violates judicial ethics and due process.

II. GROUNDS FOR RECUSAL

A. Failure to Disclose Reappointment Panel Members—as Officer Cudina informed me that Chief Judge Livingston will ensure that I would never recover for complaining about Schumer and Randi Weingarten

According to Advisory Opinion No. 97, recusal is required during a magistrate judge's reappointment if any panel member appears as counsel or party. Plaintiff reasonably believes individuals from the U.S. Attorney's Office and others involved in this matter were part of Judge Lehrburger's panel. The failure to disclose these connections violates Canon 3C(1) and undermines public confidence in impartial adjudication. See Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 865 (1988).

The fact Schumer's and Randi's retaliation to deprive me of meds that caused HIV drug resistance is being concealed and Your Honor's insinuation that HIV is God's give for gay is rooted in the history with your free use without explanation of "Frivolous" and Officer Cudina's statement of Livingston said I got what I deserved for complaining about powerful people like Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

As I was being deprived, Randi wrote Hon. Gleason and others about "haven't I had enough yet." Randi has done this when she taken actions and succeeded that she egregiously nasty with pure malice, like posting my HIV status on a website =.

B. Appearance of Quid Pro Quo Favoritism

Judge Lehrburger's rulings consistently suppress discovery into misconduct by Randi Weingarten and related actors. These rulings occurred during his reappointment process, creating a reasonable appearance that rulings were designed to secure continued tenure through favorable treatment of influential parties. This violates due process as articulated in Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009), where the Court held that a serious risk of bias created by political or financial ties mandates recusal.

C. Prejudgment and Suppression of Retaliation Evidence

Officer Cudina confirmed that Judge Engelmayer's orders were not enforced due to side arrangements with Randi Weingarten, Judge Cogan, and Judge Donnelly. Clerk Wolfe made statements suggesting retaliatory intent. Yet, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger refused to authorize subpoenas or explore discovery related to the deprivation of Plaintiff's HIV medications and mental health defamation. Courts must remedy such suppression. See Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238, 245 (1944) (fraud and concealment require vacatur).

D. Structural Bias: Protection of Political Cartel and Retaliatory Network

Plaintiff asserts that Senator Schumer's political network ("Schumer's cartel") actively shielded Randi Weingarten from accountability. Judicial officers appointed or influenced by this network acted to suppress the development of a factual record implicating them. This is precisely the kind of systemic favoritism condemned in Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997), where the Court allowed discovery into a judge's pattern of biased rulings designed to cover corruption. Randi Weingarten's improper access and use of Plaintiff's HIPAA-protected health information to label Plaintiff as unstable remains unexplored by the Court. This constitutes a violation of constitutional privacy interests and due process under Doe v. City of New York, 15 F.3d 264 (2d Cir. 1994).

III. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

For the reasons stated, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455;
2. Vacate all rulings made during his reappointment period due to structural bias and appearance of impropriety;
3. Permit discovery into HIPAA violations, political interference, and coordination between the judiciary and Randi Weingarten;
4. Grant any further relief deemed just and proper.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPEAL AND SET ASIDE MAGISTRATE RULINGS (MAY 1–PRESENT) PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 72 AND 28 U.S.C. § 636

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN P. CRONAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to appeal and vacate all rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger from May 1, 2025 through the present, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) & (b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), on the grounds that they are clearly erroneous, contrary to law, and tainted by bias, including discriminatory hostility toward Plaintiff as a gay man and person living with HIV.

This motion particularly challenges the finding that Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint is “futile”, and the repeated disregard for judicially noticeable law, public policy under the NYC Charter, and direct documentary evidence of constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff raises serious concern that the magistrate's rulings reflect a pattern of animus and prejudice against LGBTQ+ litigants that undermines due process and equal protection.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 72(b), dispositive recommendations by a magistrate judge, such as a finding of futility under Rule 15, are subject to de novo review. Even non-dispositive matters may be set aside under Rule 72(a) if they are “clearly erroneous or contrary to law.” See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Moreover, where a magistrate's rulings are tainted by actual or apparent bias, they must be vacated to preserve constitutional fairness. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009).

II. MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER'S FINDINGS REFLECT BIAS AND DISCRIMINATORY HOSTILITY

Plaintiff respectfully asserts that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's conduct and rulings reflect not mere disagreement over law, but a broader pattern of discriminatory indifference and targeted hostility toward Plaintiff's identity as a gay man living with HIV, including:

- Dismissive tone and treatment of claims involving sexual orientation, discrimination, HIV access to care, and mental health ridicule;
- Refusal to acknowledge or apply Second Circuit precedent protecting ADA/504 claimants with HIV or LGBTQ+ status;
- A pattern of minimizing or disregarding Plaintiff's factual allegations where they involve union retaliation, medical denials, or stigma rooted in sexuality and disability;

- Overlooking evidence showing that agencies such as Probation were cc'ed on communications documenting rights violations, and mischaracterizing those allegations as futile.

Taken together, these acts indicate a level of antipathy that goes beyond judicial skepticism—constituting what courts have called “an appearance of bias or hostility so severe that it undermines public confidence in impartiality.” See Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

III. THE CHALLENGED RULINGS IGNORE RELEVANT FACTS AND LAW

A. Judicial Notice of NYC Charter (Fed. R. Evid. 201)

Judge Lehrburger improperly rejected or failed to consider the City Charter as a legally binding source of public policy and Monell liability, contrary to:

- Fed. R. Evid. 201(b) (judicial notice of government law and policy),
- Monell v. Dept. of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978),
- Second Circuit precedent recognizing city policies as basis for constitutional harm (Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 2000)).

B. Factual Allegations Were Not Futile

Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint identified:

- Specific acts of retaliation, benefit denial, and discriminatory harassment;
- Ongoing injury caused by municipal actors;
- City officials with actual knowledge (e.g., Department of Probation, cc'ed on emails) who failed to act.

Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,

- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff’s favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff’s proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and
4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

Respectfully submitted,

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

NOTICE OF INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL

(Pursuant to the Collateral Order Doctrine)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Plaintiff Lucio Celli, pro se, hereby give Judge Conan that I will appeal to him and then the 2d Cir—if Your Honor accepts the ruling — for which:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->Overlooked Plaintiff's claim for future harm relief, despite detailed factual pleadings and documentation showing that the continued denial of HIV medication by Defendants has led to immune system damage and drug resistance, creating an ongoing and foreseeable threat to Plaintiff's health and life, in violation of federal disability and health statutes;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Failed to acknowledge or enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior order, which formed the legal basis for Plaintiff's reinstatement and medical coverage, and which Defendants (including the UFT and DOE) have circumvented by refusing to provide prescription drug benefits despite the City placing Plaintiff back on payroll—and for Due Process violation under Roth and Loudermill;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Denied Plaintiff meaningful access to relief, in violation of Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002), City of Los Angeles v. Lyons, 461 U.S. 95 (1983), and the fundamental right to seek judicial redress for constitutional and statutory harm.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->Crime-fraud Exception for wages, and pension wages with adverse employment actions under Title VII, Title IX, ACA, ADA, 504, and §1983[1]

<!--[if !supportLists]-->5. <!--[endif]-->CBA review under Title VII, Title IX, ACA, ADA, 504, and §1983[2]

This interlocutory appeal is taken pursuant to the collateral order doctrine articulated in Cohen v. Beneficial Industrial Loan Corp., 337 U.S. 541 (1949), as the challenged orders:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Conclusively determine important issues affecting Plaintiff's access to essential medical treatment and enforcement of a prior federal order;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Address issues wholly separate from the merits of Plaintiff's claims against other parties;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Are effectively unreviewable after final judgment, particularly in the context of future harm and denial of medically necessary benefits.

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint and Referral for Impeachment Review – Judge Jennifer Rearden (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Members of the Judicial Council and Judicial Conference,

I write to formally submit a complaint and request immediate action regarding judicial misconduct committed by United States District Judge Jennifer H. Rearden. Her actions are not only improper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–354, but also meet the original constitutional threshold for impeachment under Article II, § 4, as described in Federalist No. 65 and publicly posted on the House Judiciary Committee's website.

I. ALLEGATIONS OF POLITICAL MISUSE AND RETALIATION

Judge Rearden has:

1. Threatened me with sanctions after I submitted filings addressing political misuse of the federal judiciary and a conspiracy involving Randi Weingarten, Judge Paul Engelmayer, and Chief Judge Debra Livingston;

2. Illegally deleted or ordered the deletion of a memorandum from the docket that directly implicated Judge Rearden in political protection schemes and misconduct;
3. Ignored dispositive motions containing verified evidence of a coordinated plan to suppress filings, block access to medical care and wages, and protect union-aligned officials;
4. Misuse of office by a political gang was the first meaning of impeachment, but instead of addressing the conspiracy, she added it by saying I looked at it and didn't address the Supreme Court Case of Denis that a civil where a plaintiff has alleged conspiracy between state actor and private actor cannot be dismissed.

This is not neutral conduct—it is part of a deliberate pattern of gang-style political retaliation, which mirrors the very definition of a “high crime or misdemeanor” intended for impeachment, according to both constitutional history. However, I cannot find a complaint that would address how the House Judiciary's practice would or would not move forward.

II. VIOLATION OF FEDERAL LAW

Judge Rearden's actions constitute criminal violations under:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy against rights (by suppressing filings, punishing protected speech, and blocking relief);
- 18 U.S.C. § 371 – Conspiracy to defraud the United States (through obstruction of judicial function);
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges – Requiring the avoidance of impropriety and a duty to report known judicial misconduct.

Her continued refusal to rule on matters involving Randi Weingarten and Judge Engelmayer, after suppressing a memo detailing political misuse of her office, constitutes ongoing criminal misconduct and requires immediate oversight.

III. REQUEST FOR INVESTIGATION AND REFERRAL

I respectfully request that:

1. The Judicial Council of the Second Circuit conduct a full investigation into Judge Rearden's actions, including:
  - Docket manipulation,

- Suppression of filings,
  - Retaliation threats, and
  - Political entanglements.
2. The Judicial Conference initiate a referral to the House Judiciary Committee for impeachment proceedings, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 355;
  3. All deleted or sealed documents from my case be recovered, reviewed, and made public under appropriate judicial transparency protocols.
  4. The House may consider it too

Either way, I can do a show and tell, especially where judges (like Rearden who want to take the chance of "no one looks back--like Randi and Wolfe)

I believe "a look back" is the remedy that is required to protect the integrity of Rearden's court and many who have engaged in the original meaning of impeachment. Of course, there needs for it to be televised because the picture of a political gang is concealed from the public

The public cannot trust the integrity of the courts when judges operate as protectors of political figures rather than neutral adjudicators. I do not fear political reprisal. What I fear is a judiciary that acts above the Constitution.

Judge Rearden has already committed misconduct. If she refuses to rule on the record before her, she will be committing another crime—and I am placing this letter on file to ensure that the record reflects that fact.

Hon, Rearden is upset that now her integrity is in question because she lied about some that, the beginning, led to impeachment. I did deprive Hon. Rearden of free will, as she made a choice and like I have made choices in the quest to bring sun to Randi

As in here, the issue Sen. Gillibrand and Ranid Weingarten are well-known political allies. The quest dates to the Federalist Papers.

The issue here is a dismissal prior to being allowed to amend but even out amend, Hon. Rearden issued a decision that has been repeatedly charged under 18 USC § 371 and is a letter that I am questing Hon. Conard to provide some training as I have it now, Livingston planned it.

Your Honor knowingly deprived of right to help Schumer and your senator. So, I was against because I complained about Schumer and Randi—then Engelmayer committed two crimes—one being retaliation for telling on and the second because I tried to enforce his order—there is serious issues that have not been dealt.

Please explain why I am not entitled to same rights as any other—as present evidence and a calling witness is a known needed not go to jail.

But it is not the issue of money, the issue is they played a game based on what happened to me with NYPD—yet, Ms. Price, same everything, received her retro. Your Honor’s decision, but the fact that you did not apply facts you stated with the case you stated—is grounds for me to complaint for 18 USC § 371 with the fact it was supposedly preplanned—if Your Honor—this is the same crime of Judge Cogan and what I heard with Judge Marrero on the audio, and I was not allowed to call witnesses—meaningless. If the public were known—not going beyond what you, then people will understand what I have been quoting about Randi’s case fixing. I was not even asking you to look back at the record—look only at the paper you wrote

Your Honor's opinion echoes what is found in the federalist papers-- the Cartel is the same as I read in the Federalist Paper.

If Honor Your wants me to find case law, you assumed that I was stupid and judge (something) dignity—sending crap out without reading it is now just a habit and should really proofread. I find Prof Geyh would be someone that the Cartel needs to read—as the list grows when they lie for him and her.

I do not do this now, but I would like you to ponder the connection and that I have made these statements numerous, and I have asked during discovery—this goes back maybe ten years

I believe that Judge Lehrburger will deny Fraud claim or something without any hearing, as the is to ensure that the truth will never see the day of light.

Do not be afraid of the truth and remember this is Randi's fault as she wants to harm with no one doing and am only requesting a hearing to present evidence and call witnesses that were denied to me.

Please inform if I could docket the motion now in front of Judge Lehrburger --my entitled right to a remedy based on HIV future harm based on Supreme Court case

'Do you think it is that Schumer and Randi are getting away with what they have to done and there is a remedy?

How many times should I allow the Cartel to retaliate either for him or Randi or both?

As Your Honor's aide in the group's retaliation for telling on them—are you now telling that my life is not worth anything—this would help the people who believe that you biased against the disabled , the Cartel should be allowed to get away with what they and not have the public –I would be fine with that remedy

- Fifth Amendment: The suppression of appeal rights and procedural access denied Plaintiff due process, particularly where the district court's rulings were based on misrepresentations and known perjury.
- 28 U.S.C. § 372(c): Clerk Wolfe's actions constitute judicial misconduct by a court officer, warranting disciplinary referral for abuse of office and failure to perform statutory duties under 28 U.S.C. § 751.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Judicial notice of Clerk Wolfe's ongoing pattern of obstructing access to the appellate process, in violation of constitutional and statutory rights;
2. Immediate referral of Wolfe to the Chief Judge of the Circuit for investigation under § 372(c);
3. Issuance of an order compelling the docketing, review, and restoration of Plaintiff's suppressed appellate filings;
4. Consideration of structural relief, including evidentiary hearing, sanctions, and restoration of due process protections;
5. Any additional relief necessary to ensure Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory rights are vindicated.

520 U.S. 259 \(1997\)--in most cases of

respondent Lanier was convicted under 18 U. S. C. § 242 of criminally violating the constitutional rights of five women by assaulting them sexually while he served as a state judge. The jury had been instructed, inter alia, that the Government had to prove as an element of the offense that Lanier had deprived the victims of their Fourteenth Amendment due process right to liberty, which included the right to be free from sexually motivated physical assaults and coerced sexual battery. The en banc Sixth Circuit set aside the convictions for lack of any notice to the public that § 242 covers simple or sexual assault crimes. Invoking general interpretive canons and Screws v. United States, 325 U.S. 91 (plurality opinion), the court held that § 242 criminal liability may be imposed only if the constitutional right said to have been violated is first identified in a decision of this Court, and only when the right has been held to apply in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The court regarded these combined requirements as substantially higher than the "clearly established" standard used to judge qualified immunity in civil cases under 42 U. S. C. § 1983.

Held: The Sixth Circuit employed the wrong standard for determining whether particular conduct falls within the range of criminal liability under § 242. Section 242's general language prohibiting "the deprivation of any rights ... secured ... by the Constitution" does not describe the specific conduct it forbids, but-like its companion conspiracy statute, 18 U. S. C. § 241-incorporates constitutional law by reference. Before criminal liability may be imposed for violation of any penal law, due process requires "fair warning ... of what the law intends." McBoyle v. United States, 283 U.S. 25, 27. The touchstone is whether the statute, either standing alone or as construed by the courts, made it reasonably clear at the time of the charged conduct that the conduct was criminal. Section 242 was construed in light of this due process requirement in Screws, supra. The Sixth Circuit erred in adding as a gloss to this standard the requirement that a prior decision of this Court have declared the constitutional right at issue in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The Screws plurality referred in general terms to rights made specific by "decisions interpreting" the Constitution, see 325 U. S., at 104; no subsequent case has confined the

MOTION TO DISQUALIFY MAGISTRATE JUDGE STEWART D. LEHRBURGER PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 AND 455—Judicial Conference references

reappointment when the reappointment was to gain certain rulings

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455(a) due to (1) his failure to disclose individuals involved in his reappointment panel who are connected to this matter; (2) the appearance of quid pro quo favoritism in rulings made during the reappointment process; (3) suppression of discovery that would expose retaliation by Randi Weingarten and political actors including Senator Charles Schumer; and (4) structural bias that permeates the proceeding.

I. LEGAL STANDARDS

Under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), a judge must disqualify himself in any proceeding where "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned." Under § 455(b)(1), recusal is mandatory where the judge "has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party." Similarly, under § 144, a party may seek disqualification with a timely and sufficient affidavit showing personal bias or prejudice. Canons 2 and 3 of the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges and Advisory Opinion No. 97 require recusal of a magistrate judge during a reappointment period if a member of the reappointment panel is a party or attorney in the case. Failure to disclose or recuse under such circumstances violates judicial ethics and due process.

II. GROUNDS FOR RECUSAL

A. Failure to Disclose Reappointment Panel Members—as Officer Cudina informed me that Chief Judge Livingston will ensure that I would never recover for complaining about Schumer and Randi Weingarten

According to Advisory Opinion No. 97, recusal is required during a magistrate judge's reappointment if any panel member appears as counsel or party. Plaintiff reasonably believes individuals from the U.S. Attorney's Office and others involved in this matter were part of Judge Lehrburger's panel. The failure to disclose these connections violates Canon 3C(1) and undermines public confidence in impartial adjudication. See Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 865 (1988).

The fact Schumer's and Randi's retaliation to deprive me of meds that caused HIV drug resistance is being concealed and Your Honor's insinuation that HIV is God's give for gay is rooted in the history with your free use without explanation of "Frivolous" and Officer Cudina's statement of Livingston said I got what I deserved for complaining about powerful people like Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

As I was being deprived, Randi wrote Hon. Gleason and others about "haven't I had enough yet." Randi has done this when she taken actions and succeeded that she egregiously nasty with pure malice, like posting my HIV status on a website =.

B. Appearance of Quid Pro Quo Favoritism

Judge Lehrburger's rulings consistently suppress discovery into misconduct by Randi Weingarten and related actors. These rulings occurred during his reappointment process, creating a reasonable appearance that rulings were designed to secure continued tenure through favorable treatment of influential parties. This violates due process as articulated in Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009), where the Court held that a serious risk of bias created by political or financial ties mandates recusal.

C. Prejudgment and Suppression of Retaliation Evidence

Officer Cudina confirmed that Judge Engelmayer's orders were not enforced due to side arrangements with Randi Weingarten, Judge Cogan, and Judge Donnelly. Clerk Wolfe made statements suggesting retaliatory intent. Yet, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger refused to authorize subpoenas or explore discovery related to the deprivation of Plaintiff's HIV medications and mental health defamation. Courts must remedy such suppression. See Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238, 245 (1944) (fraud and concealment require vacatur).

D. Structural Bias: Protection of Political Cartel and Retaliatory Network

Plaintiff asserts that Senator Schumer's political network ("Schumer's cartel") actively shielded Randi Weingarten from accountability. Judicial officers appointed or influenced by this network acted to suppress the development of a factual record implicating them. This is precisely the kind of systemic favoritism condemned in Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997), where the Court allowed discovery into a judge's pattern of biased rulings designed to cover corruption. Randi Weingarten's improper access and use of Plaintiff's HIPAA-protected health information to label Plaintiff as unstable remains unexplored by the Court. This constitutes a violation of constitutional privacy interests and due process under Doe v. City of New York, 15 F.3d 264 (2d Cir. 1994).

III. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

For the reasons stated, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455;
2. Vacate all rulings made during his reappointment period due to structural bias and appearance of impropriety;
3. Permit discovery into HIPAA violations, political interference, and coordination between the judiciary and Randi Weingarten;
4. Grant any further relief deemed just and proper.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPEAL AND SET ASIDE MAGISTRATE RULINGS (MAY 1–PRESENT) PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 72 AND 28 U.S.C. § 636

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN P. CRONAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to appeal and vacate all rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger from May 1, 2025 through the present, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) & (b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), on the grounds that they are clearly erroneous, contrary to law, and tainted by bias, including discriminatory hostility toward Plaintiff as a gay man and person living with HIV.

This motion particularly challenges the finding that Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint is "futile", and the repeated disregard for judicially noticeable law, public policy under the NYC Charter, and direct documentary evidence of constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff raises serious concern that the magistrate's rulings reflect a pattern of animus and prejudice against LGBTQ+ litigants that undermines due process and equal protection.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 72(b), dispositive recommendations by a magistrate judge, such as a finding of futility under Rule 15, are subject to de novo review. Even non-dispositive matters may be set aside under Rule 72(a) if they are "clearly erroneous or contrary to law." See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Moreover, where a magistrate's rulings are tainted by actual or apparent bias, they must be vacated to preserve constitutional fairness. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009).

II. MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER'S FINDINGS REFLECT BIAS AND DISCRIMINATORY HOSTILITY

Plaintiff respectfully asserts that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's conduct and rulings reflect not mere disagreement over law, but a broader pattern of discriminatory indifference and targeted hostility toward Plaintiff's identity as a gay man living with HIV, including:

- Dismissive tone and treatment of claims involving sexual orientation, discrimination, HIV access to care, and mental health ridicule;
- Refusal to acknowledge or apply Second Circuit precedent protecting ADA/504 claimants with HIV or LGBTQ+ status;
- A pattern of minimizing or disregarding Plaintiff's factual allegations where they involve union retaliation, medical denials, or stigma rooted in sexuality and disability;
- Overlooking evidence showing that agencies such as Probation were cc'ed on communications documenting rights violations, and mischaracterizing those allegations as futile.

Taken together, these acts indicate a level of antipathy that goes beyond judicial skepticism—constituting what courts have called “an appearance of bias or hostility so severe that it undermines public confidence in impartiality.” See Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

III. THE CHALLENGED RULINGS IGNORE RELEVANT FACTS AND LAW

A. Judicial Notice of NYC Charter (Fed. R. Evid. 201)

Judge Lehrburger improperly rejected or failed to consider the City Charter as a legally binding source of public policy and Monell liability, contrary to:

- Fed. R. Evid. 201(b) (judicial notice of government law and policy),
- Monell v. Dep't. of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978),
- Second Circuit precedent recognizing city policies as basis for constitutional harm (Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 2000)).

B. Factual Allegations Were Not Futile

Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint identified:

- Specific acts of retaliation, benefit denial, and discriminatory harassment;
- Ongoing injury caused by municipal actors;
- City officials with actual knowledge (e.g., Department of Probation, cc'ed on emails) who failed to act.

Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff’s favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff’s proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and
4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION UNDER FED. R. CIV. P. 52(a)(1)
FOR FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, TO VACATE RULING ENTERED WITHOUT EVIDENTIARY RECORD OR WITNESSES

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully moves under Rule 52(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for findings of fact and conclusions of law. This Court’s ruling was issued in the absence of an evidentiary record and without allowing Plaintiff to call a single witness or introduce material evidence. The denial of a factual record violates the express requirement of Rule 52 and deprives Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to be heard, in direct violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. The decision should be vacated, or at minimum, clarified with specific findings and conclusions justifying the Court’s actions under law.

LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 52(a)(1) requires that:

“In an action tried on the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately. The findings and conclusions may be stated on the record after the close of the evidence or may appear in an opinion or a memorandum of decision filed by the court.”

This rule ensures that decisions are transparent, reviewable, and grounded in the factual record. A ruling without findings—and without evidence—violates both Rule 52 and the constitutional guarantees of fair process.

ARGUMENT

I. No Evidence Was Entered Into the Record, and No Witnesses Were Permitted

Despite Plaintiff’s multiple requests and proffers of evidence concerning the denial of benefits, retaliation, and deprivation of medical treatment (including HIV medication), the Court issued its ruling without receiving or considering any admissible factual material.

Plaintiff was never granted the opportunity to call witnesses, present audio recordings, introduce medical documentation, or cross-examine opposing parties. This lack of a record precludes meaningful factual determinations and makes it impossible to comply with Rule 52(a)(1).

II. The Court Issued a Ruling Without Findings or Legal Basis

A decision issued without any record evidence and without stated findings or conclusions fails to meet the minimum requirements for judicial review. See United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964) (“Rule 52(a) requires that the findings be explicit enough for appellate review”).

Issuing a ruling without identifying what facts were relied upon, or how the law was applied, amounts to an arbitrary deprivation of rights, contrary to Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254, 267 (1970) (requiring “an effective opportunity to defend by confronting adverse witnesses and by presenting arguments and evidence”).

III. The Denial of Evidence and Witnesses Was a Due Process Violation

Where a court forecloses factual development in a case involving fundamental rights—such as access to life-sustaining medical care, or procedural protections against retaliation—due process is violated. See Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 333 (1976) (requiring procedural safeguards proportional to the interests at stake); Logan v. Zimmerman Brush Co., 455 U.S. 422 (1982) (denial of process itself is a constitutional injury).

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Issue specific findings of fact and conclusions of law as required by Rule 52(a)(1);
2. Acknowledge that no evidence or testimony was ever received, in violation of procedural and constitutional law;
3. Vacate the ruling if it was based on an undeveloped record and re-open the matter for evidentiary hearing;
4. Grant leave for Plaintiff to submit documentary evidence and call witnesses on issues of constitutional and statutory violation.

Respectfully submitted,

Notice of Intent to File Motion Invoking Crime–Fraud Exception and for Sanctions Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11

Dear Judge [Last Name]:

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(c)(2) and Local Civil Rule 11.1, Plaintiff hereby provides formal 21-day notice of my intent to file a motion seeking:

1. An order compelling production of communications and documents currently withheld as privileged under the crime–fraud exception, see Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933); United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554 (1989), and Second Circuit authority (In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69 (2d Cir. 1999)).
2. Rule 11 sanctions against Defendants and their counsel for advancing factual contentions that lack evidentiary support, for asserting privilege to conceal ongoing fraudulent retaliation, and for causing unnecessary delay and expense.

Grounds for the Motion

- Prima-Facie Crime–Fraud Showing: Evidence already before the Court—including audio recordings, documentary admissions, and contradictory pleadings—establishes that counsel's communications were used in furtherance of a scheme to retaliate against me, deny medical benefits, and obstruct discovery. See Jacobs, 117 F.3d 82 (2d Cir. 1997).
- Meritless Denials & Misrepresentations: Defendants have repeatedly claimed I “failed to state a claim,” yet the Court's own standards under Twombly and Swierkiewicz require acceptance of my detailed factual allegations. Their continued refusal to admit obvious facts and their invocation of privilege to hide misconduct violate Rule 11(b)(3) and (b)(4).
- Need for In Camera Review: Under Zolin, the Court may inspect the disputed documents to confirm their nexus to wrongdoing before ordering full production.

Because I have plainly stated viable claims—including retaliation, denial of constitutional rights, and civil-rights conspiracy—Defendants' obstruction cannot be justified as zealous advocacy.

Requested Relief in the Anticipated Motion

- Compel immediate production of all materials falling within the crime–fraud exception, or, in the alternative, conduct an in camera review.
- Impose monetary and non-monetary sanctions sufficient to deter future misconduct, including costs and fees under Rule 11(c)(4).
- Any additional relief the Court deems just.

Next Steps

Unless Defendants withdraw their frivolous privilege assertions and correct the factual misrepresentations within twenty-one (21) days of service of this notice, I will file the Rule 11 motion together with my crime–fraud brief and proposed order.

Thank you for your attention.

Respectfully submitted,

(1)

(A),

a magistrate
judge

may not determine

issue

dispositive

orders on motions

such as:

- Motions
for injunctive relief
- Motions
for judgment
on the pleadings
- Motions
for summary

- Motions
to dismiss a class action
- Motions
for involuntary dismissal

These

are explicitly excluded from

a magistrate judge's independent authority,
and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule

on these motions
after receiving proposed findings
and recommendations from a magistrate
judge.

Moreover,
under 28
U.S.C.
§
636(c), a magistrate
judge
may only

Any

As

in Griggs

Co., 459
U.S.

of a notice
of appeal or a petition
for writ
of

This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice
of

is filed,
the district

is divested

order
of today
Plaintiff
respectfully submits this motion
to inform the Court
that a petition
for a writ
of mandamus
is presently pending before
the United

Court
of Appeals
for the Second Circuit,
and therefore requests
that the Court:
1.
Stay
all proceedings, 2.
Strike
the unlawful
May 8
and

May

deadlines,
and 3.
Acknowledge that Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's
continued
conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles
of jurisdiction
and judicial ethics.
4.
The fact that the Clerk Wolfe
is obstructing justice
is a fact for this for
to proceed
and it
only strengthens my claim
of her criminal conduct
I.
THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED
OF JURISDICTION DURING
THE PENDENCY
OF APPELLATE REVIEW
It
is longsettled
law
that once
a notice
of appeal or a mandamus
petition
is filed,
the district
court
is divested
of jurisdiction

over the issues presented:
“The filing
of a notice
of appeal
is an event
of jurisdictional significance
—

it confers jurisdiction
on the court
of appeals
and divests
the district court
of its control over those aspects
of the case involved
in the appeal.”
—

Griggs
v.
Provident Consumer Discount
Co., 459
U.S.
56, 58 (1982). “Once
a notice
of appeal
is filed,
the district
court
is divested
of jurisdiction
over those aspects
of the case involved
in the appeal.”

United States
v.
Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir.
1996).

Because Plaintiff
has now placed
the relevant subject matter
under
the jurisdiction
of
the Court
of Appeals via a mandamus
petition,
the district
court
is without authority
to proceed or enforce any deadlines
that touch on those issues.

II.
JUDGE
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL
INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate
Judge Lehrburger's attempt to proceed despite
the divestment
of jurisdiction
is not only void ab initio,
but,
in the context
of Plaintiff's allegations
and filings, reflects
a deliberate effort
to obstruct appellate review
and retaliate against the Plaintiff
for exercising

constitutional rights.
Moreover,
this Court's prior order (Dkt.
89) confirms that no
further action should be taken until appellate resolution,
and thus any new deadlines
—
including
May 8
and May 13
are without lawful basis.
Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure,
but also criminal statutes
such as:
18
U.S.C.
§
241 (conspiracy against rights),
18
U.S.C.
§
242 (deprivation of rights under color
of law),
18
U.S.C.
§
1512 (witness or litigant
intimidation).
III.
CONCLUSION
For
the foregoing reasons,
Plaintiff
respectfully requests
that the

Court:

Formally
stay all proceedings
in this matter,

Strike
the May 8, 2025
and May 13, 2025 deadlines
as unlawful,

Reiterate that no
further actions shall be taken by
the Magistrate
Judge or any officer
of the Court
until the appellate court
has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ
of mandamus.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO APPLY COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL AGAINST DEFENDANT UNITED FEDERATION OF TEACHERS BASED ON FINDINGS NECESSARILY DECIDED IN A CRIMINAL PROCEEDING

---

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to apply collateral estoppel (issue preclusion) against Defendant United Federation of Teachers (“UFT”) with respect to specific findings actually litigated and necessarily decided in a prior criminal proceeding that was adjudicated by the Honorable Judge Paul A. Engelmayer. These findings—set forth in a publicly docketed federal order—are binding in this civil proceeding as a matter of law under federal preclusion doctrine, particularly where the facts arise from the same nucleus of operative events and form the foundation of Plaintiff’s constitutional and statutory claims.

I. LEGAL STANDARD – COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL

Federal courts apply collateral estoppel when the following elements are met:

1. The identical issue was raised in a previous proceeding;
2. The issue was actually litigated and decided;
3. The determination of the issue was necessary to the outcome of the prior proceeding; and
4. The party to be estopped had a full and fair opportunity to litigate the issue.

See:

- Emich Motors Corp. v. General Motors Corp., 340 U.S. 558, 569 (1951) (findings in a criminal proceeding may be binding in a civil action where they were necessarily determined).
- Montana v. United States, 440 U.S. 147, 153 (1979).
- Parklane Hosiery Co. v. Shore, 439 U.S. 322 (1979) (offensive non-mutual collateral estoppel permitted in civil proceedings).

Additionally, under Fed. R. Evid. 803(22), a prior felony conviction may be used as substantive evidence of the facts it necessarily established.

II. FACTS SUBJECT TO ESTOPPEL FROM JUDGE ENGELMAYER'S ORDER

Judge Engelmayer's publicly issued ruling in [insert case name and docket number] established the following:

- That Plaintiff was subjected to [e.g., unlawful deprivation of procedural due process, coerced resignation, or retaliatory enforcement actions];
- That UFT representatives, including agents operating under the authority of Randi Weingarten, either caused or benefited from these unlawful acts;
- That public officials relied on misrepresentations, omissions, or manipulated investigatory findings linked directly to the UFT's influence over Plaintiff's employment and disciplinary proceedings.

These findings were the result of an adjudicated judicial determination made after substantial motion practice and evidentiary analysis. The order's factual recitations were essential to the court's conclusions and directly support Plaintiff's civil claims under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), the ADA, and constitutional due process and equal protection provisions.

III. APPLICATION TO UFT IN THIS PROCEEDING

Defendant UFT is collaterally estopped from relitigating these core issues because:

- The UFT acted in concert with co-defendants and public officials in both proceedings, either as a party-in-interest or active participant;
- The issue of UFT's retaliatory and procedurally improper conduct was central to Judge Engelmayer's factual findings;
- Judicial efficiency, fairness, and consistency in judgment strongly favor applying estoppel to avoid re-litigation of facts already judicially determined.

Where an organization like the UFT benefited from findings in a criminal context—or where its conduct was found to have contributed to unconstitutional acts—it cannot be permitted to reargue those facts simply because the forum is civil rather than criminal.

IV. CONCLUSION

This Court should grant Plaintiff's motion to apply collateral estoppel to bar the UFT from disputing those facts that were fully litigated and necessarily decided in Judge Engelmayer's prior federal order, as they are integral to Plaintiff's claims and arose from the same retaliatory pattern and scheme.

NOTICE OF INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL

(Pursuant to the Collateral Order Doctrine)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Plaintiff Lucio Celli, pro se, hereby give Judge Conan that I will appeal to him and then the 2d Cir—if Your Honor accepts the ruling — for which:

1. Overlooked Plaintiff's claim for future harm relief, despite detailed factual pleadings and documentation showing that the continued denial of HIV medication by Defendants has led to immune system damage and drug resistance, creating an ongoing and foreseeable threat to Plaintiff's health and life, in violation of federal disability and health statutes;
2. Failed to acknowledge or enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior order, which formed the legal basis for Plaintiff's reinstatement and medical coverage, and which Defendants (including the UFT and DOE) have circumvented by refusing to provide prescription drug benefits despite the City placing Plaintiff back on payroll—and for Due Process violation under Roth and Loudermill;
3. Denied Plaintiff meaningful access to relief, in violation of Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002), City of Los Angeles v. Lyons, 461 U.S. 95 (1983), and the fundamental right to seek judicial redress for constitutional and statutory harm.
4. Crime-fraud Exception for wages, and pension wages with adverse employment actions under Title VII, Title IX, ACA, ADA, 504, and §1983[1]
5. CBA review under Title VII, Title IX, ACA, ADA, 504, and §1983[2]

This interlocutory appeal is taken pursuant to the collateral order doctrine articulated in Cohen v. Beneficial Industrial Loan Corp., 337 U.S. 541 (1949), as the challenged orders:

- Conclusively determine important issues affecting Plaintiff's access to essential medical treatment and enforcement of a prior federal order;
- Address issues wholly separate from the merits of Plaintiff's claims against other parties;

- Are effectively unreviewable after final judgment, particularly in the context of future harm and denial of medically necessary benefits.

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint and Referral for Impeachment Review – Judge Jennifer Rearden (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Members of the Judicial Council and Judicial Conference,

I write to formally submit a complaint and request immediate action regarding judicial misconduct committed by United States District Judge Jennifer H. Rearden. Her actions are not only improper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–354, but also meet the original constitutional threshold for impeachment under Article II, § 4, as described in Federalist No. 65 and publicly posted on the House Judiciary Committee’s website.

I. ALLEGATIONS OF POLITICAL MISUSE AND RETALIATION

Judge Rearden has:

1. Threatened me with sanctions after I submitted filings addressing political misuse of the federal judiciary and a conspiracy involving Randi Weingarten, Judge Paul Engelmayer, and Chief Judge Debra Livingston;

2. Illegally deleted or ordered the deletion of a memorandum from the docket that directly implicated Judge Rearden in political protection schemes and misconduct;
3. Ignored dispositive motions containing verified evidence of a coordinated plan to suppress filings, block access to medical care and wages, and protect union-aligned officials;
4. Misuse of office by a political gang was the first meaning of impeachment, but instead of addressing the conspiracy, she added it by saying I looked at it and didn't address the Supreme Court Case of Denis that a civil where a plaintiff has alleged conspiracy between state actor and private actor cannot be dismissed.

This is not neutral conduct—it is part of a deliberate pattern of gang-style political retaliation, which mirrors the very definition of a “high crime or misdemeanor” intended for impeachment, according to both constitutional history. However, I cannot find a complaint that would address how the House Judiciary's practice would or would not move forward.

II. VIOLATION OF FEDERAL LAW

Judge Rearden's actions constitute criminal violations under:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy against rights (by suppressing filings, punishing protected speech, and blocking relief);
- 18 U.S.C. § 371 – Conspiracy to defraud the United States (through obstruction of judicial function);
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges – Requiring the avoidance of impropriety and a duty to report known judicial misconduct.

Her continued refusal to rule on matters involving Randi Weingarten and Judge Engelmayer, after suppressing a memo detailing political misuse of her office, constitutes ongoing criminal misconduct and requires immediate oversight.

III. REQUEST FOR INVESTIGATION AND REFERRAL

I respectfully request that:

1. The Judicial Council of the Second Circuit conduct a full investigation into Judge Rearden's actions, including:
  - Docket manipulation,
  - Suppression of filings,
  - Retaliation threats, and

- Political entanglements.
- 2. The Judicial Conference initiate a referral to the House Judiciary Committee for impeachment proceedings, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 355;
- 3. All deleted or sealed documents from my case be recovered, reviewed, and made public under appropriate judicial transparency protocols.
- 4. The House may consider it too

Either way, I can do a show and tell, especially where judges (like Rearden who want to take the chance of "no one looks back--like Randi and Wolfe)

I believe "a look back" is the remedy that is required to protect the integrity of Rearden's court and many who have engaged in the original meaning of impeachment. Of course, there needs for it to be televised because the picture of a political gang is concealed from the public

The public cannot trust the integrity of the courts when judges operate as protectors of political figures rather than neutral adjudicators. I do not fear political reprisal. What I fear is a judiciary that acts above the Constitution.

Judge Rearden has already committed misconduct. If she refuses to rule on the record before her, she will be committing another crime—and I am placing this letter on file to ensure that the record reflects that fact.

I do not do this now, but I would like you to ponder the connection and that I have made these statements numerous, and I have asked during discovery—this goes back maybe ten years

I believe that Judge Lehrburger will deny Fraud claim or something without any hearing, as the is to ensure that the truth will never see the day of light.

Do not be afraid of the truth and remember this is Randi's fault as she wants to harm with no one doing and am only requesting a hearing to present evidence and call witnesses that were denied to me.

Please inform if I could docket the motion now in front of Judge Lehrburger --my entitled right to a remedy based on HIV future harm based on Supreme Court case

'Do you think it is that Schumer and Randi are getting away with what they have to done and there is a remedy?

How many times should I allow the Cartel to retaliate either for him or Randi or both?

As Your Honor's aide in the group's retaliation for telling on them—are you now telling that my life is not worth anything—this would help the people who believe that you biased against the disabled , the Cartel should be allowed to get away with what they and not have the public –I would be fine with that remedy

241 doesn't ask degree but the elements found in the case below ---i can prove those elements and other from other criminal statutes

Please inform Chief Judge Livingston is I can sa televised TELL all for Randi and the UFT because the motherfuckers need to be exposed and NO American has their type of access in US Court

I

SUPREME COURT CASE LANIER PROVES THE ELEMENTS TO BE PROVEN CITATION 520 US 259 \(1997\)--in most cases of respondent Lanier was convicted under 18 U. S. C. § 242 of criminally violating the constitutional rights of five women by assaulting them sexually while he served as a state judge. The jury had been instructed, inter alia, that the Government had to prove as an element of the offense that Lanier had deprived the victims of their Fourteenth Amendment due process right to liberty, which included the right to be free from sexually motivated physical assaults and coerced sexual battery. The en banc Sixth Circuit set aside the convictions for lack of any notice to the public that § 242 covers simple or sexual assault crimes. Invoking general interpretive canons and Screws v. United States, 325 U. S. 91 (plurality opinion), the court held that § 242 criminal liability may be imposed only if the constitutional right said to have been violated is first identified in a decision of this Court, and only when the right has been held to apply in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The court regarded these combined requirements as substantially higher than the "clearly established" standard used to judge qualified immunity in civil cases under 42 U. S. C. § 1983.

Held: The Sixth Circuit employed the wrong standard for determining whether particular conduct falls within the range of criminal liability under § 242. Section 242's general language prohibiting "the deprivation of any rights ... secured ... by the Constitution" does not describe the specific conduct it forbids, but-like its companion conspiracy statute, 18 U. S. C. § 241-incorporates constitutional law by reference. Before criminal liability may be imposed for violation of any penal law, due process requires "fair warning ... of what the law intends." McBoyle v. United States, 283 U. S. 25, 27. The touchstone is whether the statute, either standing alone or as construed by the courts, made it reasonably clear at the time of the charged conduct that the conduct was criminal. Section 242 was construed in light of this due process requirement in Screws, supra. The Sixth Circuit erred in adding as a gloss to this standard the requirement that a prior decision of this Court have declared the constitutional right at issue in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The Screws plurality referred in general terms to rights made specific by "decisions interpreting" the Constitution, see 325 U. S., at 104; no subsequent case has confined the

MOTION TO DISQUALIFY MAGISTRATE JUDGE STEWART D. LEHRBURGER PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 AND 455—Judicial Conference references reappointment when the reappointment was to gain certain rulings

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. § 144 and 455(a) due to (1) his failure to disclose individuals involved in his reappointment panel who are connected to this matter; (2) the appearance of quid pro quo favoritism in rulings made during the reappointment process; (3) suppression of discovery that would expose retaliation by Randi Weingarten and political actors including Senator Charles Schumer; and (4) structural bias that permeates the proceeding.

I. LEGAL STANDARDS

Under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), a judge must disqualify himself in any proceeding where "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned." Under § 455(b)(1), recusal is mandatory where the judge "has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party." Similarly, under § 144, a party may seek disqualification with a timely and sufficient affidavit showing personal bias or prejudice. Canons 2 and 3 of the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges and Advisory Opinion No. 97 require recusal of a magistrate judge during a reappointment period if a member of the reappointment panel is a party or attorney in the case. Failure to disclose or recuse under such circumstances violates judicial ethics and due process.

II. GROUNDS FOR RECUSAL

A. Failure to Disclose Reappointment Panel Members—as Officer Cudina informed me that Chief Judge Livingston will ensure that I would never recover for complaining about Schumer and Randi Weingarten

According to Advisory Opinion No. 97, recusal is required during a magistrate judge's reappointment if any panel member appears as counsel or party. Plaintiff reasonably believes individuals from the U.S. Attorney's Office and others involved in this matter were part of Judge Lehrburger's panel. The failure to disclose these connections violates Canon 3C(1) and undermines public confidence in impartial adjudication. See Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 865 (1988).

The fact Schumer's and Randi's retaliation to deprive me of meds that caused HIV drug resistance is being concealed and Your Honor's insinuation that HIV is God's give for gay is rooted in the history with your free use without explanation of "Frivolous" and Officer Cudina's statement of Livingston said I got what I deserved for complaining about powerful people like Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

As I was being deprived, Randi wrote Hon. Gleason and others about "haven't I had enough yet." Randi has done this when she taken actions and succeeded that she egregiously nasty with pure malice, like posting my HIV status on a website =.

B. Appearance of Quid Pro Quo Favoritism

Judge Lehrburger's rulings consistently suppress discovery into misconduct by Randi Weingarten and related actors. These rulings occurred during his reappointment process, creating a reasonable appearance that rulings were designed to secure continued tenure through favorable treatment of influential parties. This violates due process as articulated in Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009), where the Court held that a serious risk of bias created by political or financial ties mandates recusal.

C. Prejudgment and Suppression of Retaliation Evidence

Officer Cudina confirmed that Judge Engelmayer's orders were not enforced due to side arrangements with Randi Weingarten, Judge Cogan, and Judge Donnelly. Clerk Wolfe made statements suggesting retaliatory intent. Yet, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger refused to authorize subpoenas or explore discovery related to the deprivation of Plaintiff's HIV medications and mental health defamation. Courts must remedy such suppression. See Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238, 245 (1944) (fraud and concealment require vacatur).

D. Structural Bias: Protection of Political Cartel and Retaliatory Network

Plaintiff asserts that Senator Schumer's political network ("Schumer's cartel") actively shielded Randi Weingarten from accountability. Judicial officers appointed or influenced by this network acted to suppress the development of a factual record implicating them. This is precisely the kind of systemic favoritism condemned in Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997), where the Court allowed discovery into a judge's pattern of biased rulings designed to cover corruption. Randi Weingarten's improper access and use of Plaintiff's HIPAA-protected health information to label Plaintiff as unstable remains unexplored by the Court. This constitutes a violation of constitutional privacy interests and due process under Doe v. City of New York, 15 F.3d 264 (2d Cir. 1994).

III. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

For the reasons stated, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455;
2. Vacate all rulings made during his reappointment period due to structural bias and appearance of impropriety;
3. Permit discovery into HIPAA violations, political interference, and coordination between the judiciary and Randi Weingarten;
4. Grant any further relief deemed just and proper.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPEAL AND SET ASIDE MAGISTRATE RULINGS (MAY 1–PRESENT) PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 72 AND 28 U.S.C. § 636

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN P. CRONAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to appeal and vacate all rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger from May 1, 2025 through the present, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) & (b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), on the grounds that they are clearly erroneous, contrary to law, and tainted by bias, including discriminatory hostility toward Plaintiff as a gay man and person living with HIV.

This motion particularly challenges the finding that Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint is "futile", and the repeated disregard for judicially noticeable law, public policy under the NYC Charter, and direct documentary evidence of constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff raises serious concern that the magistrate's rulings reflect a pattern of animus and prejudice against LGBTQ+ litigants that undermines due process and equal protection.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 72(b), dispositive recommendations by a magistrate judge, such as a finding of futility under Rule 15, are subject to de novo review. Even non-dispositive matters may be set aside under Rule 72(a) if they are "clearly erroneous or contrary to law." See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Moreover, where a magistrate's rulings are tainted by actual or apparent bias, they must be vacated to preserve constitutional fairness. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009).

II. MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER'S FINDINGS REFLECT BIAS AND DISCRIMINATORY HOSTILITY

Plaintiff respectfully asserts that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's conduct and rulings reflect not mere disagreement over law, but a broader pattern of discriminatory indifference and targeted hostility toward Plaintiff's identity as a gay man living with HIV, including:

- Dismissive tone and treatment of claims involving sexual orientation, discrimination, HIV access to care, and mental health ridicule;
- Refusal to acknowledge or apply Second Circuit precedent protecting ADA/504 claimants with HIV or LGBTQ+ status;
- A pattern of minimizing or disregarding Plaintiff's factual allegations where they involve union retaliation, medical denials, or stigma rooted in sexuality and disability;
- Overlooking evidence showing that agencies such as Probation were cc'ed on communications documenting rights violations, and mischaracterizing those allegations as futile.

Taken together, these acts indicate a level of antipathy that goes beyond judicial skepticism—constituting what courts have called “an appearance of bias or hostility so severe that it undermines public confidence in impartiality.” See Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

III. THE CHALLENGED RULINGS IGNORE RELEVANT FACTS AND LAW

A. Judicial Notice of NYC Charter (Fed. R. Evid. 201)

Judge Lehrburger improperly rejected or failed to consider the City Charter as a legally binding source of public policy and Monell liability, contrary to:

- Fed. R. Evid. 201(b) (judicial notice of government law and policy),
- Monell v. Dept. of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978),
- Second Circuit precedent recognizing city policies as basis for constitutional harm (Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 2000)).

B. Factual Allegations Were Not Futile

Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint identified:

- Specific acts of retaliation, benefit denial, and discriminatory harassment;
- Ongoing injury caused by municipal actors;
- City officials with actual knowledge (e.g., Department of Probation, cc'ed on emails) who failed to act.

Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff’s favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff’s proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and

4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

Respectfully submitted,

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

NOTICE OF MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND TESTIMONY UNDER THE CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION—based on Law Dept’s obligation to publicly inform any changes in personnel rules, like those of attendance and retro, which implicates Mr. Brown because he is on record for “on payroll” but the language is “continuous employment.” Is the Court going to continue to turn a blind eye?

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Plaintiff hereby moves this Court pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1), 26(b)(5)(B), 37(a), and the crime-fraud exception to the attorney-client privilege as articulated by the Second Circuit in United States v. Doe (In re Grand Jury Subpoena), 103 F.3d 234 (2d Cir. 1996), for an order compelling the United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") and any attorneys or agents acting on its behalf to produce documents and testimony relating to fraudulent and unlawful conduct described herein. Your Honor ignored my Monell claims, prevented Ms. Peterson from testifying and other items, but Mr. Brown and the UFT cannot escape the fact that Law Dept must agree, and update personnel rules found in the NYC Admin Codes and found in the Chater for NYC.

I want the Court to take notice that it has allowed the UFT to commit any crimes without it being addressed

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO COMPEL

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff seeks disclosure of communications and records that would ordinarily be subject to attorney-client privilege but which fall within the crime-fraud exception, because they were made in furtherance of unlawful conduct designed to deprive Plaintiff of retroactive pay, employment rights, and critical health benefits. Specifically, the UFT and its agents knowingly misrepresented Plaintiff's employment status and misapplied legal terms in coordination with municipal actors to obstruct Plaintiff's access to remedies.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1), discovery may include any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to a party's claim or defense. Privilege does not extend to communications made in furtherance of fraud. In United States v. Doe, 103 F.3d 234 (2d Cir. 1996), the Second Circuit held that the crime-fraud exception applies where:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->there is a factual basis to believe the client was engaged in or planning fraudulent or criminal conduct; and

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->the communications were in furtherance of that conduct and closely related to it.

A prima facie showing is sufficient; actual proof of the underlying crime or fraud is not required at this stage.

III. ARGUMENT

A. The UFT's Counsel Made False Representations to Support Unlawful Denial of Retroactive Pay

In formal submissions and grievance documents, Attorney Brown represented that Plaintiff must be “on payroll” to qualify for retroactive payments. This language is materially false and misleading. The applicable Collective Bargaining Agreement and related statutes refer instead to the term “continuously employed”—a distinctly broader and legally significant term that protects employees on approved leave, suspension, or improperly withheld status.

This misrepresentation appears deliberate and is critical to the fraudulent outcome: Plaintiff was unlawfully denied retroactive wages to which he was contractually and statutorily entitled.

B. The Change in Interpretation Was Not Authorized by Law and Bypassed Mandatory Procedures

Under the New York City Charter, only the NYC Law Department is authorized to revise or interpret provisions of the Administrative Code, particularly when affecting personnel classifications or payroll eligibility. No such issuance occurred here.

Moreover, under the Taylor Law (Civil Service Law Article 14), all changes to the terms and conditions of employment—including eligibility for retroactive wages—are mandatory subjects of negotiation. Neither the UFT nor the DOE had unilateral authority to redefine these terms. Any legal advice or coordination to facilitate such a change without formal process constitutes an unlawful circumvention of collective bargaining obligations, further evidencing fraudulent intent.

C. Communications Were in Furtherance of a Coordinated Deprivation of Protected Rights

The communications and decisions by UFT counsel were not neutral legal advice. They were instrumental in effectuating an illegal denial of Plaintiff's retroactive pay and statutory employment protections. Combined with the coordinated obstruction of Plaintiff's access to health benefits and legal proceedings, they reflect a pattern of conduct that satisfies the threshold set in Doe and in Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933).

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->Order the production of all documents and communications between the UFT and its legal counsel that relate to the mischaracterization of “continuous employment” status, denial of retroactive pay, and coordination with DOE/NYC Law Department;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Alternatively, conduct an in camera review of those materials to determine whether the crime-fraud exception applies;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Grant costs and attorney's fees under Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(5), where appropriate, based on Defendants' obstruction of lawful discovery;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->Grant such further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743- MOTION TO COMPEL COMPLIANCE WITH JUDICIAL CONFLICT-SCREENING REQUIREMENTS AND DISCLOSURE UNDER FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE Rule 16(c)(2)(P) for bias

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

MOTION TO COMPEL COMPLIANCE WITH JUDICIAL CONFLICT-SCREENING REQUIREMENTS AND DISCLOSURE UNDER FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE Rule 16(c)(2)(P) for bias with others AND EVIDENCE rule 201 of Judicial Conference Advisory Opinion No. 97 which describes the situation herein because the Cartel held Lehrburger's job if he did not rule against me and in favor of Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 7(b) and Federal Rule of Evidence 201 to compel disclosure and remedial action based on the concealed conflict arising from Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger's reappointment, which was influenced by the Schumer voting bloc—a material political factor in this proceeding. The Judicial Conference of the United States adopted mandatory conflict-screening protocols in 2006, which are subject to judicial notice, and Plaintiff invokes those protocols as violated here.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion concerns the integrity of the judicial process in the face of an undisclosed political conflict. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's reappointment was dependent on a bloc that includes Senator Charles Schumer—who has a known affiliation with parties and attorneys in this matter. This entanglement was never screened, disclosed, or addressed. The Judicial Conference's 2006 policy required proactive, automated screening of such conflicts to uphold judicial impartiality. Judge Lehrburger's failure to disclose the political dynamics of his reappointment represents a structural due process violation that undermines confidence in every ruling he issued in this case.

II. RELEVANT LAW

A. Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

• Rule 7(b): This motion states with particularity the grounds and relief requested.

• Rule 16(c)(2)(P): Authorizes inquiry into issues of bias or unnecessary litigation where a judge's impartiality is in question.

• Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(i): Requires disclosure of individuals with discoverable information, including persons involved in the judge's reappointment process.

• Rule 60(b)(6): Permits relief from judgment for any reason justifying relief, including structural bias, political interference, and denial of due process.

• Rule 1: Mandates just and fair proceedings. Conflict concealment subverts that mandate.

B. Federal Rule of Evidence 201 (Judicial Notice)

• Under Rule 201(b), a court may take judicial notice of a fact not subject to reasonable dispute because it:

1. Is generally known within the court's territorial jurisdiction; or

2. Can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.

• Judicial notice is appropriate for:

○ The Judicial Conference of the United States' 2006 mandatory conflict-screening policy, which is a matter of public record and official judicial policy.

○ Senator Schumer's acknowledged role in judicial selection and reappointment panels within the Southern District of New York.

○ The existence and operation of the reappointment process that requires votes or approvals from political actors who are relevant to this case.

C. Relevant Ethics and Conduct Authority

• 28 U.S.C. § 455(a): Requires disqualification where a judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

• Judicial Conference Advisory Opinion No. 97: Prohibits a judge from presiding over a matter involving any attorney or party who participated in their reappointment.

• Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Holding that due process is violated when a judge fails to recuse in the face of significant financial or political influence.

III. ARGUMENT

Judge Lehrburger's decisions in this case were rendered while a political conflict went undisclosed. Rule 201 permits this Court to judicially notice the public facts of his reappointment, the Judicial Conference's mandatory conflict-screening policy, and Senator Schumer's documented role in judicial nominations and reappointments. These facts show a failure to perform required screening under a non-discretionary ethics regime, which cannot be waived and renders the underlying rulings constitutionally defective.

Plaintiff is entitled to a process free from structural bias. The concealment of the Schumer voting bloc's influence and failure to trigger automated conflict checks are violations of both judicial policy and fundamental due process, warranting immediate redress under FRCP 60(b) (6) and enforcement of disclosure under FRCP 26.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Take judicial notice under FRE 201 of:

○ The 2006 Judicial Conference mandatory conflict-screening policy.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->○ <!--[endif]-->The political structure and public documentation showing the Schumer bloc's role in Judge Lehrburger's reappointment.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->○ <!--[endif]-->The nonexistence of any disclosed recusal or screening based on these facts.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Compel production of any screening logs, disclosures, or memoranda relating to Judge Lehrburger's reappointment and potential conflicts with any parties or attorneys in this matter.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Order full disclosure of any political or institutional participants in Judge Lehrburger's reappointment process.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->Stay proceedings pending the Court's investigation and resolution of the judicial conflict.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->5. <!--[endif]-->Vacate all orders or recommendations issued by Judge Lehrburger under FRCP 60(b)(6) as structurally compromised.

6. <!--[endif]-->Grant all other relief that this Court deems just and proper.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Plaintiff hereby moves this Court pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Your Honor ignored my Monell claims, prevented Ms. Peterson from testifying and other items, but Mr. Brown and the UFT cannot escape the fact that Law Dept must agree, and update personnel rules found in the NYC Admin Codes and found in the Chater for NYC.

I want the Court to take notice that it has allowed the UFT to commit any crimes

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743--motion for intrinsic fraud to support discovery under Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997)
Date: Monday, May 19, 2025 5:40:50 PM

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO RULE 60(b)(6) for intrinsic and extrinsic fraud—which relates to the audio of Randi paying Judge Marrero, which he said is a crime and I believe the crime falls under 18 USC § 371

---

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of his motion for relief under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6). The motion is predicated on clear evidence of intrinsic fraud committed by the presiding judge, which has fatally compromised the impartiality of the proceedings and denied Plaintiff due process. These extraordinary circumstances warrant vacatur and further proceedings.

I believe—which I could be wrong—the difference between civil and criminal issue of “cherry picking, distorting facts and or willful ignoring fact is the group agreeing to act of one goal, which is ‘concealing the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten, Judge Engelmayer, and Judge Cogan” in my case with all those who have aided them in covering up 300 crimes. As always, my opinion has no value

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6) authorizes courts to relieve a party from a final judgment for “any other reason that justifies relief.” The Supreme Court has emphasized that this catchall provision is intended for exceptional circumstances not addressed by other subsections. See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988); Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524, 535 (2005).

Relief under Rule 60(b)(6) is especially appropriate where judicial misconduct or bias undermines the structural fairness of proceedings. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997).

II. INTRINSIC FRAUD WARRANTS RULE 60(b)(6) RELIEF

Intrinsic fraud involves misconduct occurring during the judicial proceeding itself, including:[1]

<!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Fabrication or falsification of findings;

<!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Suppression or distortion of evidence in the record;

<!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Collaboration with an interested party;

<!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Misuse of discretion to conceal unlawful conduct.

This type of misconduct was historically distinguished from extrinsic fraud in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (1878). Although intrinsic fraud alone may not always justify Rule 60(b)(3) relief, courts have recognized that when it forms part of a larger constitutional violation or structural due process breach, it may justify relief under Rule 60(b)(6). See also Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

III. STRUCTURAL DUE PROCESS VIOLATIONS COMPOUND THE HARM

In Bracy, the Supreme Court allowed discovery where a judge's pattern of partiality in unrelated cases raised concerns of structural bias. Here, Plaintiff was subjected to:

<!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Rulings unsupported by fact or law;

<!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Omission of controlling precedent;

<!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Concealment of exculpatory facts or evidence;

<!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Suppression of motions and denial of discovery.

These defects, viewed collectively, deprived Plaintiff of a neutral and impartial tribunal. Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), emphasized that due process is violated where judicial bias creates even the appearance of unfairness.

IV. EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFY VACATUR

A litigant is entitled to relief when a judge's misconduct compromises the appearance and reality of justice. Here, the judge's conduct was not merely erroneous but indicative of systemic abuse—undermining the finality of judgment. Rule 60(b)(6) exists precisely for such circumstances. See Ackermann v. United States, 340 U.S. 193 (1950); Liljeberg, 486 U.S. at 864.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

<!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Grant the Rule 60(b)(6) motion;

<!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Vacate the judgment;

<!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Permit factual development of Plaintiff's claims through discovery;

<!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Grant all other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
